

Office No 61
Residence, No. 17

Wednesday, December 6.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. R. C. Padgett is visiting relatives in North Augusta.

Mr. Strom Thurmond came home from Clemson college for the Thanksgiving season.

Mrs. J. H. Self and Miss Callie Self are among the visitors in Edgefield today.

Miss Mary Wallace Ravenel of Charleston is the guest of Mrs. A. R. Nicholson.

Mrs. J. H. Shores of Spartanburg is here spending this week with her sister, Mrs. P. P. Blalock.

Miss Ruth Tompkins has returned from a very pleasant trip to Jacksonville and St. Augustine, Fla.

Miss Hortense Padgett came down from Greenwood and spent Sunday in Edgefield with relatives.

Mr. Walter Hill Ryan of Atlanta is at home for a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Ryan.

Miss Sophie Abney returned from Savannah Saturday after an extended visit to her niece, Mrs. A. J. Ives.

Miss Bessie Dunovant came home from her school duties in Williston for the Thanksgiving season.

Mr. L. R. Jones came over from Columbia Tuesday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Jones.

Rev. P. B. Lanham left Tuesday for Rock Hill to attend the State Baptist convention.

Mr. W. S. G. Heath is making rapid headway in erecting the attractive bungalow of Mr. T. B. Greneker.

Mrs. A. M. Deitz and her little son of Asheville are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Reel, Mrs. Deitz's parents.

Miss Rosada Talbert of Parksville spent the Thanksgiving season here with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Parker.

Miss Etta Watkins of Belton was a guest last week in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Madden and Capt. L. Y. Moore.

Hon. and Mrs. James O. Sheppard spent the Thanksgiving season in Newberry with Mr. Sheppard's mother, Mrs. William Griffin.

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Fowler and Misses Elizabeth and Julia Teague of Aiken were visitors in Edgefield Friday.

Mrs. Iris deLoach Chisolm will spend today in Fairfax, her former home, and will return to Edgefield tomorrow.

Capt. N. G. Evans has again been honored by being selected as special judge to hold court in Barnwell this week.

Mrs. W. R. McDonald returned to Augusta Monday and they are now occupying a suite in the Broadway apartments.

Miss Edna Johnson of Aiken spent the Thanksgiving season in Edgefield as the guest of Miss Anna Mae Scurry.

The Philharmonic Music Club will meet with Mrs. Walter Cantelou on Wednesday afternoon, December 13, at 3:30 o'clock.

Dr. and Mrs. James S. Byrd motored to Columbia and spent Thanksgiving Day with Mrs. Byrd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fitzmaurice.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Rudisill are now boarding with Mrs. Chisolm at the Dixie Highway Hotel, where their friends can find them hereafter.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Lyon, Jr., of Johnston were welcome visitors in Edgefield Sunday, worshipping in the Baptist church Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglass DePass have returned to Columbia after spending the past week in Edgefield with Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Smith, Mrs. DePass's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mays have come up from Aiken to spend the winter at Mr. Mays' country home between Edgefield and Horn's Creek. The people of Edgefield and vicinity will be delighted to have them for this prolonged stay.

Capt. L. Y. Moore, Mr. B. R. Tillman and Dr. A. H. Corley went to Greenville to attend a Shriners' meeting.

Mr. J. Wm. Thurmond, Jr., who is attending the medical college in Augusta spent the week-end at home, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wm. Thurmond.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ives will arrive from Savannah tomorrow to spend several days with Misses Sophie and Marie Abney and Mr. and Mrs. J. Manner Lawton.

Mrs. Alice Boozer, Mr. Dickert and Miss Hortense Woodson accompanied Mrs. Agatha A. Woodson from Newberry Sunday, returning to Newberry in the afternoon.

Mrs. J. J. Boazman of Chappell, accompanied by her two little children, spent the Thanksgiving season in Edgefield with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Reel.

Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Ennett and little G. N. Ennett, Jr., arrived Sunday. The little gentleman is being very affectionately greeted upon his first visit to Edgefield.

The Edgefield Fruit Company announces this week that it is ready with a large stock of fruit and candies, with fresh arrivals by express almost daily, to fill all holiday orders.

