

Office No. 61.
Residence, No. 17.

Wednesday, June 4.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Lillian Smith has closed her school at Sylvania, Ga., and will be at home for the summer.

J. Wm. Thurmond, Esq., and B. E. Nicholson, Esq., are in Columbia attending the supreme court.

Mr. Edward Lynch is among the home-comers from college, having arrived from Davidson Saturday.

Mr. George Hubbard, of Johnston, spent Sunday in Edgefield with his daughter, Mrs. Warren Paul.

Mrs. P. A. Erwin of Atlanta is here visiting her mother, Mrs. S. A. Morrall, and sister, Mrs. Bettis Cantelou.

Miss Jennie Pattison has arrived in Edgefield to remain at home for the summer, having closed her school at Ellore.

Mr. Charles R. Dobson was received into the Baptist church Sunday morning by a letter from the First Baptist church of Atlanta.

The friends of Dr. C. P. DeVore are delighted to see him on our streets again after being confined to his home for many months with rheumatism.

Hereafter the saying in this county will be, "as many oats as Prescott had," substituting Dr. Prescott's name for that of the one-time famous Carter.

Prof. and Mrs. P. P. Burns have arrived from Birmingham to spend several weeks here with Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Sheppard, Mrs. Burns' parents.

Mr. Charles R. Dobson went over to Augusta in his Packard touring car Monday, being accompanied by Miss Sophie Dobson and Mrs. P. M. Feltham.

Taking it as a whole, J. W. Cheatham of south Edgefield has the prettiest corn and cotton that we have seen. His stands are almost perfect. His corn and cotton have been well worked and both are in a growing condition.

Miss Miriam Norris is in Augusta spending a fortnight with her cousin, Mrs. J. C. Wienges. Her stay in Augusta is being made exceedingly pleasant by the many thoughtful attentions that are being bestowed by her hostess.

The Corner Store calls especial attention this week to its large assortment of dress goods suitable for summer attire. This popular store also has a large stock of white goods of all kinds, calling especial attention to material for sheets and pillow cases.

Mr. E. J. Mims left yesterday morning to spend several days with Capt. R. B. Cain near Sumter. He was joined at Johnston by Mr. John Mobley. Edgefield's fishermen never fail to make a good catch when they cast their hooks in Capt. Cain's pond of 200 acres.

The Advertiser extends profound sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Bryan of the Meeting Street neighborhood in the death of their sweet little daughter. A friend of the family has written a lengthy notice of the taking away of this dear little girl. This tribute appears elsewhere in this issue.

When you lose anything or have anything for sale, bear in mind The Advertiser's column of classified advertisements. These little advertisements seldom fail to bring satisfactory results. The reason for it is found in the fact that they are read by such a large number of people every week.

Miss Sallie Dunovant, accompanied by her younger sister went to Rock Hill Monday to attend the Winthrop college commencement to witness the graduation of her sister, Miss Mamie Dunovant. From Rock Hill Miss Sallie will go to Georgetown, Columbia and other places to visit relatives.

Capt. R. B. Cain went to his home near Sumter Tuesday of last week after closing up his work in connection with the S. C. C. I. He was accompanied by Rev. R. G. Shannonhouse, Dr. J. H. Carmichael, P. B. Day and E. S. Rives. These gentlemen had a royal time catching and feasting upon the finny tribe.

Dr. M. D. Jeffries and his family now occupy the Entzinger residence near the college. Buncombe extends them a cordial welcome.

It has reached The Advertiser's ears that orange blossoms will be in evidence in the Pleasant Lane section during the month of June.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Anderson are being congratulated by their friends upon the coming of a little lady to their home to be a permanent visitor.

Mrs. Mamie N. Tillman attended a meeting of the executive board of the State Woman's Missionary Union which was held in Columbia Monday.

Mr. C. M. Mellichamp presents the claims of the Southeastern Life Insurance company in his advertisement. This South Carolina company writes good contracts.

Mr. Sam Mays, who has been in the Southern and C. & W. C. ticket office for some time has returned to his home in Edgefield. He is succeeded by Mr. Claude Callison.—Greenwood Journal.

Married, Sunday afternoon, June 1, by Dr. M. D. Jeffries, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Powell in Edgefield, Miss Maggie Lee Manson and Mr. John Wood, both of the Antioch section.

Edgefield extends a most cordial welcome to Mrs. M. E. Barker who after residing in Augusta for several years has come to live among us again, occupying her home near the depot. Her nephew, Mr. J. W. Thurmond, and his family will reside with her.

Supt. of Education Fuller says some of the teachers of the county are arranging to attend the summer school which will be held at Winthrop college. The schools of the county will be greatly benefited if a large number of teachers attend.

