

The Ford one-ton truck may well be classed as an agricultural necessity, it fits into and fills so many wants on the farm. It is a reliable bearer of farm burdens, not only doing the work of several horses quicker and better than the horse, and does not "eat its head off" when not working. The aggressive farmer has only to consider the possibilities of the Ford truck and he is ready to buy one. We judge this to be so from the way farmers are buying them. FISK and GOODYEAR Tires a Specialty.

THE FARMER'S TRUCK

Have your car fitted with Hassle Shock Absorbers. Ten days' free trial

YONCE MOTOR COMPANY

Office No 61

Residence, No. 17

Wednesday, August 20.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Mary Bruton of Columbia is the guest of Miss Helen Tillman.

Mrs. O. P. Bright is in Greenville visiting her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Alford are visiting relatives in Eatonton, Ga.

Miss Sadie Mims is visiting relatives in Augusta this week.

Miss Stella Carroll of McCormick is here visiting her sister, Mrs. W. W. Adams.

Miss Lillie Kelly, a sister of Mrs. J. G. Alford, is spending some time in Lynchburg, Va., and Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. James T. Mims, Jr., have gone to Hendersonville, N. C., for a week or ten days.

Mrs. William Yeldell and children of Greenwood are here visiting Mrs. A. E. Padgett.

Mr. J. D. May is taking his summer vacation, spending a portion of the time at Glenn Springs.

Mr. R. C. Padgett spent the past week in the mountains, having made the journey in his car.

Dr. R. G. Lee is assisting Rev. J. Kesterson in the protracted meeting at Red Hill this week.

W. S. Boyd is visiting her sisters, Ludie J. Blakely, at Ora, in this county.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Speights of Hendersonville, Colleton county, are here visiting Mesdames E. H. Folk and S. A. Brunson.

Col. F. N. K. Bailey and son, Mr. Malleliu Bailey, of Greenwood, spent Sunday and Monday with friends in Edgefield.

Mr. W. H. Garren is now serving Mr. L. T. May as salesman, filling the place made vacant by the voluntary withdrawal of Mr. Robt. Young.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. LaGrone now occupy the new bungalow recently built by A. S. Tompkins on Lynch street.

Capt. L. Y. Moore will move the latter part of this week over in Buncombe, occupying the Carwile house just vacated by Mr. D. J. LaGrone.

The annual meeting of the Edgefield Baptist Association will be held at Bethany church September 10 and 11.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Allen came down from Chappell to attend the home-coming welcome for the soldiers Saturday. They always receive a warm welcome in Edgefield.

Miss Daisy Misenheimer, the trained nurse of the Addison Mills is spending her vacation in Salisbury, N. C., her former home. For the past four months Miss Misenheimer has been with Mr. and Mrs. Hightower's little boy in the Steady hospital in Spartanburg.

Mrs. L. Y. Moore and little Frances have gone to Hickory, N. C., to visit Mrs. Moore's sister.

Mr. M. D. Tucker, of Conyers, Ga., has accepted a position as bookkeeper with the Addison Mills.

Our friend Dave Harris has already spoken for a cotton office on the 12th floor of the "Sky scraper" when it is erected.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Deal spent Saturday and Sunday at Millen, Ga., with Mr. L. H. Harling, Mrs. Deal's brother.

The town council is planning to construct a concrete bridge across Beaver Dam at the trestle, this being a part of the Dixie Highway.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Lanham were welcome visitors in Edgefield Sunday. Mr. Lanham has now moved his family from Columbus, Ohio, to Columbia.

Mr. B. R. Cooner, one of the leading young business men of Columbia, spent Sunday in Edgefield with his aunt and cousin, Mrs. Mary Norris and Mrs. Mamie Tillman.

Don't be alarmed over the temporary decline in cotton. The world must wear cotton clothing and the supply of raw material is limited.

Mrs. Mamie P. Boatwright of Batesburg spent Saturday and Sunday here visiting her sister, Mrs. H. C. Porter.

Miss Myrtis Cothran, the stenographer of the Addison Mills, is enjoying her vacation at her home in Spartanburg.

Attend the auction sale of real estate to be held August 26, 27 and 28 by the South Atlantic Realty Company. Some very desirable property is being offered by them for this sale.

Rev. P. B. Lanham, assisted by Rev. Mr. Seago, conducted a very successful protracted meeting at Gilgal last week.

The annual protracted meeting of Borea will begin Sunday and continue through the week with two services each day.

Rev. J. W. Kesterson will begin the annual revival meeting at Rehoboth church Sunday, being assisted by the Baptist pastor at McCormick.

In spite of the tremendous advance in the price of cypress and cedar shingles, it is impossible for Mr. E. S. Johnson to supply the demand. He has two cars of shingles in transit.

Miss Nannie Gunter of Batesburg has been the guest of her cousin, Mrs. B. B. Jones during the past week. The solo which Miss Gunter sang so sweetly at the Baptist church Sunday was enjoyed by all present.

Rev. P. B. Lanham has requested us to announce that the union meeting of the second division of the Edgefield association will be held at Gilgal church and that the program will be published next week.

The prolonged rainy season, including the several very heavy rains, has completely swamped the county supervisor, and the people will have to come to his rescue. His funds and working force are both limited, altogether inadequate to repair without assistance the damage done over the county by the rains.

Miss Hortense Padgett has gone to Johnston to spend a week with relatives.

Mr. James E. Hart is here spending some time with his family. Most of his time is spent on the road in Florida as a traveling salesman.

Postmaster C. M. Mellichap has received instructions to move the post-office into the vacant store under the opera house as temporary quarters. No permanent place has yet been secured.

The handsome new building of Dr. J. S. Byrd is almost completed. The finishing touches are being added to the store in the first floor and to Dr. Byrd's handsome dental suite on the second floor.