Mr. Orlando Sheppard, Jr., stopped over in Edgefield to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Sheppard, Sr., while en route to Columbia on business.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Nicholson, accompanied by Miss Charlotte Strother, are spending today in Columbia with Miss Mary Nicholson who is a student at Columbia college.

Mrs. Edwin May of Asheville, Fla., is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. May, and has been very affectionately greeted by her Edgefield friends.

Mr. W. W. Adams, Mr. W. W. Fowler and Mr. G. P. Fowler are on a hunting expedition this week in the lower part of the state.

Rt. Rev. K. G. Finlay, bishop of the western diocese of South Carolina, will visit Edgefield next Sunday and preach in Trinity church at eleven o'clock.

Mrs. D. D. McColl of Bennettsville spent last week here with her parents, Ex-Gov. and Mrs. John C. Sheppard. She was very cordially greeted by her Edgefield friends.

"Eat, drink and be Happy," says Mr. Huggins this week and getting something to eat and drink is made easy at his store. Look over his list of good things this week.

Mr. and Mr. D. T. Mathis, Jr. of Ropers, spent Sunday in Edgefield with Mr. D. E. Lanham, Mrs. Mathis' father, and worshipping in the Baptist church in the forenoon.

H. C. Viele & Co., popular jewelers of Augusta, located at 1008 Broad Street, makes helpful suggestions this week about selecting Christmas presents. Read their advertisement.

Mr. Lewellyn Nicholson, a son of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Nicholson of Columbia, who was reared in Edgefield now has a position in the office of the Newberry Herald and News.

Miss Alice Wilson of Greenwood spent the Thanksgiving season in Edgefield with her sister, Mrs. Walter Cantelou. She returned to Greenwood Sunday, being accompanied to Greenwood for the day by Mr. and Mrs. Cantelou.

Mr. and Mrs. Buist Anderson, accompanied by their children, spent the Thanksgiving season here with relatives. Mr. Anderson is regarded as one of the foremost farmers in Spartanburg county.

Mr. J. P. Bland of Johnston has accepted the agency for Edgefield county for the Star and Durant automobiles. Miss Pearl Padgett purchased a Durant car from Mr. Bland a few days ago.

Mr. S. B. Mays, Jr., who is traveling for a large paint company with Chicago as his headquarters, is spending several days here with the home folk and has been very warmly greeted by his Edgefield friends.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Callison and their children spent the Thanksgiving season in Edgefield with Mrs. Callison's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Reel. While here, accompanied by Mr. Reel, Mr. Callison visited his old home in the Callison section of Edgefield and Greenwood counties.

The December meeting of the Edgefield chapter, U. D. C., will be held with Mrs. Bettis Cantelou Tuesday afternoon, December 12, at 3:30 o'clock.

Tell the children a radio message announces that Old Man Santa Claus is on his way to Edgefield with as many good things as he used to bring before the war.

The college girls and boys will soon break in on Edgefield by the scores and make the old town merry for the holidays. But the fatted porker will have to take the place of the fatted calf.

Miss Gladys Padgett spent the Thanksgiving season at Marietta with Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Cleveland and her little nephew, Norwood Cleveland, Jr., returned with her to spend some time here.

Mr. Rainsford Cantelou and Mr. W. L. Dunovant, Jr., Forded it to Wedgefield, Sumter county, last week on a hunting expedition and bagged some big game, if fish can be classed as game. At any rate, they had a week of fine sport.

Mrs. William Wingfield of North Augusta spent yesterday in Edgefield visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Lyon. She and Mr. Wingfield now occupy the very handsome home in North Augusta known as the Jack Cranston home, which they purchased some time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Reel, Mr. and Mrs. Goode Reel and Miss Lucile Reel spent Sunday in Johnston with Mrs. Reel's brother, Mr. J. D. Bartley, who celebrated his birthday with a turkey dinner, inviting some of his friends and relatives to share the pleasures of the occasion with him.

Some farmers are learning that co-operative buying is as profitable as co-operative marketing. The members of the South Carolina Asparagus Growers' Association have saved several thousand dollars through buying co-operatively their fertilizer needs of next spring.

Mrs. Hattie Adams and Miss Lillie Adams have returned from a visit of a week to Mr. George W. Adams in Charlotte. This was Mrs. Adams' first visit to Charlotte since she attended College for Women, which was afterwards moved to Columbia. She met a number of her college friends in Charlotte.

