Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Robinson of Columbia are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mims. Mr. Robinson is a large lumber dealer and sells lumber in large quantities to the government for the building of cantonments and for other purposes.

The Edgefield County Interdenominational Sunday School convention will meet with the Edgefield Methodist church on Thursday and Friday, July 25 and 26. All Sunday schools in the county are urged to send full delegations. The people of Edgefield will give a most cordial welcome to all who attend.

The following very interesting announcement has been received with great pleasure by friends in Edgefield:

Mr. Frank Adams came down from Camp Sevier Saturday and remained with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Adams, until Sunday afternoon. He has been assigned a position in the band of his regiment and has made good from the first day. This particular assignment relieves him of much of the regular drilling.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Padgett arrived Friday night from their bridal trip which was spent in the mountains of North Carolina. They have been showered with congratulations and have been very affectionately greeted by their Edgefield friends. Mr. and Mrs. Padgett are with Mr. and Mrs. Jerrald LaGrone. Mr. Padgett will build later on his lot near the residence of Mrs. Milton Parker.

Capt. Tillman Improving.
Capt. Henry C. Tillman who underwent a minor operation at Camp Eustis several days ago is reported to be improving and will join his family at Trenton on Sunday. Capt. Tillman was the only member of the Tillman family unable to attend the funeral.—Greenwood Journal.

Four Edgefield Soldiers.
Mr. Robert Adams writes from Camp Jackson that he has been assigned to an artillery company and will remain at that camp for several months, probably until he is ordered for duty overseas. Robert is in the same quarters with George Logue, Lewis Hammond and Monroe Mathis—four splendid Edgefield young men. We trust that they will remain with the same unit throughout their term of military service.

No Sunday Selling.
The council has put the lid on tight and is enforcing to the letter the ordinance prohibiting the sale of merchandise on Sunday. This is as it should be. When stores are closed Saturday night they should not be opened until Monday for the sale of merchandise. There should be no exception to this rule. Nothing should be sold unless something that is needed for sickness or to relieve suffering. It is gratifying to see that all merchants are observing the law since an order was issued that the ordinance be enforced.

Dr. B. F. Jones' Hospitality.
For several years Dr. B. F. Jones has been giving a private barbecue on his farm which lies directly north of Edgefield, inviting a number of personal friends to share the pleasures of the day with him. The barbecue was given last Thursday, the fourth of July and more than 125 persons were recipients of the hospitality of Dr. and Mrs. Jones. Besides the full barbecue menu, iced tea was served in practically unlimited quantity. The day was one of unusual pleasure to all whose good fortune it was to be present. After all of his white friends were served, Dr. Jones then generously served his farm hands, who likewise appreciate his thoughtful kindness.

Mrs. A. A. Woodson,
President.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.
The July meeting of the W. C. T. U. took place on Monday afternoon with Mrs. J. E. Hart. After devotions business was taken up and the ladies urged to go to the Red Cross rooms each Wednesday afternoon and assist in cutting and sewing.
Messages from the State president, treasurer and Miss Zena Payne were read, also a letter received by Mrs. Mrs. P. H. Bussey from the State president of the Massachusetts W. C. T. U., Mrs. Katherine Stevenson, while in the Boston Hospital.
The flag salute was given and Miss Florence Mims gave a history of the Star Spangled Banner, its origin and read the poem.
Miss Mary Byrd of Hartsville played the national hymn on the violin, those present joining in the singing.
Isabel Byrd, on invitation, was present and read the prize essay on "The Evil of Tobacco," which will be sent to the State superintendent to be entered in the State contest.
The collection for the French Orphan fund amounted to $2.50. At the close of the meeting the hostess served a delightful salad course with iced tea.

Delightful Occasion.
Mrs. W. B. Cogburn who has recently been elected regent of the Emily Geiger chapter, D. A. R. of Johnston, entertained a joint meeting of the Edgefield and Johnston chapters on Friday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, this being in honor of flag day and the fourth of July. The meeting was to have been held on the 4th of July but on account of the funeral of Senator Tillman, it was postponed to the 5th.
An account of the delightful meeting will be published in the Johnston letter, as the Emily Geiger chapter was hostess.
Mrs. Cogburn, regent, presided over the business session, and Miss Zena Payne, historian, had charge of the flag day programme which was extremely interesting and instructive.
Both chapters were well represented, and the hostess, Mrs. Cogburn, who combines the good qualities of both communities and loves them both was happy in giving the representatives of both chapters this pleasant opportunity to meet and greet each other.

Death of Sweet Little Babe.
The sympathy of the entire community goes out to Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Holland in their hour of unutterable grief caused by the death of their second little daughter who would have celebrated her first birthday on the 23rd of July. She was named Anna Elizabeth for her two grandmothers. She was stricken with whooping-cough about five weeks ago and about 10 days ago complications set in that would not yield to treatment. Mr. Holland was at Clemson college at the time little Anna Elizabeth grew worse and upon receiving a telegram informing him of her serious condition he at once came to Edgefield making the journey of 100 miles in three hours in his car.
The grief-stricken parents have the comforting assurance that their little darling is "safe in the arms of Jesus," having been plucked as a beautiful bud from this world before being blighted by sin and without having to endure the crosses and hardships of a sojourn here.
The funeral was conducted at the home Monday morning by Dr. E. P. Jones and the interment took place in Willow Brook cemetery.

