The residence of Mr. B. L. Jones on Jeter street caught fire about noon Friday but was extinguished before any very serious damage was done. The roof caught from a spark from the stove flue. The loss was covered by insurance.

Sunday morning communion service was conducted at Johnston in the Presbyterian church and Mr. Bailey preached Sunday night in Ridge Spring to a large and attentive audience.

It is with deep regret that Edgefield gives up Mr. W. C. Strom and his family. He has resigned his position with the Corner Store and has accepted a position in the largest mercantile establishment in McCormick. The play that is being arranged, "The face at the window," by the members of the Dixie auxiliary is certain to make a hit. These young ladies will make a grand success of their entertainment to be given early in April.

Supervisor A. A. Edmunds has a very meaty article in this issue that should be read and pondered by the taxpayers. The new supervisor is making good rapidly. The Advertiser receives favorable reports from different sections of the county concerning the work he is doing on the public roads.

Persons who have either thoughtlessly or maliciously changed the reading of notices that were posted in the post office so as to pervert their meaning had better take heed. Such acts are distinct violations of the United States laws and the guilty persons if apprehended will suffer the penalty of the law. A word of warning should be sufficient.

Dear school children, do not fail to let your names accompany your school letters. The Advertiser received a newsy, neatly written letter this week from the Colliers school but we could not publish it because no name accompanied it. Another thing, always send your letters in early. Occasionally the letters are received too late for publication.

Save Your State Coupons.
Please save your State coupons, subscriptions and renewals for me, you will find a box for receiving coupons at either of the drug stores or at Smith-Marsh's store. Send subscriptions to me at Johnston, S. C., give to Dr. Marsh or save until I can see you. Your kindness will be appreciated. Thanking you very much.
Theodore S. Marsh.

A Statement From Supervisor Edmunds.

To the People of Edgefield County:

Having read the able charge of Judge Bowman to the grand jury and the presentment of the grand jury of Edgefield county and after "ruminating thereupon," as Bill Arp would say, I feel it my duty as an officer of said county to give an account of myself.

First, let me state that I have divided the handful of prisoners left between Mr. G. P. Sawyer and Mr. M. A. Walker. Mr. Sawyer is stationed at Shaw's Mill while Mr. Walker is at Republican church. Since Christmas we have had five convicts, whose time have expired and two who have been pardoned and we only got two out of the March court. So you can see that some other means of working public roads and doing public work will have to be resorted to if this state of affairs continues.

I had already visited the bridges mentioned by the grand jury and am already making arrangements for their repairs. I note the grand jury's resolution to widen roads. It is and has been my purpose to start two gangs. One to doing emergency work over county and the other to commence to widen roads beginning at county seat and going out for a few miles and then at other towns in county doing the same. But I fancy there will be several Supervisors to follow me before all the roads in the county will be widened with present system and the present facilities for working.

With the conditions that exist in Edgefield county to-day it will only be a short time before we will not have any chain gang at all. Just one day last week one of our best working prisoners was pardoned and there are petitions in existence for the pardon for three or four more that I know of.

Now why is this? Is it because people believe the prisoners are being ill treated and poorly fed? If so, I invite them to the camp to see for themselves. Or is it because the people are short of labor in their fields, and that is their only resort to get hands?

Just a few suggestions and I will close this rigamarole. First, let me suggest that the people in the different communities cultivate and manifest more public spirit like the people of lower Meriwether have done in the past two weeks. By coming together and helping to improve their roads free of charge.

Second, That the white people of the county will assist the Supervisor by finding gullies in their fields in which to dump their trash, brush, briars, logs and rocks, instead of in the road ditches, thereby filling up their own gullies and setting an example to the more ignorant race, because every white man ought to know that it is against the law.

Third, Let we office holders of Edgefield county be more particular in the purchase of supplies for our office and only purchase such as we are obliged to have—and in giving out matters for publication that we comply strictly with the law.

Fourth, That the grand jurors and citizens of Edgefield county can well, in as much as we have an extra officer to pay $60.00 per month, that they assist this officer by notifying the Sheriff of any lawlessness that may be going on in their community, and not, if the sheriff or deputy should happen along, to point them to some lawlessness going on "over yonder" when the same lawlessness is going on, in their own community, probably on their own plantation and they are aware of it.

Fifth, Let the people who have heretofore cursed and abused his excellency, Gov. Bleasor for pardoning prisoners cease to "cuss" the governor while they have petitions in their own pockets for pardons for criminals themselves.

Sixth, Let the merchants of Edgefield county be more particular in taking mortgages of stock that has already been mortgaged, or does not exist, thereby encouraging lawlessness, and then failing to see that the criminals are punished instead of settling it other ways. These are a few of the many suggestions that I would like to make. But for fear that I am trying the patience of the public I will close with one more suggestion.

That everybody who is entitled to pay road tax will do so, as this is the last week in which they can pay. After this week I will begin to warn delinquents, and will continue to do so throughout the year. Where they fail to work I will have them returned to magistrates and besides taking a list of such persons I will see that the magistrates docket and properly dispose of these cases before approving their books quarterly.

With the permission of the editor I will give a list of names of people who helped to improve the roads in Meriwether township, in next week's issue.
A. A. Edmunds.

Good Book Can be Procured of Mrs. Wates.

I am selling Hurlbut's story of the Bible, and am very anxious to put it in every home where there are children, feel that if I could do this, and the children would read them, I would have the satisfaction of knowing I had done the children good. I am not able to go to every house, but any one wishing the book, will please drop me a card. Am going to try to visit all the homes where there are children later on.
