Ex-Gov. John C. Sheppard is in St. Louis in the interest of the Knights of Honor.

Mrs. W. M. Hunter of Ora, Laurens county, is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. L. T. May.

Mrs. Alice Cooner of Batesburg is here visiting Mrs. Mary J. Norris and Mr. E. J. Norris.

Dr. A. H. Corley is in Columbia attending the annual convention of the South Carolina Dental association.

Miss Aileen Walker of Hawkinsville, Ga., is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. James R. Cantelou.

Miss Alleen Bell who is one of the teachers in the Graniteville graded school spent Saturday in Edgefield.

Dr. J. W. Kilgo will preach at Trenton Methodist church next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Let all the people who can do so, hear him.

Mr. A. E. Padgett and Mr. E. J. Mims are in Columbia attending a meeting of group four of the South Carolina Bankers association.

Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Byrd went to Columbia yesterday afternoon in a automobile. Dr. Byrd is attending the meeting of the South Carolina Dental association.

Mr. W. O. Cain of Sumter spent Sunday here with his daughter, Mrs. E. S. Rives, having come over from Columbia where he attended the Confederate reunion.

Miss Sallie Heyward is the guest of Mrs. E. B. Jones for several days, being en route from Cleora, where she has been teaching in the Brunson school, to her home in Beaufort.

After spending a week in Edgefield, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mims, Rev. and Mrs. John Lake will leave to-morrow for Orangeburg to attend several missionary meetings in that county.

The cantata which will be given in the opera house on the night of May 14 will be the most attractive entertainment of the kind ever given in Edgefield. A full program will be published next week.

The Edgefield County Inter-Denominational Sunday School convention will meet with the Baptist church at Plum Branch on Wednesday and Thursday the 12th and 13th of May.

During Mrs. Davis' visit to Edgefield association, she was the guest of the Young Woman's Auxiliary of Edgefield at an informal reception on Monday evening at the home of Miss Ruth Tompkins.

The Columbia district conference of the Methodist church will meet in Johnston on Thursday and Friday of this week. This conference is composed of pastors, local preachers, and four to six lay delegates from each pastoral charge.

Mr. J. Rutledge McGhee, the editor of the Batesburg Herald, was in Edgefield Monday in the interest of the paper which he will establish at Johnston. The first issue of the Johnston Times will appear the 6th of April.

The play, "The Mock Marriage," will be given in the opera house Friday night in the interest of the public library. General admission 25 cents and reserved seats 35 cents. Tickets on sale at the drug store of Penn and Holstein.

Miss Eva Hite, the president of the South Carolina Rural School Improvement association, has appointed Miss Ida Lou Morgan as the leader of this county. We trust that the teachers will give her their full co-operation.

District Attorney J. William Thurmond has returned from the Greenville term of the United States court. He entered upon the duties of his office early in the term and we predict that no district attorney can be found who will discharge his duties more ably or more faithfully than Mr. Thurmond.

When you come to the Chautauqua next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday make our store your headquarters. You will always be welcome.

JOHNSTON LETTER.

Aiken to visit Mrs. W. C. Ashley.

Mr. Hugh C. Latimer of Birmingham, Ala., attended the Mobley-Hamilton wedding.

Mrs. Claud Lott entertained a few friends with a delightful tea on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. J. B. Haltiwanger of Greenwood is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. F. Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. Smyly Stevens and Mrs. E. L. Stevens and Miss Lena Stevens of Meeting Street visited here during the week.

Visitors here last week from Edgefield to the Mobley-Hamilton wedding were Mrs. W. E. Lott and Misses Elizabeth and Effie Allen Lott, Mr. and Mrs. James Tompkins and Mr. Paul Cogburn.

Mrs. F. M. Warren and Mr. Robert Warren spent last week in Columbia with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Whittaker will go to Charlotte about the first of May where the former has accepted a position. For nearly a year Mr. Whittaker has been superintendent of this telephone system, and has resigned this office. It is a regret to all that they will make their home elsewhere.

