LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

The Odd Fellows will meet Tuesday evening at 9:30.

Mrs. Minnie Love of Columbia is the guest of Mrs. L. Y. Moore.

Ex-Gov. J. C. Sheppard left yesterday for Glenn Springs for a period of much needed rest.

Rev. P. P. Blalock will preach at Berea church the morning of the 1st Sunday in July at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. George E. Davis of Orangeburg was the guest of Mrs. Mamie N. Tillman Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Ida F. Sheppard spent the early part of the week in Augusta with her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Miller.

Use sugar very economically. The submarines have caused the sugar situation to become more acute.

Rev. M. D. Padgett of Saluda is here visiting his son and daughter, Mr. E. E. Padgett and Miss Pearl Padgett.

Mr. Sloan M. Watson came over from Camp Jackson Saturday and remained until Monday morning with the homefolk.

The July term of court of general sessions will convene the second Monday in July and will be presided over by Judge J. W. DeVore.

Dr. J. S. Byrd and Dr. A. H. Corley will go to Columbia tomorrow to attend the annual meeting of the South Carolina Dental association.

Dr. Eustace Prescott who recently volunteered for service in the navy left Sunday for Charleston to enter upon his duties as assistant surgeon.

Mrs. Ida Sheppard's friends sympathize with her in the death of her sister, Mrs. Fannie Andrews, which occurred at Greenwood Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Dobson of Beech Island, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Dobson and Mr. and Mrs. Manly Dobson of Augusta visited their mother, Mrs. Emma Dobson, Sunday.

Mr. W. A. Strom made a shipment of more than 100 bales of cotton to Augusta Monday, "heading off" by one day the 25 per cent. increase in freight rates that became effective Tuesday.

Attention is directed to the Union Meeting programmes that are published in this issue. Among them is the programme of the meeting to be held at Philippi church in the Ridge Association.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Crews, Messrs. W. T. and Laurens Crews, Mrs. John F. Bolt and Miss Sarah Richey came down from Laurens Sunday and were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Crews.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Key of Columbia are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Key. Mr. Key recently volunteered for service in the navy and came over to visit his parents before reporting for duty.

Mr. John A. Holland is down from Greenwood looking after his business interests in this section. He has sold several pianos during the past week. Better see him and buy a piano before the price is advanced.

Miss Evelyn Edmunds has graduated from Osborne's Business College in Columbia, having completed the full course in stenography and typewriting. She will rest for a while during summer before accepting a regular position.

The friends of Mr. Walter E. Samuel sympathize with him in the tragic death of his brother early Sunday morning. He was chief of police of Waynesboro, Ga., and while in discharge of his duty, assisting in arresting a "blind tiger," was shot twice and died in a short time.

Since the announcement of their engagement a short time ago, the approaching marriage of Miss Berta Hill and Mr. E. E. Padgett has been the leading topic of conversation among their friends and everybody in Edgefield are friends of these deservedly very popular young people.

Mr. Clarence Seigler, a son of Mr. and Mr. J. J. C. Seigler, is at home on a furlough of 30 days. He is at the naval training station at Newport, Rhode Island, having volunteered several months ago.

Mr. Stephen Darlington has been spending the past week in Edgefield with relatives. For the past several years he has been attending Harvard University but recently volunteered for service in the navy and will soon report for duty.

The union meeting of the First Division will take place with the Edgefield Baptist church on Saturday and Sunday. Every family among the Baptists in Edgefield is invited to attend the meeting on Saturday and bring a basket. The delegates will go to the homes on Sunday.

Miss Rosada Talbert is entertaining as her guests in Parksville, Miss Myra Pierce of Augusta, Miss Fay Gullick of Greenville, Miss Caroline McMurry of Augusta, Mr. Watson Talbert, and Mr. Herbert Parks. Two young soldiers from Camp Sevier are the other members of the house party. Miss Talbert gave a luncheon in their honor on Friday night and they mooned to Miss Rosela Parker's. The last, to Miss Rosela Parker's. The guests and Miss Talbert will spend this week-end with Miss Parker in Edgefield.

Home Demonstration Clubs at Winthrop.

