

Office No. 61. Residence, No. 17.

Wednesday, Aug 3

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Ruth Coleman of Aiken is the guest of Miss Mamie Danovant.

Miss Marguerite Patterson of Barnwell is visiting Miss Nelle Jones.

Mrs. W. L. Tweed of Savannah, Ga., is here visiting her sister, Mrs. James Velix.

Mr. R. N. Broadwater of Grovetown, Ga., is visiting relatives in the county.

Master Clarence Boyd of Greerleyville is a visitor in the home of Rev. P. P. Blalock.

Mr. J. D. Mathis, Jr., and his charming bride made a short visit to Edgefield Monday.

Mr. C. H. Key spent last Friday in Columbia with his sons, Messrs. Julian and Charlie Key.

Miss Effie Broadwater of Grovetown, Ga., is the guest of her cousin, Miss Evelyn Broadwater.

Misses Emmie and Alma DeLoach returned Friday from an extended and very pleasant visit to their brother, Mr. Thomas Bomar, in Georgetown.

If your automobile has not a Vapor Plug in it, it should have one. Ask Mr. Bettis Cantelou or Mr. Lovick Mims about this money-saving attachment.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kirkland are receiving the congratulations of their friends over the coming of a sweet little daughter to reside permanently with them.

The fruit store next door to the post-office now has an assistant manager, and over his coming Mr. and Mrs. James Velix are receiving the congratulations of their friends.

The annual meeting of the W. M. U., Edgefield association will be held with the Gilgal church August 27 and 28, Tuesday and Wednesday. A full program will be published next week.

The friends of Mr. Mounzon Dorn of the McKendree section will learn with profound regret of his continued failing health. He has been carried to the hospital in the hope that special treatment will benefit him.

Mr. A. V. Morgan of Graymont, Ga., a son of "Uncle Iv" Morgan visited friends in Edgefield Saturday, paying The Advertiser a pleasant call while here. We are always delighted to shake the hand of any kinsman of "Uncle Iv."

If Edgefield county has lost a bridge as a result of the recent heavy rains, we have not been informed of it. Many other counties in the State have lost heavily, the losses in some of bridges alone aggregating almost $75,000.

Mr. J. F. Walker of Antioch was in town yesterday and told The Advertiser's representative that some of the farmers in his community have dragged the public road leading to Edgefield. Citizens of other communities should follow this commendable example.

The farmers institute at Cleora, or rather the Brunson school house, on August 10 will be a rousing success. It has such workers as C. M. Williams, Luther Brunson, Tom Williams, the Reel boys and other progressive citizens with their shoulders to the wheel.

Among those who will address the farmers at their institute at the Brunson school house August 10 will be the Hon. E. J. Watson, commissioner of agriculture. Hundreds of farmers should come together on that day to hear Col. Watson. There will also be other good speakers.

Miss Eva Pickens Tarrant is the guest of Misses Sophie and Marie Abney and Mrs. W. P. Calhoun. Miss Tarrant returned from Cox college in June where she studied expression. She will take the leading part in the play, "The Goddess of Love" which Miss Marie Abney is rehearsing for the library.

Mr. James F. Turner of Blythe, Ga., was a welcomed visitor in Edgefield Saturday. He came over from his Georgia home to visit his kinsman, Mr. Butler Bryant, who has been in feeble health for the past year. Mr. Turner is always cordially welcomed by his Edgefield friends.

Miss Carrie Talbert came to Edgefield Tuesday to visit relatives and to attend the Sunbeam rally tomorrow. She is always very cordially greeted by her Edgefield friend. Miss Carrie will teach in the Plum Branch school next session.

For accuracy and ability to turn off work, P. W. Cheatham, the efficient clerk of the board of county commissioners, is hard to beat. He completed yesterday by dint of hard work all matters that came before the board, making it possible for the members of the board to go to the campaign meeting at Colliers to-day.

Mr. Lester Talbert while in town yesterday was asked if it was safe to plow cotton in August, old cotton with well formed bolls, and he stated that if his land is sufficiently dry he expected to plow some this week, adopting the plan of plowing every other row. Mr. Talbert's judgment on farming, or anything else, is mighty good.

Dr. H. A. Ackerman, the capable young pharmacist who is on duty at the Penn & Holstein drug store, spent the early part of last week at his home in Colleton county, returning by way of Columbia Friday to stand the examination before the State board of examiners. He stood a highly creditable examination and received his commission as pharmacist of this state.

