

Office No 61
Residence, No. 17

Wednesday, May 7.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss De Ette Maynard, of Greenwood, is a guest of Mrs. Manly Timmons.

Mrs. Carl Shapard Oakman, of Detroit, Michigan, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. M. Cobb.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Yonce, of Johnston, spent Sunday in Edgefield with their son, Mr. W. P. Yonce.

Mrs. W. D. Ready and Mrs. Sadie Hill came over from Johnston Saturday and spent a portion of the day in Edgefield.

Capt. O. P. Bright has accepted the position of manager of the Dixie Highway Garage, which is owned by Mr. George Adams.

Mr. Orlando Sheppard and Mr. J. L. Mims are in Charleston today attending a meeting of the board of visitors of the Citadel.

The greatest need in Edgefield at this time is more dwelling houses and then some more. But how it does cost to erect them now!

A few garden seed are left at The Advertiser office that were sent us for free distribution. Better call at once and get what you need.

Mr. Orlando Sheppard went to Greenwood Sunday to attend a meeting of the trustees of Connie Maxwell which was held Monday.

Mr. W. P. Yonce will soon improve his lot between his garage and Dr. J. S. Byrd's building, making that a solid block of modern buildings.

In their advertisement this week the Yonce Motor Company gives five clear cut reasons why you should buy a Ford automobile. Read what they say.

Hear Mrs. Deborah Knox Livingstone, of Maine, at the Baptist church Sunday evening on the vital subject of temperance and prohibition.

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Cooner and their two little children motored from Columbia to Edgefield Sunday to visit Mrs. Mary Norris and Mrs. Mamie Tillman.

Mrs. H. C. Porter was carried to the hospital in Augusta last week for treatment. Her friends hope that she will be fully restored to her usual state of health.

You can now convert your cotton seed into cash at government price. Mr. A. M. Timmerman advertises in this issue that he is in the market from now until the night of May 20.

Having almost completed his brick garage across the street from his stable on Jeter street, Mr. Bettis Cantelou is hauling material for the erection of an automobile show room.

The Overland cars continue to be popular because of their quality and price. See Mr. J. D. Holstein, Jr., about a car before you buy. He has just received a car load of Overland cars.

Work on the store and office building of Dr. J. S. Byrd is progressing rapidly. Unless something untoward occurs to delay the work, the building will be ready for the occupants by or before the early fall.

Edgefield needs one or two more good boarding houses. Practically every where boarders are taken in Edgefield is filled. The town can not grow unless some means is provided for taking care of persons who come to Edgefield.

Our people are eagerly awaiting the return of the 81st Division from overseas, as it will mean the homecoming of a considerable number of our soldier boys. Gen. Pershing has ordered the division to make ready for the voyage.

Mr. T. B. Lanham has written the Y. M. C. A. secretary that he will enter upon his duties as State Y. M. C. A. secretary about the first of June. The people of Edgefield are delighted to get Mr. Lanham and his family so much nearer home than Ohio.

The Advertiser publishes its last Boston letter until next fall. Our little "Yankee" scribe will return to Edgefield before the next issue of The Advertiser and remain until about the middle of October, when she will resume her studies at the Leland Powers School of Expression.

Mr. and Mrs. Manly Dobson came over from Augusta on Sunday. Mrs. Dobson stopped over with her mother, Mrs. Swearingen, at Trenton, and Mr. Dobson spent the day with his family in Edgefield.

Just unloaded a car of Ford one-ton trucks. Now is the time to buy—when you can get them. Ford trucks supply the best and most economical means of transportation. Ask the men who are using them. Yonce Motor Company.

Mrs. C. E. May, Misses May Tompkins, Elizabeth Smith and Gladys Padgett are in Greenville for the week-end as guests of Miss Margaret May. Miss Margaret will assist in piano selections at the vocal recital of Miss Alice Todd on Friday evening. They will return on Sunday.

The Woman's Liberty Loan Committee requests that the school children of Edgefield town and county will assemble at the court house on Friday afternoon to join the patriotic demonstration on the arrival of the war tank. The committee will be glad to have the schools sing "America" on that occasion.

Mr. Claude Eubanks who volunteered for service in the navy and is now stationed at Providence, R. I., came down home last week to attend the funeral of his father, Mr. Amos Eubanks. He hopes to have his furlough extended so as to remain a few days longer with his mother. Claude's friends have given him a very cordial greeting.

James Dobson is here for a visit to his grandmother, Mrs. Emma Dobson, and his aunts, Misses Sophie and Marion Dobson. Jimmie, as we all think of him in Edgefield, was in a train ship of the navy for some months, and was discharged in March, returning to his father at Greensboro at that time. He will visit Augusta this week before returning to Greensboro.

Corner Store's Victory Window

The unique Victory loan decorations of the east window of the Corner Store won the prize, a German's officer's helmet, that was awarded by the women's committee for the best decorated window in Edgefield. There were several other attractive windows, Mr. Rubenstein's probably being entitled to second place.

Centenary Drive Begins.

On the third Sunday in May, the great drive inaugurated in faith and courage by the Methodist church will begin and will last eight days. The total amount of the fund throughout the Southern Methodist church is $35,000,000.

