

Edgefield Advertiser.

Southern Railway Schedule Changes.

Effective Sunday, May 25, 1913, the Southern Railway announces the following schedule changes. Train 232 from Aiken, arrive Edgefield 4:45 p. m., instead of 5:40 p. m. as at present. Train No. 30 will leave Trenton 7:15 p. m. instead of 5:20 p. m. as at present, affording connection to Columbia leaving Edgefield on No. 207 at 6:50 p. m.

A. H. Acker, TPA,
Augusta, Ga.

"Luck" is Still With Us.

We have, along with hundreds of other so-called farmers, been somewhat "blue" because with all of the coaxing and cajoling possible the cotton on The Advertiser's farm has stoutly refused to "come up" satisfactorily. However, a different color was given the situation when on reaching home last evening it was announced that nine ducklings, 14 chicks and 18 little turkeys "came up" during the day. Possibly with the aid of these fledglings the wolf can be kept from the door a while longer. Now will somebody be kind enough to insure their lives?

Do Not be Discouraged.

"Uncle" Ollie Holmes, of the Red Hill section, who is beloved by everybody who knows him, was in town Monday, and in dissertating upon the weather, about which we hear so little these days, he said that he has been a tiller of the soil for about 40 years and that this year simply "caps the climax." He has never seen anything like it before. He says, however, that he is not discouraged by the poor stand and unfavorable outlook. There is yet plenty of time in which to make a crop, even where cotton has not been planted. "Uncle" Ollie said the best crop he ever made was planted late.

"Robin of Sherwood."

The senior class of the College for Women, Columbia, S. C., is to give the Elizabethan Interlude, "Robin of Sherwood" at its commencement on the evening of the 2nd and 4th of June. This play is given by permission of its author, Prof. J. R. Crawford of Yale University. The music is adapted to the period of the play and was arranged by Prof. O. S. Smith of the Yale Conservatory of music. The brilliant and effective costumes are being prepared especially for this production by Waas and son of Philadelphia.

The scene of the greenwood as laid in the gardens of the college will be very effective. There are over 90 in the cast and neither time nor money has been spared to make this production the best in the history of college dramas. It is hoped that all the friends of the students and the college throughout the state will attend this performance and enjoy this rare treat in the renewal of the old interlude and this merry making of the Nottingham fair. Admission 75 cents for one performance.

Barbecue in Compliment to Merchants.

During the past few years Edgefield has contributed a considerable number of recruits to the vast army of traveling salesmen who make regular tours of this and adjoining states supplying the needs of the retail merchants. In order to show their appreciation of the liberal business accorded them, the Edgefield traveling men have planned a barbecue to be given in Judge Devore's grove Friday, May 30, in compliment to the merchants of Edgefield and the country merchants of the county. Covers will be laid for 100 persons, fully that number or more invitations having been issued. The hosts will also include in their list of guests jobbers and manufacturers whom they represent. This bringing of the wholesale and retail merchants together will be promotive of the welfare of both. Personal acquaintance and personal contact greatly facilitate the transaction of business, making the business relations more pleasant to all parties. A prominent speaker has been invited to deliver an address in the afternoon and it is probable that there will be short after-dinner speeches by several of the traveling men themselves. The hosts on this occasion will be T. E. Lamb, Jerome P. Timmerman, S. F. Logan, C. E. May, C. M. Wates, J. B. Kennerly, W. N. Fair, Allen Samuel, J. M. Lawton, W. J. Duncan, Dave W. Page, T. W. Carwile, C. M. Thomas, Charles R. Dobson, W. M. Dunbar and Thos. R. Hoyt.

Gambrell-Nicholson.

Because of the wide popularity of the groom throughout the county, much interest is manifested in the approaching Gambrell-Nicholson wedding, the formal announcement being made as follows: "Mrs. William Green Gambrell announces the approaching marriage of her daughter Helen to Dr. Albert Rhett Nicholson on Wednesday, June the eleventh nineteen hundred and thirteen, Tryon, North Carolina."

Cheap Trip to Florida.

Attention is directed to the advertisement in this issue of the Georgia and Florida railroad in which very low rates are offered from Augusta to Jacksonville and other points in Florida. Tickets will be placed on sale June 10 with a limit of five or seven days. This affords the people of this section a splendid opportunity to visit Florida at a minimum expense. Read the advertisement of the Georgia and Florida railroad.

