Mrs. A. E. Padgett, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Cleveland at Marietta has returned home.

Mrs. Mamie N. Tillman left this morning for Cincinnati, Ohio, to visit her daughter, Mrs. Preston Wright.

Mrs. Lucy Reed Strother returned to Columbia Monday after a visit to relatives here in her former home.

A large shipment of Georgette Blouses arrived this week.

E. RUBENSTEIN.

How many June brides will Edgefield supply for Cupid? One for today, the first day, makes a very good beginning.

The Winthrop girls, Misses Elizabeth Rives, Hazel Dorn, Sarah Lyon, and Bessie Dunovant arrived for their vacation Friday.

The regular monthly meeting of the American Legion will be held the first Tuesday night in June, being the 7th day of the month.

Miss Marie Blackwell of Parkville, has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Lemie Talbert at the hospitable country home of Mr. John M. Mays.

Mr. Orlando Sheppard was called to Columbia Tuesday in connection with his duties as chairman of the board of visitors of the Citadel.

Mr. M. B. Tucker says he has ripe tomatoes in his garden which so far as our information goes entitles him to the first prize for earliest tomatoes.

Mrs. J. L. Mims and Mrs. J. P. Nixon are Edgefield's representatives at a woman's missionary meeting of the first division at Antioch today.

There will be no services in the Baptist church next Sunday. Sunday school at the usual hour. After that everybody will attend the tent meeting.

Miss Charlotte Strother is representing the Edgefield Trinity Branch of the Auxiliary at the conference which convenes in Greenville this week.

Mr. Harold Norris has accepted a position in Memphis, Tenn., and will leave Friday for his new field. The best wishes of his Edgefield friends will accompany him.

Mr. W. W. Adams will erect an attractive residence on the lot adjoining the home of his mother, Mrs. Hattie W. Adams. Mr. W. S. G. Heath has the contract.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Cheatham, Jr., are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. S. G. Heath. Mr. Cheatham was reared in Edgefield and his boyhood friends have greeted him very cordially.

Large crowds attend the revival services, especially the night services. At the close of the day's work scores and hundreds motor many miles to hear Mr. Bridgers' earnest sermons.

The Telephone Company has just issued a new directory for the Johnston and Edgefield exchanges. The Johnston exchange has 183 subscribers and the Edgefield exchange 140.

Mr. Carroll P. Mays and Eddie Talbert left on Thursday for Beckley, West Virginia to visit Dr. and Mrs. Charles S. Smith. Mrs. Smith was Miss Mary Talbert before her marriage.

Major and Mrs. T. J. Lyon motored down from Greenwood to attend the splendid recital given by Miss Fanny Sheppard's music pupils last Friday evening and have remained for a visit in their old home.

A shipment of voile dresses arrived today.

E. RUBENSTEIN.

The friends of Miss Viola Mellichamp will be pleased to learn that she is convalescing from a surgical operation in the hospital in Columbia, her tonsils and appendix having been removed.

The friends of Mr. William Hollingsworth congratulate him upon his graduation from the Auburn Polytechnic Institute, having completed the course in one year. He made a splendid record.

Miss Janice Morgan who has been teaching in Inman, Spartanburg county, is enjoying her summer vacation at home. She has been offered several schools for next session but has not decided which she will accept.

Dr. and Mrs. John McGrath of New York are here visiting relatives. Dr. McGrath will return to New York after a week or ten days but Mrs. McGrath and their interesting children will remain in Edgefield for a prolonged visit.

All lovers of baseball who reside within reach of the series of games that will be played at Johnston, Ridge Spring, Batesburg and Saluda will be interested in the schedule of games that is published this week on the front page of The Advertiser.

Prof. Charles F. Brooks left yesterday for his former home in Laurens, after closing his second year as superintendent of the Edgefield graded and high schools. Prof. Brooks made many warm personal friends during his two years' stay in Edgefield.

Mrs. T. A. Hightower has returned from the hospital in Spartanburg greatly improved in health to the delight of her Edgefield friends. Mrs. Hightower is deeply grateful to her Edgefield friends who wrote her a number of letters while she was away in the hospital.

In publishing the advertisement of Firestone tires in this issue on our seventh page we made an error by placing the name of Mr. W. W. Adams at the bottom as local sales agent. So in order to state it correctly we have reproduced the Firestone advertisement on our fifth page giving the name of Mr. G. W. Adams as local sales agent.

Mr. W. W. Fuller, Mr. W. S. G. Heath, Mr. C. M. Mellichamp and his two little sons motored to Columbia Friday to attend the preliminary hearing of the white men who are charged with robbing a number of postoffices in South Carolina, it being possible that they are the men who robbed the office here. The preliminary hearing was postponed until some time next week.

