Residence, No. 17.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 1, 1913

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Capt. Claude E. Sawyer of Aiken spent several days last week here with his sister, Mrs. L. B. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Parker, accompanied by their children, spent several days last week in Parksville with Hon. and Mrs. T. G. Talbert.

Married, by G. W. Bussey at the bride's home near Modoc Dec. 22, Mr. Jasper McDaniel and Miss Estelle Reese.

Congressman James F. Byrnes paid a hurried visit to his Edgefield friends last week, being the guest of Mr. J. P. Ouzts while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Tillman of Greenwood visited Mrs. Tillman's aunt, Mrs. Mary J. Norris, last Thursday.

Mr. James W. Thompson of Southport, N. C., has joined Mrs. Thompson and their children here for a few days.

Dr. F. P. Byrd of Batesburg came up and spent a portion of the holidays here with his brothers, Mr. W. A. and Dr. J. S. Byrd.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Fair of Atlanta spent the early part of last week in Edgefield with Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Brunson and Miss Kellah Fair.

Mrs. J. S. Byrd and little Fitzmaurice will return to-day from Columbia where they have been spending the Yuletide with Mr. and Mrs. John Fitzmaurice.

The regular monthly meeting of the U. D. C. will be held at the home of Mrs. James E. Hart Tuesday afternoon, January 7, at 3:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Marsh of Johnston and Mrs. Bouknight of Alabama spent Thursday in Edgefield as guests of Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Bailey.

Mr. James O. Sheppard who is now on the staff of the Columbia Record visited his parents, Ex-Gov. and Mrs. John C. Sheppard during the holidays.

Mr. R. L. Walker visited his sister, Mrs. J. R. Cantelou, last week. Mr. Walker is a musician of considerable renown and is conducting a private music school in Macon very successfully.

The Stork has been busy in and around Edgefield as well as Santa Claus. Among the homes visited just before the holidays by this ubiquitous bird was that of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Byrd, leaving another little son to the fond parents.

Mr. Edgar Roper visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. H. P. Roper during the past week. He holds a responsible position in the freight department of the Southern railroad, being located in the office in Columbia.

Major and Mrs. T. J. Lyon have returned from their wedding journey to Washington, New York and other northern cities. They will occupy the beautiful cottage which Maj. Lyon has just erected near the college.

"Agency Reo Motor Cars: We are looking for a good live dealer to handle Reo the Fifth in this County, and have a money making proposition for the right man. Previous experience not essential. Gibbes Machinery Company, Distributors, Columbia, S. C."

Mr. Henry Medlock has been among the holiday visitors in Edgefield. Notwithstanding the fact that he confines his attentions to a very limited number of friends here, he is always very cordially greeted by his host of Edgefield friends.

Mr. William A. Edmunds has been spending the holiday season here with his parents and has been cordially welcomed by his friends. He holds a position with the Mullins Enterprise. At one time Mr. Edmunds was a member of The Advertiser force.

Messrs. Julian and Charlie Key were among the home-comers for the holidays, spending several days here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Key. These two young men have reflected credit upon Edgefield since going out from among us to seek their fortune in a larger field. Both of them hold lucrative positions in Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Mallory, of Georgetown, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Harling recently.

Mrs. George W. Bussey, Jr., has been spending the past week here with her mother, Mrs. Mary Waes.

Mrs. Mack Davis, of Belden, Miss., accompanied by her three little children, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Schenk.

Rev. and Mrs. P. H. Bussey are visiting relatives here and in the county. They will leave to-morrow for their home near Hartsville.

Miss May Roper spent a part of the holidays with a friend in Bamberg. She and this young lady who is now married taught in the same school for two or three sessions.

As a token of appreciation for her faithfulness as organist, the members of the Baptist church presented Mrs. Mamie N. Tillman with a purse of $50 Christmas morning.

Mr. A. N. Jeffries came home from the University of Tennessee to spend his Christmas vacation here with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. M. D. Jeffries.

Mr. A. C. Hart who has been making his home in McColl, S. C., for the past several years spent several days here last week with his father and brothers.

Mr. Henry Kenney of Belden, Miss., is visiting his sister, Mrs. J. N. Schenk. This is the first time Mr. Kenney has returned to Edgefield since he left to make his home in Mississippi 27 years ago.

