Dr. B. F. Jones Shot by Mr. M. W. Hudgens.

Monday afternoon about five o'clock Mr. M. W. Hudgens and Dr. B. F. Jones met and engaged in a conversation of ten or fifteen minutes near the office and cotton seed scales of Mr. A. M. Timmerman, and just what led to the tragic ending of the interview is not known. Mr. Hudgens fired several shots from a pistol at Dr. Jones, all of them taking effect. The one that entered about the centre of the chest had not been located up to the time he was carried to Augusta. The details leading up to the altercation are not known to the public as there were no eye-witnesses. Dr. Jones had a pistol in the pocket of his car but none on his person. All four of the local physicians were called to the aid of the wounded man and he was given the closest attention until he was carried to the hospital in Augusta Tuesday morning. He stood the trip well and while nothing very definite has been heard from him since his condition seems to be no worse. An X-ray photograph will be made before an operation is undertaken to extract the ball. The physicians believe he has a good chance for recovery.

Immediately after the shooting Mr. Hudgens went to the Court House and surrendered to the sheriff and is now in jail. When he will apply for bail has not been stated.

Southern Exposition Fair.

Elsewhere in this issue of The Advertiser will be found the announcement of the forthcoming Southern Exposition Fair at Augusta, which will be the big event in this section of Georgia and South Carolina during the week of October 18th-23rd.

It is announced that General Manager Sanford H. Cohen has devoted the entire year to the task of getting together this fall the greatest fair ever put on in this section of the country and a glance at a few of the features mentioned in the advertising matter will be sufficient to create a keen desire on the part of people of this county to take in the sights of the big Exposition during the week October 18-23.

Besides the educational features, including daily lectures on soil improvement and one entire day devoted to power farming during which every known power device used on the farm will be demonstrated—besides these informative events, there will be no end of excitement of the most varied nature, the kind of entertainment that people like when they go away from home for a couple of days to seek diversion.

It is announced that the fastest automobile races ever seen in the south will be staged daily, with America's most daring and most reckless drivers at the wheel of the speediest cars in the country. Among the drivers will be Jimmie Calvert, Ray Chapman, Neal Brooks, Ken Goodson and Louis Chevrolet.

The nightly fire-works, guaranteed to be the greatest pyrotechnics display staged in the south this year, will prove a big drawing card. Displays of unprecedented grandeur, including the spectacular naval battle, will prove entrancing and awe inspiring. The free acts, too, are said to be of a high order, featuring Dare Devil Wilson and the Aerial Lloyds.

The Midway will open the eyes of the people of this section. The mammoth Rubin and Cherry organization with twenty big shows and six riding devices will keep things lively on the midway both day and night, and for diversified entertainment no better opportunity will ever be offered the people of this section to enjoy themselves.

For the lovers of the gridiron, there will be two bitterly contested games, one between the University of South Carolina and the Presbyterian College of Clinton, S. C., this to be staged on October 21st, and the other on October 23rd, between Richmond Academy and Columbia High School.

The greatest crowning achievement of the Exposition will be the marriage of Miss Thrift to General Food Production, a beautiful and spectacular pageant with 1,500 performers, 500 singers and dancers and 20 floats. This feature will be sponsored and put on by the Women's Clubs of Augusta under the direction of Mrs. Espy, and in connection with it will be a wonderful allegorical history of the Savannah Valley, depicting every stage of the development of this favored section. This mammoth event is set for October 20th.

Besides these special events, there is assurance that the exhibits in agriculture, horticulture, machinery, live stock, poultry, etc., will excel by far those of previous years.

To the Farmers and Other Business People of Edgefield:

The present financial situation is distressing, but I believe relief will soon come.

Don't lose your poise, don't be demoralized.

The Cotton Association and your representatives in Congress are busy and, in my opinion, good results will follow.

Don't do anything to create distrust in your honesty. Be orderly and follow the advice of Mr. Skottowe Wannamaker, President of the American Cotton Association.