Notwithstanding the "hard times," the people of Edgefield are responsive to all worthy appeals. In fact, have you ever seen a time when they were not responsive? A collection was taken at the tent meeting Sunday morning, about $300 being called for to pay for the rental of tent and other expenses incident to the meeting. When calls were made for voluntary contributions the responses came thick and fast, the desired amount being soon raised.

Evangelist Bridgers, accompanied by Mr. Carroll Rainsford, motored to Greenwood Sunday afternoon to invite Bishop Darlington, who delivered the commencement sermon at Lander college Sunday, to come to Edgefield and preach one or more times at the tent meeting, but Bishop Darlington is so busily engaged in assisting in the educational campaign now being waged by the Southern Methodist church that he was unable to accept the invitation.

Mr. J. W. Thompson accompanied his daughter, Miss Emma Thompson, to Edgefield yesterday after attending the graduating exercises at Fessifern, Hendersonville, N. C., where she graduated. Mr. Thompson will return to his home today, being accompanied by his children, little Katherine and Thomas Thompson. Miss Emma will remain in Edgefield some time and will later be accompanied to her home in Edgefield by Miss Kate Butler.

Reel-Deitz.

This morning at 11:30 o'clock Miss Mabel Clare Reel and Mr. Alonzo Melvin Deitz will be married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Reel. A fuller notice will be published in next week's Advertiser.

For Sale.

One thirty-foot steel tank; one one-horse electric motor; one Weston & Brocker sewerage disposal septic tank; one pump and jack; 60 feet of galvanized pipe.

B. B. JONES.

Mass Meeting Called.

At the request of the trustees of the Edgefield school district, The Advertiser announces that a mass meeting will be held in the court house to-morrow (Thursday) afternoon at six o'clock to consider matters of importance concerning the Edgefield school. A large attendance upon this meeting is desired. Our school is second in importance only to our churches and when the trustees call upon the people for a meeting there should be a large attendance.

Successful Potato Growers.

Early in the year Mr. J. H. Nicholson and Rev. G. W. M. Taylor entered into a copartnership to grow Irish potatoes this year. Mr. Taylor having been reared in Virginia where growing this crop is quite an extensive enterprise. They planted about four acres the latter part of February and have been quite successful. Up to this time they have harvested about sixty barrels of potatoes from two acres, realizing about $6.00 per barrel. Mr. Nicholson says potatoes at that price beat cotton at the present price of the staple.

The Dixie Highway.

Although it cost the county a pile of money, the Dixie Highway is about finished and is the pride of the people. It traverses Edgefield county and is a main artery of travel for people not only of this and adjoining States, but for the far away sections as well. It is not uncommon to see cars passing almost every day bearing the name-plate of Canada or some extreme northwestern State. This splendid new thoroughfare should inspire our people to modernize other highways in the country—but let's do it on a less expensive scale.

Meeting of W. C. T. U.

June 6th, four o'clock with Mrs. J. H. Reel, hostess.
Subject, Temperance and Missions.

Piano Solo—Miss Helen Dorn.
Plan for picnic at County Home.

The Tent Meeting.

From the opening day there has been a steady increase in the attendance upon the tent meeting and there has also been a steady increase in the interest taken in the services. Mr. Bridgers has a kindly, persuasive manner which enables him to get very close to the people, never driving them away by abuse and severe criticism. As a choir leader Mr. Jenkins makes the services pleasing and effective. The meeting is reaching all ages and all classes. Friday morning a special service will be held for the old people of the community. Saturday afternoon the tent will be given over to a service for the colored people by Mr. Bridgers.

Two Young Physicians.

Monday night when the commencement exercises of the Medical Department of the University of Georgia were held in the opera house in Augusta two Edgefield young men, Dr. Luther Byrd and Dr. Watson Talbert, the former being the son of Mr. T. E. Byrd of Cleora and the latter the son of Mr. T. G. Talbert. Of course, Dr. Talbert is now from McCormick county but Edgefield county reared him and still claims him. These two young men have made a good record at the medical college and are now full pledged physicians. Dr. Byrd has accepted a position as intern at the University hospital in order to gain some practical experience before locating elsewhere for the practice of medicine. We have not been informed of Dr. Talbert's plans.

University of South Carolina Entrance Examinations.

Entrance examinations to the University of South Carolina will be held by the County Superintendent of Education at the County Court House Friday, July 8, 1921, at 9 a. m.

The University offers varied courses of study in science, literature, history, law and business. The expenses are moderate and many opportunities for self support are offered. Scholarships are available. Military training is compulsory for Freshmen and Sophomores, Reserve Officers Training Corps.

For full particulars write to President W. S. CURRELL, University of South Carolina, Columbia, S. C.

Recital by the Vocal Students of Signora de Fabritiis.

The music club has invited Signora de Fabritiis to arrange for an evening in Edgefield under the auspices of the club. Edgefield is peculiarly fortunate in having this opportunity of hearing these young artists sing and also give some piano solos. The musicale will take place on the evening of Thursday, June 9, at the residence of Mrs. B. B. ones, where one of the most splendid pianos in town will make the program so much the more excellent.

