LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Ellie Mims is visiting her cousin, Mrs. W. H. Dorn.

Dr. R. M. Fuller of McCormick is attending court here this week.

Miss Willie Gentry of Greenville, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. R. G. Lee.

Mr. John A. Holland of Greenwood was among the visitors in Edgefield Friday.

Congressman James F. Byrnes was in Edgefield shaking hands with his friends last Friday.

Dr. George B. Cromer, one of the leading members of the Newberry bar, is in Edgefield this week attending court.

Dr. J. G. Tompkins left Monday for New York and will be away several days.

Mrs. H. J. Munnerlyn of Bennettsville is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cantelou.

Mr. Amos Moore came home from the B. M. I. to spend the week-end with his parents, Capt. and Mrs. L. Y. Moore.

The Civic League will meet Monday afternoon at four o'clock in the library and a full attendance is urged by the president.

Mr. Horace Cogburn of Columbia is spending several days in Edgefield this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cogburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Rubenstein of Augusta spent Sunday in Edgefield with Mrs. Rubenstein's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Prescott.

Judge L. G. Bell of McCormick is among the visitors in Edgefield today and is being very cordially greeted by his old Edgefield friends.

We have lately received a beautiful line of spring coat suits in French serge and tricotine.

RUBENSTEIN.

Mr. and Mrs. Will L. Bryan and little son, William David, spent several days last week with Mrs. Bryan's mother in the Elmwood section.

The Misses Ford and Miss Perlew, of Aiken motored over from Aiken Sunday afternoon, having tea at Mrs. Kate DeVore Butler's charming old home, "Hill Crest."

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Dobson, W. R. Dobson, Jr., and little Emma motored over from their Beech Island home to be guests of Mrs. Emma Dobson and family last Sunday.

Cotton is slowly finding its way to market. A limited number of bales are offered for sale on the square every few days. This plan of slowly marketing the staple is the best.

Rev. T. P. Burgess of Clinton received a very affectionate greeting from the people of Edgefield during his short visit last week. Mr. Burgess was universally beloved in Edgefield.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Burkhalter and their little son of North Augusta spent Sunday in Edgefield as guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lott. They worshipped at the Baptist church Sunday morning.

Mr. J. B. Kennerly will leave Friday for Chicago to visit the headquarters of the large shoe factory which he represents and will bring back with him a full line of fall samples of shoes.

Misses Sophie and Marie Abney have returned from Savannah where they have been spending the winter with their niece, Mrs. A. J. Ives. They have been very cordially welcomed back home by their friends.

Sunday school will be held at three o'clock and a conference of the church will be held immediately after the Sunday school. A full attendance of the members of the church is desired at the conference.

Mrs. Mamie N. Tillman and Miss Margaret May will go to Columbia this morning to attend a conference of the musical department of the Federation of Clubs of South Carolina. Miss Margaret will participate in a musical contest that will be conducted by the Federation. Only seven other young musicians in South Carolina will enter the contest.

Major R. S. Anderson arrived Friday to spend a short period of rest at home between the sessions of congress. He will return to Washington on or about the 10th of April, this time being fixed for the calling of an extra session by President Harding.

The attention of our readers is directed this week to the following new advertisements: The Corner Store, Israel Mukashy, A. J. Day, W. E. Lynch & Company, Rubenstein, Accessory Department of the Dixie Highway Garage and the Palmafesta.

Mr. J. T. Harling came down from Plum Branch Monday. He stated that business has been stimulated in Plum Branch through the sale of cross-ties for the railroad. The price of ties has ranged around one dollar each and they have been hauled a considerable distance to Plum Branch.

The out-of-town attendance upon court during last and this week has greatly increased the daily registration at the Dixie Highway Hotel, causing, naturally, Manager Vause to wear a broad smile. And the best part of it is everybody who stops at the new hotel has a word of praise for it and the management.

Rev. E. G. Ross, pastor of the Baptist church at Whitmire, will begin a series of services in his church next Sunday, the 20th, to continue through the 30th. He will be assisted in these services by Dr. R. G. Lee, late pastor of the Baptist church at Edgefield, now pastor of the First Baptist church in Chester.—Newberry Observer.

Mrs. P. M. Feltham has been appointed county chairman for the Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion Post. No better selection could have been made for the head of this organization in Edgefield county. Mrs. Feltham is a very talented and capable young woman who always throws herself unreservedly into what ever she undertakes, never stopping short of a full measure of success.

Mr. and Mrs. David A. Lee of Fort Mill spent Saturday and Sunday in Edgefield visiting their son, Dr. R. G. Lee, this being their first visit to Edgefield since Dr. Lee came among us. They attended the morning and evening services of the church and were very cordially greeted by a large number of people, who were delighted to meet and greet these good people because of the love they bear for Dr. Lee.

Plant Velvet Beans.

The 100 day Runner, Speckle bunch and Osceola velvet beans. See A. W. Burson in Edgefield all this week and next. Headquarters Edgefield Grocery Company.

Sermon Before Baraca Class.

The members of the Baraca class of the Baptist church which Dr. Lee has taught every Sunday morning since he came to Edgefield have requested Dr. Lee to preach a special sermon for the class before he leaves and he has consented to preach this special sermon Sunday night. The public is also cordially invited to this service at the Baptist church. Service Sunday night at 7:45 o'clock.

D. A. R. Meeting.

The March meeting of the D. A. R. will meet on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock with Mrs. F. M. Warren, Jr.

The following is the program: "The Provincial Congress," Mrs. J. W. Peak.

Song, "Carolina," Miss Miriam Norris.

Poem, Timrod's "Carolina," Ned Nicholson.

"The Swamp Epicure," Mrs. J. H. Cantelou.

