In his reference this week to kegs and barrels in his advertisement Mr. Frank Huggins is talking about something good to eat and not to drink. Always good offerings of good things to eat at the Huggins Store. Read them.

The editor of The Advertiser is in bed wrestling with an attack of rheumatism. He has received about a score of suggestions and remedies, but will be glad to have some more. If you have anything efficacious, please send it at once.

Despite the heavy rain which fell yesterday afternoon, fifty women enrolled that they might be able to vote in the primary election. Have you signed your name in the club book yet? If not you have only five more days. Enroll today.

There are many of our people living in Edgefield county who will have no church services on Sunday morning. Get up some automobile parties, and come in to the Methodist church on that morning and hear the "Georgia Cyclone" on the enforcement of the prohibition laws.

Mr. H. G. Eidson of Johnston is offering in The Advertiser this week a new line of Diamond tires and tubes at very attractive prices. Furthermore, these low priced tubes and tires are warranted by Mr. Eidson. What more could you ask? See the attractive prices in this issue.

Mr. T. B. Lanham accompanied by his daughter, Miss Ellie Miller Lanham and niece, Miss Mary Dorn motored to Edgefield from Columbia on Saturday. Mrs. J. P. Nixon and John Nixon, Jr., returned with them to remain during the stay of Mr. Lanham at the Y. M. C. A. conference at Blue Ridge.

Leon C. Palmer, field agent of the South Carolina Sunday School Association spoke Thursday evening in the auditorium of the High School to a small audience. His subject was "How to Prepare the Lessons." He was introduced to the audience by Rev. G. W. M. Taylor, and what he said was entertaining and of practical value.

Everybody is invited to the Methodist church on Sunday morning and the Baptist church on Sunday evening to hear the 18th Amendment discussed by a United States Congressman from Georgia who has stood four square on this question and fought, bled and lived for the great principles of temperance. Come, from every nook and corner of our town and county and hear him.

The Woman's Missionary Union will meet this year at Mt. Zion church the days being August 31 and September 1st. A very interesting program is being arranged. Among visitors expected are Mrs. Eva Harris, Western Division President, Mrs. Azilee Wofford of Gaffney, Mission Study Superintendent for South Carolina. Perhaps some of the young missionaries whom Edgefield Association is interested in may be present. A full program will be published soon.

In this advertisement this week, the Tobacco Growers' Association issues a last call to tobacco growers to become members of the association. Through this association the system of cooperative marketing is offered tobacco growers such as they can not get in any other way. Through the association, tobacco growers are organizing just as cotton growers are for co-operative marketing. Cooperative marketing is the most scientific, most business like, most profitable way of marketing farm produce.

We direct the attention of our readers to the full page advertisement of Mr. J. Rubenstein in this issue in which he announces a continuance of his summer clearing sale and he also gives a list of great money-saving bargains which he is offering. This is a great opportunity to make your ready cash supply the family needs. Mr. Rubenstein's low prices of seasonable merchandise mean a great saving to those who spend their money with him. He guarantees every article he sells to give satisfaction.

Mr. H. G. Eidson, the Ford dealer of Johnston, urges in his advertisement this week the importance of having an authorized Ford dealer keep your Ford in good condition. He also stresses the importance of using genuine Ford parts for all repairs. Mr. Eidson's service station makes a number of examinations and adjustments without charge. He will also exchange you a new car for your old one and you can pay the difference on the easy payment plan, which will make it easy for you to own a new Ford. Do not fail to call on him.

B. Y. P. U. Course.

P. J. McLean, Jr., son of Dr. P. J. McLean of Aiken, conducted beginning with Sunday afternoon a course in the B. Y. P. U. Senior Manual. The study course lasted through three lessons, Sunday afternoon, Monday and Tuesday evenings, and was of great profit and pleasure to the young people of the organization.

Madden-Hammond.

Miss Margaret Madden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Madden, and Mr. Samuel Hammond of Columbia were married in that city on Sunday by Dr. Skinner, pastor of the First Baptist church.

Mr. Hammond is a successful young business man of Columbia, being connected with the Inter-State Oil Company. Miss Madden is a charming young lady of our town and her many friends wish her a long and happy married life. Miss Madden was the Queen of the Palmafesta from Edgefield county last fall.

W. D. Upshaw at Court House Monday Evening.

On Monday evening at 8:30 Congressman W. D. Upshaw of Atlanta will speak to an audience in the Court House. Mr. Upshaw offers a prize to anyone who goes to sleep during this lecture. A small admission will be charged. This will be an opportunity for all the community to get together, and help themselves and show appreciation of Mr. Upshaw.

Clerk of Court Paul L. Cogburn, has kindly lent the Court House for the occasion.

A TALK WITH AN EDGEFIELD MAN

Mr. M. A. Taylor, coal dealer of Columbia Street, Tells His Experience.

There is nothing like a talk with one of our own citizens for giving hope and encouragement to the anxious sufferer from the dread kidney disease. We, therefore, give here an interview with an Edgefield man:

"I have found Doan's Kidney Pills to be very reliable as a kidney remedy," says Mr. Taylor. "They quickly rid me of my kidney disorder and prevented more serious trouble. They have been the means of flushing out my kidneys and keeping them in a healthy condition. I have never had much trouble in this respect because I have always resorted to Doan's Kidney Pills before it had gone very far." I gladly endorse Doan's.

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Taylor had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

The Epworth League will hold its regular meeting Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock instead of 8:30 on account of the lecture by Mr. Upshaw mind the change of the hour and come on time.

VICE PRESIDENT.

Concordia Lodge No. 50, A. F. M., will meet in called communication, Friday, July 21st at half past eight, for work in the first degree.

Change in Conditions

TWENTY-FIVE years ago Henry Ford could not borrow train fare to attend Auto races. He then thought for himself; made his own machine and gave them all a run for their money. Won't you do your own thinking? Use genuine Ford parts if you wish to get real satisfaction. Our mechanics are skilled in the use of genuine Ford parts. Don't flirt with the just as "good idea." When ready to re-tire stop at our Fisk sign. Meet our special red top and rest over them. Your tire joy will be great. Ask any red top user. See us for Truck sizes, solid or pneumatic.

Bring us your battery troubles. We re-charge, repair; also, have a new battery for you. We have free battery water. Our curb service is ready for you—gas, oil, free air. You will find our place a good place to rest. You are welcome. We have a few bargains in second-hand Fords. See them quick.

In Loving Remembrance of Little Ruby Hudson.

Our precious little Ruby, we miss you so; if God would call us we would gladly go; we cannot see you but we know that you are here for we feel thy little angel spirit hovering near, and see thy out-stretched arms and hear thy sweet little voice tenderly calling us to come and with you rejoice. We know that Heavenly Home is beautiful and that you are happy there. We would not take you back in this world of care. We know that you still love us more tenderly than before, but darling, our hearts are bleeding with the love that must overflow. But it won't be long, Ruby, till God will call us home, and there will be no more pain or sorrow, but joy that we have never known.

Home here will never seem like home any more without you, Ruby, for we can never hear your little footsteps or ever see your face again. But when our work here is finished and we cross the narrow sea, we will meet our little angel, and oh, how happy we will be.

Her devoted aunt,
BERTA MATHIS.
