Passed Over the River.

Mrs. Ann, wife of Pickens Kyzer, died at home near St. Peter's church last Saturday, June 2nd, 1894, after a long and painful illness, in her 47th year of age. Her remains were interred in the cemetery at St. John's last Sunday. She was a good woman, and will be greatly missed by a large circle of relatives and friends.

A Popular Merchant.

We call your attention to the advertisement of W. T. Martin, who by selling goods at the very lowest prices, has become one of the most popular merchants in Columbia. Merchants wishing to buy goods, and farmers and others wishing best goods at pleasing prices, should never buy before seeing him.

Settled in Fall.

The Richmond and Danville Railroad authorities have settled in full all taxes, penalties and costs, with the Treasurer of this county, thus ends one of the most hard fought legal contests that has ever come off in this State. The amount due this county was $6,921.63, divided as follows:

State tax.....$3,420.73
County tax.....1,861.31
County Special.....206.93
School tax.....1,240.56
Columbia, Newberry and Laurens Railroad for retiring bonds, &c., paid road $1,172.10

Superior to All Others.

GERENTO, Miss, May 6th, 1892. Although I never used any secret remedies before, I prescribe St. Joseph's Sarsaparilla in my practice as I would any prescription of my own compounding, and any physician who will do the same will be greatly pleased at the result achieved. In my opinion it is superior to all others and has been especially useful to me in Rheumatic and Scrofulous cases.

R. M. KITTELL, M. D.

A Worthy Cause.

The Methodist of the Lewiedale charge are making an effort for the erection of a comfortable parsonage in the town of Lewiedale for the preacher in charge. This effort should meet with the hearty support and encouragement of every charitable disposed person in the Circuit, and should receive large contributions.

Rev. Mr. Phillips, who is in charge of the Circuit, is an excellent Christian gentleman, an earnest preacher and a laborious pastor, and has done much to advance the cause of his Master, and improve the spiritual condition of his charge in his field of labor.

Prompt Settlement.

On the 25th of April fire destroyed two stores, a hotel and a dwelling the first three were insured in the London, Liverpool and Globe and the latter in the Home of New York, both of which is represented at this place by Mr. C. S. Bradford. The adjusters of the companies came on as soon as possible after they were notified of their losses, adjusted matters to the satisfaction of all parties interested, and last week the London, Liverpool and Globe, by cheque, paid its losses through Mr. Bradford, its agent, as follows: J. E. Kaufmann, Executor, on hotel, $1,000; on store house, $750—total, $1,750. G. M. Harman, store, $500; stock, $50; printing office, $300—total $1,500.

We take great pleasure in recommending this company to those who are seeking a safe and sound policy for reliability and promptness.

The Jews, in whose store the fire originated, have not received their money yet, on account of being absent the day the adjusters came.

When you come to court don't forget to bring your dues for the Dispatch. We need it in rebuilding our office.

If you want bargains in shirts, collars, cuffs, neckties, hose, half hose, and cheap pants, see W. E. & A. F. Harman on the corner below the court house.

Any one having files or portions of a file of the Dispatch of any year from its birth up to the present time, will here something to their interest by communicating with this office.

The infant child of Mr. P. W. Riley near Lewiedale, died last Wednesday, with dysentery. The bereaved parents have our deepest sympathies.

Prescriptions carefully compounded at Kaufmann's drug store.

Dr. J. W. Geiger was in town Friday, and made us a pleasant call. He is an excellent physician and enjoys a large practice, and as a clever gentleman we have him.

Arrangements for the Episcopal entertainment is progressing finely and it promises to be larger in scope and variety than we at first anticipated.

We return thanks to the faculty and graduating class of Oak Cliff, (Dallas, Texas), College for an invitation to attend the exercises of Commencement, June 3rd to the 7th.

All matter intended for publication in these columns must reach this office no later than Mondays to ensure appearance in the current issue of the Dispatch, otherwise it will remain over for the succeeding issue.

Monday was salesday, but as there were no public sales, and nothing of an interesting nature to call the people from their homes and work, the crowd in town was notable only for its slowness.

Mark's restaurant is always supplied with the best market affords, and at reasonable prices. Court you will find the restaurant in full blast. Call and enjoy a good meal.

We acknowledge with pleasure a visit from Col. C. P. Quattlebaum, a leading member of the Conway Bar, 1st Tuesday. The Colonel was here on legal business connected with the estate of his father, the late Gen. Paul Quattlebaum.

Mr. W. A. Reckling, Columbia's excellent artist, will be at Batesburg, June 7th and 8th, and at Leesville on the 9th at the college. Those who may want pictures will take advantage of this splendid opportunity.

From the noise and oaths heard on our streets Saturday and Sunday nights, one would suppose that the days of the open bars had returned to South Carolina, or that the blind tiger had opened its claws and was showing its teeth.

