LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. R. O. Brezeale of Greenville is here visiting Mrs. Capers Mad-den.

Mrs. Gus Merrimon of Sumter is a guest in the home of Mrs. Lizzie Tompkins.

Miss Elizabeth Greneker of Augusta is a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Greneker.

The recent fire loss by Mr. A. B. Miller at Trenton has been paid through E. J. Norris agency.

Miss Margaret Hill came up from Augusta and spent the week-end in Edgefield with Miss Sophie Mims.

Mrs. J. E. Gaskin and Mrs. James Nelson of Columbia spent Sunday in Edgefield as guests of Mrs. Annie Rives.

Misses Juincy Robinson and Willette Matthews and Mr. Jesse Reynolds of Columbia were guests of Miss Mae Reeves Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John K. Aull of Columbia have been spending the past week in Edgefield with Mrs. Aull's mother, Mrs. Lizzie Tompkins.

Mr. George F. Mims went over to Columbia Monday morning to attend a meeting of the board of examiners in optometry. He will return today.

William Thurmond came over from Columbia to spend the week-end with the home folk, returning to his studies at the University Monday morning.

Mrs. Lynwood M. Johnson will leave today for Greenville to attend the wedding of her brother-in-law, Dr. I. H. Grimball to Miss Margaret Mackey.

The public is invited to a box party to be given at the Pleasant Lane school house on Hallowe'en night, October 31. Oysters will be sold for the benefit of the school.

What Frank Huggins says this week should be of especial interest to the Edgefield housewives. A list of good things to eat is given for you to make your selection from.

Mrs. May Nelson is assistant in The Model Home, 1104 Lady Street, Columbia. It affords a rest room for ladies and carries an assortment of art goods and home products for sale.

Mrs. J. Mitchell Chase, and little son, Henry Hughes Chase, and Mrs. Caraher of Clearfield, Pa., are guests of Mrs. B. B. Jones. Mrs. Chase is pleasantly remembered as Miss Elise Lake.

Mr. Shields L. Johnson who has been at Horse Shoe, N. C., for the summer will reach home Saturday to spend some time. He will be very cordially greeted by his Edgefield friends.

Mr. Turner calls attention this week to the Corner Store's large assort of shoes, hosiery, sweaters, blankets and dry goods. Visit this popular store before supplying your needs in these goods.

A meeting of the Winthrop Daughters will be held at the home of Miss Sallie Mae Nicholson, at "Cedar Grove," Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. All the members are urged to attend.

Sunday morning Rev. A. T. Allen appointed the following delegates from the First Baptist church to the union meeting at Berea: J. H. Cantelou, L. B. Jones, W. E. Lott, E. C. Asbell and J. L. Mims.

Mrs. Mamie N. Tillman, Mrs. J. P. Nixon and Mrs. J. L. Mims attended the annual convention of the State Woman's Christian Temperance Union which was held in Newberry from Friday night until Monday.

Congressman James F. Byrnes ran up from Aiken Thursday to mingle with his Edgefield friends for a few hours. He always receives a cordial greeting in Edgefield. Mr. Byrnes is enjoying a short period of rest between the sessions of Congress. Early in November he will have to return to Washington for some important committee work in advance of the convening congress.

The boys of the Edgefield high school are planning to give a minstrel in order to raise funds for their athletic association. It will be a good entertainment and the cause likewise being a good one our people should attend en masse.

Rev. G. W. M. Taylor is closing up his year's work in order to be ready to attend the annual conference which meets in Gaffney on November 7. Rev. A. L. Gunter will be the host, being pastor of the Methodist church at Gaffney.

Commencing Friday, October 27, the Quarles & Timmerman Variety Store will put on their annual fall sale which will mean tremendous saving on every purchase you make at this popular store. Read their advertisement in this issue.

Miss Ethel Cheatham is here spending some time with her mother, Mrs. J. W. Cheatham. For the past year she has been in a leading hospital in Memphis in training to be a trained nurse. Dr. M. D. Jeffries is superintendent of the hospital.

The popular V. & L. Restaurant and Chiles Cafe announces a substantial reduction in prices. They buy only the choicest food and serve it in the most approved manner. Stop at this popular place when in Augusta—315-317 Jackson Street.

Mr. T. A. Hightower who always keeps abreast of the times in cotton manufacturing, spent Friday and Saturday in Greenville attending the Southern Textile Exposition which has attracted men interested in cotton manufacturing from all parts of the country.

County Treasurer J. L. Prince told The Advertiser's representative yesterday that there remains yet unpaid about $33,000 of 1921 taxes. This shows that a considerable number of taxpayers in the county now have two years taxes upon them, 1921 and 1922.

We have carried some of our subscribers who have heretofore been unable to pay their subscriptions promptly, but we must now insist upon payment. Look at your label and see how you stand. We do not wish to drop a single name, so remit at once, if in arrears.

Capt. P. M. Feltham stopped over for the week-end with his family, leaving Monday morning for Washington. After completing his work in Alexandria, La., he was ordered by the government to inspect Linwood hospital near Augusta, having come from there to Edgefield.

