

Office No. 61.

Residence, No. 17.

Wednesday, Jan. 3.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Gunter visited relatives in Leesville several days last week.

Mr. James Cothran of Abbeville has been spending the past week in Edgefield with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Jones are the possessors of a Ford of the latest model.

Miss Ruth Timmerman spent several days in Augusta last week with relatives.

Miss Ruth Lyon spent last week with her sister, Mrs. Minnie Latham near North Augusta.

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Day, Jr., spent Thursday in Edgefield with Mrs. Day's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Mims.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Smith and Mrs. J. L. Morgan spent Christmas day in Columbia as guests of Gen. and Mrs. U. R. Brooks.

Mr. Arnoldus Lewis who holds a lucrative position in Columbia spent a portion of the holiday season in Edgefield with Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Folk.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Prescott, accompanied by their children, spent several days of the festive season in Springfield with Mrs. Prescott's parents.

The members of the Baptist congregation were thoughtful of their pastor, presenting him with a purse of $50.00 Christmas morning.

Mrs. C. M. Mellichamp and her two little children have been spending the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Morgan.

Mrs. J. W. Cheatham spent the holiday season very pleasantly in McRea, Ga., visiting Mr. J. B. Cheatham, a brother of Mr. J. W. Cheatham.

Miss Onida Lundy, the charming daughter of Mr. Robert Lundy of Augusta, has been a guest in the home of Mrs. A. L. Edmunds.

Mr. Walter L. Holston and Mr. O. A. Kinnaird have resigned their positions with Mr. L. T. May and he has employed Mr. Hamp Smith as salesman.

Mrs. Belton Rambo, nee Miss Rena Edmunds, came up from Augusta and spent several days here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Edmunds.

Mr. Abney Parks, than whom there is no more industrious young man in the county, has rented the farm of Mr. J. S. Smith beyond the bridge where Mrs. Charlie Quarles resided.

Mrs. Charlie Quarles has moved back to her farm in the Red Hill community. Since they moved to Edgefield several years ago Mrs. Quarles and her family have made many friends here who regret to see them leave.

Mr. C. R. Dobson has come down from Greensboro, N. C., to visit his mother, Mrs. Emma N. Dobson. Mr. Dobson has a large shoe store in Greensboro that he has been giving personal attention to during the past few months.

Misses Madge and Mazie Mays came down from Greenwood and spent their annual Christmas vacation with their father, Col. S. B. Mays. Both of these talented young ladies teach in the Greenwood high school.

If the penalty has been added to your taxes, nobody's to blame but yourself. Don't say ugly words or think ugly thoughts about the treasurer or auditor, for in adding the penalty they have only done what the law required them to do.

Mrs. Marion Childress of Greer is a welcome holiday visitor in Edgefield, dividing the time between relatives here and at Johnston. Her two bright and popular little sons, Luther and Benjamin Jones, reside in Edgefield with their grandmother, Mrs. Hettie Jones, and attend school.

A host of young teachers came home for the holidays, among them being Miss Lillian Smith from Columbia, Miss Pauline Byrd from Lancaster, Miss Mamie Danovant from Darlington, Miss Ida Lou Morgan from Winnsboro, Miss Lillie Morgan from Aiken, Miss Royce Leck from Groesbeville, Miss Florence Peak from Heath Springs.

Miss Martha Boozer of Columbia has been the guest of Miss Marion Bailey for the past week.

Mr. James Timmerman, Jr., can be found by his friends at the Lynch drug store, where he will give them a cordial greeting.

Mrs. James S. Byrd and her two little children returned last night from Columbia, where they spent the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. John Fitzmaurice.

Mr. William Ouzts who is now filling a lucrative position with the Buck-Eye Oil Company of Augusta spent the early part of the week here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ouzts.

Maj. R. S. Anderson and Mr. J. S. Smith came down from Washington to spend Christmas with their families. Both of them were very cordially greeted by their friends.

Miss Mamie Cheatham who has been teaching the Mt. Zion school for the past three years spent the holiday season at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cheatham.

Young gentlemen from a distance were attentive visitors on Columbia street, Jeter street and in Buncombe during the holidays. The Advertiser will not call names yet.

Dr. B. F. Jones spent the 27th and 28th of December in Atlanta attending the annual meeting of the Southeastern Association of Veterinarians. He was accompanied by Mr. Otis Quarles.

