Fine Northern apples, just received at the Bazaar.

We want a correspondent at every post office in the county.

New crop fine Northern Onions at the Bazaar.

The County Alliance meets next Saturday, the 6th inst.

Court adjourned last Saturday, after a two weeks sitting.

The fall session of the Brookland Academy commenced Monday.

The word "penknife" is one of the words found only once in the Bible.

Empty is the jail, the birds having been transferred to the penitentiary.

It is now in order to balance accounts, don't forget us when doing so.

Read our advertisements and find out where to buy your winter supplies.

Considerable cotton, everything considered, is daily being sold in this market.

Stella-Vite is Mother's Cordial, imparting strength and health to both mother and child.

We hear of no serious damage being done to crops by the recent storm in this county.

Does any body have to buy new school books for their children? If so, call at the Bazaar.

Many letters are received every day from ladies praising Stella-Vite, but we never publish such letters.

Several Columbia lawyers were in attendance upon the Court of Common Pleas last week.

The telephone line is becoming quite popular and is certainly a great convenience to our people.

Mrs. Patsy Hughes, of Howe, Texas, is visiting her father, Mr. B. I. Hayes, relatives and friends.

Some people are so vindictive that with one foot in the grave, they will kick the surrounding tombstones.

The military company, recently organized at this place has gone up Salt river to go into winter quarters.

Miss Oachs, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. G. Graichen, at this place left for her home last week.

Mr. Henry Corley has commenced the erection of his residence on his lot recently purchased near the factory.

What do you take medicine for? Because you are sick and want to get well, of course. Then remember, Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures.

Presiding Elder E. Tolard Hodges preached an excellent sermon in the Methodist church last Sunday evening.

When a merchant stops advertising the people somehow get the idea in their heads that his business is "going down."

Energy will do anything that can be done in this world, and no talents, no circumstances, no opportunities will make a man without it.

Temperance puts coal on the fire, flour in the barrel, vigor in the body, intelligence in the brain and spirit in the whole composition of man.

Wanted—Every merchant in town to plant a fall advertisement in the Dispatch, just to show the outside world that we have stores in the village.

The man who don't advertise, either nothing worth selling or is not anxious for your trade. He expects for you to blunder in his quiet place by accident and then he will get your trade.

A very common complaint among the people of the United States is Dyspepsia, and a very certain remedy for this disease is Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup. For sale at the Bazaar.

Rev. G. Edwin Stokes will address the students of the Palmetto Institute next Friday evening at half past three o'clock. The patrons and friends of the school are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. Napoleon Hicks and family, who recently left the Lexington Mill, and went to Columbia to accept similar positions with the mill at that place, became dissatisfied, and have returned to this place.

Mrs. Lucile S. Matterson, left last week for Atlanta, where she will remain for a short time visiting friends and relatives, previous to taking a course at the Peabody Normal Institute in Nashville, Tenn.

A cough which persists day after day, should not be neglected any longer. It means something more than a mere local irritation, and the sooner it is relieved the better. Take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It is prompt to act and sure to cure.

Do you want fine groceries, a soothing and delicious smoke, and a pleasant chew? If so, go to S. N. Hendrix, Columbia, where the best and cheapest lines of these goods can always be found in stock.

We call attention to the advertisement, "Your Wants Supplied", in another column. Read it, and if you need anything, write or call for it, and you can depend on getting just what you want at your door.

A large and beautiful line of dry goods, comprising the latest and most stylish patterns; also a complete line of ladies, men's and children's shoes, just received at W. P. Roof's.

Dr. J. Edwin Boozer of Columbia, and Miss Annie Graichen, of Winchester, Va., sister of the Rev. J. G. Graichen of this place, will be married today at the home of the bride. The Dispatch extends congratulations to the contracting parties.

MISTAKES
occur in all businesses, and we do not claim infallibility. But in our thorough and perfect system we have reduced them to a minimum. If we should make them, tell us so, and they will be rectified at our expense. This is satisfactory.

AUSTIA LUMBER CO.
Doors, Sash, Blinds, Lumber, &c.
"Buy of the Makers."
Augusta, Ga.

By a practically unanimous consent of the patrons of the Palmetto Institute, the hours for daily session of the school has been reduced from 4 to 2 o'clock. This arrangement will doubtless give universal satisfaction.

Mr. J. A. Lever, a handsome young man, of Chapin, S. C., is visiting Mr. J. A. Meyer, at Hattiesville, Barnwell county, S. C. We think he is very much stuck on some of the young ladies. He has been here a week.

"I would rather trust that medicine than any doctor I know of," says Mrs. Hattie Mason of Chilton, Carter Co., Mo., in speaking of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale at Julian E. Kaufmann's drug store.

Our heart is a little lighter and our pocket a little heavier, being made so by some of our subscribers walking up to the "Captain's desk" and planking down their dollar. Would that all of them would follow the good example.

Mr. David Fitzgerald, one of the best known, most conscientious and ablest pedagogues of the county, was in town Saturday on a brief visit. Mr. Fitzgerald is also a close and ardent student of the science of phrenology.

Judge Mitchell addressed an audience of refined and intelligent people at the Temperance Hall last Friday evening on the subject of temperance. Misses Mary Y. Caughman and Rosa M. Harman, also recited excellent selections on the same occasion.

