Residence, No. 17

Wednesday, May 5.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Dr. B. F. Jones spent a portion of last week in Columbia.

Mrs. J. M. Munnerlyn of Bennettsville is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cantelou.

Mr. Pearce T. Thomas is now serving the Lynch Drug store as salesman.

Dr. R. G. Lee has accepted an invitation to deliver a memorial address at Saluda Monday.

Mrs. A. J. Ives will arrive in Edgefield to-morrow from Savannah to visit her aunts, Miss Sophie and Miss Marie Abney.

Mrs. B. F. Jones, accompanied by her two little daughters, has been spending the past week in Camden visiting her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Forrest of Saluda county spent the week-end here with Mrs. Forrest's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Hudgens.

Mr. Orlando Sheppard went to Greenwood Monday to attend a meeting of the board of trustees of the Connie Maxwell Orphanage.

Miss Helen Tillman is in Sumter attending the annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans as maid of honor.

Mrs. J. C. Byers, Miss Byers, Masters Carroll and Lindsay Byers of Augusta were visitors in the home of Mrs. Emma N. Dobson Sunday.

Miss Lillian Smith has been re-elected as a teacher in the Logan school in Columbia. She has taught in the city schools of Columbia for several years and has made a fine record.

Do not fail to register for the town election. Every duly qualified voter should cast his ballot in the municipal election—in every election, for that matter.

Miss Willie Peak was brought home from the sanitarium in Columbia Saturday. She stood the trip splendidly and is resting better. Her friends are hoping and praying for her recovery.

The members of the Cemetery Committee for Memorial Day are asked to meet at Willow Brook Cemetery at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon, going from there to the Catholic Cemetery.

Little Miss Louise Porter of Batesburg has been on a recent visit in the home of Judge Kinnaird. This dear little girl is loyal to her first love, old Edgefield, and especially to her former beloved neighbors.

The merchants and other business men are requested to close their places of business from eleven until one on May 10th to honor the memories of the soldiers of the Confederacy. Come to the Opera House, there will be a good program.

Invitations have been received in Edgefield to the graduating exercises at the University Hospital in Augusta, Miss Margaret Hill being a member of the graduating class of nurses. The Advertiser begs to offer congratulations upon the splendid record she has made and upon her completing the course of training.

A delicate little attention is planned for the Honorary members of the Edgefield Chapter U. D. C., and anyone who can spare a few fronds of sprengeri or asparagus fern will please send them to Mrs. A. A. Woodson on Saturday afternoon. White and red roses are requested also.

Mr. C. H. Key has returned from Columbia where he has been with his son, Mr. Julian Key, who has been very seriously ill at the hospital. It was a great relief to his friends here to learn this morning that a very decided change has been noted in his condition for the better.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Bussey, Jr., of the Flat Rock community have been blessed with a little daughter, just a week old now. There were four fine boys already in the home-circle. The writer was delighted to learn that the sweet little daughter has been named Mary Elizabeth for her maternal grandmother, the lamented Mrs. Mary Wates, whom to know was to love.

Mr. Leland Welling of Newberry is here visiting his sister, Mrs. Jerold LaGrone.

Miss Royall Peak came down from Greenwood and spent the week-end with the homefolk.

Since the withdrawal of Mr. W. P. Yonce, Mr. R. T. Hill is the only candidate for warden in the 5th ward.

The Corner Store is offering some great bargains this week. Read its advertisement in this issue.

Mr. Jeff Timmerman of Greenville is here visiting his brothers, Mr. J. R. Timmerman and Mr. J. P. Timmerman.

Little Miss Julia Virginia Aull of Columbia has been the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Tompkins.

The friends of Mr. Thomas H. Rainsford are delighted to learn that he stood the operation at the hospital in Columbia for appendicitis splendidly and is doing well.

Rev. G. W. M. Taylor will preach and administer the communion at McKendree Methodist church in the county Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Miss Annie Clisby, having closed the school at Antioch, has gone to Washington, D. C., to visit her niece and from there she will go to Mobile, Ala., to make her home.

Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Lee entertained the newly elected deacons and the old board of deacons at the parsonage Friday evening. The occasion was one of unusual pleasure to all present.

Children's Day will be observed with an appropriate programme at the Methodist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. At 8 p. m. Rev. G. W. M. Taylor, the pastor, will conduct the evening service.

The public generally and especially the regular patrons of this old and well established business will be pleased to learn that the Lynch Drug Store is again open for business in temporary quarters to the rear of the site of the former store.

Mrs. P. H. Bussey and her little son arrived from Andrews, S. C., Monday and will remain here with Mrs. Bussey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Peak, until Rev. P. H. Bussey returns from the Southern Baptist convention.

Miss Fannie Sheppard and Master George Edward have returned from a delightful visit in the home of Mr. Orlando Sheppard in Atlanta. It was a very great pleasure for Miss Sheppard, who is a fine musician to enjoy the Grand Opera season in our southern metropolis.