Miss Tillie Youngblood of Augusta has been spending the past week with her sisters, Miss Cottie Youngblood and Miss Nannie Griffin. The friends of Miss Cottie deeply regret that she is ill at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Key were made happy by having all of their children with them last week. Mrs. Hal Beman came up from Augusta and Mr. Julian Key and Mr. Charlie Key from Columbia.

Miss Virginia Simkins has been employed again in the engraving department during the session of the legislature. She is a very skilled stenographer and has been engaged in this special department for several years.

The Edgefield friends of Mr. Mack Davis will regret to learn of his death which occurred at his home in Mississippi the 20th of December. Besides his wife, he was Miss Birdie S. Beck, he leaves four children. Mr. Davis died of apoplexy.

Mr. Levi Quarles who occupied the home of Mr. S. B. Nicholson in the northern suburbs of Edgefield last year, purchased a farm in the Choctaw section and has moved his family to his newly purchased home. He will continue however to produce cotton seed in the Edgefield market.

Mr. W. M. H. Eng is setting a good example to other men in Edgefield, especially young men. Instead of spending his earnings in extravagant living, he is investing in Edgefield real estate. His latest purchase was the brick store near the station from Capt. O. P. Ebbitt. The building is occupied by Mr. C. M. Thomas.

Mr. George S. ... accompanied by his wife, passed through Edgefield Saturday while en route to his home in the Rehoboth-Plum Branch section. Mr. and Mrs. Cardledge were heartily congratulated by a number of their Edgefield friends who wish them every possible blessing during their future years.

Mrs. T. G. Smith of the Harmony-Trenton community was made very happy last week by having all of her children with her during the early part of the week. Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Carpenter came down from Gastonia, N. C., Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Carpenter from Shelby, N. C., and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Eubanks came up from Aiken.

Mr. J. T. McClung has resigned his position with the Lynch drug store and has accepted a position as pharmacist with the Taylor Drug Company of Columbia. He is a full graduate of the Atlanta College of Pharmacy and is well equipped for his work. The Advertiser wishes him well in his new field.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Morgan came over from Georgetown last week to visit Mr. Morgan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Morgan. He returned to Georgetown Thursday but Mrs. Morgan will remain with Edgefield relatives several days. The friends of Calvin will be pleased to learn that he is making good — has made good, in fact — as manager of a large mercantile establishment.

The next Lyceum entertainment will be given in the opera house by Packard, the master American cartoonist, Tuesday night, January 16.

Mrs. H. C. Porter and her sweet little daughter spent a portion of last week in Batesburg with relatives.

Mr. DeLoach Warren has resigned his position with Dunovant & Company to accept a position with W. W. Adams & Co.

There will be service in the Episcopal church here next Sunday at 11:15 and in the Trenton Episcopal church at 4:00 P. M.

Mr. W. S. G. Heath came up from Augusta and spent Saturday and Sunday out among friends of the Antioch section.

Another sweet little girl has been added to the home circle of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lynch and the fond parents are receiving congratulations of their friends.

Miss Effie Broadwater, a charming young lady of Augusta, has been spending the past week here with her cousin, Mrs. Harry Strom.

Bargains in ladies' shoes. We are offering 50 pairs of ladies' shoes for $1.19 the pair. We have your size—1 to 3 1-2.

The Corner Store.

Mr. W. P. Johnson and his family of Johnston spent one day of the festive season with his brother, Mr. E. S. Johnson.

Attention is directed to the following new advertisements this week: Collett & Mitchell, The Corner Store, E. S. Rives, D. F. Jones, Daitch Bargain House, Rubenstein, Mukashy Bargain House, L. T. May and J. Perry Waddell.

Dr. W. S. Currell, the president of the University of South Carolina, will address the county teachers' association Saturday, January 13. He should be greeted by a large audience.

The Advertiser extends sincere congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Allen of Fruit Hill, whose marriage is reported by our Johnston correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Holston and their little daughter, Ethlyn, and Miss Pearl Harven of Augusta visited Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Johnson during the holidays.

Buncombe extends an affectionate welcome to little Thomas Mott Kernaghan who has come to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Kernaghan.

Miss Sadie Talbert had as her guests for the Peace Friday night Misses Annie Smith, Elizabeth Adams and Mildred Cassells from Augusta.

