LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Virginia Addison was among the visitors in Augusta Monday.

Miss Daisy Adams of Greenwood came down Tuesday to visit the home folk in the Meeting Street section.

Miss Mary Fitzmaurice of Columbia is here visiting her niece, Mrs. James S. Byrd.

Mrs. Bettis Cantelou and Mrs. P. P. Blalock, Jr., are in Savannah as guests of Mrs. Maner Lawton.

Mr. Hal Hill and Mr. George Schley of Augusta were visitors in Edgefield Sunday.

Dr. R. A. Marsh is in Greenville attending the annual meeting of the State Medical Association.

Mrs. Hettie S. Brown of Greenville is here visiting her mother, Mrs. Ida. F. Sheppard.

The ten recently elected deacons of the Baptist church will be ordained the first Sunday in May.

A meeting of the Odd Fellows will be held Monday night at 8 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

Mrs. C. T. Graydon of Columbia, is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. McG. Simkins.

Miss June Rainsford will leave Friday for East Orange, N. J., to visit a school friend and will be absent several weeks.

Mrs. Emma N. Dobson has returned from a very pleasant visit to her sister, Mrs. Ida. Boatwright at Ridge Spring.

Mr. N. D. Robertson of Augusta has been spending several days in Edgefield visiting his daughter, Mrs. Pearce Thomas.

After attending the Federation of Clubs in Rock Hill this week Miss Elizabeth Rainsford will visit friends in York and Lancaster, being away several weeks.

Mr. Benjamin Greneker and Misses Elizabeth Rainsford and Sallie Mae Nicholson motored to Greenwood to attend the Intercollegiate Oratorical contest.

The friends of Mr. Julian Key deeply regret that he is quite ill at a hospital in Columbia. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Key went to Columbia yesterday to be with him.

Married, Tuesday afternoon, April 20, at 4 o'clock by Rev. P. P. Blalock, at the residence of the officiating minister, Mr. Archie Lewis Hart and Miss Eva M. Pruitt of Johnston.

The Edgefield Basket Ball team is winning all of the honors. Not a team yet been found that can cope successfully with them. Like Alexander the Great, they are weeping because there are no more worlds to conquer.

Mrs. Manly Timmons came down from Troy to Edgefield, being the guest of Mrs. J. L. Mims while here. This morning she will leave for Washington, D. C., to spend a month with her daughter, Mrs. F. L. Parker.

Mr. Thomas W. Carwile is here visiting his mother, Mrs. M. E. Carwile, and sister Mrs. R. A. Marsh. Mr. Carwile is in the service of a large advertising company and divides his time between Birmingham, Ala., and Buffalo, N. Y.

Through a typographical error the statement was made in Mr. M. A. Taylor's advertisement last week that he was delivering 10 pounds of ice for 10 cents, when it should have been 15 pounds of ice for 10 cents.

Misses Elizabeth Rainsford and Katherine Mims went to Rock Hill yesterday to attend the State Federation of Women's Clubs, Miss Rainsford representing the Edgefield Music Club and Miss Mims the Civic League.

Mrs. P. M. Feltham will attend the U. D. C. convention in Aiken and has been invited to respond to the address of welcome. The programme committee made an excellent selection for this feature of the programme.

We want the ladies of Edgefield to know that they can get the celebrated McCall patterns at our store. A large assortment to select from.
THE HUB.

The Campfire Girls of Edgefield will give a box party in the High School building Friday night, April 30. All young ladies are requested to carry well filled boxes and the young men are expected to carry well filled purses.

We direct the attention of our readers this week to the following new advertisements. The Corner Store, E. T. and A. R. Moore, The Hub, Carolina-Texas Oil and Development Company, United States Tires, Yonce & Mooney, H. G. Eidson, and George F. Mims.

Closing Exercises of Antioch School.

All patrons and friends of the Antioch school are cordially invited to attend the closing exercises on Friday evening, April thirtieth.

The program will begin promptly at eight o'clock. The entertainment included all grades of the school.

Matteson Concert Company Coming.

The Philharmonic Club is planning to bring the Matteson Concert Company to Edgefield during the week of May 10th. This will be a high class musical attraction and we hope to have a large attendance. A further announcement will appear later.

Successful Meeting at Johnston.

Dr. R. G. Lee has labored hard at Johnston the past ten days assisting Rev. W. S. Brooke in a revival meeting. Just as he wins people everywhere with whom he comes in contact, Dr. Lee has won the hearts of the Johnston people. Sunday afternoon he preached a sermon to the men and the large church was filled. More than a score of men from Edgefield attended this special service. We understand that the meeting at Johnston has been a great success.

Off For Northern Trip.