Mr. T. B. Lanham Celebrates Fiftieth Birthday.

On March 9, Mr. T. B. Lanham enjoyed a delightful day surrounded by all those whom he loved best to celebrate his half century milestone at his home in Columbia.

The guests were Mrs. W. H. Dorn and Horace Jr., and Miss Mary, Mrs. J. P. Nixon and John Nixon, Jr., from Edgefield; Mrs. Ethel Lanham Barnes and Thomas Lanham Barnes of Ohio; Miss Ellie Miller Lanham who came home from Winthrop college to be present. Mr. Stokes and Mr. and Mrs. Bostick of Ohio.

Many letters and cards of remembrance came as messengers of good cheer to Mr. Lanham from Ohio, and other places where he has labored. May there be many happy returns of the day.

FOR SALE: Towers, Tanks, Windmills, Motors, Pumps and Jacks. See C. N. WEATHERS. 3-16-3tpd.

Goes to Cleveland.

Miss Elizabeth Woodson who has been supervising public health nurse in Augusta for the past year spent last week in Edgefield visiting her mother, Mrs. A. A. Woodson. She has resigned her position in Augusta to accept similar work in Cleveland, Ohio. Few, if any nurses are better equipped for this field of service than Miss Woodson. Besides taking the regular course usually taken by graduate nurses and serving more than a year as a Red Cross nurse overseas, she took special training in public health nursing for a year. The good wishes of her Edgefield friends accompany her to her new and larger field of service.

County Bonds Sold.

The board of county commissioners opened sealed bids today for bonds of $100,000 to be issued by Edgefield county under an act introduced by Hon. M. P. Wells at the recent session of the legislature for retiring the past indebtedness of the county. Seven bids were filed and after due consideration the board accepted the bid of Hillsman & Company of Atlanta, which was about 97 or a net sum of $95,000 for the county, the bidders to pay all fees and expense of issuing the bonds. The money will be available about the first of April. This is a splendid sale of the bonds, considering the present financial situation. County Attorney T. B. Grenaker managed in a very creditable manner the sale of the bonds.

Marriage of Miss Beulah Cloer to Mr. Julian H. Morgan.

The Advertiser has been interested in this marriage for several reasons. One especially was that Miss Cloer has been one of our valued correspondents for some time since the family of Mr. Cloer of the Meeting Street section moved into our county from Lenoir, N. C.

This is an incident like the shoemaker's family never having shoes, and the newspaper man's family never getting a write up. As Miss Cloer was our correspondent, when her marriage took place, there was no one left "to tell the tale," and so we had to find it all out by hearsay.

Mr. Morgan is a son of our friend, Mrs. Julia Morgan, and the marriage took place at Johnston early in March, the ceremony being performed by Rev. W. S. Brooke.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan will make their home at the Kinnaird place near Meeting Street.

Mr. M. G. Cloer and family have removed to their former home in North Carolina. We are glad to have Mrs. Morgan remain in Edgefield permanently as a member of one of our best and most honored families.

Court of Common Pleas.

The court of Common Pleas convened Monday morning with Hon. Frank B. Gary presiding. The first case to be called was a suit by Mr. and Mrs. Glover Bledsoe for damages against the Western Union Telegraph Company for the non-delivery of a death telegram sent from Saluda. A verdict of $1,000 was rendered in favor of Mrs. Bledsoe and $200 in favor of Mr. Bledsoe. The defendants were represented by Mr. J. Wm. Thurmond, S. M. Smith and S. McG. Simkins and the defendant company by Tompkins and Wells and W. S. Nelson of Columbia. A motion was made by the defendant's counsel upon the ground that it is an inter-state corporation.

The next case taken up was the suit for $15,000 damages brought by Mr. Walter S. Strom against the Southern railroad for injuries sustained when a train struck and wrecked the automobile in which he was traveling at the crossing near the home of Mr. J. F. Bettis. The plaintiff is represented by Graham, Timmerman and Callison of Lexington and the defendant by Mr. N. G. Evans and Dr. George B. Cromer of Newberry. Considerable interest is being manifested in this case. A considerable number of witnesses are being examined on both sides.

She States It Mildly.

While suffering with a severe attack of the grip and threatened with pneumonia, Mrs. Annie H. Cooley, of Middlefield, Conn., began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was very much benefited by its use. The pains in the chest soon disappeared, the cough became loose, expectation easy and in a short time she was as well as ever. Mrs. Cooley says she cannot speak too highly in praise of this remedy.

Statement From Mr. Reese.

Dear Mr Editor:
Recently I had the misfortune to be robbed while coming from Johnston to Edgefield and had taken from me one hundred and twenty-eight dollars; one hundred and fourteen dollars of which belonged to the state.

Though I regret to state such a thing, it has been rumored that I was not held up, and evidently some of my enemies are responsible for such report. I hope the public will wait and see just exactly the state of affairs before they allow themselves to form an opinion. I have been living in Edgefield thirty-odd years and my reputation for truth and honesty has never been attacked.

Very respectfully,
J. W. REESE,
Game Warden.

Ransom-Turner.

On March 2nd, 1921, Miss Ruby Ransom and Mr. Fred Turner were quietly married by Rev. W. P. Brooke at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Bryan, only a few friends witnessing the occasion. These are progressive young people and have a host of friends who wish for them a life crowded with our Lord's choicest blessings, and an ever deepening sense of His presence and power.

A FRIEND.

Candidate for Cotton Weigher.

I desire to announce to the people who market cotton at Edgefield that I have decided to become a candidate for the position of public cotton weigher for Edgefield, and will appreciate their support. If elected I shall do my utmost to discharge the duties to the satisfaction of all parties, both sellers and buyers. I shall be always on the job and render faithful service.

J. R. SCURRY.