Mr. Turner announces this week in the Corner Store's advertisement that he is selling Malabar Silverink Tableware. You can get a "Princess" set free by having your purchases at the Corner Store recorded. Call at the store and Mr. Turner will explain how to get the set free.

Read about "Me and My Ford" in Mr. Yonce's advertisement this week. You can buy a Ford car for business or pleasure, a Ford truck for hauling or a Fordson tractor for farm work on very easy terms. Mr. Yonce gives the exact figures at which you can buy on the easy payment or installment plan.

Although not an old man, Mr. W. L. Dunovant has the distinction of being the oldest man living who was born here, and his mercantile business on the corner is also one of the oldest business establishments in Edgefield. Thursday of last week marked the close of his 33rd year as a merchant on the corner. May he be with us yet another third of a century!

The members of the Methodist Sunday school were very successful with the sale of oysters in the vacant store in the hotel building Tuesday night. The sum of $60 was realized for the treasury of the Sunday school and those who served the oysters are very grateful for the generous patronage. The splendid success of Tuesday night should encourage them to have another similar oyster feast.

The senior deacon of the church of which Rev. A. T. Allen was pastor near Darlington before he came to Edgefield died Sunday morning and Sunday Mr. Allen received a telegram requesting him to conduct the funeral. He and Mrs. Allen left for Darlington in their car Sunday afternoon and went from Darlington to Rock Hill to attend the State Baptist convention this week. Mrs. Mamie N. Tillman went on the train to Rock Hill Monday to attend the convention and will return with Mr. and Mrs. Allen in their car the latter part of the week.

DR. KING'S NEW DISCOVERY
Will Surely Stop That Cough.

Me and My Ford

My Ford takes me to town—and—back.
My Ford takes me to church—and—back.
My Ford is the family pet—it is trustworthy.
My Ford is a proud car—the wisest men use them.
My Ford is an economist—drinks very little gas.
For Hauling: My Ford truck is the best hauler.
For Farm Work: My Fordson tractor is the best ever.

SO YOU SEE

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

is the automotive machine that makes life easier and better. That's a fact!

The Yonce Motor Company makes easy and attractive terms, even at the prices listed herein.

KIND OF CAR	DELIVERED	DOWN	MONTHLY
Touring, no starter, plain wheels	$369.00	$140.00	$23.35
Touring, with starter, plain wheels	442.00	167.00	27.84
Touring, with starter, demountable wheels	468.00	176.35	29.40
Runabout, no starter, plain wheels	339.00	128.35	21.40
Runabout, with starter, plain wheels	412.00	155.35	25.90
Runabout, with starter, demountable wheels	438.00	164.67	27.45
Chassis, no starter, plain wheels	299.00	114.35	19.06
Chassis, with starter, plain wheels	371.00	140.70	23.45
Coupe, with starter, demountable wheels	611.00	228.35	38.25
Sedan, with starter, demountable wheels	679.00	252.35	42.10
Truck, pneumatic or solid tires	448.00	167.70	28.00
Fordson Tractor	446.00		(Terms if desired)

YONCE MOTOR CO.

Mrs. P. M. Feltham has charge of the sale of Christmas seals and has placed them on sale at all the stores. It is hoped that our people will purchase them liberally, so as to swell as much as possible the fund for stamping out tuberculosis.

Mr. B. H. Parker, accompanied by Mrs. Parker and their two children, has arrived to spend a month with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Parker. Mr. Parker resides in Wichita, Kansas, and travels for the Dalton Adding Machine Company. He and Mrs. Parker both will be very cordial.

Miss Emmie Broadwater came home from her school at Ninety Six for the Thanksgiving season.

Mr. H. G. Rudisill, Mr. John Mims, Mr. Perry Whatley, Mr. Edgar Padgett, Mr. B. E. Timmerman and Mr. Dixon Timmerman spent Thursday in Atlanta.

The Advertiser has been requested to announce that there will be a box party at White Town school house Saturday night, December 9. There will also be other things of interest such as guessing contests, games and fortune telling. Everybody is invited to attend and have a good time, but don't forget your pocket-books.

Edgefield Methodist Church.

