Teachers of Edgefield County.

The management of our county fair have given us a school day for that interesting occasion. It is our purpose to have a great parade made up from the public schools of Edgefield county, and we want every school large and small, to be represented. Each school can get up an attractive wagon and come in a body. Have the name of your school conspicuously placed upon your wagon. There will be two prizes, first, $10; second, $5, for the two making the most creditable showing. We hope to have our state superintendent take part with us in this parade on Friday. All get busy and let us show the public what our schools are. I shall be glad to hear from every teacher.

Resolutions on Death of Mrs. Hammond.

Whereas, it has pleased God to remove from our midst our co-worker, sister Alva Hammond.
 Whereas, by her death we as a society feel that we have sustained an irreparable loss. But we believe our father doeth all things well, He maketh no mistakes. Therefore be it resolved,
 1st, That we bow in humble submission to His will,
 2nd, That we extend to her loved ones our heart-felt sympathies,
 3rd, That by her sweet generous nature she will be greatly missed,
 4th, That a page in our minute book be dedicated to her memory, and a copy of these resolutions be sent her family and a copy sent The Edgefield Advertiser.
 Mrs. Fannie Griffiths,
 Mrs. Mattie Kendrick,
 Mrs. Allie Timmerman,
 Committee.

Notice of Final Discharge.

To all whom these presents may concern:
 Whereas, J. H. Courtney has made application unto this court for final discharge as executor in re the estate of Dr. J. B. Courtney of Edgefield county, deceased, on this the 22nd day of October 1912.
 These are therefore, to cite any all kindred, creditors, or parties interested, to show cause before me at my office at Edgefield court house, South Carolina, on the 25th day of November 1912 at 11 o'clock a. m., why said order of Discharge should not be granted.

Ought to Paint.

I ought to have painted last year, but I hated to pay $2.25 a gallon. I've got to paint this year; it'll take a little more paint; I suppose 1 gallon in 10; and a little more work, I suppose 1 day in 10.
 My job would have cost last year about $52.50; it is going to cost this year $57.75.
 $6.25. I suppose it'll be the same again, if I wait again.
 What if paint goes down to $2 a gallon? $2.50 on the job!
 I shan't wait; what a fool I was! The Edgefield Mercantile Company sells it.

Come to The Fair.

We earnestly beg the farmers of the county to give us a good agricultural display, anything from a mustard seed to a thousand-pound pumpkin, anything that grows on your farm. Three liberal prizes will be given for the best display of farm produce. Parties wishing space will notify the manager.
 The participants in the tournament will use sabers instead of lances. The young men of the county are invited to join us. Sabers will be furnished on the ground. There will be three prizes.
 R. S. Anderson.

Baby Show Announcement.

The Advertiser has been requested to announce that the baby show for the benefit of the school improvement association will be held in the library rooms Friday afternoon, November 1. Price of admission 10 cents. Light refreshments will be sold. Those contributing flowers and other things are requested to send them to the library Friday morning, when they will be received by ladies who will assist the teachers.

Do Not Confuse The Two.

Friday afternoon, November 1, the teachers of the graded school, aided by some other ladies of the town, will hold a baby show in the rooms of the library for the purpose of raising money to improve the interior of the graded school building. As one of the most attractive features of the county fair, the committee of ladies who have charge of the parades are planning for a baby carriage parade in the arena at the fair grounds. As the two will not conflict in any particular, the mothers of Edgefield should have their babies participate in both, the baby show in the library and in the parade two weeks later at the fair grounds.

Death of Sterling Red Hill Citizen.

Another grave has been added to the Red Hill cemetery, a flower-laden mound marking the last resting place of Mr. George Johnson who died early Sunday night. The funeral was held Monday afternoon, being conducted by Rev. J. T. Littlejohn.
 Mr. Johnson was in his 54th year. During most of this time he was a strong, active, busy man. Busy not only about his private interests but he participated in everything that contributed to the upbuilding of his community. For many months Mr. Johnson has been a great sufferer but he bore the ills of the flesh patiently. The stubborn malady made steady inroads upon his strength in spite of the best medical skill and the constant ministrations of loved ones. Although he will be absent in body the influence of this good man will live on and on in the Red Hill community. He was an active Christian and endeavored to lead an exemplary life. Mr. Johnson was a member of Red Hill church from early boyhood.
 He is survived by his son, Mr. Rufus Johnson, with whom he resided, and by one daughter, Mrs. Frank Graves, who lives in Lincoln county, Georgia.