For this charge the amount is $8, 135.00, of which Trenton has assumed $2,000, leaving $6,135.00 for the Edgefield Methodist church.

The church here hopes to raise this amount the first day of the drive. Everybody hopes that they will. What a monument to the generosity and earnestness of the Edgefield Methodists this will be. God speed them!

Methodist Church Notes.

There will be special services at the Methodist church on next Sunday in connection with the approaching Centenary drive. The Sunday School will be held at the usual hour, 10:30 a. m. At the 11:30 o'clock service there will be two or three short spirited talks by laymen and these will be followed with a sermon by the pastor, the theme being appropriate to the Centenary. It is of vital importance for the members of the church to attend this service; make your plans now and help us to make this, the last preaching service before the "Great Drive" a memorable occasion. Come, and make an honest effort to bring someone with you! Everybody is invited.

Epworth League Meeting.

In the afternoon at 5 o'clock, the service will be in the nature of a young people's service and will be in charge of the Epworth League. There will be several songs and short addresses by the young people of the Epworth League and congregation. Again the Centenary will be the theme and the offering will go to Epworth League Extension work. We are anxious to have a large congregation at this service. The public is cordially invited.

This is a wonderful age in which the young people can make great forward efforts for the promotion of the Kingdom that is even now here, and fight under a banner which is even now victorious. Come and add enthusiasm to the occasion.

Dixie.

Five minute talks by veterans.

Rebel yell in which Boy Scouts and Soldiers are asked to join hymn. I Would Not Live Always, all.

Benediction, Rev. C. E. Bailey.

To Salute the flag Daughters should face it standing, and place their right hand upon the heart holding this position, while the pledge is made.

Memorial Day Observance.

After the benediction is pronounced the audience is requested to remain and stand at attention until the veterans and young soldiers have passed out. The ranking officer of the returned soldiers is requested to place the men in line formation at the foot of the steps and stand at attention and salute the veterans as they pass between the lines. The veterans will go into the basement of the building for their dinner and the young soldiers will be taken in charge by the young girls in town who will spread them a picnic dinner. All contributing to the veteran's dinner will please send the money to Miss Annie DeLoach and have the bread, cake, potatoes and pies at the school house by ten o'clock in the morning.

Those contributing to the picnic dinner for the boys will please communicate with Miss Mae Tompkins and her committee as soon as possible and have your baskets at the school house by ten o'clock marked "for picnic dinner." Parties coming in from the country may find it convenient to bring baskets. In which case many beautiful places may be found under the trees for eating their luncheon.

There will be reserved seats provided for the veterans and soldiers. The wives of veterans and widows of confederate soldiers are asked to sit with the Daughters and to wear a red and white badge for identification. All children are asked to sit in the rear of the auditorium. The Boy Scouts are asked to look out for the veterans, escort them into the building and to their seats, and to see to it that they have no want ungratified. They will form at the foot of the steps as they come down, stand at attention and salute the veterans as they pass. They are also asked to assist the dinner committee in procuring tables and seats. They are asked to join in the rebel yell and the salute to the flag.

The girls of the Bald Eagle Chapter are requested to meet at the home of Mrs. Woodson at 5:30 on Friday afternoon and go with the committee to decorate the graves of those soldiers whose graves have not been attended to by their families. Each member of the Chapter is asked to bring four wreaths for the decoration.

The decoration committee, Mrs. Herbert Smith and Mrs. Zillah Paul and Mrs. James DeVore, see that the two monuments are decorated by those appointed to do it, or some one else.

Committee on arrangements, Mrs. J. M. Wright, Miss Hortense Padgett, Mrs. Maggie T. Hill and Mrs. Woodson.

Dinner committee, Mrs. Mary C. Marsh, chairman, Mrs. Jas. T. Byrd, Mrs. Ed Rives, Mrs. Maggie Hill, Mrs. Lee Cantelou, Miss Annie DeLoach, Mrs. Joe Cantelou, Mrs. P. P. Blalock. Coffee and tea, Mrs. Barker and Mrs. Ida Sheppard.

Committee to solicit, Mrs. Mouson Smith, Mrs. Alice Jones, Mrs. Daisy Nicholson, Mrs. Jas. Byrd, Mrs. J. L. Mims, Mrs. E. H. Crews and Mrs. Alford, Miss Annie DeLoach, treasurer.

To decorate monuments, Mrs. N. G. Evans and Mrs. J. H. Nicholson. Any person having U. D. C. decorations will please send them to the school house Friday afternoon, where the committee will take charge of them.

RUBENSTEIN

Why You Should Buy a Ford

BECAUSE:

FIRST and Foremost—IT IS A BETTER CAR.

SECOND—It must be judged independently of it price. Large production makes selling prices small.

THIRD—One-half of all the cars on American roads are FORD cars.

FOURTH—The Ford car has back of it the biggest financial responsibility in the automobile world.

FIFTH—Think of it: you can never get very far away from Ford service. And you will find it quick, economical and courteous.

Place your orders NOW. The earlier you place your order the quicker you will get your FORD.

Yours for good roads,

Yonce Motor Co.
