Wednesday, June 16.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Messrs. Elliot and Irvin Padgett are at home from Clemson college.

Miss Edwardina Blalock is spending this week with friends in Trenton.

Mrs. Ora Myers of Aiken is here visiting her brother, Mr. E. S. Rives.

Mr. S. H. Manget of Trenton was among the visitors in Edgefield Monday.

Miss Nannie Gunter of Batesburg is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. B. B. Jones.

Is it possible that Edgefield can not furnish a June bride? Who's to blame?

Mr. Norwood Cleveland of Greenville was a visitor in Edgefield early in the week.

Mrs. Wade S. Cotbran of Abbeville is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Susan B. Hill.

Master Lane Hartley of Batesburg is here visiting his aunt, Mrs. Mary J. Norris.

Misses Royal Peak and Marion Blalock are attending the summer school at Winthrop.

Miss Agnes Denny is here from Columbia visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Kate Cheatham.

Mrs. A. E. Padgett and Miss Natalie Padgett spent Monday and Tuesday in Columbia.

How many acres have you sown in peas? Not an acre of stubble should remain unplanted.

Miss Mary Jones left on Monday to return to Coker college for a month at the summer school.

Miss Charlotte McGowan of Laurens is visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Tompkins.

Mrs. W. H. Dorn has been spending several days in Clark's Hill with her sister, Mrs. John P. Nixon.

Miss Rosada Talbert of Parksville is here visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Parker.

Mrs. T. A. Broadwater spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Wash, in the Rehoboth community.

Misses Evelyn and Emmie Broadwater and Miss Mamie Broadwater are visiting relatives in Grove-town, Ga.

Mr. W. W. Broach of Orangeburg and Mr. M. T. Saunders of Vidalia, Ga., are guests of Mr. W. F. McMurray.

Mr. James E. Hart has come in from the road as a traveling salesman to enjoy his summer vacation with his family.

Mrs. J. U. Rives and family left to-day to spend several months at their summer home near Cedar Mountain, N. C.

Cadet W. Duane Ozuts returned home from Clemson college last week after visiting relatives at Greenwood and Troy.

Mr. Orlando Sheppard went to Charleston Monday to attend the annual meeting of the board of visitors of the Citadel.

Mrs. John R. Tompkins and her three little children are in Henderson, N. C., spending a month with Mr. and Mrs. George B. Harris.

Mr. George W. Adams received another carload of Ford automobiles Friday. He can now supply you with touring cars or runabouts.

Mrs. John Reynolds and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Reynolds of Augusta have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Holstein during the past week.

B. W. Crouch, J. C. Ramage and E. S. Able, three prominent members of the Saluda bar were in Edgefield on professional business Friday.

If the automobile owners persist in exceeding the speed limit, they will force Mayor Corley to impose the maximum fine under the ordinance.

Mr. R. A. Wash says it pays to advertise in The Advertiser but you get so many replies or inquiries that a secretary or stenographer is needed to answer them. He recently advertised 80 bushels of Irish potatoes for sale, and says he could have sold 500 bushels as a result of the advertisement for two weeks.

Mrs. Charles H. Key, accompanied by her son, Charles B. Key, spent several days last week in Augusta with her daughter, Mrs. Hal Beman.

Miss Bessie Woodson who recently graduated as a trained nurse from the city hospital in Augusta is visiting in the home of Mrs. J. L. Mims.

Mr. James O. Sheppard was admitted to the bar last week and is now a duly commissioned attorney. The Advertiser wishes him a very successful career.

Miss Florence Peak who is a full graduate of Coker college reached home Friday, having spent a week in Marion attending a house party given by Mrs. J. C. Mace.

At the close of the session of Converse college Miss Nell Jones attended a house party given in Georgetown by a college friend. She came to Edgefield Friday.

Miss Elise Lake is at home for the summer from Luthersville, Maryland, a suburb of Baltimore, where she has been teaching expression during the past session.

The second cotton bloom of the season to be received at The Advertiser office was brought in this morning by John Calliham, a colored man who lives on Mr. B. L. Jones' plantation.