Civil Court.

Since Monday morning the following cases have been disposed of on the civil side of the court:
 Mrs. Sallie Robertson who brought suit against the Western Union Telegraph Company for alleged damages resulting from the delay in delivering a telegram was awarded a verdict in the sum of $375. The defendant was represented by Capt. N. G. Evans and Hon. John Gary Evans, and the plaintiff by Thurmond & Nicholson.
 A non-suit was ordered by the court in the action brought by John Wilbur Talbert of McCormick to recover damages from the C & W C Railroad in the sum of $30,000 which were alleged to have resulted from injuries received while entering the city of Augusta. Mr. Talbert was standing on the step of the car when hurt and the court ruled that he contributed to his own injury. Mr. Talbert was represented by Thurmond & Nicholson and the road by Sheppard Bros. and F. Bar-on Grier, Esq., of the Greenwood bar.
 In the suit of the Aikahest Lyceum Bureau against Y. M. May et al a verdict of $75 was awarded the plaintiff. Thurmond & Nicholson represented the defendants and W. P. Calhoun, Esq., the plaintiff.
 As we go to press Wednesday the court is engaged with the suit of Mr. H. T. Holston against John Bush to recover 23 acres of land. The plaintiff is represented by Thurmond & Nicholson and the defendant by Sheppard Bros.

CHURCH NOTICES

Special Rally Day exercises will be held at the Baptist Sunday school Sunday morning. An attractive program, including special music, has been arranged. At the close of the Sunday school Dr. M. D. Jeffries will preach a sermon to the children.

Fourth quarterly conference for Edgefield and Trenton will be held by Rev. W. M. Dunoon, presiding elder of Columbia district, at Trenton on Monday morning, October 28, at 11 o'clock. Let every official of these churches and officers of all organizations be present with good reports.

Trenton is already planning for the great event of the dedication of the Methodist church on second Sunday morning in November at 11:30 o'clock. That Sunday is preaching day at Baptist and Episcopal churches, but these congregations will unite in the dedication service. The pastors and congregations of these churches and of the Presbyterian are all cordially invited to be present.

It is probable that there will be dinner on the grounds and an afternoon service. Visitors from a distance are also cordially invited.

PAINT NOW.

If you ought to have painted last year and waited for paint to come down, how much do you think you made?
 You'll buy an extra gallon this year. There's $5 or $6 for paint and labor. You think you want, but you will; you can't stretch paint.
 It is always so: the longer you wait, the more paint and wages. Besides what paint is for. What is it for. The Edgefield Mercantile Company sells it.

Notice of Executrix Sale of Land.

By virtue of the power conferred upon me, in and by the Will of the late Mrs. Caroline E. Williams, I will sell at public outcry, at Edgefield, S. C., on the 1st Monday in November, 1912, during the legal hours of sale, all of that tract of land, containing 95 and 57-100 acres, being a portion of the home place of the said Mrs. Caroline E. Williams-deceased, and bounded by part of said home place, by land of Mrs. Susan D. Strom, Mrs. J. C. Maysor and by land of Milton and Harvard Walker.
 This land is situate about six miles from the Town of Edgefield, and is well timbered and adapted to all crops grown in this section.
 Terms of Sale: One-half cash and the balance on a credit of one year, with interest from date of sale, the credit portion to be secured by the bond and mortgage of the purchaser, said bond and mortgage to provide for ten per cent. attorneys fees, if collected through an Attorney. Papers extra.
 Mrs. M. Victoria Hart,
 Executrix.

Notice of Auction Sale of Land.