County Campaign Meeting.
The first and only campaign meeting arranged by the executive committee was held in the court house Thursday, July 4th. County Chairman, E. E. Nicholson, presided and after brief appropriate remarks, read the official list of candidates. All of the candidates were present and agreed among themselves that they would make no speeches in order that the meeting might be adjourned through respect to Senator Tillman. On motion of Hon. N. G. Evans the chairman appointed a committee to draft suitable resolutions on the death of Senator Tillman. Only a small number of people attended and the session was very brief, this being the beginning and ending of the campaign as far as speech making went. And this is well because the people are not deeply concerned about politics this year. Most of them have already made up their minds for whom they will cast their ballots.
The official list of candidates is as follows:
House of Representatives: J. L. Walker, S. T. Williams and J. L. Mims.
Auditor: J. R. Timmerman.
Treasurer: J. T. Mims and J. L.

The court has been presided over by Judge J. W. DeVore, who is honored by his own people as well as by the people over the State.

Interesting Letter From Winton on Manson to His Mother.
Somewhere in France.
My dear Mother:
I wonder how you are? I do earnestly hope your health is no worse and above all I hope you will again be restored to your full strength and health.
Mother, I know the old sunny South is looking good. It is good enough for me any old time There is no place more dear to me.
Don't think I am homesick—I want to see it well done over here. When we are victorious I will be ready to come home and not before. I am glad that I am able to take a part in the great struggle for the freedom of the world. I am now in a country where I can see what the German militarism has caused the world to suffer. I have been in England also. Both countries are beautifully covered with green. The meadows are very pretty indeed.
You never see a spot in England or France that is uncultivated and you see very few forests. The farming class of people in France is very industrious. There are only a few acres to each farm and from what I can see they raise good crops of their kind. They waste nothing and every thing is put to some use
Instead of fences, shrubbery of all kinds is used. The roads are lined on both sides with shrubbery or trees. Some of the roads are very beautiful to look at. Well, France is just what you have read so much about.
Mama, I am in good health and have been since I left America. I do hope I will continue so. I did not feel the least sick while I was on sea. As I am writing you this letter the artillery is continually bombing.
We have some very exciting times here. Since coming here I would not feel right if I could not hear the roar of the big guns; though I can sleep as if there were no noise.
Mother, where is Grady? I imagine he is here somewhere. If he is, let me know his address. My address is Corp. Winton F. Manson, Co. D, 114 M. G. Bn., American Expeditionary Forces, via New York.
We are faring all right. Of course you know there are some hardships to go through in all wars. The men are in good health and fine spirits. They are willing and eager to do their part in whatever way may be necessary.
I believe we have as fine a bunch of men as any army ever had. The people back home can count on them as being as fine and brave and willing as the country ever saw. Victory is bound to be ours. It must be.
I will try to write you as often as I can, though I know you realize the conditions. You must give my love to the family and pay my respects to all of my friends. Tell them all I will give the boches the best I have.
You must write often. With love to you and father and all the family I am
Your son,
Corp. Winton F. Manson.

Card of Thanks.
I wish to express my grateful appreciation to the public who so kindly aided me in the loss by fire on the night of the 25th of June. I can never on paper or by words fully express my thanks to each and every neighbor and friend who assisted me.
Lonnie C. Smith.
Trenton, S. C.

An old lady went one morning to a friend who kept poultry, to purchase a setting of eggs. The latter, not having many on hand, asked: "Have you got your broody hen?" "Well, no," answered the prospective purchaser, "but our old hen has broken her leg and she might as well spend her time hatching out some eggs as to sit around doing nothing." —Country Gentleman.

After Year's Wait SHE PRAISES TANLAC.
SAYS WITH CONFIDENCE THAT "IT CERTAINLY IS FINE"—SHE KNOWS ITS VALUE.
MRS. DAVIS DECLARES TANLAC "RESTORED ME TO HEALTH AND STRENGTH."
"A year has passed since I first took Tanlac, and now I can say with confidence that Tanlac is certainly a fine medicine, for I know what it will do. I am glad to give this statement in endorsement of Tanlac," says Mrs. Ellie C. Davis, of Drayton, S. C., a suburb of Spartanburg, in a statement she gave June 4th. "I took Tanlac for stomach trouble of a bad, painful form, and also I suffered from attacks of appendicitis. My nerves were bad and I suffered a lot with indigestion. I was very weak, and overwork had almost downed my health.
"The Tanlac stopped the indigestion, though, and soon I was not troubled any more with appendicitis. Those pains in my side left, too. The medicine gave me back my appetite, strengthened my nerves and restored me to health and strength."

After Taps.
[Composed By Two Soldier Boys.]
In the coolness of the evening,
After all the lights are out
And throughout the camp is silence,
Save the sentry's hailing shout
Come the hour of great reflection
For the resting Soldier chaps,
And the weary old, find comfort
In the stillness after taps.
In the darkness gleam the faces
Of the folks we left behind
There are mother, wife, or sweet-heart,
And our friends so true and kind
Once again there comes a vision
Of that home-land, and perhaps,
One can even hear the voices
Of those loved ones after taps.
Oft the aching hearts grow weary
And almost seem to brake,
Midst war's mad and hellish turmoil
And the suffering they make
How we bless the starlit gloaming
As the busy day it caps
And there comes escape from torment
On our dreaming after taps.
To the soul there comes assurance
That this cause is good and just
That we will never meet with failure
While in God we put our trust
And should death's cold arms enfold us
There'll be peace as life's cord snaps
We'll find our loved ones over yonder
After taps.
