LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Lillian Holmes is visiting her brother, Mr. C. R. Holmes.

Mr. Strom Thurmond came home Saturday from Clemson to spend several days.

Mr. Harrison Parks came over from Columbia to spend Sunday with the home folk. He was very cordially greeted by his Edgefield friends.

Mr. J. D. Holstein was carried to Columbia Sunday to the hospital for special treatment and favorable reports are being received as to his condition.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Quarles was operated upon in Augusta last week for ear trouble and we are pleased to announce he is now steadily improving.

The Advertiser has received from Congressman Byrnes a mail sack full of garden seed for free distribution. Call for a package, if you want some of the free government seed.

Mrs. P. M. Feltham returned Tuesday morning from Greenville where she has been spending the past two weeks with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bates.

Mrs. Lula Eidson and little daughter, Alice, of Ward have returned to their home having spent a very happy week with Mrs. Eidson's sister, Mrs. Allie Kinnaird.

Mr. J. L. Blackman and Mr. J. H. Davis of Darlington, were guests of Rev. A. T. Allen Sunday and Monday. They were members of the church which he served as pastor before coming to Edgefield.

Mr. A. A. Glover of North was a welcome visitor in Edgefield the latter part of last week, being very heartily greeted by his old friends. Mr. Glover is postmaster at North and makes a good one too.

The friends of Miss Mae Tompkins will be delighted to learn that she has sufficiently recovered from the recent operation in Washington to return to Edgefield tomorrow. She will be accompanied by Miss Ruth Tompkins.

Hon. M. P. Wells, Hon. J. O. Shepard and Hon. S. T. Williams have returned to their homes after a very long and tedious session of the legislature. Their duties in Columbia required about two months of their time this year.

The high school boys have been strenuously engaged for several days preparing an athletic field near the old fair ground. We are expecting some good baseball from the boys this season and we do not believe we will be disappointed.

We have a choice line of children's three-quarter length socks, all sizes and colors.

I. MUKASHY.

Supervisor Edmunds and the board of county commissioners have acted wisely in having the exterior wood work of the Court House painted and also in improving the surroundings of the building. The work is being done under the supervision of Mr. W. S. G. Heath.

Bear in mind the meeting at Horn's Creek church the first Sunday in April in the interest of the 75-Million Baptist Campaign. Dr. C. E. Burts of Columbia will be present and speak. The meeting will be held at Horn's Creek church at 11:00 in the morning and after lunch at the church Dr. Burts will go to Republican church for a similar afternoon meeting at 3:30 o'clock.

The announcement that an examination will be held for the postmastership at Edgefield is causing much speculation as to whose pole will be long enough to reach this political plum. Owing to the change of administration in Washington, the filling of postoffices seems to be largely a matter of politics. Mr. C. M. Mellichamp, the present postmaster, has many friends, as was indicated by the recent largely signed petition, who hope that he will be re-appointed. He has labored faithfully to give good and satisfactory service to the patrons of the office.

Our line of ladies' and gents' ox-fords are prettier than ever.

I. MUKASHY.

The Corner Store is offering some special bargains for the ladies for Friday of this week. See what very low prices Mr. Turner is making.

Elbert and Truman Mundy, Edwin Rives and Herbert Hutto, a friend of Edwin Rives, all B. M. I. cadets, came down from Greenwood for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stohl of Buffalo, N. Y., announce the engagement of their daughter, Allene Janice, to Howard McTeer Weldrop of Atlanta, Georgia. The wedding to take place in June.

Read the advertisement of Warren and Cantelou in this issue in which they announce on what days they have fresh vegetables arrive by express. Other items of special interest to housewives are mentioned.

No visitor has been more warmly greeted in Edgefield than Mr. Shields Johnson who is at home on furlough of 15 days from the base hospital near Greenville. He has been greatly benefitted by the treatment which he has received there.

Mr. J. E. Darby who came from St. Matthews last Friday and Saturday to purchase mules bought about twenty mules and shipped them away Saturday night, making the stable of Mr. Bettis Cantelou headquarters while here.