On Thursday evening at the Methodist church Miss Helen Thacker and Dr. Harry C. Raysor of St. Matthews were united in marriage, the happy event taking place at 6:30 o'clock. The church was very beautiful with palms and quantities of wisteria festooned the chancel which was lighted with tapers. Previous to the ceremony Miss Annie Henagan of Columbia, sang "O perfect day," and "I love you truly," being accompanied on the violin by Mr. Guy Horne. The bridal chorus was sung by 20 of the bride's friends of this place. The ushers were Messrs. Earl Smith, Julian Wertz and J. A. Murray, of Columbia, Frank Raysor of St. Matthews. Four little girls, Katharine Norris Wright, Frances Crouch, Camille Bradenburg and Dorothy Sue Simms opened the gates at the chancel for the bridal party to enter. Little Margaret Platt was the ring bearer. The three maids were Misses Annabelle and Jiamie Beth Thacker, sisters of the bride and Miss Marion Henagan of St. Matthews. They wore white coat suits with large black hats and carried shower bouquets. The dames of honor were attired in wisteria colored toilets and were Mrs. J. H. Thacker, the bride's mother, and Mrs. Julian Wertz a sister of the groom. The bride entered with her sister, Miss Ruth Thacker, and was met at the altar by the groom with his best man Dr. O. W. Wrightson, of Spartanburg, the Rev. J. H. Thacker, the bride's father performing the ceremony. The bride was attired in a covert cloth suit with all details of her toilet matching and carried an armful of roses. After the ceremony the bridal pair left in a car for Columbia and thence to St. Matthews, the home of the groom. Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Raysor, Mrs. E. E. Platt, Mrs. J. A. Wertz and Miss Dorothy Wertz and Mr. D. M. Ariel.

The last meeting of the New Century Club which was held with Mrs. F. M. Boyd was delightful and instructive. After routine business and the discussion of some points concerning club welfare, the lesson study was taken up and in the absence of Mrs. C. D. Kenny the leader for the afternoon, Miss Alma Woodward took charge of the study hour and gave several interesting facts of the authors studied who were John Fox, Jr., Harold Bell Wright and Owen Wistar, Rex Beach, Paul Leicester Ford, Thomas Dixon and Henry VanDyke. Each of the 20 members were given some part of the program which made it a very full one. Besides the members there were several invited guests who enjoyed the social hour and during the time, the pictures of the traveling art exhibit of William Silva were viewed. The hostess assisted by Mesdames J. W. Marsh and A. T. King served refreshing ices and cake in which the club colors were carried out.

An Attractive Program.

In addition to the attractive Chautauqua program published elsewhere in this issue, there will be addresses by prominent men each afternoon. At 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon the Hon. John L. McLaurin will speak; Tuesday afternoon at the same hour Congressman J. F. Byrnes will deliver an address, and Congressman Lever has been secured for Wednesday. Upon the whole, a more attractive program could not have been arranged for the three days of the Chautauqua. Each entertainment will be varied, so as to afford diversion for all who attend.

Missionary Rally at Republican.

Republican missionary society was the hostess on Tuesday last for the meeting of the rally of the 2nd division.

The speakers and visitors who left Edgefield on Tuesday morning at 8:30 o'clock did not study well the distance to be traveled, as it was about 12 o'clock when the journey's end was reached. As they arrived however, there was every evidence that many had already reached the church and the singing was in progress. At Republican, we found one of the very best choirs yet found in our county, Mrs. Bradley who is in charge of the Colliers school being the very efficient organist and also a part of the choir.

Mrs. J. T. Littlejohn president of the 2nd division was in charge of the meeting, and Rev. J. T. Littlejohn, pastor of the church and Rev. P. B. Lanham were also present. Reports from the societies were heard from, most of them having representatives.

The first speaker was our beloved and honored missionary John Lake who made one of his inspiring and soul stirring addresses on China and the especial needs of the fields and the suggested aid to them in the Judson Centennial for which fund a very substantial collection was taken.

At the close of this address all the congregation was cordially invited to partake of what proved to be a very delightful and tempting repast out under the beautiful trees of this splendid old church.

