

Peak-Pinson.

On Tuesday noon, December 27, a marriage of state-wide interest was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Peak, when their daughter, Miss Mary Royal Peak became the wife of Mr. Tillman Pinson of Greenwood.

The guests were received at the door by Mrs. P. P. Blalock, Jr., and Miss Jeannie Simkins. The parlor was beautifully decorated in green and white. Fragrant narcissi were tastefully used on the mantel with asparagus fern. The chandelier was festooned with white maline and asparagus fern. Graceful sprays of Southern smilax covered the white altar in front of which the ceremony was performed. Suspended from the ceiling was a white basket filled with flowers under which stood the bride and groom.

Just before the wedding march, Miss Grace Pinson, sister of the groom, sang very sweetly a love song, "Mavis." Her accompaniment and the wedding march were played by Mrs. Mamie N. Tillman. At the first strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March Rev. P. H. Bussey, pastor of the First Baptist church at Andrews, S. C., and brother-in-law of the bride, and Rev. A. T. Allen, pastor of the First Baptist church of Edgefield entered the parlor followed by the groom and his best man, Mr. William Jay of Greenwood. Then came little Virginia Holland, the ring bearer, dressed in dainty pink silk. The bride came in with her sister, the dame of honor, Mrs. Otis Mobley of Heath Springs. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. Mr. Bussey, prayer being offered by Rev. Mr. Allen. Many sincere good wishes were expressed to the happy couple by the many friends present.

The bride wore a modish gown of blue tricot with becoming black hat and accessories to match. She carried brides' roses and lillies of the valley. She wore a handsome platinum dinner ring, gift of the groom.

The dame of honor wore a gown of black chiffon and silver with hat to match and carried Killarney roses. Miss Peak is one of Edgefield's most beloved daughters, and from one of Edgefield's most honored families. For the past several years she has held a responsible position in Greenwood.

Mr. Pinson is president of a large shoe store of Greenwood. He served in the army over seas in the 81st division for a year, and was among the first group who went to France.

A delicious salad course was served to the many assembled guests.

A lovely array of presents were arranged in the hall, among other gifts were a chest of silver, gift of the bride's family, and a set of china, gift of the family of the groom.

Proof of the popularity of the bride and groom were the many guests present from Greenwood: Mrs. J. F. Pinson, mother of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Duckett, brother and sister of the groom, Maj. R. B. Curry, Mrs. J. M. Bannister, Misses Grace and Josie Pinson, sisters of the groom, Mr. Harry Bell, Mr. Clarence Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Marsh, Mr. Haskell Henley, Mrs. Emma Lyon, little Miss Josie Lee Simmons and Master Samuel Simmons, Mr. William Jay, Miss Daisy Jay, Mr. Eddie Jay and Miss Annie Coleman. Other out of town guests were Mrs. Otis Mobley of Heath Springs, little Thaxton Bussey of Andrews, S. C. and Mrs. Ludy Blakeley of Ora, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Pinson will take a trip to Tampa and other points in Florida, being at home to their friends in Greenwood in January.

Annual Meeting.

The stockholders of the Farmers Bank held their annual meeting in the bank Thursday, the time for holding the annual meeting having been changed from the latter part of March to the latter part of December of each year. This change was made so the fiscal year would conform to the calendar or tax year. Notwithstanding the season of unusual depression through which we are passing, the bank had a very satisfactory year. The institution has been wisely and conservatively managed and is on an absolutely sound basis. The bank holds a very large reserve and does not owe a dollar for borrowed money. The officers and directors were re-elected for another year.

Death of Mrs. Julia Brooks Morgan.

Mrs. Julia Brooks Morgan died at her home five miles north of Edgefield Sunday about 1 o'clock. She had been ill but a short time of pneumonia and many of her relatives and friends here did not know of her illness. She was born and reared in the house in which she died, being a daughter of the lamented Capt. James Brooks.

Mrs. Morgan was a great lover of home and was never happier than when she was making her home happy for her children and grandchildren.

She was a member of Rocky Creek Baptist church but the interment took place Monday afternoon in Edgefield where her late husband and other relatives were buried. The funeral was conducted by the Rev. A. T. Allen, pastor of the First Baptist church of Edgefield. Mrs. Morgan is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Ellie Johnson and Mrs. Lewis F. Holmes, and three sons, Carroll, Julian and Brooks Morgan. She is also survived by two half sisters, Mrs. Ellie Brooks Jones of Columbia and Mrs. S. M. Smith of Edgefield. Mrs. Morgan was a half sister to the late Gen. U. R. Brooks of Columbia.

Lott School News.

