We have just received a fresh shipment of the celebrated Norris candy, which is second to none on the market.

B. Timmons.

Miss Pauline Byrd has accepted a school near Laurens for the ensuing year. Miss Pauline is one of the best teachers in the county. For the past five years she has taught the school at Limestone.

Rev. E. C. Bailey, of Edgefield, has been preaching for the Presbyterians in the Methodist church this week. Beginning Sunday he preached two sermons each day through Thursday. The attendance has been very good.—Saluda Standard.

Mr. Charles R. Dobson of Atlanta spent Saturday and Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Emma Dobson. His two children are with their grandmother. The eldest child, a bright little fellow of nine, is attending the Edgefield graded school.

Mr. Geo. F. Mims attended the annual meeting of the South Carolina Optical association which was held in Columbia Tuesday. For the past five years Mr. Mims has served as secretary of the association. He stands in the very front rank of his profession in the state.

In spite of the very unfavorable year for growing corn, some of the yields from the prize acres will be very satisfactory. Surely with a favorable year, such as we hope next year will be, some one will reach the 150-bushel mark. We shall not be satisfied until the record of Edgefield county compares favorably with the leading corn growing counties of the state.

The popular store of Smith-Marsh Company has two advertisements in this issue calling especial attention to the shoe department and the ladies' suit department. Certainly the ladies will not supply their needs without first visiting this popular store and inspecting their stylish offerings. Surely the most exacting taste can be suited. Their prices are very reasonable.

Dr. F. M. Routh delivered a very instructive address in the court house Tuesday evening on the bookworm disease. He is very anxious for a larger number of people, especially school children, to meet him in the court house every Saturday. The other sections of the county, as shown by Dr. Routh's report in this issue, are taking more interest than are those at the county seat. This should not be the case.

Hussars Invited.

Maj. R. S. Anderson who is managing the tournament that is to be given at the county fair extends an invitation to all who were members of the Edgefield Hussars years ago. They participated in the tournaments that were then held in Edgefield and Maj. Anderson is very anxious for some of the veteran riders to compete with the young men in the tournament that has been planned for the fair. Maj. Anderson says the success of the tournament is already assured.

Baby and Chrysanthemum Show.

The School Improvement Association of Edgefield is planning to hold for the benefit of the organization, a baby show on the last Friday in October, and in connection with this they will also have a chrysanthemum exhibit. There is no more laudable undertaking than this one to make the school room and grounds more attractive for our children, and we hope this show will meet with great financial success. Let everybody co-operate with unselfish endeavor.

May-Ouzts.

A surprise wedding of much interest to their many friends was that of Mrs. B. F. May to Mr. W. M. Ouzts, of Kirksey, yesterday afternoon at five o'clock. The wedding was a quiet home affair, the ceremony being performed by Dr. J. Q. Adams, and witnessed by only relatives and a few friends. The bride and groom left immediately for Kirksey, the home of Mr. Ouzts.—Greenwood Index.

The Advertiser extends sincere congratulations and hearty good wishes to these friends of Greenwood county. Both of them have a host of warm personal friends in the old mother county.

U. D. C. Meeting.

The first fall meeting of the U. D. C. was held yesterday (Tuesday) afternoon at the residence of Mrs. A. E. Padgett. Although a business meeting, there was a very interesting historical program carried out, Mrs. Agatha Woodson presiding in the absence of the president. Several matters of business were discussed, and it was decided to have float in the county fair parade. Interesting papers were read by Mrs. J. W. Peak and Mrs. B. E. Nicholson, the latter being an original paper prepared by Mrs. Nicholson on the coast defense of Charleston. At the close of the program, the hostess, Mrs. Padgett, served a delightful and elaborate salad course with ice tea.

Master's Sales.

The first Monday crowd in Edgefield was unusually small for October, consequently the attendance upon the public land sales was also small. The following is the record of the sales:

The Warren Smith land, 35 acres, was purchased by Mr. W. D. Holland for $590.

The Athrur Jackson tract of 43 acres, was bought by Mr. A. E. Padgett for $150.

The livery stable in the town of Edgefield of Messrs. B. L. Jones & Son was purchased by Mr. B. L. Jones for $2,100.

The Gallman land was sold as follows by O. Sheppard, executor: tract No. 1, 77 acres, to Mr. E. H. Arthur for $885. Tract No. 2, 78 acres, sold to W. W. Adams for $1,085.

Meeting at the Springfield Colored Baptist Church.

Editor The Advertiser:

Please allow me space in your most worthy Journal to speak of the happenings in and around our little town. The union meeting of the third division of the colored Baptists was held at Flint Hill Baptist church on the fifth Sunday last of which Rev. W. M. Peterson is the moderator. The meeting was a most excellent one and everything passed off quietly. We are forced to believe that the colored people of this county are fast learning how to respect themselves, and we are glad because as soon as they learn this they will know how to respect and revere the white people also. While the services at the union meeting were about to close even though we had been bountifully blessed with preaching as well as many good speeches we had listened to, a thrilling message came to us that if it would be suitable, that the Rev. Mr. Lake a great missionary from China. (Mr. John Lake) would preach at Springfield Baptist church. An immense crowd left the union meeting and came forward to hear this noble man of God. The gathering was an astonishing sight for this was the first night gathering that we have had at Springfield Baptist church (colored) in 19 years, and while the house was completely packed from center to circumference, this was before that spotless divine had arrived, Rev. Lake. We reserved about one fourth of the church room for our white friends to be seated. Among the worshippers came the Hon. W. A. Strom and family, Dr. J. H. Self and family, Mr. J. T. Ouzts and family and other honored white friends of which space will not admit me to mention, and of course this is not out of the ordinary for we always have our white friends with us when it comes to a religious gathering. At this time the Rev. Mr. Lake arrived and was introduced by Rev. W. M. Peterson in a very heightened way to the audience.

Rev. Mr. Lake arose and prefaced his discourse and read as a lesson the 55th chapter of the prophecy of Isaiah, and then proceeded to preach, using as a text the 6, 7, 8 verses of the preceding chapter. The Dr. was at his best and like a Cicero, and with the eloquence of a Webster and the mellifluous language of a Chinaman took the audience on his wings of eloquence and flew back to great cities of China and then darted almost out of space touching upon that peaceful Pacific on which he had sailed for many days, and he closed amid many hearty applauses, then clasping the hands of many of his colored friends, they desired to hear him sing a song in the Chinese language which he and his devoted wife proceeded to do closing amid cheers, after which we had the benediction by the Rev. Mr. Lake.