I will have sold at public outcry, at Edgefield, South Carolina, on the first Monday in November A. D., 1912, during the legal hours of sale, all of that tract of land known as Mrs. S. E. Hardisty's place, containing 70 acres.
 This place is on the public road about one mile below Roper's Cross Roads and contains an abundant supply of wood and is well watered, having two running streams to pass through it. This land is well adapted to corn and cotton and would also make a fine dairy farm.
 Terms of sale cash. Papers extra.

 Statesboro, Ga.

"Is The Young Man Safe?"

The above is the text of last Sunday's sermon in the Presbyterian church by the Rev. E. C. Bailey.
 Having given the history of David the father, and Absalom, the son, whose life depicted in the downfall, had promised such a bright future, the speaker proceeded to show when a young woman and young man is not safe, but in great danger. He showed that David was truly penitent of his sins, but penitence did not save him from suffering the consequences of the sins of his youth; for he reaped an harvest of sorrow in the life of his favorite child, Absalom. No one can read the 18th chapter of 2nd Samuel said he, without being solemnly impressed with the fact that fathers and mothers reap in their children what they sowed in their youth; and that we would all meet our lives either in this world or in the next. He said that all of the sorrows of life were insignificant compared with the disgrace brought upon us by our children; that there were many forces to drag the youth of the land into hell; that the ambition of a bad person was to get others on their level; and that to such persons nothing is sacred. He said David was anxious about this child because he knew what this child inherited from the parents, and was somewhat anticipating trouble, as a result. "Men do not gather grapes of thorns" neither can a Godless parent expect good children, without the interposition of grace. Many parents of this county will repeat the sad wail of David for a way-

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
 Adds Healthful Qualities to the Food

Prof. Prescott, of the University of Michigan, testified before the Pure Food Committee of Congress, that the acid of grapes held highest rank as an article of food and he regarded the results from baking with cream of tartar baking powder as favorable to health.

Royal is the only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar.

anity is a diploma signifying that we are in the school of Christ.

The speaker discussed with earnestness, pro and con, the following topics, showing the innocency and the guilt connected with them; namely, the old and the new card party; the old and the new dance; the old and the new home party; is closed and the voice of prayer never heard. They are not free from danger in some house parties; not free from danger visiting the homes of people in the summer who have written all over them interrogation marks, and in some instances, exclamations of horror that a parent would allow his or her child to visit such a "staying place." Unreadable books fill the world, and bad company are dragging our youth to the bad. One of the great curses of the age is following the fashions, which are hatched in the lowest place on the face of the globe. He touched both on the style and quantity of the dress of the age; the masculined women, said he, is one of the curses of this age. 'Sow it said he, but it will come back with double measure at that period of life when most you need rest and comfort. The church was crowded and the attention undivided as the congregation breathed amen in many places. There are those who will differ with the speaker upon certain points, doubtless, but the message was freighted with meaning to those who must live in their children.

Standing by the entrance of a large estate in the suburbs of Glasgow are two huge dogs carved out of granite. An Englishman, going by in a hack, thought he would have some fun with the Scotch driver.
 "How often, Jack, do they feed those two big dogs?"
 "Whenever they bark, sir," was the straight-faced reply.

ward child; but tears and anguish cannot blot out the past. Now, said the speaker, when is a young person safe? I do not answer this in a professional way, when I say, Christianity alone can secure the safety of the child. Morality is only a certificate that denotes proficiency along some lines, while Christi-

Seasonable Implements

We invite the farmers of Edgefield county to call and inspect our 3-horse disc plows and our pony disk plows, the latter does excellent work and can be easily drawn by 2 horses. The season for deep plowing is now on. Better come to see us at once.

We also want you to see our disc harrows and stalk cutters. Every well equipped farm should be supplied with these implements. Quit worrying with wood when you can have grates put in your fireplaces for a small sum. Come in and see our big line of grates. We also carry a big assortment of heaters. Just the thing you need for your dining room. They give a quick fire and are altogether satisfactory.

It will be a pleasure for us to show you all of these goods.