Winburn-Burckhalter.

The Advertiser acknowledges the receipt of the following invitation, announcing the approaching marriage of Mr. Burckhalter of Aiken who graduated from the S. C. C. I. several years ago: "Mr. J. T. Winburn requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of his daughter Carrie Oliver to Mr. Ben Terrell Burckhalter, on Wednesday evening, June the fourth, at half after eight o'clock, at First Baptist church, Sumter, South Carolina."

Fine Oats Around Cleora.

Mr. C. M. Williams came down to Edgefield early this morning to purchase twine to use in harvesting his large crop of grain. Mr. Williams will make sufficient wheat to supply his family with flour in spite of the unfavorable conditions. He will also make a fine crop of oats. There are numbers of fields of oats in the Cleora section that will make 50 bushels per acre. Mr. Williams and Mr. W. T. Reel own a binder jointly, which will enable them to harvest their crop of grain, about 70 acres, without much difficulty. They can cut from 10 to 20 acres per day.

Y. W. A. Meeting.

The Y. W. A. will meet at the Baptist church Monday afternoon, June 3. It is important that all members be present. Subject, Medical missions. Song, "They That Be Wise Shall Shine." Scripture lesson, first chapter of 3 Kings. Medical missions: motive and purpose, president. The man who opened the door of Africa, Hortense Peak. The touch of human hand, Marie Key. The need of prayer, by the president. The light of a diamond, Gladys Padgett. Song, O, Master Let me Walk with Thee. Minutes. Roll call and collection. Closing prayer.

Flower Mission Day.

On Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock on the lawn of Mrs. W. L. Dunovant the regular meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will take place. This meeting will be the flower mission program, and every member is expected to be present. Each member of our local organization is asked to spend a part of some day between now and then in making the burden lighter for some sad or unfortunate person in memory of Jennie Caseday who originated the Flower Mission. Come prepared to write or tell how your efforts to help others effected you and cheered your own heart. There will be outdoor music, and a helpful programme as follows: Devotions, Mrs. Rainsford. "Brighter Days" in Temperance Songster. "Blossoms and Beatitudes" Mrs. Mammie N. Tillman. "Report of year's Work" Mrs. W. B. Cogburn. Music, White Ribbon Rally Song "What the Flower Mission should mean to a community," Mrs. E. J. Norris. Arrangements will be made for the annual basket for the county home on June 9, the birthday of Jennie Caseday.

We always carry a large stock of single and double harness, light or heavy, single or double wagon harness. We only carry harness that is made by the leading factories of land—the kind that you can depend upon.

Wilson & Cantelou.

Card From Mr. Gaines.

Editor Advertiser: Leaving Orangeburg with my family in a touring car on last Thursday morning, we made rapid time and found traveling delightful till we passed Aiken, then being heavily loaded, the sand hindered our progress so that it took us as long to finish the last twenty miles of our journey as it had to come the former sixty or seventy miles from Orangeburg. We finally stuck fast in a deep sand bed near the home of Mr. W. A. Pardue; and but for the kindly assistance of himself and family we would really have suffered.

Now we are pleasantly located for the summer near the "Plank Road." If it were true to its name, we should ask no better situation, but when we think of going anywhere, we are confronted by the problem of sand, sand, sand! Traveling for three years over the roads of Orangeburg county has completely spoiled me, and has impressed me as nothing else could have done with the importance and great benefit to any county of having good roads. With such roads and telephone lines, time and distance are almost annihilated; and the people of the whole county can communicate and mingle together as one great neighborhood.

Besides the greater pleasures of living under such conditions, business thrives better, and property values are greatly enhanced. In the county from which I have just come, the average price of land is from fifty to one hundred dollars per acre, even in the remotest parts. This land is of course very fine, but not so far finer than much of the land in Edgefield county. Take the land up and down the Plank Road. Much of it is level, and could be built up to yield immense crops. With a fine clayed road to Augusta, so that marketing would soon be easy, a transformation would soon come to this section. The population would increase, a great deal more money would be made, and the benefit of this would be shared by both Augusta and our up-country towns. I wish that all of the people could see and realize the difference that this one thing of good roads would make in our county. Then they would come together, and by contributing of their money, or teams, or labor, they would soon find themselves abreast of any county in the state. For the capital invested this would do more good than even a railroad.

