

YONCE MOTOR COMPANY

(SUCCESSORS TO)

YONCE & MOONEY

Having acquired the entire business of Yonce & Mooney, we are now ready for business at the same old stand, and invite our friends to call to see us.

We have a full stock of everything in the Ford line at the new low prices, and are better equipped to serve the Edgefield public than ever before.

The following are the prevailing prices, which are the lowest in the history of the Ford Motor Company:

CLINCHER WITHOUT STARTER
Touring	$348.00
Runabout	319.00
Chassis	285.00

CLINCHER WITH STARTER
Touring	$418.00
Runabout	389.00
Chassis	355.00

F. O. B. Detroit

YONCE MOTOR CO.
EDGEFIELD, S. C.

DEMOUNTABLE WITHOUT STARTER
Touring	$373.00
Runabout	344.00
Chassis	310.00
Truck	430.00

DEMOUNTABLE WITH STARTER
Touring	$443.00
Runabout	414.00
Chassis	380.00
Coupe	580.00
Sedan	645.00
Tractor	395.00

F. O. B. Detroit

Office No 61
Residence, No. 17

Wednesday, February 15.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. O. B. Anderson is attending court in McCormick this week.

Mr. M. H. Deal spent Monday and Tuesday in McCormick on business.

Miss Annie Roddey Miller of Rock Hill is the guest of Mrs. A. R. Nicholson.

Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun A. Mays of Greenwood spent Monday with Col. S. B. Mays.

Mrs. J. Maner Lawton has gone to Spartanburg for a visit to friends and relatives.

Mr. Julian Key of Columbia is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Key.

Mrs. Berta Hill of Augusta is spending a portion of this week with Mrs. I. W. Hume.

Mr. W. A. Strom; Dr. A. H. Corley and Mr. I. T. May motored to Greenwood Monday on business.

Mrs. Kate Kernaghan is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. J. Pope Matthews of Columbia.

Mrs. Annie Rives left last week for Charleston where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. Bentley Ward.

Mr. O. L. Dobson of Augusta spent Sunday in Edgefield visiting his mother, Mrs. Emma N. Dobson.

Mrs. W. S. Boykin has gone to Lagrange, Ga. to spend some time with her mother, Mrs. J. Y. Phillips.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Blake of Greenwood spent Sunday in the home of Col. S. B. Mays, Mrs. Blake's father.

Messrs. Quarles & Timmerman announce this week that they will begin a 19 cents sale Saturday. Some very great bargains can be secured for this small sum during this sale. Read their advertisement.

Mr. T. A. Hightower and Mr. D. L. Stalcup have returned from a very pleasant trip of a week to Boston and other northern points.

Mrs. Lilla H. Ready, Mrs. Sadie Hill and Mr. Hill Ready of Johnston spent Sunday in Edgefield as guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nicholson.

A full report of the addresses of Dr. W. W. Long and Dr. Clarence Poe at Johnston yesterday will be given in The Advertiser next week.

Mrs. Marie Cheatham Sharpton is at home after a stay of several months in Washington, D. C., with her gifted son, James Bacon Sharpton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sheppard are receiving the congratulations of their friends over the coming of a little son to be a permanent visitor in their home.

Edgefield friends waft affectionate greetings to Master Frank Stanford Bland, Jr., of Johnston and offer congratulations to the happy father and mother.

Mr. W. O. Tatum, Jr., superintendent of the Edgefield graded and high schools, attended a conference of school superintendents in Columbia Friday.

Mr. W. H. Mahoney, the head of the manual training department of the Edgefield High School, attended an agricultural conference in Columbia Saturday.

The February meeting of the Edgefield chapter, D. A. R., will be held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Cantelou, on Tuesday afternoon, February 21, at 3:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Manly Dobson of Johnston spent Sunday with Mrs. Emma N. Dobson. Mr. Dobson is now serving the Southern railroad as agent at Johnston.

Among the visitors who were here to enjoy Bishop Guerry's splendid sermon on Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Boatwright and Mr. Hal Boatwright of Monetta.

FOR SALE: Engine, boiler, saw, log cart and yoke of oxen. Apply to P. P. BLALOCK.
2-8-2t.

Miss Sophie Abney has returned from an extended visit to her niece, Mrs. A. J. Ives in Savannah. Mrs. Ives accompanied Miss Abney home, but only remained for the night.

Mrs. P. P. Blalock, Jr., gave a bridge luncheon Friday morning in compliment to Miss Annie Roddey Miller of Rock Hill who is the guest of Mrs. A. R. Nicholson.

Mr. J. D. Holstein had his tonsils removed in Columbia last week and remained in the hospital until Friday when he returned to his home. He has been steadily improving since the operation.

The board of county commissioners will hold a business meeting in their office next Monday and among other things will elect a clerk to fill the vacancy caused by the recent resignation of Mr. M. A. Watson.

Attention is directed to the following new advertisements this week: The Corner Store, Johnston Roller Mills, Collett's, M. A. Taylor, Yonce Motor Company, Southern Railroad and Coe-Mortimer Fertilizers.

Monday morning the Stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Berrian, Jr., and presented them with a little son, who has been given the name of his father and grandfather, making him W. A. Berrian, 3rd.

Misses Kate Samuel and Ruth Lyon returned Monday from Atlanta where they purchased a large spring stock of millinery and ladies' ready to wear goods for the Quality Shop. They will make their spring announcement after the goods arrive.

