

Office No. 61
Residence, No. 17

Wednesday, December 19.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Sergt. W. D. Allen is spending a furlough of five days at home.

Mr. Ouida Patterson is at home for the holidays from Anderson college.

The Advertiser publishes this week the second and last installment of the very interesting letter of Miss Sue Sloan.

All of the college boys and girls will arrive the latter part of the week for their Christmas vacation, giving new life to the old town.

Mrs. N. G. Evans and Master George, Jr., left Monday to spend the holidays in Macon with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rhodes.

Send all of the Edgefield soldier boys a Christmas card, letting them know that you often think of them while away.

Unless you pay up what you owe on subscription, your name will be dropped when The Advertiser's list is revised. Better pay up at once.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Carroll Cogburn will make their home in Johnston after the holidays. Their Edgefield friends will give them up with great reluctance.

Seal all of your Christmas packages with Red Cross stamps. The cost will not be great, and you will be giving material aid to a very worthy cause.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Smith, Mrs. Julia Brooks Morgan, Judge and Mrs. J. W. DeVore attended the funeral of Gen. U. R. Brooks in Columbia Monday.

You can contribute to a worthy cause by purchasing Red Cross stamps. Let all of your letters and cards of the Christmas season bear a Red Cross stamp.

Mr. J. P. McManus, Jr. went to Columbia Thursday and volunteered for service in the Navy. We confidently expect to hear that "J. T." is making a fine record.

Ex-Gov. John C. Sheppard and Hon. J. Wm. Thurmond went to Saluda Monday on legal business. Mr. O. B. Anderson also accompanied them as stenographer.

All of the merchants are having a good holiday business in spite of the cold weather. The salesforce of nearly all the stores has been increased for the Christmas rush.

Buy a war savings stamp or thrift stamp for the children for a Christmas present. This will encourage them to save their money by purchasing additional stamps.

Mr. William Warren Hill who has been transferred from Camp Jackson to Camp Sevier has been made a sergeant, being thus rewarded for faithful discharge of duty.

Mr. M. Leslie Edmunds, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Edmunds, was among those who went to Columbia last week and volunteered for military service. He will make a good soldier.

The Presbyterian ladies were very successful with their bazaar Tuesday, the sum of $90.00 being realized for their treasury. These very zealous workers never fall short of success in whatever they undertake.

Among the Edgefield shoppers in Augusta Monday were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kennerly, Mrs. C. E. May, Mrs. J. A. Townsend, Mrs. J. C. Hughes, Miss Virginia Addison, Mrs. Hattie Adams, Miss Lillie Adams and Miss Lillian Patterson.

While under the quart-a-month law just one-fourth the whiskey is being shipped that was shipped here last Christmas, yet the quantity is still too great. Scores of persons are ordering it for medicine who were never in better health in their lives.

Mr. Henry Cartledge Adams, a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Adams, who reside near Augusta, was run over by an automobile in Augusta recently and had his ankles shattered, being carried to the University hospital. He is improving rapidly and will soon be out again. Recently Mr. Adams was called for military service and passed a better physical examination of any others who were examined at the same time. His later injury by the automobiles will probably disqualify him for military service.

Just before closing our forms the announcement of the death of Mrs. Frances Holston, mother of Mr. W. L. Holston, was received. She will be buried at Red Hill to-morrow, which is the eighty-second anniversary of her birth.

The membership committee of the Red Cross chapter held a meeting Tuesday afternoon and each member made a very encouraging report. Miss Pearl Padgett is leading in securing new members. A full report, giving the names of the new members, will be made in the next issue of The Advertiser.

Lieutenant James Thompson is here visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Kate Butler, before reporting for duty at the aviation camp in Houston, Texas. Notwithstanding the fact that James is only 18 years of age, he has received a commission in the aviation branch of the military service.

Union Meeting Postponed.

On account of the severe weather the union meeting will not be held at Stevens Creek church on the 5th Sunday in December. However, the church still invites the union to meet with it, so the next regular meeting will be held at Stevens Creek church the 5th Sunday in March.

Many Yet Delinquent.

While a large number of subscribers who were in arrears have responded to our urgent appeals, yet there are many who have not yet paid. We will soon revise our subscription list and those who fail to pay will be dropped from the list. Call and pay up at once or mail us a check for the amount due. The label on your paper will show what you owe.

Meeting of the Policyholders.

The annual meeting of policyholders of the Abbeville-Greenwood Mutual Insurance Association will be held in Greenwood, S. C. 11 o'clock a. m., January 1st, 1918.

Card From Pastor.

My Dear Fellow Workers of Antioch Baptist Church:

Can I call you my fellow workers? Are you really interested in the Lord's work in your community? Suppose the success of the church rested upon you, and you alone, would it succeed? "Suppose all the membership of the church were just like me, what sort of a church would my church be?"

Next Sunday morning at 11:00 A. M. is arranged for a get-together meeting. Will you be one to meet your pastor at that hour in the old church, in order to help plan the work for another year, and to hear your pastor preach a special sermon which he has prepared for the membership of the church.

"Come thou with us and we will do thee good."

Yours for success,
J. W. Kesterson.
