

Office No 61
Residence, No. 17

Wednesday, January 1.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Rev. and Mrs. P. H. Bussey are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Peak.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Crews spent the week-end in Laurens visiting the relatives of Mr. Crews.

Mr. W. H. Turner ran up to Greenwood and spent Christmas day with his mother, Mrs. Maggie Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Miller spent a portion of the holiday season in Columbia with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rhodes of Macon spent the Yuletide here as guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Evans.

Mrs. Agatha A. Woodson spent several days in Augusta last week with Mr. and Mrs. Walter McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Sawyer of Camac, Ga., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Jones during the holidays.

Miss Lois Kernaghan, a charming young lady from Batesburg, is here visiting her cousin, Mrs. J. W. Stewart.

Mr. James E. Hart came home from his regular tour in Florida to spend the holiday season with his family.

Mr. Beauregard Timmons came over from Columbia for a day last week, being very cordially greeted by his friends.

Mr. J. Monroe Ouzts came down from Newberry last week to visit his brother, Mr. Pearce Ouzts, and other relatives.

Mr. B. T. Rainsford was a welcome holiday visitor in Edgefield, having come over from Camp Jackson on a short furlough.

Mr. Roscoe Brigham and Mr. Pickens Butler of Augusta, Miss Sunie Talbert were the guests of Miss Anna Belle Saunders last week.

Major T. J. Lyon came down from Greenwood to spend the holiday season in Edgefield. He received a warm hand-clasp from his friends.

J. T. McManus, Jr., is enjoying a furlough at home. He always scatters sunshine wherever he goes and has been cordially greeted by his friends.

Mr. Edgar Hart, who is a traveling salesman and works in the lower section of the State, came home to spend the Yuletide with his parents Mr. and Mrs. James E. Hart.

Mrs. James S. Byrd went over to Columbia to spend the festive season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fitzmaurice. Dr. Byrd joined them for several days during the week.

The cartoon work alone of Miss Vera MacKelvie in the Opera House next Wednesday night will be worth the price of admission. Tell your friends about this lyceum entertainment, the second of the course.

Mr. Ouzts Burnett, who has been in the naval service for the past five years, spent several days here during the Yuletide with his sister, Mrs. L. H. Prescott, and uncle, Mr. L. G. Quarles.

Edgefield has had no holiday visitor who was more cordially greeted than Major R. S. Anderson who, according to his long-standing custom, came down from Washington to spend Christmas.

Mr. Manly Timmons has been spending some time here with his family and has been very warmly greeted by his old Edgefield friends who hope that his visits will be more frequent in 1919.

Our young friends, Platt Brunson and Gus Cheatham, came home on a brief furlough for the holidays, returning to their duties at the naval training station in Charleston the latter part of the week.

Mr. D. V. Harris purchased the farm of Mrs. Lemie Talbert, the old Mays home, in the Horn's Creek section, and will move his family this week. Mr. Harris has already made plans for spending a considerable sum in repairing this large country residence.

Miss Grace Dobson came down from Greensboro, N. C., to spend the holiday season with her mother, Mrs. Emma Dobson. For the past year Miss Grace has been making her home with her brother, Mr. Charles R. Dobson, assisting him in his large shoe store.

Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Ennett have gone to Florida to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Holsteip entertained at tea on the evening of the Remember the Artists' Trio at the Edgefield Opera House, January 8th.

Miss Helen Dorn visited her friend Miss Kathleen Walsh, in Sumter this week.

Misses Ethel and Corrie Cheatham spent Christmas with their aunt Mrs. Talbert in Sumter.

Miss Helen Nicholson entertained her friends at an evening party during the holidays.

Miss Helen Tillman is spending some time in Columbia, being the guest of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Cooner.

Mr. A. Claud Hart has been spending the holiday season here visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. John K. Aull were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Tompkins during the Yuletide.

Mrs. J. W. Thompson and little daughter of Southport, N. C., spent the holidays with Mrs. Kate Butler.

Miss Bessie Dunovant was hostess during the holidays for a number of her young friends at an evening party.