Lexington county is represented in the South Carolina College this season by the following young gentlemen, the first named is on his second year. Wilford Brooker, Samuel J. Leaphart, Frank J. Kuecne, Daniel W. Kinsler, and James Drafts.

The following named persons served as constables at the term of court which was just closed: T. S. Harman, Pick Harman, Killian Harman, John W. Lee, Ellis Sharpe, Otto Hegman, West Kleckley, James Dooley, C. H. Drafts, and Flemming Moten.

If your child is puny, fretful, troubled with glandular swellings, inflamed eyes, or sores on the head, face, or body, a course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla is needed to expel the scrofulous humors from the blood. The sooner you begin to give this medicine the better.

An Old Lexington Family.
The readers of the Dispatch will be interested in the following account of one of the daughters of Rev. John Rauch, who lived two miles from town on the Wyes' Ferry road from Lexington. Mr. Rauch was for many years a director of the classical and theological seminary. Many of the young men boarded with him, and he was of much service to them, as he seemed to know the whole Latin course by heart. He was a most genial and excellent man, and the State of South Carolina lost much when he was removed to Mississippi. He entered the Lutheran ministry in his old day, and did good services for the church.

"Senator McLaurin of Mississippi has a family of which he may well be proud. Mrs. McLaurin was Miss Laura Rauch, born at Lexington, S. C., but brought up in Mississippi. Her father, of German descent, was one of the finest classical scholars of the State. Mr. and Mrs. McLaurin fell in love when they were children at school together. She was married when she was not quite 20 and he two or three years past, and they have remained devoted lovers ever since.

Mrs. McLaurin looks very youthful to the mother of eight children. She is fair, with blue eyes, abundant silky light brown hair, and has a slender figure of medium height. Her manner is pleasant and winning. There eight children—seven daughters and one son, Anselm J. Jr., a bright and clever lad of 11, wonderfully unspoiled considering how many sisters he has to pet him.

The three eldest daughters—Stella, Delta and Daisy—have graduated with high honors and are accomplished beyond the average well educated girl. They are all pretty, with beautiful complexions and fine figures. Stella, who became last April the bride of Dr. Berry of Jackson, Miss., was considered one of the most perfectly beautiful girls in the south as well as one of the most talented.

Delta, Upsilon, the second, has diplomas in four languages besides her own, is well read in ancient and modern literature, takes a deep interest in the leading questions of the day and talks well about them, but is rather reserved. She is a graceful and fearless horse-woman too.

Daisy Ellen made her debut last winter and became a belle at once. She is somewhat taller than her sisters, with a beautiful, erect figure and fine carriage. Her complexion is exquisite, her expression bright and animated, and there are pretty dimples in her cheeks. She sings and plays well and recites finely.

The other girls are Mary, Irene, Grace and Jean, schoolgirls yet, and Laura, the baby, a blond fairy 5 years old.

The Discovery Saved His Life.
Mr. G. Callouette, Druggist, Beaversville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at the Bazaar.

Peculiar to Itself.
Hood's Sarsaparilla is peculiar to itself, in a strictly medicinal sense, in three important particulars, viz: first, in the combination of remedial agents used; second, in the proportion in which they are mixed; third, in the process by which the active curative properties of the preparation are secured. These three important points make Hood's Sarsaparilla peculiar in its medicinal merit, as it accomplishes cures hitherto unknown.

But it is not what we say but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does, that tells the story. What Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for others is reason for confidence that it is the medicine for you.

Has Served the Burning Problem.
Kinsard, Columbia's clothier, has satisfactorily solved the burning problem of the latter days of the Nineteenth Century. His goods are always first class in every particular, of the last and most popular style. He keeps nothing shoddy so in purchasing from him, bargains will always be obtained.

Cure for Headache.
As a remedy for all forms of Headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and a firm nose long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Large bottles only fifty cents at the Bazaar.

And the Jury Wept.
It is said that the argument of W. H. Sharpe before the jury in the Harsey murder case, was an able and eloquent presentation of his cause, showing a thoughtful and careful preparation by the defense. At times his eloquence and pathos were so stirring as to bring tears to the eyes of the jury. Mr. Sharpe received the congratulations of his numerous friends for his able management of the defense, and many predict a bright and prosperous future for him in his chosen profession.

A Peculiarly Sad Death.
A young man named Samuel Williams, who ran away from his parents in Philadelphia, was killed at Gaston while attempting to board the fast freight train on the South-bound railroad last Wednesday night. It is said that he died praying that he might live to kiss his father goodbye. His death was tragic and pathetic.

Notice, Sub-Alliances.
The next quarterly meeting of the County Alliance will be held in the court house Saturday, October 6th, 1894.

YOUR WANTS SUPPLIED
Write for what you want. Every house should be supplied for emergencies in sudden sickness or accidents, which are liable to happen at any time, by keeping on hand a supply of medicines prepared and put up especially for home use in cases not requiring the attention of the family physician. To meet such demands the Dispatch collector, who will make frequent visits to all sections of the county, will carry with him proprietary and family medicines, colognes, sweet soaps, etc., while making his trips through the county. Look out for him, or drop a note or postal stating what you want, and it will be brought or sent to you at shortest possible notice and at lowest prices. All transactions guaranteed.