Mr. S. B. Nicholson is over from Georgetown visiting relatives. He has decided to move his family back to Edgefield at once. During the recent gale that wrought such heavy damage around Georgetown Mr. Nicholson had 200 acres of rice ruined, the loss being very heavy. Their Edgefield friends will welcome Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson and little Mary back home.

Three on One Day.

Thursday, July 3, the county campaign meeting will be held at Meeting Street, the annual picnic will be held at Centre Spring and Sunbeam meet, a rally of all of the Sunbeam organizations, will be held at Edgefield—a trio of good things on the same day. All of the candidates will have to go the campaign meeting.

Visitors in Edgefield.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Bland Addison are guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Mims. Mr. Addison was born in Edgefield but has not been here before in nearly 30 years. He is a first-cousin of Mr. Mims. Mr. and Mrs. Addison reside in Louisville, Ky. He has some official connection with the Belknap Hardware company, one of the largest establishments of the kind in the world.

Death of Mr. S. M. Strom.

Friday last Mr. S. M. Strom passed away at the home of his brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas E. Byrd. He has been in feeble health for more than a year. He spent some time in Edgefield with his sister, Mrs. Logan, and his friends here were greatly distressed over his steady decline. He went to the hospital for special treatment some months ago but nothing could stay the steady progress of the disease that had taken a fatal grip upon him. Mr. Strom was quiet and unobtrusive in his manner and for that reason was known best and appreciated most by those in closest association with him. He was reared and spent his long life of 62 or 63 years practically in the same community in which he died. Mr. Strom was never married. The funeral was conducted at Gilgal church Friday by the pastor, Rev. P. B. Lanham.

Death of Mrs. William Johnson.

The Edgefield relatives of Mrs. William Johnson were deeply pained by the announcement of her death which occurred at her home in Saluda county Friday about noon, the interment taking place at Rocky Creek church Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Johnson was stricken with paralysis Thursday, her left side being totally paralyzed. She was unconscious from the time she was stricken. Before her marriage Mrs. Johnson was Miss Elizabeth Allen and was reared at Fruit Hill. She was gentle, amiable and sweet spirited and was genuinely beloved by everybody who knew her. One rarely meets a more devout, consecrated Christian than Mrs. Johnson. She carried her religion into every thought and act of her life. She is survived by her husband, two daughters, Misses Maggie and Bettie Johnson, and four sons, Boyce, Tupper, Judson and Scott Johnson. To these bereaved loved ones we extend sincere sympathy.

Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock the August meeting of the W. C. T. U., will be held at the Baptist church. Every member is requested to make a special effort to attend, and all August members are asked to bring or send their dues.

The meeting will consist of the annual reports of all officers and superintendents and the scrap book will be exhibited, in charge of Mrs. E. J. Norris and Miss Eliza Mims. Mrs. Peak will be in charge of the devotions and good music will be a feature of the program.

A social half hour be spent out under the trees at the conclusion of the program.

Mrs. Folk Entertains For Miss Hollingsworth.

Miss Lizzie Hollingsworth was the honor guest at a delightful party given by Mrs. Edwin Folk, on last Tuesday afternoon. About twenty-eight guests were seated at the card tables in the parlor and on the porch.

The guests were received at the door by Mrs. James S. Byrd, Miss Kellah Fair and Mrs. Folk. Miss Hollingsworth looked charming in a costume of tan lace.

Panic, a new game was played at three tables, while those on the porch played rook. Though the game was new the guests easily learned for at each table they were told the whys and wherefores of the game. From the gay time the guests had over the panic table, one is led to think that it will take the place of the popular rook game. The tally cards served both for keeping score and for souvenirs.

At the close of the games, Miss Hollingsworth was presented with a handsome cut glass powder stand, with silver top by the hostess. At the rook table, Miss Ilene Harling won first prize which she presented to Miss Hollingsworth. The prize consisted of a lovely box of pink tinted stationery. The first prize in panic consisting of one of the latest novels, was won by Miss Helen Tillman. The consolation consisting of a box of correspondence cards was won by Mrs. John Rainsford.

A delightful salad course with iced tea was served, and afterward cream and pound cake. This was a most enjoyable occasion for all present.

A Guest.

Miss Marie Abney Entertains.

On Tuesday evening at eight-thirty o'clock one of the most beautiful parties of the season took place at the home of Miss Marie Abney. This party was given in honor of Miss Eva Pickens Tarrant of Mount Carmel.

