LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Dr. J. S. Byrd and Dr. A. H. Corley attended a district convention of dentists at Denmark Friday.

Mrs. Lydia Brunson Thompson of Charleston is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Brunson.

The Civic League will meet on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Library rooms.

Miss Mary Nicholson came from Lander college and spent the week-end with her parents.

Mr. George R. Norris came over from Columbia to attend the Norris-Darlington wedding.

Mr. Butler Thompson left Edgefield last week to resume his studies at the University of North Carolina, at Chapel Hill.

Miss Katherine Fitzmaurice accompanied by little Miss Mae Tabor Manner, of Columbia is visiting her sister, Mrs. James S. Byrd.

Major and Mrs. T. J. Lyon of Greenwood spent Sunday in Edgefield with Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Sheppard.

Mrs. P. M. Feltham, Miss Julia Folk, Miss Lucile Duke and Master John Feltham motored to Greenwood Saturday for the day.

The jury commissioners will draw the third week's jury October 17. The second week's jury appears in this issue.

The Edgefield chapter, D. A. R., will meet at the home of Mrs. D. B. Hollingsworth Tuesday afternoon, October 18, at 3:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Boazman came over from Chappell and spent the week-end, accompanying Miss Anabel Saunders who is teaching in Chappell and came home for the week-end.

Miss Margaret Strom was at home to a number of youthful friends on Tuesday afternoon in celebration of her birthday. A delicious sweet course was served, concluding the happy afternoon's entertainment.

Mr. Rubenstein takes an entire page this week to tell the people of the tremendous bargains that he is offering during the special sale that is now on at this popular store. Read what Mr. Rubenstein says in this issue.

The Kill Kare Klub of Trenton will give a Hallowe'en party in the Trenton school house Friday evening, October 21, at eight o'clock for the benefit of the school library. This entertainment should be largely patronized, as the cause is a very worthy one.

Dr. B. F. Jones has been appointed deputy district veterinarian for the federal government, his commission being issued through Dr. Riggs, president of Clemson college. This is a strong testimonial of Dr. Jones' skill as a veterinarian.

If you have not already commenced sowing oats, begin as soon as it rains. Never before has the need for a large grain crop been so great in Edgefield county. No farmer should have to be urged to sow wheat and oats, especially oats, this fall.

Through the Household Club Plan of easy payments J. B. White & Company in its advertisement this week makes an offer which if accepted will make it easy for the people of Edgefield to make needed purchases for their homes. Furthermore, they prepay the freight on all purchases.

Mr. Foy A. Vause who has managed the Dixie Highway Hotel from the time it opened will leave in a few days for Florida, where he and Mrs. Vause will probably make their home. Capt. and Mrs. L. Y. Moore will assume the management of the hotel, the change being made sometime this week.

It was with deep regret that the people of Edgefield learned of the burning of the planing mill and lumber plant of Wright Bros. of Johnston. They deserved a large patronage and their business was steadily growing. Edgefield gave them a considerable volume of business and everybody who patronized Wright Bros. had a good word to speak for them.

Special Sermon to Butler Council J. O. U. A. M.

The Methodists will have as their guests Sunday morning at 11:30 the members of Butler Council J. O. U. A. M. The sermon to the Council will be preached by Rev. G. W. M. Taylor, pastor of the Methodist church. A special musical program has been arranged for the occasion. It is expected that a number of Juniors from out of town will also be in attendance upon the service.

Corner Store's Bargains.

A double-page advertisement in this issue will show in detail what great bargains will be given by Mr. W. H. Turner, the manager of The Corner Store, commencing Saturday morning. Prices in every department have been cut to the bone, without regard for cost or profit. If you will read this attractive advertisement of The Corner Store you will see what unprecedented bargains are to be offered. You can not afford to miss them. Your purse may be small but these prices show that you can make large purchases during this bargain feast.

All-Night 'Possum Hunters.

Monday night "No Man's Land," somewhere down in the Horn't Creek community, was invaded by a bunch of Edgefield 'possum hunters, some of them real blooded sports. They journeyed to the hunting ground soon after nightfall and, losing their way about midnight, wandered in the woods till broad day, when they returned to Edgefield weary and worn. But their midnight meanderings were not in vain, for they brought with them eight fat marsupials for a feast. Among the hunters were Wesley Stewart, Bunch Timmerman, Chalmers Hughes, Willie Dunovant, Foy Vause, Bud Bryant, John Mays and a colored man. While all of them at times slipped and slid on the straw, first up and then down, but Mr. Vause was the only one to completely lose his "understanding," with the result that he in the twinkling of an eye found himself going over the bank of the creek with a broadside splash in the water, which was of October temperature. Being a game sport, he was undismayed by this and help to "tail" as many marsupials as any of the crowd.

Long Branch Items.

The Long Branch school opened today with about fifty pupils. Misses Witt and Harvey are the teachers.

The senior and junior B. Y. P. U. held their regular meeting at Phillips Sunday at 4:30 p. m.

The Wimberly Branch school opened today with Mr. G. W. Scott as teacher.

Mr. Raymond Derrick spent the week-end at home. He has been working in the depot at Lexington for the past few weeks.

Evelyn Scott spent last week-end with her sister, Mrs. Marie Lybrand Mrs. Lona Bruce and children spent Sunday with Mrs. Kate Clark.

Lorene Scott is attending school at Ridge Spring.

Mrs. M. A. Taylor's Lovely Tea For Miss Miriam Norris.

Mrs. M. A. Taylor entertained fourteen guests at a charming tea party on last Thursday afternoon in honor of the very popular bride-elect, Miss Miriam Norris.

The spacious reception rooms and hall flooded with mellow lights, were adorned with yellow autumn flowers.

In the dining room, the yellow color scheme was beautifully carried out. Yellow shaded lights softened the pretty room, which was centered with a beautifully appointed tea table.

The bride's place was distinguished by an adorable little bride, the remaining place cards being of Love's ally, Cupid.

Golden dahlias formed an artistic center piece and the dainty gold banded china added to the artistic scheme.

Five delicious courses were served, after which, the bride was showered with rice, which was in cunning little yellow bags at each place.

The hostess presented the honoree with an Edgefield cook book, filled with recipes which have made Edgefield hostesses justly famous for delectable food.

The affair was a climax to the series of enjoyable parties given for Miss Norris, whose marriage to Mr. Stephen Darlington was an event around which clustered the loving interests of a wide circle of friends.