After dinner all the congregation repaired to the church, and heard Mrs. Lake tell many interesting and quaint customs and incidents of the Chinese life and of their pathetic needs. In Chinese costumes she and Mr. Lake and Mrs. Tillman, who had been an apt pupil in learning a Chinese song, gave a pleasant moment to the congregation, translating from English into Chinese that popular child-song "Jesus loves me."

Mrs. Geo. E. Davis of Orangeburg, the state superintendent of Y. W. A. work for South Carolina, was present and impressed the great need and opportunity for the work among the young women of South Carolina. Mrs. Davis had already won the hearts of the Edgefield girls at Denmark and at Mt. Creek and likewise the girls of this section expressed their intention of early organizing in the Colliers community.

At the close of Mrs. Davis' address, Mrs. Tillman by special request, gave some "Glimpses of the Holy Land" and this was a great benefit and of exceeding interest to all the hearers, all of whom were the more interested on account of the personality of the speaker.

The ladies as well as the men of Republican manifested great hospitality and interest in the meeting and added in the largest measure to the success of the occasion.

The party who left Edgefield on Tuesday morning, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Lake, Mrs. Geo. Davis, Mrs. Fannie Tompkins, Mrs. Tillman and Mrs. J. L. Mims, partook of the hospitality of that ideal home, Rose Cottage, where reside the friends of every good cause, Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Littlejohn.

On Wednesday morning, having partaken of a refreshing breakfast, the party betook themselves to Plum Branch fifteen miles away.

At the appointed time, 10:30 the rally of the third division met at Plum Branch church, Mrs. G. M. Sexton, president of the division in charge, and Mrs. S. T. Adams as secretary. This was indeed a splendid occasion, all of the societies largely represented, except Red Oak Grove which had sent their delegation to Republican the day before on account of the convenient distance.

At this meeting Mrs. Bracknell of Plum Branch welcomed the visitors very cordially and Mrs. Tillman was given the first place on the program. This was followed with a ten minutes talk from Mr. Bozeman on the orphanage at Greenwood. Mr. Lake then came to the platform and gave many new and thrilling scenes in old and new China and presented the cause of Judson Centennial or explaining its purpose. A substantial amount was received here informally, as a collection for this purpose had already been taken some months ago. Those who could not give wished that they could, and those who would not must indeed have been hard to impress.

The dinner on the grounds was most elaborate and of such a variety that the most fastidious could not have gone away hungry. There was a delectable morsel for everybody.

At the afternoon session Mr. Lake conducted the devotions and Mrs. Davis presented her especial work in her characteristic and earnest way, clearly impressing upon each one the value of the young woman's auxiliary work.

"The Lord is my Shepherd" was sung by Mrs. Harris of Troy, Mrs. Davis of Orangeburg and Mrs. Tillman of Edgefield.

At the close of this hour greatly to the regret of the Edgefield party most of them had to begin the 23 mile journey for home in order to reach Edgefield before nightfall. Mr. and Mrs. Lake remained, Mrs. Lake in her sweet and gracious manner bringing home to the congregation the urgent needs of China. As the meeting closed Mr. and Mrs. Lake sang "God be with you till we meet again" in Chinese and gave their hand in farewell to their beloved friends and missionaries who expect soon to return to the far away county.

Three Boxes Did It.

Jeter Street Man Tells of His Cure.

Mr. Paul's work brought a strain on his kidneys, which resulted in a bad attack of various aches and pains. This trouble might have become more serious had not Doan's kidney pills been used. Three boxes made a cure, read about it.

T. J. Paul, Jeter street, Edgefield, says: "My trouble was brought on by being on my feet continually. I had a dull pain in my back and I tired easily. When I was on my feet for any length of time, my back got sore and stiff. My rest was broken at night, as the kidney recreations were too frequent in passage, causing me to get up a number of times.

After using three boxes of Doan's kidney pills procured at Penn & Holstein's drug store, I was cured of my backache and other symptoms of kidney trouble."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's kidney pills—the same that Mr. Paul had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