Horn's Creek church has called Dr. E. Pendleton Jones to serve one Sunday in the month as Dr. Jeffries did. Dr. Jones will preach at Horn's Creek every fourth Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Mrs. B. F. Mays and her sister, Miss Lillian Palmer of Washington, D. C., arrived Monday for a visit to Col. and Mrs. S. B. Mays. Mr. B. F. Mays will join them the latter part of the week.

Mrs. E. S. Johnson and Mrs. W. F. McMurray were baptized in the Baptist church Thursday evening last at the close of the prayer meeting service. The ordinance was very beautifully and impressively administered.

The Advertiser acknowledges the receipt of an invitation from Miss Margaret Ellen McKie to the commencement of Randolph-Macon Woman's college of Lynchburg, Va. Miss Ellen is a member of the graduating class.

Cadets J. T. and Charlie Bell Littlejohn who have been students at the B. M. I. the past session came over from their home at Red Hill, and attended the students' reception on Tuesday evening. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mims while here.

We acknowledge an invitation from Miss Emmie Washington McKie to attend the commencement exercises of the New England Conservatory of Music of Boston. Miss Emmie has completed the course in the celebrated institution with the highest honors.

Mrs. Mamie N. Tillman and Mrs. J. L. Mims attended a meeting of the executive board of the South Carolina Woman's Missionary Union which was held in Columbia Thursday and Friday. While in the capital city they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Cooner.

Those who have a good garden find that it reduces the high cost of living. In this climate one should be able to get fresh vegetables of one kind or another from the garden every week in the year. Give the garden close attention and you will find this easily possible.

Mrs. B. E. Timmerman and her children came down from Cleora and spent Wednesday and Thursday with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Pattison. Mr. Timmerman also came down Saturday and he is delighted with his duties as carrier on the mail route leading from Cleora east in the Gilgal and Berea section.

Misses Ethel and Ellie Miller Lanham, daughters of Mr. T. B. Lanham, arrived Tuesday night from Columbus, Ohio, to spend the summer with relatives here and in other parts of the county. Miss Ethel spent the summer here several years ago but Ellie Miller has not visited Edgefield since she was a little child. They have been very affectionately greeted.

Some time last year, The Advertiser man, when asked about purchasing an automobile, stated that an order would be placed when the car number for the county reached 200, not thinking that number would be reached for several years yet. The rapidity with which the orders have been placed forces us to revise our number by placing another naught after the 200, making it 2,000.

Photographs at reduced prices until the middle of June at Miss Eliza Mims' studio.

The largest yield of wheat yet reported was made by Mr. L. H. Prescott, who harvested 60 bushels from two acres.

The distinction of having the first cotton bloom in this section this season goes to Mr. M. W. Hudgens. He sent a well formed cotton bloom to The Advertiser office Monday morning. Mr. Hudgens has a very fine crop.

Miss Madge Mays and Miss Maizie Mays who have been teaching in the Greenwood high school have arrived to spend the summer at home. Miss Ella Mays is also at home from her school duties at Duncan, Spartanburg county.

Miss Sallie Haynie who has had charge of the millinery department of Rives Bros during the past season leaves to-day for her home in Pleasant View, Va. She has made many friends here who will welcome her return next fall to manage again the millinery department for this popular store.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel M. Craig of Anderson are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cogburn. They were accompanied from Anderson Sunday morning by Mr. Charles Burton. The party left Anderson early Sunday morning and reached Edgefield in time for breakfast, making the 80 miles in four hours.

Considering the number of amateurs among the automobile drivers in Edgefield, the town has been very fortunate in not having a collision or serious accident in some other form. Let all rapid drivers reduce their speed on the main thoroughfares before a fatal accident occurs. Should you be the cause of the death of a little child or some other person, you will regret that you ever saw an automobile.

Good Crop on County Farm.