Having finished my work in Orangeburg, I would be willing to devote my time this summer to making an active canvass for the means to put this movement on foot at once. I hope that the county board will give this question their immediate attention, and let us see if we cannot accomplish great things by the end of this year.

W. J. Gaines.

Trenton, S. C.

Notice of Final Settlement.

I will make a final settlement on the estate of C. C. Burkhalter deceased, in the office of the Probate Judge of Edgefield county, on the 20th day of June 1913, and at this time will apply for a final discharge as administratrix of said estate. All persons interested will take due notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Carrie Burkhalter Freeland.
Adm.

5-21-13.

Keep The Kidneys Well.

Health is Worth Saving, and Some Edgefield People Know How to Save it.

Many Edgefield people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Weak kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, the slightest delay is dangerous. Use Doan's kidney pills, a remedy that has helped thousands of kidney sufferers. Here is an Edgefield citizen's recommendation.

Mrs. Hattie Dunn, Edgefield, S. C., says: "I suffered from kidney complaint for several years and my health was so badly run down that I could hardly get around. The kidney secretions were in bad shape and caused me no end of trouble. On various occasions I have used Doan's kidney pills and have received a world of good. They have made me feel like another person. Pains in my back and sides disappeared and my kidneys again did their work as they should. This remedy is without doubt the best one to be had for kidney complaint."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

IS YOUR CREDIT GOOD?

The Representatives of The

Merchants' Credit Co

Are Arranging for the Publication of a

Credit Guide

FOR THIS DISTRICT AS A BASIS OF CREDIT

By this system each individual is placed on record showing how many places they secure credit and with what degree of promptness they pay their bills. The book will show, not the financial standing, but the credit standing, of everybody, man or woman, who trades on time, and as it is not a financial rating the poor man who pays his bills promptly will secure a higher rating than the man of means who does not.

NOW IS THE TIME TO PAY THE OLD ACCOUNT AND SECURE A Good Credit Rating.

Buy it, My Boy, Because it's a Studebaker

That's reason enough son—because it's a Studebaker. I learned that lesson before you were born. And my father learned it before me. There isn't any "better" than Studebaker. There can't be. I read something in a newspaper the other day about Studebaker wagons, and I cut it out; I like to hear good things about old friends. Listen to it: "Wherever wheels turn—wherever roads are built—wherever commerce cleaves its way into the wilderness—anywhere in the world—there the traveler from America meets with a thrill of patriotic pride the name that is synonymous with vehicle service and vehicle value." Fine, isn't it? And gospel true, too. I remember your Uncle William, the time he went to Europe, back in 1891, telling me how good it made him feel to find Studebaker wagons in the little out-of-the-way places, and to find, too, that the name Studebaker stood just as high over there as it did here. But that isn't what I'm getting at. What I mean is, that you'd be safe today if you bought a Studebaker wagon with your eyes shut—you could be sure you were getting the best money's worth your dollars could buy. What I mean is, that the Studebaker notion of building the good old-fashioned golden rule into their wagons hasn't let down the thousandth part of an inch in fifty years. Don't you see that nothing anyone else may offer you can take the place of that downright positive Studebaker certainty? Suppose if all the wagons the Studebakers have built were strung out in a line they'd go around the globe half a dozen times. And I've never heard of one that didn't make good. Don't let anyone get your mind off that idea—buy it, my boy, because it's a Studebaker.

Wilson & Cantelou

No better buggy made than the Brockway. Have you ever used one? Let us show you our stock. Wilson & Cantelou.

Now is the time to begin the early garden. We can supply you with seeds of all kinds from the seed farms of Buist and Ferry, both are thoroughly dependable. Timmons & Morgan.

When you want a good buggy try a Tyson & Jones. They have stood the test of Edgefield roads for years. Wilson & Cantelou.

For Weakness and Loss of Appetite The Old Standard general strengthening tonic, GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC, drives out Malaria and builds up the system. A true tonic and severe Appetizer. For adults and children, 50c.

Our millinery department is filled with any kind of hat you can mention for ladies, misses and children. If you don't find what you want our milliner can trim it for you while you wait. Prices very reasonable.

Rubenstein. Ice tea glasses at 50c per set. Penn & Holstein.