The Village is very healthy, and there is not, at present a grog shop or place where ardent spirits can be obtained in it. Boarding can be obtained as cheap as at other places in private families. The rates of tuition are the same as those in Academies throughout the State. The Academy building is at present undergoing thorough repairs. The surrounding country will find here advantages which will at least equal those of other places, and to our District are held out such inducements as we believe will obviate the necessity of sending our young men and boys abroad.
