Mysterious Pains and Aches

Make Life Hard to Bear for Many Edgefield Women.

Too many women mistake their pains and aches for troubles peculiar to the sex. More often disordered kidneys are causing the aching back, dizzy spells, headaches and irregular urination. Kidney weakness becomes dangerous if neglected. Use a time-tried kidney remedy—Doan's Kidney Pills. Hosts of people testify to their merit. Read an Edgefield case:

Mrs. D. A. Frick, Edgefield, says "My kidneys gave me trouble and there was a small spot on my back that was as sore as a boil. My back was weak and I tired easily. It was an effort to do my housework. My kidneys acted irregularly and I felt run down. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and it wasn't long before I was feeling a great deal better, and able to be about again."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Frick had. Foster Milburn Co., Mrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

When the Last Old Veteran Answers the Roll.

Day by day the lines grow thinner, As the grim reaper takes the toll; In the battle of life, he's the winner; Some day the last must answer the roll.

Bravest of the brave when they were young, They marched to battle, and won the goal; Now with the weight of years, life's song most sung, Soon the last must answer the roll.

We miss them sorely as one by one They are gathered into the fold; But as God wills so must it be done, Some day the last will answer the roll.

But memories dear long will linger With us who survive, for each dear soul After death's pale hand with beckoning finger Has called the last to answer the roll.

And when the last has marched away When the last roll call on earth given, May each dear soldier who wore the Gray Answer "Here" to roll call in Heaven.

"ROSE BUD."

Novel Kitchen Shower.

Miss Virginia Addison and Mrs. Frank Huggins were hostesses at the former's lovely home on Monday afternoon in honor of Miss Gladys Rives, whose marriage to Mr. Benjamin Greneker will be a most interesting event on June the seventh.

Tables were arranged in the long living room for bridge, after which appeared a most serious and dignified billy goat, drawing a roomy express wagon, loaded with gifts for the bride-to-be's kitchen.

Master Welling LaGrone in blue overalls and little Jessie Huggins in pink linen apron and matching sun bonnet, made an adorable couple.

Having driven to the honoree's table, they presented her with the gifts which included every article needed for a modern kitchen. One very large box, with cautions to handle carefully, proved to be in the center of much packing, a useful rolling pin.

Mrs. P. P. Blalock cut the prize offered, a hand embroidered linen tray cloth, which she presented to Miss Rives.

A delicious salad course with iced tea was served after the cunning goat team had been driven most decorously away, completing the most novel party for a bride-to-be who is very genuinely admired and beloved in Edgefield.

State Campaign Opens in Columbia.

Candidates for state offices and congress from the Seventh district will fire their opening guns in Columbia this summer, according to the campaign itinerary announced Wednesday by a subcommittee of the state Democratic executive committee. This committee, composed of Gen. Willie Jone, George Bell Timmerman and H. N. Edmunds, was named at the executive committee meeting in connection with the state convention and instructed to map out an itinerary.

June 20 is the opening day and August is the closing date, the last meeting being in Spartanburg. From Columbia the campaigners jump in order named to Lexington, Saluda, Edgefield and Aiken during the first week. From July 8 to July 17 rest is provided for and again from August
