Tribute to Mrs. Webb.

On last Saturday all Trenton was thrown into mourning on account of the death of Mattie Holland, the beloved wife of Mr. I. A. Webb. She had been in bad health for some time but no one dreamed that the end was so near. She was about her household duties only a few hours before she died. Truly we can say that no one has ever lived in our community who was more beloved than she. She was a friend to both old and young. Her gentle spirit carried sunshine wherever she went. She possessed the happy faculty of adjusting her life to all circumstances. She was just as ready to share the sorrows of others as to rejoice in time of prosperity. Words fail when we try to tell of her good influence in the community. Truly "she went about doing good." We find her life in the church a model of devotion to duty. She always did her part and longed to be able to do more. She attended the last service at her church before her death. How fittingly appropriate it was that the last honor paid to her was on a quiet Sabbath afternoon when a very large crowd gathered at the old church she loved so much to pay the last tribute of respect and love to the life of such a pure and noble woman. She leaves a husband and three little children who will miss her, but may a double portion of the spirit she possessed abide with them. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Broadus Davison who for the present is serving as pastor during the absence of Rev. G. L. Knight. C.

Suffered Eczema Fifty Years-- Now Well.

Seems a long time to endure the burning, itching, smarting, skin disease known as "tetter"—another name for eczema. Seems good to realize, also, that Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment has proven a perfect cure.
Mrs. D. L. Kennedy writes:—"I cannot sufficiently express my thanks to you for your Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment. It has cured my tetter, which has troubled me for over fifty years." All drug gists or by mail 50c. Pfeiffer Chemical Co., St. Louis, Mo., Philadelphia, Pa.

Pretty Entertainment by Local Talent, Sept. 9.

The ladies of the library association and the guild of the Episcopal church are jointly preparing a beautiful entertainment to be presented September 9. With these two combinations Edgefield may look forward to something good. Every effort is being made to make this entertainment a grand success. The best talent has been secured.

The first on the program will be the Anvil Chorus sung by the gypsies from that beautiful opera, Il Trovatore. Two anvils will ring out struck by the strong arms of Capt. N. G. Evans and Mr. Willis Duncan. In this scene Mrs. Royal Shannonhouse as Azucena will sing as the gypsies gather around her. Mrs. Shannonhouse's beautiful voice is always appreciated in Edgefield and a treat is in store for all those who attend. The next on program will be the Sextette from Flora Dora sung by six young ladies and six young men. This will be very attractive and will be sure to bring an encore. Between acts Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Mayson with the violin and piano will play some of the old sweet music which we all love so well.

The last on the program will be a short play "The Burflar's Alarm." This play will be enjoyed. It is full of humor and very taking.

Cast of characters: The heroine of the play is Miss Ruth Tompkins as Violet; Miss Mary, maiden aunt of Violet, Miss Georgia Mae Wates; Miss Martha, maiden aunt of Violet, Miss Josephine Woodson; Bridgett, the cook, Miss Hortensia Woodson; Tilly Craig, the stage struck maid, Miss Florence Peak; Jack, Violet's lover, Mr. Wad Allen.

The ladies hope to have a packed house as every effort is being made to make this entertainment the best they have ever had.

Reserved seats, 50c.; general admission, 35c.; 25c for children under twelve years of age.

Fair Creature: Humph! I paid $18 for my hat, I'd like to have you know; and I want it to be seen.

Paint Put-on.

Think of paint put-on and not by the gallon.
A gallon of paint in the can is of no account to anybody. Put it on. Now reckon its cost and value.

The secret is: one paint goes twice as far as another. A good one goes twice as far as a bad one.

You have a job, say an average job. It'll take 10 gallons Devoe and 12 or 15 or 18 or 20 of middling poor very-poor and trash. You know painter's wages in your town. Put the price of a gallon of paint and the painter's day wage together. You can, we can't.

Devoe costs less than any inferior paint; there are hundreds of them. One paint is as good as another, so long as it lasts good; one lasts months and another years; and the one that goes furthest lasts longer. Stewart & Kernaghan sells it.

Remarkable Cure of Dysentery.

"I was attacked with dysentery about July 15, and used the doctor's medicine and other remedies with no relief, only getting worse all the time. I was unable to do anything and my weight dropped from 145 to 125 pounds. I suffered for about two months when I was advised to use Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy. I used two bottles of it and it gave me permanent relief," writes B. W. Hill of Snow Hill, N. C. For sale by all dealers.

Costly Treatment.

"I was troubled with constipation and indigestion and spent hundreds of dollars for medicine and treatment," writes C. H. Hines, of Whitlow, Ark. Good Reason For His Enthusiasm.

When a man has suffered for several days with colic, diarrhoea or other form of bowel complaint and is then cured sound and well by one or two doses of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy, as is often the case, it is but natural that he should be enthusiastic in his praise of the remedy, and especially is this the case of a severe attack when life is threatened. Try it when in need of such a remedy. It never fails. Sold by all dealers.