Santa Claus made a priceless gift to Mr. and Mrs. James H. Tompkins—a beautiful little daughter who bears the name of her saintly paternal grandmother, Emmie Dozier Tompkins.

Cupid as well as Santa Claus has been exceedingly rushed during the holiday season. Mr. W. T. Kinnaird, the judge of probate, has issued 52 marriage licenses during the month of December. Since the first of last January 230 have been issued.

Mr. W. W. Sheppard returned to Dayton, Ohio, after spending the holidays here with the home folks. He holds a position with the National Cash Register company, and will probably soon leave for South America to look after the company's interests down there.

Death of Mr. W. D. Ramey.

After an illness of about a month, Mr. W. D. Ramey died Tuesday afternoon, the news having reached The Advertiser office just before the hour of going to press Wednesday morning. Mr. Ramey was a lawyer by profession and filled the position of United States Commissioner for Edgefield county for about 30 years. He served in the Confederate army during the entire four years of the war and those who were intimately associated with Mr. Ramey state that he made a faithful and brave soldier. He has always taken an active interest in all matters pertaining to the Lost Cause and to the surviving veterans. He was in his 71st year.

The funeral and interment will take place this afternoon at the village cemetery.

Mims-Hill.

Edgefield has been the scene of an unusual number of interesting marriages previous to, and during the holiday season. One of the most beautiful home weddings was that of Miss Martha Hughes Mims to Mr. Henry Hughes Hill, at the home of the bride's father, Mr. James T. Mims on the afternoon of December 26.

The color scheme was green and white, and as the bridal party descended the stairs, hundreds of candles gave a mystic glow to the scene of beauty. Preceding the bride were the following young ladies: Misses Heart Carmichael and Sarah Nicholson, Miss Madge Mays, and Ellie Fortson, the latter being a cousin of the bride and a most beautiful and gifted lady of Elberton Ga., Misses Lura Mims and Lillian Nicholson, Misses Katherine Mims and Maria Hill. Immediately preceding the bride came the maid of honor, Miss Sophie Mims in a beautiful gown of white satin with trimmings of gold lace with American Beauty roses. Then came the bride on the arm of her brother, Mr. Lovick Mims. She wore an elaborate dress of white satin en train and her veil caught up with a beautiful spray of orange blossoms.

Miss Elizabeth Rainsford played the wedding march. The groom with his best man, Dr. Rhett Nicholson, met the bridal party at the end of the hall, where the marriage ceremony was solemnly pronounced by Dr. M. D. Jeffries.

An elaborate salad course was served followed by Charlotte Russe and fruit cake. The presents were numerous and handsome, consisting of silverware, cut glass, linen and furniture.

After the festivities of the evening were over Mr. and Mrs. Hill went to their future home at Breeze Hill. On the following day, a family reunion took place at Breeze Hill, in honor of the occasion.

News Items From Moss.

Editor Advertiser: Please allow us a few dots from this side, our P. O. (Moss) is slowly but surely coming on up the line, we hope at the expiration of three months Uncle Sam will give our P. M. a permanent job.

The Xmas holidays are closing out fast, long to be remembered by the little ones, and we older ones too, for tis our duty to set Xmas examples worthy of future considerations as parents, and leading them to walk in a religious path.

We were invited to dinner at Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Thomas last Saturday among the guests were the Bartleys, Stroms, Christies, McDowels and Mrs. Ben Thomas and family. To say the occasion was an enjoyable one is but a mild way to express it. The dinner was just as good as the Kings ever ate. Mrs. Thomas watched over us with such marked attention, that not only made us feel welcome, but our minds wondered why such occasions as time goes by slips the memory of the little folks.

Grain, grain, all along the roads (and the best land) you see nothing but grain, surely we can feed our stock later off without going west.

Mr. George Strom has been quite sick, but glad to report he is getting to himself again.

Well Mr. Editor if you can slip in a word for our P. O., we would appreciate it.

Wishing you a happy New Year we beg to be

(Mr.) Moss.

Holiday Happenings in and Around Trenton.

Christmas with its festivities has past very quietly but altogether pleasant. For the young folks it has been a season of amusements of various kinds. The cares of the business life are laid aside and the spirit of the season has been entered into most heartily. So far, we have learned of no sad accident and for this we are thankful.