Miss Kellah Fair spent the Christmas time with her brother Mr. Warren Fair and his family in Beech Island.

Mrs. R. G. Lee and little Beulah spent a part of the Christmas time in Greenville with Mrs. Lee's mother Mrs. Gentry.

Mr. Julian Key came over from Columbia for a stay of several days last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Key.

Miss Miriam Norris, Miss Gladys Rives and Harold Norris attended a large house party in Georgetown last week, returning Monday night.

Robert Gray is here on a furlough for the holiday season. This is his first furlough since he volunteered for service in the navy early last summer.

Lieut. W. F. Nichols, Lieut. James Munger, Lieut. R. L. Lewis, Misses Anna Belle Saunders and Elizabeth Smith were week-end guests of Miss Sunie Talbert.

Red Cross Annual Meeting, Major and Mrs. Scott, Major Blanton, Major and Mrs. Leonard, Lieut. Seymour, Mrs. Mamie N. Tillman and Miss Elizabeth Smith.

The three very talented ladies who will present a miscellaneous program in the Opera House next Wednesday night, come to Edgefield with the highest endorsement. Do not fail to hear them.

Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Cleveland have been spending the past ten days here with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Padgett. Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland, accompanied by Miss Gladys Padgett, spent several days last week in Atlanta.

The Civic League of Edgefield has undertaken this year the placing before the public, the season's Lyceum course. This time there will be a splendid combination of talent in song, story, musical instruments and a cartoonist of magic skill. Come and see and hear.

Little Thomas Mott Kernaghan celebrated his second birthday on Tuesday afternoon with a party for a few of his little friends and cousins and some of the older ones who loved him. The table was beautifully decorated in pink and white candles which always delight the little child's heart.

The refreshments were very dainty and appropriate.

Miss Annie May Timmons who has been in the employ of the government at Washington during the past year, spent Christmas with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Manly Timmons. Her friend Miss Diette Maynard of Greenwood also spent the holidays with her, and Joe Timmons, belonging to the S. A. T. C. at the B. M. I., added his presence to the Christmas cheer of this home.

The second lyceum entertainment of the season will be given in the Opera House next Wednesday night, January 8, by a trio of very talented women, each without a peer in her respective field. A miscellaneous programme consisting of vocal and instrumental music, reading and a display of draftsmanship in cartoon work. Surely no one will lack for entertainment when so complete a programme will be presented. Something will be presented to entertain every age and every taste.

The Artists' Trio
Lyceum number January 8, 1919 at Edgefield Opera House. Come and enjoy an evening of uplifting entertainment.

Church Notice
Service of Worship at the First Baptist Church this coming Sabbath at 11:30 A. M., sermon by the pastor. Sunday School at 10:15, J. H. Cantelou, Supt. Service especially for the old folks will be held in the afternoon at 3:30. To all of these services all are invited and urged to attend. The building will be warm and comfortable.

Robert G. Lee, Pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Samuel and little Allen have been spending the holiday season here with the home-folk.

Mrs. A. J. Ives will arrive from Savannah Saturday to spend probably a week here with her aunts, Misses Sophie and Marie Abney.

James Sharpton came down from Washington to spend the Yuletide at home. James holds a lucrative government position in the national capital.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Simkins are here from Norfolk, Va., for a visit of ten days to Mr. and Mrs. S. McG. Simkins.

Leslie Edmunds came home on a short furlough for the holidays. He has been assigned to a government boat that plies the Potomac River been cordially greeted by his friends.

Do not fail to attend the second lyceum entertainment to be given in the Opera House next Wednesday night by The Artists' Trio. You will regret it, if you fail to be there.

Douglas Timmerman has been enjoying the holidays at home on a furlough. His friends have greeted him very cordially and hope he will soon receive an honorable discharge.

A bold young thief, a colored boy, stole a bicycle from in front of Stewart & Kernaghan's, Christmas eve. They have offered a reward for the recovery of the wheel and apprehension of the thief.

