Rubenstein.

The officers of the Edgefield Camp, W. O. W., delivered a check for $2,000 to Mrs. C. E. Quarles Monday, this being the amount of insurance carried on the life of Mr. Quarles in this popular order. The policy was paid within 30 days.

Treasurer J. T. Mims, Auditor J. R. Timmerman and Sheriff W. R. Swearingen have been summoned to appear before Judge Johnson in Greenville on Sept. 28, to show cause why they should not be restrained from levying a tax on the Augusta dam at the locks.

Mr. Lee Timmons has resigned the position which he held in Jacksonville in order to accept one with the Lynch drug store. He was making good in Jacksonville but preferred to be at home. Lee is an exemplary young man and will do his utmost to give satisfaction wherever he may be employed.

Miss Lillie Holston, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Holston, celebrated her 11th birthday Saturday afternoon. The little hostess made the occasion an exceedingly pleasant one for her friends who were thoughtful enough to bestow many beautiful gifts, refreshments were served.

Master Julian Mims celebrated his 11th birthday Saturday. He extended invitations to a number of his friends and the occasion was made a very happy one. He received substantial evidences of friendship from many friends. At the close of outdoor games ice cream and cake were served.

Our Saluda county friends brought a good play to the opera house last Friday night and it was given for a worthy cause. The gross receipts amounted to about $30 and the patronage would have been larger had the play been advertised earlier. Our Saluda friends will receive a cordial welcome whenever they come. Mr. Rushton and Mr. Forrest requested The Advertiser to thank the people of Edgefield for their patronage.

A Good Citizen Passes Away. In the death of Mr. Frank Townes, reported by our North Augusta correspondent, not only the Meriwether section but the entire county loses a sterling citizen. By being among the first to call on the first of October you will be able to get desirable seats, or rather the location in the opera house which you prefer.

Changes in Telephone Force.

There will be general regret when Miss Iris Grice severs her connection with the local telephone office about the first of October. For seven or eight years she has filled the place of local operator very faithfully and efficiently. She will accept a responsible position with the Bell Telephone Company in Augusta when she moves to that city. Miss Iris will be succeeded by Lizzie Hart, as day operator, who will prove to be a worthy successor. She has many friends who are greatly pleased that she has accepted the position. Mr. Frank Hart, who was employed here about two years ago, will be the night operator. He made good in this position before, and the company has been fortunate in securing his services again.

Miss Peak Honored Again.

Miss Hortense Peak, the bride-to-be, has been the recipient of many delightful social attentions during the past fortnight. One of the most pleasant occasions of the summer season for the young people was the miscellaneous shower given Monday afternoon by Miss Marion Blalock in honor of Miss Hortense Peak. Many beautiful gifts were bestowed by scores of admiring friends. The social feature of the occasion was made very pleasant by the popular hostess. Ice cream and cake were served.

Miss Hortense Peak Entertained.

Mrs. J. L. Mims was hostess on Saturday afternoon at a miscellaneous shower to the members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in honor of Miss Hortense Peak.

At five o'clock the guests began to arrive, the officers and superintendents of the local union being in the receiving line. On the front piazza grape juice was served by Misses Frances and Brook Jones, and every nook of the home was well filled by the appointed hour. The rosettes were the diminutive white ribbon bow, the badge of the world's organization.

The programme was a humorous parody on the Psalm of Life, read by Mrs. M. P. Wells, and that beautiful old love song, "Ever of Thee I Am Fondly Dreaming," sung as a duet by Mrs. W. L. Dunovant and Mrs. George Mims.

A toast to the bride was adopted from the original ceremony in verse, which Rev. John Lake used at the marriage of his sister Lula in Japan, read by Mrs. W. E. Lott.

When this interesting programme was finished, it was announced that, although the W. C. T. U. believed in clear and pure water, they had provided a well especially for the bride-to-be, the water of which, by the hand of the "fairy in the well," had been changed into gifts of many friends.

Every one was invited across the hall and into an adjoining room, and in there was a snow-white well, and by it, little Gladys Lawton, in a most beautiful fairy dress. As the snow-white buckets were drawn up this little fairy, commissioned by the W. C. T. U., made each gift just what the bride-to-be most wished for, and they were many and beautiful, and in great variety.

When the fairy had presented all the gifts, she sang a beautiful solo, called "The Fairy in the Well," in which she said that after all pure water was the best drink that God had given to man.

When the guests had returned to the parlor, the W. C. T. U. presented to Miss Peak a beautiful white-ribbon bow of gold, set with pearls; and to Mrs. Fannie Tompkins and Miss Florence Mims other bows of less pretentious design were presented very happily by Mrs. W. B. Cogburn for the union.

At the close of this presentation, Miss Miriam Norris sang that beautiful selection, in which occurs this verse:

"This tiny knot of ribbon,
Sweet sign of inward grace,
Means all that God and woman
Can do for the human race.
Then wear it with pride, dear women,
Morning and noon and night;
Glad to show wherever you go,
You're standing for God and right."

The decorations were golden rod and asparagus, and a banner with the word "Victory," which the hostess could not refrain from using in view of the great joy in the heart of all the white ribbon army over the result of the prohibition election in our fair Palmetto State.

The refreshments were ice cream and cake.
