Mr. Arthur M. Timmerman announces his candidacy this week for the position of magistrate of the 6th district of Edgefield county. Mr. Timmerman resides almost in the center of the district and if elected will be able to easily serve every part of the district. Mr. Timmerman pledges himself to render faithful service if elected.

The county Democratic executive committee met Monday and appointed the enrollment committees for the clubs of the county. The complete list is published in this issue. The members of these committees should see to it that all voters in the county, men and women, are enrolled for the primary election which will be held this year on the 29th of August.

The Yonce Motor Company lists an increasing number of orders for Ford cars and if you contemplate buying a car you had better file your order at once. The demand for Ford cars steadily increases. In times of financial depression many people who have been driving heavy, expensive cars are now using Fords instead. Read what Mr. Yonce says about Ford Sedans this week.

Family Day at Baptist Sunday School.

Through the efforts of the superintendent, Mr. J. H. Cantelou, and his faithful co-workers, the exercises of the Baptist Sunday school are made more attractive by a change of program every Sunday. Last Sunday they had Family Day, the children and parents being seated together. The classes assembled at their usual places for a short period and then all gathered again in the main auditorium of the church where an appropriate program was carried out. First, the heads of all families where the entire family was present were requested to stand. Quite a number stood in response to this request. Then Mr. Cantelou requested the heads of families to stand where three generations were present. Some responded to this request. Then he called to the front the youngest member of the Sunday school, Mattie Timmerman, the sweet little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Timmerman. Next he requested the oldest male member, Mr. Orlando Sheppard, to stand and after giving expression to appropriate words of greeting requested Mr. Sheppard to have something to say. He responded in an appropriate and inspiring manner. Mr. Cantelou next turned to Mrs. Mary J. Norris, who is the oldest female member of the Sunday school and greeted her in a tender and most cordial manner, referring also to the loyal and faithful service of her lamented husband, Mr. A. J. Norris who for many years was superintendent of the school and a deacon of the church. Mr. Cantelou requested Dr. E. P. Jones to make a short talk. The exercises were interspersed by readings by Miss Florence Mims and Miss Elizabeth Lott. In conclusion Mr. Cantelou thanked the committees which labored with him so faithfully in contributing to the success of Family Day in the Sunday school. He announced that attractive features would also be given next Sunday.

W. C. T. U. Holds Reception.

Mrs. E. J. Norris and Miss Eliza Mims were hostesses on Monday afternoon for the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

In the receiving line were the new members who had been received since the last regular meeting, twenty-six having become members. Mrs. Helen Nicholson was head of the winning team, having fifteen on her list, Mrs. J. L. Mims next, with five and Mrs. W. L. Dunovant four.

Mrs. A. T. Allen conducted the devotions and Mrs. Mims welcomed the new members, as follows: Mrs. J. D. Kemp, Mrs. J. W. Kemp, Mrs. Wallace Holston, Mrs. John Quarles, Mrs. Ernest Quarles, Mrs. E. S. Strom, Mrs. T. E. Lamb, Mrs. J. C. Sheppard, Mrs. W. H. Sheppard, Mrs. Birdie Davis, Mrs. C. H. Key, Miss Nellie Paul, Mrs. Lenwood Johnson, Mrs. W. L. Dunn, Mrs. W. W. Adams, Jr., Mrs. A. T. Allen, Mrs. Cuttino Mellichamp, Mrs. Clyde Jackson, Mrs. E. C. Asbell, Mrs. M. D. Lyon, Sr., Mrs. M. D. Lyon, Jr., Miss Sophie Mims, Mrs. W. L. Dunovant, Jr., Mrs. Madison Tucker, Mrs. M. H. Deal, Mrs. W. E. B. Tompkins.

The report of the flower mission department for the year was made by Mrs. N. M. Jones. Year books were distributed to all new members. Visitors to the meeting were Mrs. Allen and Miss Allen and Mrs. Yettie Allstock of Saluda and Mrs. Strom of McCormick county.

Announcement was made that the picnic would be held at the County Home on Saturday the tenth of June, at which time the unions from Edgefield, Trenton, Johnston, Harmony, and Philippi are invited to be present. There will be a religious service in the chapel and a picnic dinner for all who come. There will be an exercise by the Johnston Loyal Temperance Legion under the supervision of Mrs. James H. White.

Announcement was made that the W. C. T. U. would hold their next meeting in the Baptist church at which time some orator will be secured who will speak on Christian Citizenship. The winning team in the membership team will arrange the programme and the two losing teams will solicit the audience.

The following program was given: Miss Lois Mims gave great pleasure in playing a violin solo with accompaniment by Miss Genevieve Norris.

Miss Margaret Courtney of Trenton who has recently distinguished herself in mathematics and scholarship in the Trenton High School gave a reading selection "In the Key of G," and added to her reputation for versatility.

Miss Florence Mims, by request gave a vocal solo, "Where the Four Leafed Clover Grows."

Miss Susan Mathis who recently gave a piano recital and received a medal and certificate in music, and a diploma in music from Trenton High School rendered a solo with unusual brilliancy. Later when the incident was told of her grandmother, Mrs. Julia Moss, and what a popular musician she was in her day and had even composed a march, one of the group present requested Miss Mathis to play this which she did very gracefully.

Amreica was sung, which closed the program, followed by a social half hour and the serving of block cream and pound cake.

VAN-NIL never disappoints.

J. W. Reel, grocer and butcher, Penn and Main Streets, Edgefield, says: "My trouble was mostly with my back. My kidneys were sore and pains across my back bothered me considerably. If I lay too long on my back at night, my kidneys began to ache and mornings I felt tired and stiff. My kidneys were congested and did not act freely enough. Knowing of Doan's Kidney Pills, I used them and they cured me. I am glad to say I have not been troubled since."