Clerk of Court Paul L. Cogburn has received a letter from Mr. W. R. Bradley, acting collector of internal revenue, stating that two deputies will be in Edgefield February 20 and 21 to assist the people here in making their Federal income tax returns.

A message from Miss Lena Stevens who is now making her home with her brother, Mr. Smyly Stevens, expresses her enjoyment of the town of Bennettsville and its privileges, but also says that she longs for a glimpse of old Edgefield and the friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. A. Burnett were among the visitors in Edgefield Saturday. Mrs. Burnett is teaching the Beaver Dam School which has an enrollment of 35 pupils. Sunday school is also held in the school building every Sunday afternoon. Mr. R. W. Christie is the superintendent.

Mr. W. M. Mahoney, the head of the manual training department of the Edgefield school, carried the boys of the agricultural class over to Johnston Tuesday to hear Dr. W. W. Long, the head of the extension work of Clemson College, and Dr. Clarence Poe, editor of the Progressive Farmer speak.

Trenton Methodist Church.
Preaching Sunday night at Trenton by the pastor, Rev. G. W. M. Taylor. The subject for Sunday night will be "The Ideal Woman"

Valentine Party.
Tuesday afternoon Master Byrnes Ouzts, the youngest son of Mrs. Eva W. Ouzts, gave a Valentine party and invited all of his school friends of his grade and also the small children on Jeter street. A large collection of Valentines, some very beautiful and others comic, were brought to the party by the children, the comic ones provoking much laughter. The little folk also enjoyed many games but the crowning feature of the occasion was the delicious punch and ice cream and cake that were served. The beautiful hospitality of the little host will not be forgotten by those present.

Musical at Trenton.
The ladies of the Methodist church at Trenton are planning to give a musical on Friday evening, March 3. Local talent will be used for the entertainment but as Trenton has fine musical talent, both vocal and instrumental, as can be found in the State, the entertainment will be of high order. All music lovers should bear in mind the date and not miss this entertainment. Then too, it will be given to promote a very worthy cause which should make it appeal to everybody. The admission price will be small. Only 10 cents for children from 6 to 16 and 20 cents for persons over 16 years.

Edgefield Methodist Church.
Sunday morning at 11:30 Rev. G. W. M. Taylor will preach at the Edgefield Methodist church on the subject: "The Golden Rule in Business," or "Can I Run My Business According to the Gospel Standard?"

Presentation to O. L. Dobson at R. A. M. Meet.
The Augusta chapter, number two, Royal Arch Masons, at a meeting held last night, presented O. L. Dobson the Jewel of Past High Priest of the Order.

The presentation was made by Hon. Sam L. Olive in a most impressive manner. The response by Mr. Dobson was most appropriate and to the point.

Mr. Dobson served the Augusta chapter as High Priest for a period of two years and retired at the end of the time, one of the best beloved and most popular of Augusta Masons.—Augusta Chronicle.

Yonce Motor Company.
In its half page advertisement in this issue the Yonce Motor Company announces that it is ready for business at the old Yonce stand, being the successor of Yonce & Mooney. The place has been closed the past seven weeks spending the adjustment of the dissolution of the firm of Yonce & Mooney. The new firm announces that it has a full stock of everything made by the Ford Motor Company, all priced at the new low prices. The prices of cars, trucks and tractors given in this advertisement are the lowest ever made by the Ford Company. Now is the time to place your orders. Mr. W. P. Yonce will welcome his friends at the old stand and will make it to their interest to give him their patronage. Read the new Ford prices which are astoundingly low.

CARD OF THANKS.
I want to thank the many friends and loved ones who were so kind to me during the sudden death of my dear wife. They will always be remembered by me and other members of the family.
J. C. TIMMERMAN.

Program of Y. W. A. Meeting.
To be held in the Edgefield Baptist church Thursday afternoon, February 23, 1922, at 3:30 o'clock.
Subject: "Our Foreign Mission Fields."
Hymn—"Love Divine."
Scripture Lesson.
Prayer for all mission agencies in Europe.
Talk—New S. B. C. Foreign Mission Territory, Mrs. Mamie N. Tillman.
Violin trio—Misses Rosela Parker, Lois Mims, Mrs. Walter Cantelou.
Woman's Work in Syria—Miss Grace Dobson.
Current Events, Mrs. Harry Strom.
Music.
Business, Minutes, Treasurer's Report.
Hymn—O Zion Haste.

Woman's Missionary Meeting at Methodist Church.
Friday at 3:30 o'clock.
Topic: Cuba.
Bible Lesson: "Heralds of a New Day," Mark 1:1-15.
Leader: Mrs. J. W. Stewart.
Missionary News: Miss Mamie Dunovant.
Report from Inter-racial Conference in Columbia: Mrs. H. N. Greneker.
Points on the Life and Customs of the Cubans: Mrs. A. H. Corley.
Hymn.
Mrs. W. O. Tatum, who has taught in Havana and in "Irene Toland School" at Matanzas, will tell something of these schools.
Reading: Mrs. A. R. Nicholson.
Period of intercession in charge of Prayer Committee, Mrs. T. H. Rainsford, Chairman.
Hymn 654.

WANTED: Good, sound corn for milling purposes, sixty-five cents paid for same in shuck or seventy-five cents shelled.
J. G. ALFORD.
1-25-10t

FOR RENT OR SALE: Seven room house, large corner lot, Edisto and Addison streets, Johnston, S. C.
Mrs. W. S. STOKES,
919 Sumter Street,
Columbia, S. C.