New stock of drugs and medicines, at Kaufmann's drug store.

A-ky Lexington man who has the choicest family groceries and the best chewing and smoking tobacco can be found in Columbia, for the least money, and will be unhesitatingly reply, why, at S. N. Hendrix's course. Give him a trial and be convinced.

A full line of medicine, manufactured expressly for our sick, by some of the best druggists of Philadelphia and Baltimore, with all standard and popular patent medicines, can now be found at the Bazaar.

A strong Lodge of Good Templars has been organized at Swansee. It is composed of good working material and its membership comprises some of the best substantial and most citizens of that section. We expect to have a good record of them in the cause for which they are organized.

Capt. George Sawyer, who resides on the suburbs of town, has one of as pretty little farms as can be found in this county. His corn is undoubtedly the finest we have seen between this place and Columbia. The Captain is an excellent farmer and what he does not know about farm work is not worth knowing.

Administrators or Executors applying for Citation Notices or Final Discharges will remember before leaving home to bring the printer's fee, and thereby save to the estates they represent 50 cents in each case. When they are charged on our books we charge regular rates, but when paid cash down we deduct 50 cents from the $3.00. Remember this please.

Fresh candies of all kinds, cakes and crackers, fruits, etc., will be found at the Bazaar, below the court house.

Sam Hammet, a white tramp, having been in jail at this place to answer at the next term of the court to the charge of grand larceny. It is alleged that he entered the dwelling of Mr. Ambrose Wingard, who resides in the Fork, on the night of the 29th ult., and broke open a trunk taking therefrom money and goods to the value of $50.

Thomas J. Eitzinger, of Columbia, and Miss Hattie I., daughter of Mack Suber, were married at Bethel A. M. C., at this place, last Wednesday evening, by Rev. Walls. Both of the contracting parties occupy high social positions in fashionable society, and are much esteemed by their white friends. We wish them a pleasant voyage down the river of life.

No temperance beverage has ever enjoyed nearly approached Hires' Rootbeer in popularity. Its wonderful success can be accounted for only on the ground that it is just what the manufacturers claim—an honest extract of nature's most healthful roots, which slakes thirst, improves health, and pleases every member of the family. Its remarkable sale certainly proves that millions enjoy Hires' Rootbeer.

Around her waist I put my arms— It felt as soft as cake. "Oh, dear," says she, "what liberty you printer men do take!" "Why, yes, my Sal, my charming gal, (I squeezed her some, I guess,) Can you say naught, my chick, against The freedom of the press?"

I kissed her some; I did, by gum— She colored like a beet. Upon my living soul, she looked Almost too good to eat! I gave her another buss, and then Says she, "I do confess I rather sorter kinder like The freedom of the press."

A Household Treasure.

D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best results follow its use; that he would not be without it, if procurable. G. A. Dykeman Druggist, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best Cough remedy; that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long tried and tested. Trial bottles free at the Bazaar.

Two Distinguished Lexingtonians.

Prof. P. T. Brodie, a native of this county and for several years Principal of the Lexington Graded school of this place, but now Superintendent of the Spartanburg city schools has been appointed by State Superintendent of Education, Mayfield to take charge of the Department of Mathematics, in the Spartanburg Summer School for Teachers.

Prof. Brodie is a specialist in the department of Mathematics, and will present the subject of algebra and arithmetic from the teachers' standpoint in a most helpful light. Lexington feels proud of her gifted son, and will watch his progress in carrying out a name for himself with peculiar interest and pleasure.

Miss Virginia Brodie, who recently graduated from Cooper Union Art school, New York, with distinguished honors, and who furnishes the strongest evidence of skill as an artist and rare ability as a teacher, has received the appointment as teacher of drawing in the same school.

The County Prohibition Meeting.

Pursuant to call of Prof. L. B. Haynes the county prohibitionist met in the court house at Lexington, June 2nd, for the purpose of electing delegates to the State prohibition convention to be held in Columbia, June 7th, inst. In the absence of Prof. Haynes, the meeting was called to order by Capt. West, of Leesville and Rev. G. Edwin Stokes vs. elected Chairman with J. J. Fox, Secretary.

The Chair stated the object of the meeting. Upon motion the Chair appointed a committee consisting of J. E. Hendrix, Capt. West and—Smith to nominate a permanent County Chairman and Secretary. Prof. L. B. Haynes was elected County Chairman and J. J. Fox Secretary.

Prof. L. B. Haynes, D. J. Krotts, Dr. E. C. Ridgell, J. B. Shealy, Geo. Sawyer and C. H. Livingstone were elected delegates to represent Lexington in the State Convention, and Capt. West, Dr. J. L. Johnston, J. C. Glover, S. L. Smith, W. E. Harman and J. West Harman, alternates.