Mrs. F. W. P. Butler and little daughters, Ellen and Marie, and Mr. Clint Graydon of Columbia, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. McG. Simkins for the week-end with Mrs. Clint Graydon, who, with her attractive children, have been here for a several weeks' visit.

Miss Bertha Lee Furgerson who, together with her sister, Miss Bess, taught the Long Branch school the past session has been engaged to teach the Sweetwater school for the next term. Miss Furgerson is a very capable teacher, having taught in Edgefield county for the past four or five years.

Edgefield will be well represented at the Southern Baptist convention which convenes at Washington, D. C., May 12. Among those who will attend will be Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lott, Mrs. E. J. Norris, Mrs. Mamie Tillman and Dr. J. G. Tompkins. Mrs. J. L. Mims and Miss Florence Mims will also attend the convention as they return through Washington.

Notice to the Bald Eagle Chapter U. D. C.
The children of the Bald Eagle chapter and any others who wish to assist, will meet at the home of Mrs. A. A. Woodson at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon to decorate the graves of our Confederate dead.

I shall be out of my office Monday and Tuesday, May 10th and 11th, as I shall be in Columbia in the discharge of my duty as a member of the Board of Examiners in Optometry for South Carolina.

Edisto District Conference of U. D. C.

The Edisto District Conference U. D. C. met with the Edward Croft chapter in Aiken April 29th. About one hundred visiting members of the district chapters attended.

The visitors were most cordially welcomed by the Edward Croft Daughters at the Aiken Opera House, which was decorated with Confederate flags. The red and white colors were carried out in the blossoms of many handsome potted plants on the stage.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. O. D. Black, first vice-president, whose greetings to the Edisto District chapters was full of earnest purpose and high ideals.

The address by the State President, Mrs. St. J. A. Lawton, was the piece-de-resistance of the splendid program.

In the business session a matter of great importance was the reappointment by Mrs. Lawton of Mrs. Agatha A. Woodson, chairman of the Honor Roll committee. Mrs. Woodson, who has been the faithful chairman of this committee for seven years, asked for the work to be suspended during the period of war, but now the patriotic work of preserving the records of our soldiers of the War Between the States will be carried forward to completion.

Another matter that came up was in regard to securing the records of our boys of the World War, who are lineal descendants of Confederate soldiers.

The local work along this line is, also in the hands of Mrs. Woodson, who, as chapter historian, is anxious to secure the names of every such soldier.

In the U. D. C. organization the memorial decided on for our boys of the World War takes the form of a loan fund to be known as the Hero Fund. This fund is to be used as a loan to boys, descendants of Confederate ancestors, who participated in the World War, for educational purposes. The amount necessary to complete the fund if fifty thousand dollars, thirty thousand of which has been secured. Stress was laid upon the fact that our district must not be behind in this laudable enterprise.

Another matter taken up regarded the scholarship for the Confederate College in Charleston.

Upon motion of Mrs. Woodson, a fifty dollar bond held by the district, was voted towards this scholarship.

Our district had previously donated a hundred dollar bond to the hero fund.

At the close of the morning session the Daughters repaired to the spacious Odd Fellows' Hall, where a three course luncheon was served by the most hospitable hostess chapter.

The menu included grape fruit, chicken salad on lettuce hearts, pimento sandwiches, pickle and rolls, with coffee and block cream with pound and layer cake.

The Edgefield chapter extended a cordial invitation to the district to hold the 1921 conference here, and Mrs. Black, in accepting, spoke beautifully of the pleasure it will afford Edisto Daughters to meet in our historical town.

The Edgefield delegation included Mesdames N. G. Evans, R. A. Marsh, B. L. Mims, S. B. Nicholson, Hugh Nicholson, Frank Warren, Agatha A. Woodson and P. M. Feltham and Misses Sophie Dobson, Annie DeLoach and Gladys Rives.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Full and Running Over

Our stock room is full of Genuine Ford Parts. We have an assortment of parts that would enable us to build either a Ford passenger car or a Ford One Ton Truck from the ground up. Then, too, those parts are Ford made—each according to its use—so that they are exact duplicates of the original parts now in your car, and will give the same constant, hard wear.

Our shop is equipped with up-to-the-minute tools and machinery, specially designed, so that we can properly and promptly take care of your repair work—from a minor adjustment to a complete overhaul. And the mechanics who will do the work for you are men who understand the Ford mechanism and who know the Ford way to do the work.

We are Authorized Ford Dealers; we not only give Ford service but we sell Ford cars and Ford One Ton Trucks as well. So, it is easy to understand that we have more than a passing interest in your car.

Drive to our garage for Ford Parts, Ford Service or Ford Cars—Come to authorized Ford headquarters and be on the safe side of dependable repairs.
