All lovers of mirth and music should see "The American Girls" in the opera house Tuesday night. It will be the best musical entertainment that Edgefield has ever had.

The county board acted wisely and well last week when it re-elected John R. Scarry steward of the County Home. He is the right man for the place and should be kept there.

Quite a number of parents have ordered The Advertiser sent to their son or daughter at college. Would you not like to have the paper sent to yours, serving as a weekly letter from home?

Attention is directed to the following new advertisements this week: Mukashy Bargain House, the Corner Store, Dorn & Mims, W. E. Prescott, J. H. Garrett, Stewart & Kernaghan, C. M. Williams, The State and W. E. Ozuz.

Mrs. Talbert, the beloved wife of Col. W. J. Talbert, died at her home in Puksville Tuesday. A fuller notice will be given next week.

Death of Bright Boy.

After an illness of only two or three days, Atwood Crafton, the son of Mrs. Jessie Crafton, died Wednesday afternoon at the home of his grandfather, Mr. Arthur Wells. He was 12 years of age and an unusually bright boy, the idol of his mother and grandparents. The funeral was held at Horn's Creek church Thursday afternoon, being conducted by Rev. P. B. Lanham. The Advertiser extends sympathy to the bereaved household.

The First Entertainment.

Have you selected your seats for the lyceum course? If not you had better call at once at the store of Collett & Mitchell and secure tickets for the course. The first entertainment of the course will be given in the opera house next Tuesday night by "The American Girls." The program will be miscellaneous in character and the occasion will be thoroughly enjoyed by all who attend. Six very talented young ladies will give the first entertainment of the course. Do not fail to attend.

Death of Mrs. W. P. Winn.

The earthly career of a good and very gracious woman ended when Mrs. W. P. Winn departed this life last Friday morning. She was ill many months but bore it with Christian patience and fortitude, and during this tedious illness she received the constant attention of devoted loved ones. Nothing was left undone in their efforts to stay the malady or to add to her comfort. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon at Rehoboth church of which Mrs. Winn was a lifelong member. Rev. J. T. Littlejohn conducted the funeral.

Before her marriage to Mr. Winn, nearly 40 years ago, she was Miss Cochran, a sister of the lamented R. A. Cochran. She spent her long sojourn of 65 years in the Rehoboth community. During her entire married life she resided within four miles of the old home in which she was reared. The form of this gentle woman will not again be seen in the home, but her influence, which was always wholesome and helpful, will live through all time in the community which she loved so well. Her mission upon earth having been completed, the Saviour whom she served has called her up higher to await the coming of loved ones for whom she lived, her chief joy and delight being found in making the other members of the home circle happy.

In addition to the devoted husband, Mrs. Winn leaves two daughters, Mrs. George Talbert and Miss Maggie Winn, and eight sons, W. R. E., W. A., W. L., W. E., E. P., R. M., T. C. and J. E. Winn. To these bereaved friends the editor of The Advertiser extends sincere sympathy.

ALL WRONG.

The Mistake is made by Many Edgefield Citizens.

Look for the cause of backache. To be cured you must know the cause.

If it's weak kidneys you must set the kidneys working right. An Edgefield resident tells you how.

Jno D. Smith, overseer at cotton mill, Edgefield, says: "The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and very scanty. They were highly colored and I had to get up several times during the night to pass them. I also had headaches and dizzy spells. Friends recommended Doan's kidney pills and as I had also seen them advertised, I decided to try them. One box cured me of all symptoms of kidney trouble." Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's kidney pills—the same that Mr. Smith had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
