Poor old Jiggs! Maggie had two votes yesterday.

It is reported that Kaiser William is soon to wed again. Don't you hope she will be a replica of Maggie?

All who believe in preparedness will provide their fuel early. Prices will soon soar higher and higher.

The present governor of South Carolina may be a "new broom," but did you ever see one sweep cleaner?

That Texas fellow who walked 800 miles to marry a widow must have thought she owned a string of oil wells.

Have you a parole from either of the former governors? Better be good or the present governor will revoke it.

Governor Harvey is working as hard to get some criminals back in the penitentiary as a former governor did to turn them out.

Strange things happen. A headline says, "Great Britain pleads for Germany," in the matter of reparation. Contrast this attitude with that of four years ago.

The announcement has been made that a new type of cut glass can be made cheaper than ordinary glass. Don't you feel sorry for the brides of the future?

Yes, Liberty Bonds are commanding a premium after probably 90 percent are owned by the idle rich. Wonder how many bonds are still owned by individuals in Edgefield county?

Colonel Roosevelt would have cracked before breakfast some of the "nuts" that President Harding has been grappling with for weeks. The "big stick" was not altogether without some merit.

Result of Election. The latest reports from Columbia this, Wednesday, morning indicate that Mr. Blease and Mr. McLeod will be in the second race for Governor. Mr. Dove will probably be elected secretary of state. Mr. Wolfe will be re-elected attorney general. Mr. W. E. Duncan will be re-elected comptroller general. Mr. Craig will probably be elected adjutant and inspector general. Mr. Harris will be elected commissioner of agriculture and a second race for superintendent of education will probably be between Mr. Swearingen and Mr. Hope.

The unofficial report of the county election which is published in tabulated on our front page shows that Mr. H. H. Sanders has been elected to the house of representatives and a second race for the house will be made by Mr. James O. Sheppard and Mr. J. W. Bledsoe. Mr. L. T. May has been elected clerk of court and Judge W. T. Kinnaird re-elected judge of probate.

Those who have been elected without opposition are Mr. J. L. Prince, treasurer; Mr. J. R. Timmerman, auditor and Mr. J. R. Scurry, coroner.

There will be but one second race for the position of magistrate in the county and that will be between Mr. J. B. Tompkins and Mr. George W. Turner of the first district. Mr. Wallace W. Wise was re-elected magistrate in the 2nd. district. Mr. H. W. Dobby elected in the 3rd. district; Mr. J. M. Holland re-elected in the 4th. district; Mr. T. A. Williams elected in the fifth district; Mr. P. W. Cheatham re-elected in the 6th. district; Mr. A. M. Timmerman elected in the 7th. district.

The county executive committee will meet Thursday to tabulate the vote and officially declare the result. The second primary election will be held Tuesday September 12.

The Herald was not enthusiastic about Wilson G. Harvey becoming Governor of South Carolina, but every man is due all the credit he deserves. The Herald does not mind saying now that it considers Governor Harvey one of the best executives this state has had in a long time. The state has had only a few weeks of his administration, and the Governor has conducted himself during these weeks in a manner such as to command respect and admiration. He has every appearance of being a man with an eye single to filling the high office he occupies in a manner that will cause his name to go down in history as being qualified to be governor of this great state. Governor Harvey is handling law enforcement with a firm hand, and he deserves the moral support of the people in his efforts to better conditions in this state.—The Hamberg Herald.

Card From Mr. Sheppard. To the Democratic voters of Edgefield County: I wish to express to my fellow citizens my sincere thanks for the splendid vote given me in the primary election on August 29th.

Since I am in the second primary I will greatly appreciate your continued support. I have had some legislative experience and I feel that I can now better represent my people than during the past term when I was a new member.

I have taken an active interest in the new tax program which is intended to more equitably distribute the tax burden, and I want to go back to the House of Representatives to assist in completing this new program. I hereby assure each and all of my fellow citizens, that I will do everything within my power to promote legislation that will tend to reduce the burden of the people by the reduction of taxes, and I feel much better qualified for such service than I was during my first term.

Very Respectfully, James O. Sheppard. August 30, 1922.

We Salute the New Drug Store

After serving the Edgefield public in a most acceptable manner for more than 75 years, in war times as well as in peace, the old-reliable Penn Drug Store, lately owned by the lamented Mr. J. D. Holstein, passes out of the family of its founders into new hands. To-morrow this popular store will open for business under the name of Charles F. Bird & Company, the owners being Mr. Charles F. Bird, who travelled for a number of years for one of the largest wholesale drug houses in the country, located in Baltimore, and Mr. R. C. Nance who also traveled for the Augusta Drug Company. Mr. Bird will locate here and will be in active management of the store. He is married and will in about two weeks bring his wife here to make Edgefield their home. The Advertiser joins the people of Edgefield in extending to them a cordial welcome. Mr. Perry Whatley who has been a faithful salesman in this popular store for several years will be retained by the firm. Mr. Morgan who has served as pharmacist very acceptably for the past year will be with the new management for a short time.

Standard Parts Becoming Rule

New York, Aug. 26.—German standards—as the word is applied in manufacturing and not in philosophy—will some day be the standard by which America will have to furnish materials to most of the countries of the world, according to Oscar R. Wikander, an American engineer, who has just returned from Germany where he represented the American Engineering Standard Committee.