Edgefield was represented at Winthrop from June 6 to 15 by the following: Mrs. J. D. Mathis and daughter, Susan, Mrs. Jerome Courtney, Mrs. W. C. Tompkins, Misses Sadie Mims, Pearl Quarles, Lydia Brunson, Zola Walker, Eugenia Brunson and Ruth Scott.

These delegates report a most delightful and profitable time, having heard many wonderful speakers of note.

Two extra scholarships were raised to be given to club girls in the State, to be won by competitive examination. Miss Pearl Quarles was very much honored by being awarded a dining room scholarship for the summer school. She was exceedingly fortunate in obtaining this scholarship as many others were anxious for the place.

The amount necessary for the scholarship was contributed by the club delegates. These scholarships are known as the Johnson-Parratt and Mary Walker scholarships.

Miss Patti Major is due great credit for having secured such a splendid delegation, and for the general impetus in our county towards the conservation of food and the proper preparing of it, in the canning and poultry raising industry, as well as in gardening by the children and young people. Miss Major has proven her real worth to our county and has not only been worthy, but is also highly appreciated.

Very Patriotic People.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Norris and the editor of The Advertiser went up to the Sullivan and Fruit Hill schools Monday to present the War Savings Stamps to the good people of that section. About ten o'clock a representative body of white people gathered in the Sullivan school house, the meeting being presided over by Mr. J. P. Sullivan, who requested Mr. Jasper J. Mayson to offer a prayer. The occasion was a very inspiring one. As a result of the rally pledges to the amount of more than $1,300 were taken for War Savings Stamps. The people manifested such a loyal, patriotic spirit. The committee from Edgefield enjoyed every moment spent with them. The ladies also organized a War Savings Society.

We accepted an invitation to take dinner at the beautiful and very hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Sullivan near the school house. We enjoyed a beautiful feast, notwithstanding the fact that Mrs. Sullivan made it conform in every detail to Mr. Hoover's regulations. The great variety served attested Mr. Sullivan's energy and successful management, and the beautiful manner in which it was served reflected great credit upon Mrs. Sullivan.

In the afternoon, accompanied by Mr. J. P. Sullivan, Mr. S. W. Sullivan, Mr. G. R. Mayson, Mr. Gus Winn and several other patriotic white citizens, the committee went to meet the colored people at Fruit Hill school house. They were promptly on hand and likewise manifest a loyal and patriotic spirit. After the War Savings Stamps were explained to them, following a patriotic appeal, they responded generously, pledges being received for more than $2,300 worth of stamps. We do not believe, considering the ability of the white and colored people of that section bordering on McCormick and Greenwood counties, that any other people in the State have surpassed them. The day was thoroughly enjoyed, both morning and afternoon, by each member of the committee from Edgefield. Neither of them will have to be urged to visit this community. The people have proven what splendid people they are. They are loyal, patriotic and generous.

New Red Cross Auxiliaries.

On last Thursday afternoon Mr. Shannonhouse, chairman of the Edgefield Red Cross chapter, went with the extension committee to organize an auxiliary at Roper's Cross Roads. After short talks by Mr. Shannonhouse and the ladies, the auxiliary officers were elected. Mrs. W. L. Timmerman was made chairman; Miss Sallie May Miller, secretary; Miss Emmie Lanham, treasurer.

A very pleasant discussion of the different departments of work now being done by the chapter resulted in a request for a number of garments to be given at once to the auxiliary.

On Friday afternoon Mr. J. R. Timmerman again placed his car at the service of the extension committee, thus helping in the organization of an auxiliary at Cleora.

A number of ladies assembled at the schoolhouse, officers were elected and a request made for immediate work. The Cleora officers are: Mrs. W. T. Reel, chairman; Miss Janie Reel, secretary; Miss Alma Williams, treasurer.

The Edgefield chapter is happy to welcome these two auxiliaries whose enthusiastic interest at their initial meeting gives promise of earnest, faithful service to the Red Cross.

"America First"

South Carolina is behind in her quota of War Savings Stamps. She must catch up and go "over the top". The campaign for this purpose begins on the 14th and closes on the 28th of June. When this drive is over let us have South Carolina where she is always found—at the top.

We are duly appointed agents for the sale of these stamps.

Help your country—help our boys—help yourself by investing in War Savings Stamps.

You can also help yourself by making your purchases of dry goods, shoes, notions, etc. of us, as we have a complete stock.
