

Jeffries-Bland.

Wednesday afternoon, April 20, at 4:30 o'clock Miss Anna Snow Jeffries and Mr. Julian Pickens Bland were married in the parlors of the Broadway Baptist church of Knoxville, Tenn., the father of the bride, Dr. M. D. Jeffries, officiating. Dr. Jeffries was pastor of this church for several years. It was a very quiet marriage, there being present only immediate relatives and a few friends.

There were no attendants, the bride and groom entering the church parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march rendered upon the piano by Miss Ruth Phillips, a personal friend of the bride. The bride carried a bouquet of Bride's roses and Lillies of the Valley and was clad in a tailored suit of blue tricotine, with accessories of gray. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Bland left in their car for a wedding tour through the mountains, stopping for several days in Asheville. They are expected to arrive at their home in Johnston the latter part of this week.

Both of these young people are widely beloved in Edgefield. From the time Miss Jeffries came to Edgefield to reside when her father became pastor of the Edgefield Baptist church about ten years ago she has made many warm personal friends here and in the county. After graduating from the S. C. C. I. she attended the Greenville Woman's College, where she also graduated. Since her graduation she has taught in the Edgefield high school most of the time, her services always giving entire satisfaction. The groom is a prominent young business man of Johnston and is an honored representative of one of the county's oldest and most honored families. The Advertiser joins their hosts of friends in extending sincere congratulations and cordial good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Bland. We have but one regret in connection with their marriage and that is their failure to make their home in Edgefield.

Callison News.

On Friday the 22nd of April, the death angel entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Reames and took away their dear little baby boy, Clarence. After thirteen months of joy and happiness with his mother and father, the great Heavenly Father saw fit to take this little one for His own and has transplanted his sweet little spirit in the great beyond.

The funeral services were conducted at Mt. Vernon Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Meadors. The remains were laid to rest beneath a mound of many beautiful flowers, which were brought by friends and loved ones. May this little angel spirit lead its mother and father and little brother to the land where there will be flowers and sunshine eternally.

"Another little lamb has gone
To dwell with Him who gave;
Another little darling babe
Is sheltered in the grave.

"A mother's hope, a father's joy,
In death's cold arms doth lie;
Go, little angel, to thy home
And dwell with God forevermore."

Song: "Long Branch School," sung by 9th Grade. (Words by Miss Harvey.)

The day to part with our old school friends draws near;
Soon comes the day when we leave our school so dear;
Sadly we leave the dear school we love so well,
But still we love our dear school more than tongue can tell.

Chorus

We love her, we love her,
Our dear old Long Branch school;
Our hearts will ever turn in love
To Long Branch school.

We bid farewell to the boys and girls so gay;
We wish that we always could join them in their play;
We leave our friends and dear teachers with a sigh;

But we must bid our dear old Long Branch school goodbye.

We leave her, we leave her
Our dear old Long Branch school;
Our hearts will ever turn in love
To Long Branch school.

"Yankee in Love," William Ripley. Letter, Ethel Clark.

"Good night," Annie May Clark.
The following boys and girls received prizes in this school: For best deportment in Miss Attaway's room, Rubie Duffie, Jesse Lott and J. D. Herrin; in Miss Harvey's room: best spelling, Annie May Clark; not missing a day, Mary Clark.

delightful, heart dice party at Miss Say Seigler's in Eureka last Friday afternoon.

Don't Shirk.

This country is not going to the bow-wows,
Or be swept up like so much trash;
Low price cotton makes it a little blue now,
But we have too much at stake to go to smash.

If your business is not so good, you find,
Why, don't blame Father Adam or Mother Eve;
Mind your business and you'll have a business,
And your troubles will soon be relieved.

The man who is chicken-hearted and yellow,
May frighten his business to death;
But the clear-headed, stout-hearted fellow
Keeps shoving as long as he has breath.

This is no time for calamity howlers,
Or those afflicted with kicking habits;
We need right-thinking and hustling no growlers,
More lions and not so many rabbits.

There's absolutely nothing wrong with this country,
Except what you make wrong yourself.

It's strong socially, physically, and financially,
Burdened down with overwhelming wealth.

It's a mighty good country to live in, after all,
If you stop so much whining and work.

We flew a little too high, got a little fall,
But will overcome it all, DON'T SHIRK!