Mr. John Griffin was in town yesterday and stated that farmers in his neighborhood now have very good stands of cotton. They have recently had several local showers but no heavy rain. The section between Dr. Prescott's and Antioch church was visited by a heavy down-pour Monday, washing the fields in many places.

Miss Bess Lassater of Luthersville, Ga., who has had charge of a music school at Springfield, S. C. during the past year, is expected to visit her sister, Miss Eva Lassater, the popular and efficient milliner at Rubenstein's, this week. From here they both will go to their Georgia home to spend the summer. Miss Eva has made many friends here who hope she will decide to return next season.

When you want a good buggy try a Tyson & Jones. They have stood the test of Edgefield roads for years.

Wilson & Cantelou.

A large assortment of Iron and Enameled beds just received. Prettier than any we have ever had before.

Ramsey & Jones.

A full supply of mineral water always on hand. Can furnish either Harris or Glenn Springs water.

Penn & Holstein.

Citation.

The State of South Carolina, County of Edgefield.

By W T Kinnaird, Probate Judge. Whereas, J. W. Burnett made suit to me, to grant him Letters of Administration of the Estate of and effects of W. W. Burnett.

These Are Therefore to cite and admonish all and singular the kindred and Creditors of the said W. W. Burnett deceased, that they be and appear before me, in the Court of Probate, to be held at my Office at Edgefield C. H., S. C., on 20th day of June 1913, after publication thereof, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any they have, why the said Administration should not be granted.

Given under my Hand, this 3rd day of June A. D., 1913.

W. T. Kinnaird, J P E C.

Ulcers and Skin Troubles.

If you are suffering with any old, running or fever sores, ulcers, boils, eczema or other skin troubles, get a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and you will get relief promptly. Mrs. Bruce Jones, of Birmingham, Ala., suffered from an ugly ulcer for nine months and Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured her in two weeks. Will help you. Only 25c. Recommended by Penn & Holstein, W E Lynch & Co.

The Fulghum Oats.

The splendid success which Dr. W. E. Prescott has made with Fulghum oats this year, this being the variety which he purchased from Judge Hammond last fall, has caused this particular kind of oats to be quite generally discussed recently throughout Edgefield county. In view of the discussion, the following concerning the Fulghum oats clipped from Mr. N. P. Willet's farm letter in Sunday's Augusta Chronicle will be of interest to hundreds of The Advertiser's readers:

"Fulghum Oats—This is a full proposition, but unless the seed are bought now you will not get them. Double your oat crop this fall. For some six years the Fulghum oat of Georgia has been known. Its type now is fixed. It is an individual among oats as Mexican June corn is among corn. Dr. Warbuton, the oat expert of the United States government, says of this oat: 'The South must have an early filling the bill than any other oat. This oat tested by government as far North as Arlington, Va., is making a splendid success.' The Fulghum is as early as Burt oats; ten days to two weeks earlier than Appler, and possibly three weeks earlier than Texas Rustproof. The grain is as large as Appler, ditto the stalk. It is more prolific than any known oat—seventy-five to ninety bushels per acre have been made. This earliness, size of grain and its prolificness make it far ahead of any oat known in the country. Its earliness insures a safe planting—a second crop—of cotton or forage crops. All farmers must easily see the great advantages that must come to them through a prolific heavy oat that is ten days to two weeks earlier than Appler oats. As we all know, the Appler oats bring a good premium over Georgia or Texas Rust proof oats; and the Fulghum oat will bring a good premium over Appler oats, so long as it is kept pure and unmixed. The only regret is that there are so few seed to be had."

Pleasure for Young People.

All of us should be interested in the boys and girls of the community because our own children will associate with our neighbors' both at school and at social gatherings. If the majority of the young people have high ideals, are industrious, sociable and moral, your children will find it easy to live in this environment. Your children will be a part of society in your community and their ideals will influence the ideals of their associates.

It is your duty then to take an active part in placing high ideals before the young people of the community. They will demand entertainments and pains should be taken to see that these social entertainments are surrounded with moral and intellectual influences. Let the parents and the friends of the young people open their homes to worthy entertainments where the young may find enjoyment and become attached to the rural community.

Picnics, fish-fries, excursions, etc., are dear to the hearts of boys and girls. These pleasures should be encouraged and ways provided for them to attend.

Social gatherings will call for reading and study, for those who read will be better able to converse intelligently and to act discreetly in public. Those who do not read will soon find that they can't keep up with the ones who do. As a result, reading will be in demand. The farm paper, the magazines and good books will be perused. Then the social center with its library and its benefits of free discussions and personal association will lift the society of the community to a higher plane of intelligence.—Farm and Ranch.