Sixty guests were invited and the spacious lawn, porch, hall and rooms looked beautiful in their decorations of pink roses and the further decorations of the pretty girls wearing evening gowns, and also the handsome young men.

As the guests entered they were greeted at the door by Miss Marie Abney, while Mrs. Calhoun guided them to the receiving line, there to meet Miss Tarrant, who looked charming in a pink gown, holding a large bouquet of pink roses. The others in the receiving line were Misses Miriam Norris, Hortense Woodson and Florence Mims.

The guests then repaired to the porch, where delightful fruit nectar was served by Miss Ilene Harling. The punch bowl was decorated in bunches of delicious ripe grapes. The porch was lit by rows of rainbow colored Japanese lanterns.

Soon cards and pencils were distributed, and great enthusiasm was aroused when the girls were told that since it was leap year that they were to make the dates. Many of the boys had all of their dates filled, and some young men were popular enough to have two young ladies to escort them about. This game proved very interesting and entertaining. During the fourteenth date pink ice cream and cake, iced with pink, were served, thus carrying out the color scheme.

About twelve o'clock the guests departed, having had the time of their lives.

CLEAR SKIN COMES FROM WITHIN.

It is foolish to think you can gain a good clear complexion by the use of face powder. Get at the root of the trouble and thoroughly cleanse the system with a treatment of Dr. King's New Life Pills. Gentle and mild in action, do not gripe, yet they relieve the liver by their action on the bowels. Good for young, adults and aged. Go after a clear complexion to-day. 25c. at your druggist. 1

Letter From Hardys.

As my time is limited will only write a little.

We were called to attend the funeral of another of our dear old ladies last Saturday. Miss Fannie Lanier passed away Friday morning at seven o'clock. Very peacefully she fell asleep after a short illness. Was conscious to the last. Talked of her garden the day before her death, and said since she had not been able to look after it the grass had taken possession of it. She has been feeble for some time, though not confined constantly to her room. Always took an active interest in all that was going on around. All who knew her, loved her. She was a gentle, lovely Christian lady, and has gone to meet the loved ones, who have waited so long for her coming. She leaves two sisters, Mrs. Mat Shaw and Miss Melvie Lanier to mourn her loss, and many nieces and nephews. She will be greatly missed by them.

We are sorry to hear of Miss Mary Townes being sick with malaria and chills. She is able to be up again.

Mrs. Milton Barker has been complaining, but is better.

Mrs. J. M. W. Glover has been quite sick, but is improving some, and we hope will soon be herself again.

Mrs. Minnie Lanham gave a social last Friday night to her sisters, who are visiting her, and they furnished most beautiful music for the enjoyment of the guests. Of course there were delicious refreshments as well as music. We all know the Lyon family are specially gifted musicians, and would love so much to hear them all together once again. We hope Miss Daisy has been heard from since the floods, and she is all right.

Successful Revival at Antioch. Union Meeting at Red Hill.

There was a very successful revival meeting held at Antioch last week. Rev. H. B. White assisted our pastor in this meeting. Mr. White is a very earnest preacher and the people greatly enjoyed his good preaching. We feel much good was accomplished in this meeting.

The union meeting of the 2nd division met with Red Hill church Saturday and Sunday. There was a large congregation both days. The program was carried out as published. The singing was good. The speeches was of a high order. Rev. P. B. Lanham preached a good sermon Sunday morning after which a collection was taken for state missions. The next union will convene with the Mt. Zion church.

There was a full delegation of candidates at the union meeting. We were glad to see them. As soon as service commenced they all come in and enjoyed the service.

Mr. R. M. Johnson visited his sister in Washington, Ga., last week.

Mr. Jack Harling has returned from Glenn Springs. Mr. Harling says he feels ten years younger.

Miss Robbie Parks of Augusta and Miss Kathleen Parks of Parksville are visiting Rose Cottage this week.

Mr. R. A. Wash has a new Ford. We are glad that our people are getting cars, it means so much to the county. Your correspondent has the Ford fever.

Mr. Willie Quarles is the champion fisher in our community. One day last week he caught 112 fish at one time in a basket. Who can beat that?

Miss Martha Strom of Rehoboth is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. W. Quarles.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Robertson of Modoc, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Holmes of Edgefield are visiting uncle Allie and aunt Mallie Holmes. Miss Madge Wood is on the sick list. We hope she will soon be well again.

The missionary society of Red Hill will send a coop of chickens to the orphanage this week.

There will be two services at Republican next Sunday.

Rose Cottage.