Dr. J. S. Byrd and Mr. J. L. Mims will attend the district convention of Knights of Pythias at Johnston Friday, representatives of the E. O. lodge.

The handsome brick mansion near the public square is now presided over by a little queen but a few days ago Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Sandersate warmly congratulated over her coming.

Mr. Harry Strom has been employed as salesman for the new year by Dunovant & Company. He will give his friends a hearty welcome when they call at this popular store.

When Auditor J. B. Timmerman was representative, Mr. J. B. ... on the taxpayers of ... township, January 13, he will stop at Thurmond's store to receive returns.

A helpful New Year sermon will be preached this Sunday morning at the Presbyterian church in this place, and at night to the Trenton congregation. Let us begin the year right!

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Nicholson now occupy their home in northern Edgefield and Mr. and Mrs. Daitch have moved into the new cottage of Mr. J. R. Seaty on Jeter street where Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson formerly resided.

Mr. Edward Lynch was a welcome visitor in Edgefield during the holidays. He has been located in Roland, N. C., for the past year but will soon move to Wilson, of the same State, to practice law.

Another Veteran Taken.

Mr. E. S. Johnson, our fellow townsman, has the sympathy of his friends in the death of his father which occurred at his home in Graniteville Sunday, December 23. Mr. Johnson rendered gallant service during the four years of the Civil War and all through his long life of 73 years has made an exemplary citizen. He was a native of this county and his body was laid to rest in the Johnston cemetery.

To Prevent Blood Poisoning

Apply at once the wonderful old reliable Dr. PORTER'S ANTISEPTIC HEALING OIL, a surgical dressing that relieves pain and heals in the same time. Not a liniment. 25c.

Thankful for Liberal Patronage

The year 1916 has been the best with me since I have been in Edgefield, and I desire to thank the people for the large amount of business given me, and wish them all a new year of prosperity and happiness.

In future I shall keep a large stock as heretofore, and will sell just as reasonable as possible, making it to the interest of the people to continue to patronize me. We hope to hold all our old friends and make many new ones in 1917.

RUBENSTEIN

A Voice From Oconee.

(Continued from Page Seven.)

should have a chance to see the city of Washington before they die.

Tell Jim Mobley to look out, I have been appointed magistrate on the Commanding General's staff. I am going to have a Confederate grey uniform, a long jim swinney and I may rank him in Washington.

As I have already stated, we are not to have snow, but we are having some cold weather, the thermometer stands from 16 to 20, although fair and bright. The cold of winter has spread its icy fingers over field and forest, and every thing apparently is dead in nature.

The calico hawks are very numerous in this county, for they are swooping down almost daily catching their prey and taking it off to matrimonial fields. But the wise man said, whose findeth a wife findeth a good thing and obtaineth favor of the Lord. Notice the phraseology—a good wife, Prov. 18:22.

J. Russell Wright

Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

The first meeting of the W. C. T. U. for the year 1917 will meet on next Monday, Jan. 8, with Mrs. W. R. Swearingen in east Edgefield.

The programme will consist of talks on The Union Signal, Palmetto White Ribbon and The Annual Leaflet by various members. Arrangements will be made for the entertainment of the County Teachers' Association, and a full attendance is desired.

Hill-Williams.

Wednesday afternoon, December 27, Miss Nellie Hill and Mr. J. O. Williams were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Maggie Hill, three miles north of Edgefield. Their marriage was a very quiet one, only the members of the immediate families of the bride and groom being present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. B. Latham. The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. Maggie Hill. Since her graduation from Winthrop college she has been a very successful teacher. The groom is the eldest son of Mr. C. M. Williams and one of the most successful farmers of the Cleora section. The Advertiser extends hearty congratulations to these young friends.

Invigorating to the Pale and Sickly
The Old Standard general strengthening tonic, GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC drives out Malaria, enriches the blood, builds up the system. A true Tonic. For adults and children. 50c.

COLLETT & MITCHELL

PHARMACISTS

We are deeply grateful for the liberal patronage of 1916 and solicit a continuance for 1917, at the same time wishing all of our friends much success and happiness for the New Year.

Pure Drugs and Fancy Groceries

We Thank Our Friends

We desire to thank our friends and the Edgefield people generally for the generous patronage given us since we came to Edgefield. We shall continue to carry a large stock of dependable merchandise, and will appreciate a generous patronage in the future.

Daitch Bros. Bargain House

Next Door to Farmers Bank