LET THEM GO.

We frankly acknowledge that we are not in the counsels of the Bolters of the State. Many reasons could be advanced to account for this were it necessary, but to be brief, we could not if we would and would not if we could, and hence we know and care no hing about them. It is sufficient for us to know that they have left the party for the party's good.

We cannot conceive of any circumstance, under the state of affairs which surrounds the white people of the State, that would induce us to endanger white supremacy in the smallest degree, by countenancing any Independent movement tending to a division of the Democratic party. We have been trained in such a severe school of politics under the instructions of some of the very men who are now advocating so lustilv for a bolt, that we regard fealty to party organization as the highest duty of the citizen.

The dangers of negro domination are entirely too grave for the white men to consent at this time to make it possible for the restoration of such a government that disgraced the civilization of the Anglo-Saxon during the dark days of reconstruction. It is manly to make our fight before the | Tha's just what's he matter. people in the primary; it is unmanly, to say the least of it, to carry our fight, should our choice of the candidates be defeated, beyond the result of such election. Let us differ as much as we please upon policies, measures and men and work as hard for the success of what we conceive to be for the best interest of the whole people up to the very last moment of the day of the primary and across the ballot box let us clasp hands and pledge ourselves to heal all differences of opinion and accept the situation as shown by the result, whether it be for or against us.

We cannot, we do not and we will | mending the commutation.

nothing at all about the prospective or contemplated bolt, but if the with drawal of a few malcontents will bring peace, we say, let them with draw, and form a little association of their own where they can forever afterward cease to annoy the people."

Judge B. C. Pressley, quietly passed from earth to heaven at his home in Summerville, September 5th, having reached the ripe old age of 80 years, which were full of honor. He was one man, prominent in public life in this State of tongue that the slander and calumny found nothing in his going ins and coming outs to feed up, and in the presence of whose name they were silen'. The just Judge, the upright man and the Christian gentleman has passed away and the State mourns his departure with sorrow and regret.

The Fairfiled Independents have nominated a full county ticket to be voted for in the November election. If there is one redeeming feature about this Independent movement, which is very doubtful, it is that the Bolters in Fairfield have asked the support of only white men, and has given the negro to understand that his vote was not desired nor even wanted.

Gen. Butler, in his remarkable outburst of ill temper and vindictiveness contained a in letter of his published in a recent issue of the News and Courier, among other things, says this "State is governed by a ring." Yes, General; by a ring of white people about 80,000 strong.

A fitting headline for the News and Courier, for all news eminating from that paper of a political nature is, the "Rule of the Ring." How beautifully appropriate when we remember the influence exerted by that paper before Tillman removed the shackles from the necks of the people. Gov. Tillman has commuted the death sentence of Willie Carpenter, the young Edgefield murder, to life imprisonment in the penilentiary, Judge Norton and the jury recom-

DOTS FROM LOWER FORK.

To the Editor of the Dispatch: As I never see anything in our county paper about this community,

I will endeavor to give you a few dots.

This is one of the most prosperous portions of our county, is situated about six miles from Columbia, with the best of roads and, as a general thing, good health and water that cannot be beaten anywhere for its purity and refreshing coolness. It is only a small neighborhood with houses situated about a quarter of a mile a part and all it lacks of being a little town to be proud of is for the streets to be laid off, for we already have two stores, two saw mills and three gins. Crops is such a thing as to make any unselfish man's heart feel good to see. Fodder pulling is over, except the late fodder, and cotton picking is now the order of the day. Some of our industrious farmers have already sold as many as two or three bales

There has been some sickness in this community. Mrs. Joseph Huffman has been quite sick, but I am glad to say she was able to be at church Sunday.

Mrs. Eugene Nunamaker and Miss Mamie Leitzsey are still on the sick list, but I hope they will soon recover. Miss Nola Haltiwanger has been on a two week's visit to her old home. now the residence of Mr. W. W. Spence, and friends. It looked like old times to see her over here, and I would not be surprised if it did not remind some of our belles, or rather beaux, of the past. We regretted very much to see her leave. Come again, Miss Nola, we will be glad to see you.

I am sorry to say that Master Mayo Ogilvie, who accompanied Master Victor Haltiwanger after his sister, Miss Nola, was taken sick on Sunday morning and was not able to return at the appointed time. Little Mayo is quite an impressive little boy and I hope to hear that he has been restored to his usual health. Mrs. Polk Younginer, and her little is highly important that every one who belongs to the debtor and industrial class should know "where he is at," and exert himself to have every vote cast in the general election in November for the success of the Reformers in county, State and Congress. Respectfully, J. W. DREHER.

Although I never used any secret remedies before, I prescribe St. Joseph's Sarsaparilla in my prac tice as I would any prescription of my own compounding, and any physician who will do the same will be greatly pleased at the result achieved. In my opinion it is superior to all others and has been ecpecially useful to me in Rheumatic and Scrofulous cases.

A Card.

Allow me through the columns of your highly appreciated paper to thank my many kind friends and voters of my county how much I appreciate the honor conferred upon me in the recent primary, by electing me one of their State Representatives from "Old Lexington county," and,

too, by giving me such a handsome majority over my opponents. I assure you, kind friends and voters, I will ever keep this very highly and complimentary honor nourished, and will be an incentive to me in the execution of the duties reposed in me. Now, as the position I asked of you was acquiesced by a goodly vote, in the same degree will I, despite all hazards, put forth and support all energies that will have a tendency to heighten the cause of Reform, both in my county and State, and it matters not from what source it may eminate. Most respectfully, your obedient servant,

not believe that any considerable number of white men will depart from the traditions, the training and the principles of the fathers to follow after this strange god which has arisen in our State and invites the homage and worship of our people at a sacrifice of principle, a violence to our natures and an injury to State the contemplation of the result of which is appalling and frightful in the extreme to every lover of a government of the people by the people for the people. We are conscious of the fact that there is a small element in the State who, by a long lease of power, imagine that they hold letters patent to all the offices in South Carolina by right of inheritance, and who have by their acts, if not in so many words, declared that "they would rather rule in hell than serve in heaven." But their day has passed and they are powerless to exert any perceptible influence upon the political destiny of our people. So numerous have been their kicks and so unreasonable their grumblings that the scales are beginning to drop from the eyes of the most conservative of their sympathizers. Here is what the Abbeville Press and Banner, a Conservative newspaper, has to say of them, four bottles she was entirely eured, and we will only add that the same feelings which this paper says exists in Abbeville prevails in this county:

According to our way of thinking there need be no fear or anxiety on the part of anybody-because of any action that Butler's friends or perhaps more correctly speaking-Tillman's enemies may take.

No movement which has not the sympathy of the great mass of the people can succeed.

No movement which is developed in secret with closed doors, is likely to fire the public heart.

But if such a thing were possible fifty-eight thousand people took part in the recent primary, and-even if they had not taken an oath to support the present nominees-they are in honor bound to abide the result.

With fifty eight thousand voters standing to the nominees, it will be

It is the duty of every Reformer to see that every person who favors white supremacy and the rule of the people goes to the polls in November and cast his ballot for the regular Democratic nominees.

Dr. Sampson Pope, or any other Bolter or Independent, stands about as much chance of being elected Governor of South Carolina next November as old Lucifer does of being elected a ruler in heaven.

Independentism must be snowed under so deeply in November that it will never again dare to lift its hideous head in South Carolina.

Today the State Supreme Court meets to pass upon the constitutionality of the dispensary law.