The popularity of the new store of Mr. Frank Huggins at the depot is increasing. In his advertisement this week Mr. Huggins calls especial attention to a particular brand of coffee which he is selling at an attractive price. Read what Mr. Huggins says.

"Uncle" Mat Lyon says Ben Lee Holston says he can not understand how it is or why it is that some farmers who had said they do not expect to plant a seed of cotton bought several of those boll-weevil-killing machines that were recently sold in Edgefield.

When an Edgefield lady gathered in her clothes a few afternoons ago from the line in the yard where they had been spread all day she observed several boll weevils upon the clothes. The pest is here already in great numbers watching to see what fields will be planted in cotton.

In order that the teachers may have an opportunity to attend the annual conference of teachers in Columbia the pupils of the Edgefield school will be given holiday tomorrow and Friday. Superintendent of Education W. W. Fuller, Prof. Tatum and several of the other teachers will attend the convention.

The Yonce Motor Company is doing business at the old stand in spite of the prolonged unfavorable weather. They have just unloaded a solid car of Ford automobiles, and are prepared to fill orders for any style car, giving very reasonable terms. See what they say in their advertisement this week.

The Sunday School Conference of the Columbia district has been in session at Ridge Spring yesterday and to-day, those from Edgefield attending were Rev. G. W. M. Taylor, Mr. J. W. Stewart, Mr. S. B. Nicholson, Mr. L. S. Kernaghan, Mrs. S. B. Nicholson, and Mrs. R. L. Dunovant. Mr. P. B. Day, Jr., attended from Trenton.

The newly installed and modernly equipped Chero Cola plant on Jeter street next door to the garage of Lyon Bros., is now daily bottling refreshing beverages. The Chero Cola plant was bought some time ago by Mr. W. H. Harling and Mr. Bettis Cantelou and moved to the new location, Mr. H. H. Smith, Jr., is in charge.

Mrs. W. L. Dunovant has just returned from a very successful and pleasant itinerary accompanied by Mrs. Richard Williams, president of South Carolina Woman Voters' League. This itinerary included Allendale, Barnwell, Hampton, Charleston, Moncks Corner, Ridgeland, Walterboro, and Columbia. Mrs. Dunovant returned Saturday.

The Baraca boys and those who are associated with them have made a far-famed reputation for themselves by the splendid entertainments which they have been giving. They gave their minstrel at Trenton Friday night and at Johnston last night, being greeted at both places by large and appreciative audiences. The acting is of a high order and the music furnished by the orchestra is also a very pleasing feature of the entertainments. Edgefield is very proud of this high class talent.

March U. D. C. Meeting.

Mrs. A. H. Corley was the March U. D. C. hostess over which Mrs. Jeff Wright presided for the business session. Many matters of interest were discussed.

General Wade Hampton's birthday coming in this month on the 18th, Mrs. Helen S. Nicholson arranged an appropriate opening for the historical program.

Mrs. B. L. Mims read the beautiful poem used at the unveiling of the Hampton monument in Columbia, entitled "Wade Hampton Rides Today."

Mrs. Nicholson then read an interesting paper sent to the chapter by the devoted absent historian, Mrs. A. A. Woodson, on "Personal Reminiscences of Prominent People Around Edgefield." Mrs. R. A. Marsh gave a most entertaining sketch of the "Boyhood of Lee in Alexandria."

Miss Sophia Dobson, secretary, read a cordial invitation from the Lucinda Horne chapter to the Edgefield chapter to attend the Edisto District Conference at Saluda in April. Mrs. A. E. Padgett, Mrs. Abner Broadwater and Mrs. B. B. Jones were elected delegates.

Mrs. B. B. Jones and Mrs. Allen Samuel are to be leaders for the children's chapter, and it is hoped this splendid work will be carried forward as it so well deserves.

Mrs. Corley served a tempting chicken salad course with ice tea as a conclusion to the very charming meeting.