Upon motion the platform formulated by the Leesville Prohibition meeting was read as information, but it was thought best to leave the question of a platform to the action of the State Convention.

It was moved that it is the sense of this meeting that a State ticket should be nominated by the State Convention, after a spirited discussion pro and con the motion was lost. After instructing the Secretary to furnish the proceedings of the meeting to the Dispatch for publication, the meeting adjourned.

J. J. Fox, Secretary.

A DIABOLICAL PLOT.

Four Brutal Candidates for a Hanging

On Sunday, May 27th, the wife of a well known Lutheran minister of Boiling Springs township, went to visit her mother, who resides some miles from her home. It was in the evening when she returned. Knowing that it would be late before she arrived at her home her uncle decided to accompany her. In so doing a heinous crime was prevented. Before the lady and her escort reached her home they found that the road had been barricaded by trees, stumps and other things. An investigation revealed that a number of barefooted boys had built the barricade. Further investigation led to some startling revelations. These revelations exposed a plot which had been formed to intercept the lady on her return to her home and to criminally assault her. In pushing the investigation it was learned that sometime previous to this a plot had been formed by the same parties to commit the assault upon the lady but from some cause the plot was frustrated.

Two negro boys were arrested on suspicion, but in giving such a plausible tale of their whereabouts they were released. George Taylor another negro boy was also suspect of being implicated in the plot, and had left the section and gone to Columbia.

The police authorities of Columbia had been notified to keep a look out for him and on Wednesday he was arrested and brought to this place, and lodged in jail, where he now is. Since the incarceration of Taylor it has been learned that the two boys first arrested, and a negro woman who had an ill-will towards the lady on account of a difficulty about some washing, were concerned in the attempted outrage.

The probability is that all the parties will be arrested as parties are looking it up.

Mrs. Young at Lexington.

Mrs. M. A. Corley, in Woman's Journal, LEXINGTON, S. C., May 11, 1894. Our little town was highly honored yesterday by the smiling presence of one of South Carolina's distinguished daughters, Mrs. Virginia D. Young, of Fairfax. In the evening the court room was illuminated and brightened by flowers, for her reception, and an intelligent audience assembled to hear what she had to say in behalf of equal suffrage for women.

Srs. was conducted to the stand by Mrs. M. Y. Harth, president of our organization, and Rev. J. G. Graichen, Lutheran pastor, whose cordial introduction lent inspiration to her earnest soul, and, as she gracefully arose to her feet, she was greeted by rounds of applause.

She held the attention of her audience for nearly an hour, and her happy blending of argument, query, repartee and humor was well calculated to please and interest. So enthusiastic was the cheering that Rev. Mr. Graichen felt called upon to tone it down a little, lest in prove embarrassing to the speaker. She referred to the patriotism of our ancestors in battling against "taxation without representation," and showed how its practice at this day is oppressive to women. She said there were 75,000 intelligent women in South Carolina, who, if armed with the ballot, would be a power for good in the emancipation of woman, and, through her, of humanity. Woman suffrage with an educational qualification would be the best means of maintaining white supremacy in the State, thus of a vindicating the necessity of "repeating" and "ballot box stuffing." The applause that followed, though a humiliating admission of the corrupt condition of politics, seemed a good omen, as it showed that the public conscience is still alive and ready for reform.

Mrs. Young claimed that "mothers ought by all means to have the privilege of saying who should teach and influence the plastic minds of their children, and to know that they were sober and moral. No one need be more less gentle or womanly by voting, for a vote was simply an opinion expressed on a piece of paper, and women did have opinions, and expressed them, too. The greatest opposition did not come from men of wisdom and experience, but from young men, and she wondered why. To me the reason is obvious. With such leaders as 'Egk' of the Ladies Home Journal, it really seems "a big thing" to ridicule women, and say, as one of them did to her, "Girls can't vote. They haven't got sense enough." She thought girls were just as bright as boys, but admitted that, after the age of about ten years, they labored under much greater disadvantages, and she thought girls should have an equal chance with boys for development and education, and be as free from health-destroying environments and restrictions of fashion and dress. There was no danger that enlarged opportunities for women would endanger the domestic circle. Mrs. Young referred to her happy home, where she took good care that the domestic machinery should run smoothly till her return. The babies need not suffer, for the mothers could take them to the polls as they did when they went to church.

At the close of her address, Mrs. Young was literally loaded with lovely bouquets of choice flowers, whose fragrance will doubtless linger with her in sweet token of the cordial reception tendered her by the historic town of Lexington.

May her winning, womanly ways, her sunny smiles and affectionate tones of tongue and pen prove a talisman to charm away the remnants of prejudice and opposition to this great movement! In the language of another, "All honor to her who lays aside her natural shrinking from publicity and comes forward in such a crisis as this, to combat the present elements of disorder, discontent, and even dishonor that are insidiously creeping into our once free and glorious republic!"