The following program will be heard:

Caro Mio Ben—Giodani and Nel cor piu non mi sento—Paisiello by Miss Dorothy Jane Scallin.
Chantons les amours de Jeanne, and Bergere Legere—18th century arranged by Weckerlin by Miss Margaret Wall.

Arabesque—Debussy, and The Sea—Palmgren by Miss Miriam Lanham.

Goodnight Beloved—Nevin, The Star—Rogers; Sleep That Flits—Carpenter; Who'll Buy My Lavender—German, by Miss Scallin.

Pale Moone—F. K. Logan; Since We Parted—Allitain; Ecstasy—Mrs. H. H. Beach, by Miss Ruth Tompkins.

The Dendelion, Naughty Tulip, Chrysanthemum—Mary Turner Salter, by Miss Wall.

Mathnata, Serenata—P. Tosti, by Miss Elizabeth Bussey.

An admission fee of 25 cents will be collected at the door.

THE WORLD'S BIBLE.

Annie Johnson Flint
Christ has no hands but our hands,
To do his work to-day;
He has no feet but our feet
To lead men in his way;
He has no tongues but our tongues,
To tell men how he died;
He has no help but our help,
To bring them to His side.

We are the only Bible
The careless world will read;
We are the sinner's gospel,
We are the scoffer's creed;
We are the Lord's last message,
Given in deed and word;
What if the type is crooked
What if the print is blurred?

What if our hands are busy
With other work than His?
What if our feet are walking
Where sin's allurements is?
What if our tongues are speaking
Of things His lips would spurn?
How can we hope to help Him
And hasten His return?

Father And Son.

Edgar A. Guest.
Be more than his dad,
Be a chum to the lad;
Be a part of his life
Every hour of the day;
Find time to talk with him,
Take time to walk with him,
Share in his studies
And share his play;
Take him to places,
To ball games and races,
Teach him the things
That you want him to know;
Don't live apart from him,
Don't keep your heart from him,
Be his best comrade,
He's needing you so!

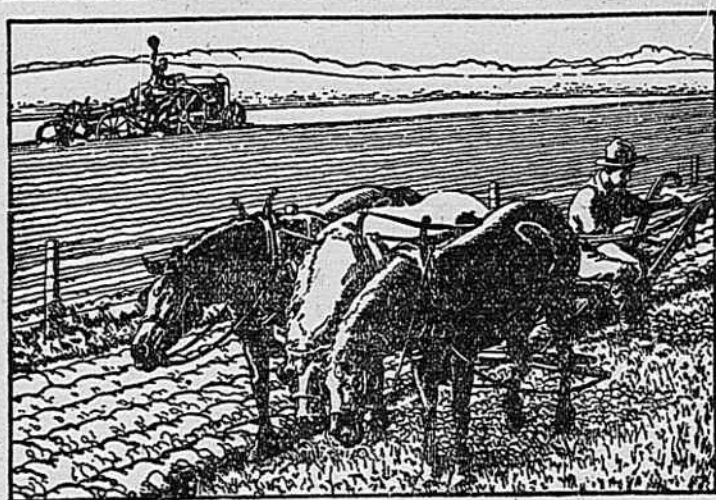

Never neglect him,
Though young, still respect him,
Hear his opinions
With patience and pride;
Show him his error,
But be not a terror,
Grim visaged and fearful,
When he's at your side.
Know what his thoughts are,
Know what his sports are,
Know all his playmates,
It's easy to learn to
Be such a father
That when troubles gather
You'll be the first one
For council he'll turn to.

You can inspire him
With courage, and fire him
Hot with ambition
For deeds that are good;
He'll not betray you
Nor illy betray you,
If you have taught him
The things that you should.
Father and son
Must in all things be one—
Partners in trouble
And comrades in joy.
More than a dad
Was the best pal you had;
Be such a chum
As you knew, to your boy.

Notice.

As the Federal Land Bank will resume the making of loans to farmers, I will receive and file applications for loans for farmers.

S. Mc G. SIMKINS.

Tired Teams

Throughout the country there are many farmers with tired teams worrying about work that needs doing promptly and at the lowest cost per bushel. But there is also a rapidly growing army of Power farmers everywhere who know for a certainty that the Fordson and the Oliver No. 7 Plow work together not only for a quicker and better plowing job but for one that shows greater accomplishment at a less cost.

Cheap Advice

Advice is one of the cheapest things in the world. It's as free as air. No matter what your trouble may be, just let it be known and advice will come piling in.

The old maid knows just how to rear children, the bachelor knows just how a wife should be handled, and even a bald-headed druggist can sell hair tonic and get away with it. But the advice you seek, not the kind that is volunteered, is the kind you want. We are not a volunteer in the advice business, but if you are a patron of our bank and ask advice on financial matters we will be glad to help you in any way we can.