Mrs. S. Mouzon Smith will be the next hostess on April 10th at four o'clock.

In Memory of Mrs. A. S. Powell.

Thursday morning, February 23, 1922, after a very short illness, the death angel came into the home of Mrs. A. S. Powell and carried her away.

She was laid to rest under a flowery mound at Rocky Creek burying ground by the side of her husband. She was seventy years of age and a life long member of Rocky Creek church. She left ten children, thirty-four grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren, one brother and one sister, and a host of friends to mourn her loss. She was a devoted Christian woman, kind wife and a loving mother. We extend our tenderest condolences to the sorely bereaved ones.

The other day, dear mother, You bade us all farewell, You went away with Jesus, No more on earth to dwell.

In the graveyard softly sleeping Where the flowers gently wave, Lies the one I love so dearly, In her lonely silent grave.

Her children are Yancy, James, George, A. S., and Lawton Powell, Mrs. Maggie Gibson, Mrs. Effie Holmes, Mrs. Nannie Jones, Mrs. Earline Pollard and Miss Bessie Powell.

Death of Mrs. H. H. Scott.

"Life we've been long together, Through pleasant and cloudy weather, 'Tis hard to part when friends are dear, Perhaps it will cost a sigh, a tear. Then steal away, give little warning;

Choose thine own time; Say not good-night; But in some brighter clime, Bid me good-morning."

With sad and bleeding hearts we bow to the dispensation of an all wise Father, who doeth all things well, though it is hard to see the wisdom in this sad bereavement.

Death, when it comes brings a sad knell to some heart, and when the very sudden death of Mrs. Hugh H. Scott, of North Augusta was made known last Thursday, her many friends throughout Edgefield and Aiken counties received the announcement with complete and deep sadness.

Mrs. Scott was ill only a few hours and all that kind physicians and her devoted family could do was of no avail.

"Miss Essie," as we all loved to call her, was a beautiful, strong and unselfish character. She could not stay with us always, nor would she desire to be away from her God. She was kind and gentle to all whom she came in contact with and she was very charitable in deeds of mercy.

Before her marriage she was Miss Maria Estelle Mays, daughter of Col. and Mrs. William Mays of beloved memory. At the time of her death Mrs. Scott was fifty-one years of age and we thank our Heavenly Father for sparing this woman to us these few years. And we thank Him, too, for the ray of sunshine she always had about her. Besides her devoted husband the deceased is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Norman Lawrence of North Augusta, one son, Judd Saxon Scott, of Tampa, Fla., an adopted son, George Spires, of Chicago, Ill., one sister, Mrs. Henry F. Cooper, whom we are proud to call our friend and neighbor; three nieces and one nephew and a dear little granddaughter.

The husband has lost a devoted wife, the children have lost a kind, gentle mother, whose every thought was for them. Though her son and the adopted son were far away when their precious mother passed away, they both hastened home to pay their last duty to mother.

When Mr. Spires was a small lad, Mrs. Scott, with her tender heart, took him in her arms and adopted him and he received a loving deed a real mother would give to her own son. She could have been giving more pleasure to her Ma. . . . be kind to a little child.

We are sad and weeping tears of bitter grief; but not for this pure woman—the tears are for those she loved.

"Home is not home for mother is not there, Angels have taken her out of our care."

The funeral services took place at Sweetwater church on the following Sunday at two o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. MacFarlan, of Augusta, who was an old honored friend of the deceased. The minister spoke beautifully of the life of this noble good woman. The body was laid to rest in the family square besides the graves of her mother, father and the three precious little babes who were waiting with outstretched arms to receive mother. The floral offerings were beautiful and numerous. The pall bearers were: Dr. A. A. Walden, Messrs, T. J. Briggs, S. L. Medlock, Walter Cheatham, Sr., C. W. Briggs, D. B. Duke.

"Green be the turf above thee, Friend of our former days, None knew thee but to love thee, None named thee but to praise."