"An example of the progress in standardization which Germany has made since the war time conditions began," says Mr. Wikander, "is the recent story of Russian locomotives. Nineteen German and one Swiss manufacturers built 700 locomotives for Russia, and every part in every one of them was interchangeable with the corresponding part in any of the others.

"Because of this standardization, every locomotive which was disabled became a store of spare parts for the others of the same type. Standardization work is being forced by Germans because they want to introduce their standards in the great import countries and possibly in the entire world.

"To this end the great German deliveries in kind to France will, as far as possible, be made according to German standards, thus introducing them into that country.

"Standardization in Germany is the work of a large committee,

Which works in splendid cooperation with the manufacturers. This committee—called the 'Normenausschuss'—is most interested in American standardization and is very anxious to collaborate with us in establishing international standards.

"England, too, is working to force the adoption of her standards on manufacturers in her colonies and dominions, and it is time for America to plan to meet the conditions which some day may force us to manufacture goods that will conform to the standards 'made in Germany.'"

Mrs. J. S. Byrd Entertains.

On Saturday morning, August 26, Mrs. James S. Byrd entertained at a Rook party in honor of Miss Ada Louise Moorner, who is a visitor in Edgefield at present.

There were three tables of rook for the guests. At eleven o'clock progressive rook was begun and participated in until after twelve games had been completed.

At the end of the game, Mrs. Byrd presented Miss Moorner with a box of stationery and she was again honored by getting the prize for the highest score. Miss Elizabeth Lott won the consolation prize, a very necessary article to the feminine—powder puff.

The hostess assisted by Miss Ida Folk then served a delicious salad course, with iced tea and ice cream and cake.

Those present were Misses Ada Louise Moorner, Helen Nicholson, Isabel Byrd, Mary Lily Byrd, Lily Holston, Lillian Pattison, Gertrude Thurmond, Mary Marsh, Mary Lyon, Elizabeth Lott Julia Strom, Hammie Scurry, May Rives and Eleanor Mims.

The party was considered a brilliant success by all those enjoying the hospitality of the home. Mrs. Byrd always entertains so beautifully that the girls felt very much honored that they should be the select few invited.

36 Inches Make a yard as we all know, but that is the width of the Color Fast Shirting in checks, stripes and plaids. Better get in on this shirting feast before your particular color has been disposed of, as 39c. the yard is sure moving these goods. Then ask to see the 32-inch "Kiddie Kloth" for house dresses, work shirts and children's rompers at 20c. the yard. They are going fast and the sold out information will greet you if you don't hurry to see this pick up. Still another pick up for the money is solid and striped Chambry at 12c. a yd. Cold Spring News

The Edgefield Association meets here Wednesday and Thursday before second Sunday. Committees have been appointed to make all arrangements and we want it to be a very pleasant session. The ladies are planning to take all visitors who do not live close enough to go home that night.

Mrs. O. J. Holmes and daughter, Mamie, visited Mr. W. L. Holmes at Antioch Saturday night and Sunday. Mrs. Holmes went to see her little granddaughter which arrived a week ago.

Little Benny and Josephine Smith of Antioch spent the week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Smith.

Miss Jennie McDaniel, Miss Helen Stone and brother Rob Stone were in a runaway last Monday. The horse they were driving became frightened and got the bits out of its mouth, then ran and hit a tree, tore the buggy up and hurt Jennie McDaniel right badly but no bones were broken. None were hurt seriously.

Miss Carolyn Dorn of Edgefield spent part of week with Catherine Prince. She returned home with her to spend a few days.

Misses Mamie and Lydia Holmes entertained a number of their friends Wednesday night, music being the main amusement. It was rendered by Mr. Levi Holmes of Ninety Six and Mr. Ben Adams and Miss Lou Delaughter of North Augusta.

Miss Ellie Quarles and friend, Miss Margaret Whitlaw, of North Augusta spent the week end with relatives.

Mrs. Nettie Bussey of Modoc and daughter Evelyn spent part of week with relatives.

We are glad to say Miss Lydia Holmes and little Ira Roberson are up again after being ill with malaria.

We closed a very successful meeting at Red Hill. It was the best we have had in a good many years. We had with us our old pastor Rev. J. T. Littlejohn of Scranton, S. C. All were glad to see him not only this church but all the neighboring churches. He did his best to try to please everybody and the people pleased him by coming in great crowds and paying good attention.

We only regretted to see him leave Friday and wished he could stay here and be our pastor, but we know that would be impossible as he is doing such great work in Scranton. Mrs. C. B. Littlejohn and son returned home Friday but Mrs. J. T. Littlejohn will stay until after the association. Miss Essie Bussey, Miss Sallie Smith and Mrs. C. E. Bussey made a business trip to Augusta Monday. Mr. Dempsey Bussey carried them in his car. They went to get the carpet for Red Hill church.

Miss Lillian Harlem is spending a few days in Harlem, Ga., visiting her niece, Mrs. Bertha Morgan.

We were glad to see Mrs. J. L. Holmes at meeting after being very sick at her mother's home near Johnston.

Misses Lunet and Agnes Bussey of Modoc spent a few days here with relatives.

Mrs. Lizzie-Clements and daughter Louise, of Macon, Ga., are visiting her aunt, Mrs. Sallie Bailey.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Marion Quarles does not improve very much. She is still in the hospital where she has been about two months. The Doctors still have hopes of her recovery.