Rev. G. W. M. Taylor, the pastor, will preach in the Methodist church Sunday morning at 11:30 o'clock and evening at 7:30 o'clock. Visitors and strangers are welcome to the service.

Wednesday Night Thanksgiving Service.

The Thanksgiving service at the Baptist church was held on Wednesday night, and at this time Rev. A. T. Allen had charge of the program which he had arranged. Miss Carolyn Dorn read the origin of the first Thanksgiving and Miss Lucy Scurry sang a beautiful and appropriate selection. Talks were made by Rev. A. T. Allen, Mr. J. L. Mims and Mr. Orlando Sheppard. The audience was large and the spirit good.

FOR SALE: Charleston Wakefield Cabbage plants. 100 for 25 cents; 500 for $1.00; 1,000 for $1.50, grown in Edgefield.

G. W. M. TAYLOR.

Edgefield Girl Honored.

Mrs. H. F. Cooper of the Meriwether section spent the Thanksgiving season in Greenville with her daughters, Misses Christine and Estelle Cooper, who are attending the Greenville Woman's College. Miss Christine is in the senior class and is editor in chief of "The Entre Nous," the college annual, which is a distinct honor. The Advertiser is always glad to chronicle the successes and achievements, of Edgefield's young ladies and young gentlemen.

Mrs. Feltham and Mrs. Lawton Entertain.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. P. M. Feltham and Mrs. J. Maner Lawton entertained a number of their lady friends, chiefly married ladies, at the home of the latter. The spacious parlors were beautifully decorated with roses and other cut flowers for the occasion. Eight tables were arranged for bridge and after a spirited game Miss Virginia Addison made the highest score and was awarded first prize. At the close of the game the hostesses served a salad course with turkey, followed by ice cream and cake. The occasion was one of unusual pleasure to those who were honored with invitation.

Car Seed Potatoes for Spring Planting.

The Edgefield Produce and Exchange has made a contract direct with a grower in Aristook county, Maine, for a car of Irish Cobbler Seed Potatoes. These potatoes are certified seed medium sizes and are bought at a price that will enable the Exchange to put them to the planters at cost, not over $4.00 per sack. The car will be ordered out the last of December, and should arrive here the middle of January. All who wish to place orders for these potatoes should see Major Collett at once and leave order with him. The potatoes will be sold for cash when delivered.

Trespass Notice.

Notice is hereby given that all persons are forbidden to hunt or in any manner trespass upon my land and that of Limus Perry. The law will be rigidly enforced against those who disregard this notice.

R. T. HILL.

Masons Elect Officers.

Concordia Lodge No. 50, Ancient Free Masons, met in regular communication Friday night, December 1, this being the date for the annual election of officers and closing up all business for the calendar year. All departments of work were reported in excellent condition, more work having been done, more new members enrolled, than in any like period in recent years. The finances of the lodge were shown to be in particularly gratifying condition. After the close of regular business, election of officers was taken up, resulting as follows: Worshipful Master, D. J. LaGrone; Senior Warden, J. S. Byrd; Junior Warden, W. W. Fuller; Treasurer, T. A. Hightower; Secretary, J. G. Alford. Also the following appointive officers were named; Senior Deacon; Junior Deacon, J. W. Stewart; Stewards, B. Cantelou and T. D. Barker; Tiler, J. W. Reese. Mr. Reese has been tiler since that time when the memory of man runneth not to the contrary. All these officers were duly installed by Past Master W. A. Collett, upon which the meeting and the Masonic year passed into history.

Eat, Drink and Be Happy!

Eat Huggins' Groceries.
Drink Huggins' No. 8 Coffee.
No. 8 Coffee, "our city's best drink," 40c.
Country Dried Apples, a lb. 15c.
Evaporated Peaches, a lb. 20c.
Apple Butter, a lb. 25c.
MRS. DUKE'S MAYONNAISE . . . 35c.
MRS. DUKE'S RELISH 35c.
CRISCO, "best for cake making" . . 25c.
Lunch Tongue, a can 20c.
Pum Pudding, a lb. 45c.
Fruit Cake, each $1.85

Come to

HUGGINS' STORE

AT THE DEPOT

For "SOPHIE MAE" Candies.
Fine for Xmas.

BUCKLEN'S IS THE ONLY GENUINE ARNICA SALVE