Santa Claus appeared at our school last Friday morning, December 23, and drove away all shadow of doubt from the children's minds. They no longer asked "will Santa come this year?" for there on one side of the school room was a lovely tree laden with toys, candy and fruit.

Even the fathers and mothers who had been invited by their children, forgot "hard times" for the time being and with their faces wreathed in smiles and their hearts filled with delight they joined the children with their shouts and yells.

An interesting Christmas program was given just before the presents were given out. The program was as follows:

Christmas Scripture selection—Mrs. Dasher.

Prayer—Miss Lottie Derrick. Song, "Away in a Manger"—Primary children.

Telephone Message—Lucy Holmes. A Stitch in Time—Eunice Pardue. Song, "Joy to the World"—Advanced pupils.

When Santa Comes—Mabel Kirkland, Sallie Mae Pardue and Wilson Derrick.

Christmas Bundle—Olivia Pardue. Duett—Martha Derrick and Lucile Franklin.

Suspicion—Evelyn Salter. Keep the Secret—Pauline Derrick.

Willie's Regret—Frontis McGee.

Awful Luck—Dorian Ouzts.

Solo—Josie Salter.

In Partnership with Me—Elise Franklin.

A Christmas Worry—Gertrude Pardue.

Christmas Song—Advanced pupils.

The Youthful Eve Dropper—Kathlene Jackson.

A Cripple Dolly—Bertha Ouzts.

Quartette—Ruth Coursey, Lucy Holmes, Nell Randall and Azilee Salter.

SCHOOL GIRL.

RED OAK GROVE.

noon for the Misses Steife.

The friends of Mrs. Zelphia Thurmond are pleased to know she is able to leave her room again. She can never know how she is missed in our community and the society work for her ever willing and ready service to those in need and helpfulness in so many ways all these years. May Heaven's richest blessings attend Mrs. Thurmond and our retiring pastor, Rev. G. W. Bussey for their long years of service among us.

Rev. T. E. Seago of Vaucluse, S. C., enters the pastorate of Red Oak Grove church the fourth Sunday in this month, preaching once a month.

Mr. Conner Bussey returns to Clemson College the third of January. Congratulations for his graduation in June.

Mr. Tommie Bussey is in Orangeburg high school where he is making good marks.

Flat Rock school opened today after a week's vacation for the holidays.

Mr. Vernon Blackwell and Mr. Herbert Oneal of Augusta spent several days hunting and were guests of Mr. Oneal Timmerman last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Agner had as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. John Holland of Greenwood, S. C.

Mrs. Ruby Minor of Plum Branch and Miss Minnie Lou Parks of Parksville were visitors in the home of Mrs. Press Parkman last week.

Mrs. Mamie Bussey and Mrs. Emma Mason spent last Saturday with the former's daughter, Mrs. Oscar Timmerman.

The Christmas pageant rendered by the ladies on the 22nd was well done, even though the moonshine, or the effects, caused some annoyance during the last of the play. Is it not stameful for such to be? Nevertheless we have to suffer it.

Is it right that we turn aside from trying to do nice things for the betterment of the community on account of these annoyances that invariably occur?

WANTED: Five hundred bushels of peas.

Tired

"I was weak and run-down," relates Mrs. Eula Burnett, of Dalton, Ga. "I was thin and just felt tired, all the time. I didn't rest well. I wasn't ever hungry. I knew, by this, I needed a tonic, and as there is none better than—

CARDUI
The Woman's Tonic

"... I began using Cardui," continues Mrs. Burnett. "After my first bottle, I slept better and ate better. I took four bottles. Now I'm well, feel just fine, eat and sleep, my skin is clear and I have gained and sure feel that Cardui is the best tonic ever made."

Thousands of other women have found Cardui just as Mrs. Burnett did. It should help you.

At all druggists.

New Corn Mill

OLD-FASHION TYPE

Ready for Business

I am glad to announce that I am now in a position to give you good corn meal, having just completed my mill, which is of the old-fashion type, large rocks run at a very slow speed, which means as good meal as can be made.

My grinding days will be Wednesday and Saturday of each week; however, you can get good meal in exchange for your corn any day, provided you bring good sound corn.

Farmers who have corn for sale see me. I am in the market for several hundred bushels of good sound corn. Also need some peas.

Come to see me if you like good meal.

PROFOUNDLY GRATEFUL

We take this means of thanking the people for the business they gave us in the year just closed and shall make every effort to be worthy of a large share of your patronage during 1922. It shall be our policy in the future as in the past to render courteous and polite service to all who come to our store, whether they be large or small purchasers. We shall welcome you all and wish you a happy new year.