Our boys and girls attending college all arrived at home and have enjoyed the holidays with the home folks.

Mr. P. L. Wright, now professor of mathematics at Winston-Salem is spending a few days with relatives.

Miss Kathleen Wright of the Sumner graded school faculty is at home.

Miss Helen Salter, who is teaching at Greenville, is at home for the holidays.

Mr. J. C. Long spent a part of the holidays in Florida.

Mr. H. C. Tillman and family, of Greenwood are spending a few days at Senator Tillman's.

Mr. Geo. W. Ryan of Augusta spent Sunday with his mother.

Senator Tillman and Mrs. Tillman will leave the latter part of the week for Washington.

Mr. B. Knight and family will leave this week for Washington.

A new mercantile firm under the name of Black and Bush will be ready for business in a few days.

Miss Roseva Harrison, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Harrison will be married tomorrow (Tuesday) evening to Mr. Frank Herlong of Brownsdate, Ga. Both of these young people are very popular in the community. Miss Harrison has made quite a success as music teacher here and has charmed many an audience with her sweet singing. Mr. Herlong is the son of Mr. M. H. Herlong and until recently was one of our Trenton boys. He is now doing a promising mercantile business in Georgia.

School will open next Monday.

We all join in best wishes for year of prosperity for the old Advertiser. We admire the stand you have always taken for the right, and we trust that the good results of your work will continue to live through the years.

Morgan-Berrett.

Immediately after service at the Plum Branch Baptist church Sunday, Dec. 22nd, Mr. Dempsie E. Morgan and Miss Lucy E. Barrett, both of Parksville, were married at the parsonage by the pastor, Rev. J. Earle Freeman. A brother of the bride, and a brother, a sister, and a cousin of the groom, came with them, while quite a number of Plum Branch friends gathered to witness the happy occasion.

And the wedding bells will jingle again not many days hence.

Jones Lyon.

Thursday morning, December 26, Miss Robbie Jones and Mr. T. P. Lyon were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. S. D. Jones. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. T. Littlejohn. Immediately after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Lyon drove to Edgefield and boarded the train for Augusta, where they spent several days as guests of relatives. The Advertiser joins a host of friends in extending sincere congratulations to these widely beloved young people, in both of whom we feel a very kindly and affectionate interest.

Dixie Chapter Reception.

One of the most delightful social events of the holiday season was the reception that was given Friday evening, December 27, at the home of Mrs. James E. Hart by the members of the Dixie chapter auxiliary to the U. D. C. The front parlors and hall were beautifully decorated with Southern smilax with a generous intermingling of holly and mistletoe. In the hall delicious punch was served in Japanese style, the young ladies who dispensed the amber beverage being clad in Japanese costumes and stood beneath an enormous Japanese umbrella.

The program consisted of music and several unique contests. The first was an advertisement contest. A large number of advertisements were clipped from current issues of the newspapers and magazines and were pasted upon the lace curtains in the parlor. Each guest was given pencil and paper with instructions to write the names of the advertisers or articles advertised as suggested by the numbered advertisements that were pinned to the curtains. Miss Maud Rives and Mr. Willie Adams supplied correct names to the largest number of advertisements and were awarded the prize. The annual receptions of the Dixie chapter are always thoroughly enjoyed by the young people of the town, consequently they are looked forward to with eager anticipations. At the conclusion of the contests the hostess served a salad course with cake.

Men's Inhumanity to Man.

Some men, when they are arrested on a serious charge, are sent to jail. Others, like one in New York, fare much worse. The magistrate told his wife to take him home and tell him what she thought of him.—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

Church Notices

Preaching in Presbyterian church Sunday night at Trenton.

Preaching in the Presbyterian church Sunday at 11:15 by the pastor.

Nicholson will conduct prayer meeting in the Methodist church Thursday night at 7:30.

Royal Baking Powder Absolutely Pure

The Woman Makes the Home

She makes it best who, looking after the culinary department, turns her back resolutely upon unhealthful, or even suspicious, food accessories. She is economical; she knows that true economy does not consist in the use of inferior meat, flour, or baking powder. She is an earnest advocate of home made, home baked food, and has proved the truth of the statements of the experts that the best cooking in the world today is done with Royal Baking Powder.