District Attorney J. William Thurmond entertained the members of the bar and some other friends with an elaborate tea Tuesday evening, the occasion being one of unusual pleasure to those who were honored with invitations.

The people of Edgefield extend a hearty welcome to Mr. W. S. Pearson who recently purchased the farm of Mr. S. A. Brunson. He is a progressive farmer and a citizen of sterling qualities. We need more of his kind to locate among us.

Mr. Egbert Morgan arrived this morning from Camp Greenleaf, Ga., on a furlough of ten days, this being his first furlough since he went to camp last May. Egbert has made a fine record from the first day he entered the service. His friends have greeted him very cordially.

Mr. A. A. Edmunds has purchased the lot adjoining the Mitchell pharmacy and will soon erect a one story brick building thereon. The building will have an attractive front of pressed brick and plate glass windows. It is probable that Mr. Edmunds will conduct a business of some kind in the new store.

Mr. J. D. Garren of Woodruff who recently purchased the farm of Mr. D. V. Harris is moving his family this week to his newly purchased home. Edgefield county needs hundreds and hundreds of good men of the class to which Mr. Garren belongs. We welcome him and his family.

Lieut. A. B. Carwile, of Abbeville county, has been engaged to serve Edgefield county as demonstration agent, succeeding Mr. W. E. Stokes. Lieut. Carwile recently was granted an honorable discharge from the army and has already entered upon his duties here. He and Mrs. Carwile will receive a cordial greeting from our people.

Dr. James S. Byrd is having an architect draw plans for his modern two-story brick building which is to be erected on the lot situated midway between the Mitchell drug store and the Yonce garage. The first floor will be a store-room and the second, Dr. Byrd will have a modern dental office, laboratory and reception rooms. The new building will be quite an ornament to the town.

LOST—A black sow weighing about 200 pounds. Strayed from my premises Sunday night before Christmas.

J. D. KEMP.

Dr. King's New Discovery
KILLS THE COUGH. CURES THE LUNGS.

Daith Bros. Thankful

We have had a good business during 1918 and we take this means of thanking all who have traded with us. We will carry a full line during the coming year and will appreciate your generous patronage.

Whenever we can serve you in any capacity do not fail to call on us.

Gratefully yours,

Daith Brothers

Enjoying a Furlough
Mr. M. D. Lyon, Jr., is at home enjoying a furlough. He recently returned from a trip to Europe on the battleship Pennsylvania which was one of the nearly a score of battleships that escorted the "George Washington" to France when it carried President Wilson to Europe to attend the Peace Conference. While his ship is lying in New York harbor Mr. Lyon was granted leave to visit the homefolk. He has made a fine record since he volunteered for naval service, having been promoted several times.

Notice of Annual Meeting
The Annual Meeting of the Abbeville-Greenwood Mutual Insurance Association will be held at Abbeville, S. C. at 12 o'clock, January 7, 1919.
J. R. Blake, Secretary.

GIN NOTICE
I will continue to operate my ginners

Wednesday
Thursday
and Friday

of each week throughout
JANUARY.

J. G. Alford

Your bicycle can be driven by a light two-cylinder motor that will do away with your pedaling. Something entirely new but altogether satisfactory. Come in to see it.
Stewart & Kernaghan.

GIN NOTICE
I will continue to operate my ginners

Wednesday
Thursday
and Friday

of each week throughout
JANUARY.

J. G. Alford

Teacher's Notice
For the benefit of teachers who are without certificates, a special examination will be held Saturday, Jan. 11 White applicants report at Court House; colored applicants, at Macedonia School.

W. W. Fuller,
Co. Supt. Ed.

Ford Tractors.

Have arrived the
FORD TRACTORS
THE LABOR SAVER
that you have been looking for. Write us or come to Greenwood and see what they will do. Will give you any demonstration you want to see. They will pull any place a mule will.
JOHN I. CHIPLEY,
Greenwood, S. C.

WE WISH EVERYBODY A

Happy and Prosperous New Year and thank our many patrons for their liberal patronage extended us during the past year.

Smith-Marsh Company