Mr. Abrom Daitch tells The Advertiser's readers this week that his large stock is now filled in every department with winter goods that were bought right and will be sold right. Read what Mr. Daitch says this week. He also has a large stock of army goods that he is selling very low.

Mr. Clyde Hamilton spent Monday in Columbia with his mother, Mrs. Bonham Hamilton, who is in the hospital. While in the city a transfusion of blood was made from Mr. Hamilton into the veins of his mother. Since that time, Mrs. Hamilton's friends will be pleased to note that she is improving.

Mr. F. G. Mertin of Augusta announces to our readers this week that he is selling all boys' and men's clothing and furnishings at half price or less. Such a statement coming from so reliable a source should interest many of our people, especially at a season when many family needs have to be supplied.

Rev. A. T. Allen will attend the union meetings of all three divisions Saturday and Sunday. Saturday he will attend the meeting at Antioch and in the afternoon he will motor to Clark's Hill to attend the union meeting of the third division. Sunday he will attend the union meeting of the first division at Berea, preaching the sermon in the forenoon.

In his attractive advertisement in this issue Mr. H. G. Eidson, the Ford dealer of Johnston, gives the figures showing how much is saved to the buyer by the recent big reduction in Ford cars. Mr. Eidson announces that he can now make immediate delivery on all style cars. Better get your order in before some body gets your car. Ford sales will increase at the present low prices.

LOST: One the streets of Edgefield Thursday, October 19, a gold bar pin. Finder will please leave at The Advertiser Office and receive a suitable reward.

According to a dispatch from headquarters, the mail which has been coming in on the afternoon train on Sundays will be discontinued. On all other days there will be no change. This order has been issued on account of the light mails coming in on last train, and the discontinuance will begin Sunday, October 29.

The Yonce Motor Company gives this week the actual cost of a Ford car or truck in its easy term plan of buying a car. The amount of cash payment and the monthly payments are so small that Ford cars are now placed within reach of people who heretofore could not own a car. Call on Mr. Yonce and he will explain in detail his easy payment plan. You can pay for a Ford while you ride. A man who buys a car for business can make it pay for itself.

Hallowe'en Party Friday Evening.

The Girls' Auxiliary and the Royal Ambassadors will be entertained at the home of Mrs. W. C. Tompkins on Friday evening when they will enjoy a most pleasant occasion and will have an opportunity to meet Miss Azilee Wofford who is especially interested in young people. Mrs. Tompkins is leader of the Royal Ambassadors and Mrs. E. C. Asbell of the Girls' Auxiliary and together the young people with their leaders will make this occasion count for great good.

Our Boys at Saluda.

The football team of the high school went to Saluda Friday afternoon for a contest with the team of the Saluda high school. While they lost the game, they won the respect and admiration of the people among whom they were visiting. Considering the fact that they made a higher score than has any other team that has played Saluda this season, we should be proud of the record they made Friday. Let's stand by our boys and encourage them. They are a manly set of boys who reflect honor upon Edgefield wherever they go.

Last Case of Criminal Court.

At the hour of our going to press last week, the court was engaged with the trial of Elias Barnes, Warren Barnes, Abrom Holmes, Charles Jennings and Boisie Anderson for murder, having been charged with killing another negro near the home of Mr. S. A. Brunson over a year ago. In the case of Boisie Anderson, who was represented by C. T. Burnett, the judge ordered a verdict of acquittal. As to the other four negroes, who were represented by J. H. Cantelou and S. McG. Simkins, the jury failed to agree upon a verdict after being out all night and a mistrial was ordered.

Miss Azilee Wofford in Edgefield.

Miss Azilee Wofford is the Field Agent of the Woman's Missionary Union for South Carolina. On invitation of the Edgefield W. M. U. She will spend Friday and Saturday in the Edgefield association, and will be entertained on her arrival in Edgefield by Mrs. W. B. Cogburn and Mrs. A. T. Allen. Miss Wofford is a graduate of Winthrop college and the Louisville Baptist Training school for missionaries and Christian Workers.

Friday afternoon at 4 p. m. the Woman's Missionary Society, with Mrs. Mamie N. Tillman, president will hold a meeting at the home of Mrs. A. A. Woodson which will be a reception for Miss Wofford and an opportunity for her to present the work of the Baptist Woman's Missionary Union. A musical program will be rendered as follows:

Violin trio "Sing, Smile, Slumber" Mrs. Leon Warren, Mrs. Walter Cantelou, Miss Lois Mims; Miss Genevieve Norris accompanist.

Vocal solo, Mrs. M. B. Tucker.

Vocal solo, Rev. G. W. M. Taylor.

Saturday morning at Antioch the morning session will be in charge of the program and Miss Wofford and Rev. A. T. Allen will speak. Saturday afternoon at the union meeting at Clark's Hill Miss Wofford will also have a part on the program. From there she will go to Greenwood to meet engagements on Sunday.