Mrs. J. L. Mims will leave this morning for Boston to attend the commencement exercises of the Leland Powers School of Expression, from which her daughter, Miss Florence Mims, will graduate next week. While en route to Boston Mrs. Mims will attend the National D. A. R. Conference in Washington this week. After spending ten days in Boston she and her daughter will visit relatives in New Hampshire. On their return trip they will stop several days in New York and will attend the Southern Baptist Convention in Washington, which opens May 12, reaching Edgefield about May 15.

Kemp-Thomas.

The marriage of Miss Mattie Kemp and Mr. C. M. Thomas, Thursday evening, April 8, at the home of Dr. R. G. Lee who performed the ceremony, has caused these two widely beloved Edgefield people to be showered with congratulations by their friends. From the time that both of them came to Edgefield to make their home, Miss Kemp coming from the Mountain Creek section and Mr. Thomas from the Cleora section, they have won for themselves a host of friends. Mr. Thomas has made a pronounced success of his mercantile business near the station and Miss Kemp will be greatly missed by her friends from her place in Mr. Rubenstein's store, where she has been employed for several years. The Advertiser joins the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas in extending hearty congratulations.

Meeting of Music Club.

The April meeting of the Philharmonic Music Club was held at the home of Mrs. W. J. Duncan Thursday afternoon.

The program was from the operas "Lucia" and "Aida," both beautiful in story as well as in song. Miss Elizabeth Rainsford read the story of the opera "Lucia," the "Sextette" from Lucia was played as a Victrola selection. Mrs. Tillman read a synopsis of "Aida" which was followed by "Farewell, O Earth," on the Victrola. Miss Justine Cantelou played a lovely piano solo which everyone enjoyed.

During the business hour the club decided to correspond with the Matteson Concert Company concerning a concert in Edgefield during the week of May the tenth. A further announcement will appear later.

Miss Elizabeth Rainsford will represent the club at the Federation at Rock Hill.

Mrs. W. Mooney was welcomed as a new member into the club.

Mrs. Duncan and Mrs. DeVore served delightful apple salad, olive and egg sandwiches and coffee with whipped cream.

A Delightful House Party.

Miss Nelle Jones entertained a delightful house party last week, her guests being Miss Gertrude Mason of Memphis, Tenn., Miss Marjorie Postal of Bluffton, Indiana, Miss Elise Lake of Kathwood, S. C., and Mr. J. Mitchell Chase of Clearfield, Penn. As is her custom Miss Jones entertained lavishly and very beautifully in honor of her visitors. One evening an elaborate tea, with covers laid for twelve, was given in their honor, the decorations of the dining room being spring flowers from the woodland with pink predominating. The latter part of the evening Misses Lake and Postal gave some of their character dancing which is always admired. Besides her house guests, Miss Jones' guests on this occasion were Miss Annie Lynah, Mr. J. O. Sheppard, Mr. Benjamin Greneker, Mr. Scott and Mr. Madison Tucker.

For Bride-Elect.

Miss Mary Bruton, popular bride-elect, was honored with a lovely dinner party given last night at Ridge-wood club by Miss Helen Tillman of Edgefield, who is in the city visiting Mrs. Bunyan Cooner and who will be one of the bridesmaids at the marriage this week of Miss Bruton and John Bollin, Jr. The table was lovely with its centerpiece of pink roses artistically arranged in a silver basket, the handles of which were tied with soft bows of pink tulle. Tiny pink baskets also tied with the pink tulle and filled with pink mints were found at each plate and the lovely little place cards were bridal slippers filled with orange blossoms. Pink tulle extended from the chandelier to the corners of the table.

The bride's place at the table was marked by a tiny miniature doll bride wearing a bride's dress and orange blossoms in her hair. The candlesticks with their warmly tinted shades were also tied with bows of the pink tulle and a bowl of sweet peas added the finishing color notes to the exquisitely appointed table.

Those present at the dinner party were: Misses Mary, Louise, Margaret and Helen Bruton, Margaret Read, Jacquelin Cooper, Julia Daniels, John Bollin, Alex Bollin, Duncan Belinger, Geddings Crawford, Ben Rice Henry Fellers, Cooper Harris, A. C. Heyward, Captain Vann, R. L. Bryan, Colonel Eastaday, Beach Brooker, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Wilson, Mrs. M. N. Tillman, Mrs. N. Rogers Bayly and Mr. and Mrs. Bunyan R. Cooner.—The State.

How To Give Quinine To Children:
FEBRILINE is the trade-mark name given to an improved Quinine. It is a Tasteless Syrup, pleasant to take and does not disturb the stomach. Children take it and never know it is Quinine. Also especially adapted to adults who cannot take ordinary Quinine. Does not nauseate nor cause nervousness nor ringing in the head. Try it the next time you need Quinine for any purpose. Ask for 2-ounce original package. The name FEBRILINE is blown in bottle. 25 cents.