Mrs. T. A. Williams, of Red Hill, and Mrs. Jesse Bailey, of Red Oak Grove, are among the shoppers in Edgefield today, having come in the car with their brother, Mr. T. C. Mathis.

The Edgefield friends of Mrs. Elizabeth Cobb have learned with regret that she has definitely decided to sell all of her property in Edgefield, and moving to Mobile, Ala. She has already provided for the purchase of a home in Mobile.

Don't complain of bad roads. If they are near your home, get a pick and shovel, if you have a bit of spare time, and try to improve the bad places. That will benefit you and the public more than complaining of the roads.

As soon as a car of brick arrives work will begin on the Baptist parsonage. The order was placed for the brick eight weeks ago, and they have not yet reached Edgefield. Much of the rough lumber for framing the building has been placed upon the site near the church.

Jones and Son are having the interior of their store changed by the addition of a stairway and an elevator so the second story can be utilized for their stock and furniture. The Masons have moved their lodge into the hall over the store of W. W. Adams and Company.

It was learned with deep regret in Edgefield this morning that Calbraith Butler, the grandson of the late Gen. M. C. Butler, was killed a few days ago at his home in Tennessee in a game of baseball. He was the son of Maj. Calbraith Butler who was killed on the border. The death of this fifteen-year-old lad is the last male descendant of the Butler family.

The friends of Capt. L. Y. Moore and Elwyn Moore have congratulated them upon Elwyn's winning the Citadel scholarship in the recent competitive examination. This scholarship is the most valuable one that is awarded by the State and is worth in actual cash about $1,200.

Mr. P. C. Wienges of Augusta, a member of the cotton firm of Wienges and Company, spent Monday in Edgefield in the interest of his firm. He has had 10 years experience in handling cotton and through his firm which is financially able to take care of the needs of their patrons, he solicits the patronage of Edgefield farmers. Attention is directed to their advertisement in this issue.

Mr. D. V. Harris has greatly improved the Mays place since he moved there early this year. He will soon have a corps of painters at work transforming the exterior and interior of the house.

Mr. Hamp Morgan, accompanied by his son, motored from his home at Green's Cut, Ga., Saturday. He stated that crops in his section were about as they are around Edgefield, except that the boll weevil has done considerable damage.

Mr. L. G. Quarles has purchased the farm of Mrs. Elizabeth Cobb just beyond the railroad trestle on the right of the road, containing 88 acres. The purchase price was $13,860. Mr. Quarles already owns valuable property just across the road from this tract.

Miss Ruth DeCamp, of Gaffney, the youngest daughter of Mr. E. H. DeCamp, editor and publisher of the Gaffney Ledger, is here visiting Miss Eleanor Mims. Ruth is a pet of all of the members of the State Press Association, having attended all of the annual meetings since her babyhood.

Mr. James Porter is over from Columbia visiting his father, Mr. H. C. Porter. James has been attending the University for several terms and has made a fine record. He has been working at Camp Jackson since the session closed at the University.

Mr. T. J. Paul will begin the erection of his modern garage as soon as the brick arrive. They were ordered several weeks ago. When this lot and the hotel lot are improved and Steward and Kernighan erect a store on the lot just west of their present store not a vacant lot will be left facing the public square.

Mr. T. A. Hightower, the capable and popular manager of the Addison Mills, told The Advertiser's representative that he is having six Edison Eladin houses erected in the mill village. These houses are shipped knocked down from some place in Michigan. They are already cut, fitted and can be erected without the use of a hammer.

The Baptist church voted at conference last Sunday to give the pastor, Dr. R. G. Lee, a vacation of three weeks. Dr. Lee expressed appreciation of the church's kindly consideration but stated that he was not sure that he would avail himself of the opportunity of a period of rest at this time but may go away a short time later.

Mr. Walter Samuel and Mr. S. E. Morgan have owned jointly the Smith four mill and ginnery on Shaw's creek, and recently Mr. Samuel has purchased Mr. Morgan's interest in the property, now owning it altogether himself. He will at once begin to repair the recent damage to the dam and expects to be ready for operation by the first of the month.

The C. & B. Hat Company
123 Broad Street
JACKSONVILLE, FLA.,
is the owner of and is carrying on the Mail Order business formerly handled by the H. W. Clarke Hat Company. All orders should be sent to them.
AGENTS WANTED
SEND FOR CATALOGUE

To the Public

Our warehouse having been sold, we hereby call attention to the following articles:
1st. All persons having cotton stored with us will please bring said receipts to us by or before Sept. 1, 1919, and receive new receipts from the new firm, as, after Sept. 1, 1919, we are relieved of all responsibilities of said cotton on said receipts.
2d. This does not mean your cotton will have to be moved from the warehouses, but merely means that the warehouses change hands on the above date, and we hereby desire to give notice that we will not be responsible for outstanding receipts after Sept. 1, 1919.

W. W. ADAMS & CO.
By W. W. Adams

ARRINGTON BROS. & CO.

Wholesale Grocers and Dealers in Corn, Oats, Hay and all Kinds of Seeds

Corner Cumming and Fenwick Streets
On Georgia R. R. Tracks
Augusta, Ga.
Distributors of Marathon Tires and Tubes. None better, but our price is less.
YOUR PATRONAGE SOLICITED
See our representative, C. E. May.

College of Charleston

FOUNDED 1785
A college of highest standard, open to men and to women. An intentionally limited enrollment insures individual instruction. Four-year courses lead to the Bachelor's degree. The Pre-Medical course, a special feature. Unsurpassed climate and fine sea air.
For terms and catalogue, address
HARRISON RANDOLPH, President, Charleston, S. C.

BARRETT & COMPANY

(INCORPORATED)

COTTON FACTORS
Augusta - - - Georgia