Some of the finest corn we have seen is on the farm surrounding the County Home, which is in charge of Steward J. R. Scurry. He has 35 acres in corn and only four acres in cotton. Mr. Scurry not only supplies the Home with everything that is needed but also supplies some things for the chaingang. He has about 15 shoats that will make tremendous hogs by fall. The large garden is well supplied with all kinds of vegetables. He is now having a large acreage planted in sweet potatoes. Mr. Scurry has proven over and over again that he is the right man for the position of steward of the County Home. He is not only a practical farmer, managing everything pertaining to the Home in a business-like manner, but he is kind and sympathetic in his attention to the inmates of the County Home.

Farmers Institute at Brunson School.

We have received a personal note from Mr. L. R. Brunson in which he stated that he has arranged with Mr. W. H. Barton, the assistant state demonstration agent, to hold another institute for farmers at Brunson school house. August 5 has been selected as the time for holding the institute. There will be several specialists to deliver addresses, among them will be a lady who will say many things that will interest the ladies and will assist them in solving their problems. The school improvement association will serve a barbecue dinner on August 5 in order to raise funds with which to make some contemplated improvements on the school building. The Advertiser will make a fuller notice later.

Two Worthy Young Graduates.

Two young men of Edgefield county who graduate this year are Rev. Joseph A. Gaines and Mr. Benjamin F. Gaines. The former took his diploma at the recent commencement of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, at Louisville, Ky. He has for some months been pastor of the beautiful new church at West Baden, Ind., and to that place he and his wife have now gone to make their home in the cozy parsonage provided by the church. Mr. Ben Gaines, who is Edgefield county's scholar boy in the Citadel, finishes a highly creditable course in that institution, he each year having taken the highest stand made by his class in mathematics. He has accepted a position for next term as principal of a graded school in Darlington county.

The above young men are sons of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Gaines, of the Mt. Zion community.

Song Service. The Saving of Daddy.

On Sunday afternoon at 5:30 at the Baptist church, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., a unique song service and reading was given. The music was provided by representatives from all the choirs of the town, the following singers taking part: Messrs. J. G. Holland, Geo. F. Mims, Barnwell Jones, Mitchell Reynolds, E. J. Norris, Mesdames E. J. Norris, R. G. Shannonhouse, J. H. Miller, Misses Eliza, Sadie, Sophie and Luri Mims, Marie Abney, Lillian Smith, Elizabeth Rainsford.

The reading of the story entitled "The Saving of Daddy" was beautifully rendered by Mrs. M. P. Wells, the music being interspersed. Solos were given by Mrs. Shannonhouse, and Miss Eliza Mims and Messrs. J. G. Holland and George Mims.

Reception for Teachers, Students and Baracas.

The Young Woman's Auxiliary of the Baptist denomination in South Carolina are being organized in all of the Baptist schools of the state, in order to impress them with the missionary idea as they are taking their college courses. Many of the mothers are identified with this young women's missionary movement, and for that reason it was deemed a worthy idea for the Woman's Missionary Society to entertain all of the teachers and students of Edgefield, and with them the Baraca class to whom they already owed a debt of gratitude for their entertainment at the dining room shower last winter.

Invitations were issued last week, and at the spacious and hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Jones, on Tuesday evening this reception was held, all of the mission society and Y. W. A. members being hostesses. Beautiful decorations of lovely flowers met the eye of each as they entered, delightful nectar having been served on the veranda as the guests arrived.

The wide hall and adjoining rooms were filled with guests who enjoyed the pleasant conversation with friends until the time for the evening's program arrived. Mr. J. L. Mims announced the numbers, the first being a piano duet by Misses Ruth Lyon and Helen Dorn.

Dr. E. P. Jones gave a very humorous but gracious greeting to the guests of this occasion. After this Miss Nelle Jones gave a piano solo. Miss Nan Gunter was called upon for two vocal solos, so greatly do the people of Edgefield value her voice.

Miss Margaret May also rendered a beautiful piano solo, "Rondo Capriccioso," and Miss Ouida Pattison recited a humorous and entertaining selection from Josiah Allen's wife, entitled "Lying the Rose Act."

At the conclusion of this very pleasant program, refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by the Young Woman's Auxiliary the guests lingering until an unusually late hour in such pleasant and congenial environment.

The gentlemen who signed the contract for the lyceum course are requested to meet in the office of Dr. J. S. Byrd next Monday night at 8 o'clock.
