"Turn the rascals out"—the familiar party-cry may be applied to microbes as well as to men. The germs of disease that lurk in the blood are "turned out" by Ayer's Sarsaparilla as effectually as the old postmasters are displaced by a new administration.

A kiss is cupid's starting point.
A poor excuse is worse than none.
Law governs man, and reason the law.
Necessity is the mother of prevention.

Temptation will sit up with a man all night.
This issue closes volume 24 of the Dispatch.

We are doing excellent Job Work at low prices.
If you owe the Dispatch any money call and settle up.
A million dollars clarifies the matrimonial atmosphere.

Compliments are healthful when taken in moderation.
Most women think it romantic for men to deceive them.
It makes a man feel kinder lonesome to be too honest.

Beauty of mind is far nobler than symmetry of form or face.
It is easy to forgive your enemies if they are stronger than you.

Children are beginning to talk of the annual visit of Santa Claus.
Our characters are our own: our reputations are other people's.

The average gross sales of the dispensary at this place is $10 per day.
The President has appointed November 29th as a day of thanksgiving.

The free term of the Palmetto Institute will begin Monday, November 26th.

Mrs. Mercer Brown died at her home in Columbia, Friday, after a lingering illness.

As a rule the man who takes his own time does not hesitate to take the time of others.

It is estimated that on every bale of cotton a man sells at the present price, he loses $1.75.

The collections of the County Treasurer have been better than for the same time last year.

The functional disturbances and all irregularities that women suffer from are cured by Stella-Vite.

The Hilton rifles will assemble at Hilton on Saturday the 17th, at 2 o'clock p. m., by order of the Captain.

The young folks of the village enjoyed a pleasant sociable at the residence of Mr. A. Mark's Friday evening.

Mr. T. P. Meetez has had his flower garden beautifully laid off, and planted to flowers, shrubs and evergreens.

Thousands of new patrons have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla this season and realized its benefit in blood purified and strength restored.

We regret to learn that Col. A. Mims received a stroke of paralysis recently, from the effects of which he is now in a precarious condition.

The new Lutheran pastorate comprising the churches of Spring Hill, Hill and Waite Rock has built an elegant parsonage at White Rock.

Mr. James Fields is traveling the country in the interest of Dispatch. Our subscribers must be prepared with their dues as we must have money.

W. A. McGuire, a well known citizen of McKay, Ohio, is of the opinion that there is nothing as good for children troubled with colds or croup as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He has used it in his family for several years with the best results and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. After having a gripe he was himself troubled with a severe cough. He used other remedies without benefit and then concluded to try the children's medicine and to his delight it soon effected a permanent cure. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale at Julian E. Kaufmann's drug store.

The Abbeville Medium says that there is a merchant in that town so slow with his delivery that when a lady orders eggs the boy brings chickens.

All the front piazzas are lonesome now, the cold weather having compelled the beautiful flowers to see a more comfortable place around the fire places.

Pains low down in the back and side of women are removed and cured by Stella-Vite. For sale at the Bazaar.

A lady of our acquaintance, who seems to have had much experience in such matters, requests us to advise all love sick couples to write their love letters on slates.

Your name will be printed on 100 good envelopes at the Dispatch office for 50 cents. Bill, letter and note heads proportionally cheap. Every person should use printed envelopes.

A Lodge of the order of the Knights of Pythias was organized at Brookland, Friday night by District Deputy Grand Chancellor, J. C. C. Levy and Grand Chancellor, Edmund Bacon.

For a pain in the side or chest there is nothing so good as a piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on over the seat of pain. It affords prompt relief and if used in time will often prevent a cold from resulting in pneumonia.

This same treatment is a sure cure for lame back. For sale at Julian E. Kaufmann's drug store.

Charleston Gala Week commences on the 19th inst. The railroad fare from Columbia to Charleston will be one first class fare for the round trip. We hear of several persons from this place who will attend.

Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup will at once remove all the impurities from the Blood, which has caused those annoying pimples and blotches to appear upon the face.

Our young friend, S. P. Taylor, of Platt Springs, is now with T. A. McCreery & Co., Columbia, and persons who want to be treated fairly and get their money's worth every time should call at this store and ask for him.

S. N. Hendrix, Columbia, keeps the best and freshest stock of canned goods, fancy groceries, cigars and at the lowest prices. Parties wanting goods in his line may go farther and fare worse if they fail to call on him.

The delves of Sir Isaac Walton and Nimrod delight in fine and effective fishing tackle, and first class guns and ammunition. F. W. Husemann, keeps a large and well selected stock of these goods, together with pistols, shells, cartridges and everything needed by the sportsman, all of which he sells as low as the lowest. He also does repair work in the best manner at moderate charges.

Besides the largest and cheapest style and made in the most durable manner? Certainly, you do then go to Kinard's, the famous clothier, and tell him, or one of his polite, attentive and accommodating salesmen that you have been reading of the bargains offered by him in the Dispatch, and you will fitted out from the handsomest and latest shaped headgear, down to the most stylish and neatest fitting shoe at rock bottom prices.

The McCreery Improved Racket Store, ever on the look out for useful ornamental and substantial bargains in the Northern market, has recently laid in a tremendous stock of just such goods as our people need every day and to induce visitors and other to the State Fair to call and see the bargains offered at this store everything in the shape of dress goods, clothing, shoes, &c., are marked down to exceedingly low prices. They want your money and you want their goods, and if extraordinary inducements will complete the trade go their and mention the Dispatch.

There is one place in the city that our people can rely upon to always meet with fair and honorable dealing and that place is C. F. Jackson, the Post Office Block dry goods store. At this store bargains can always be had, but during Fair week a point will be stretched to accommodate all buyers who will favor him with a call.

The Hub is hustling and at each revolution bargains are being dealt out to anxious customers who daily throng this emporium of fashion in dry goods, cloaks, wraps, jackets, clothing, hosiery and underwear. Besides marking goods down to the lowest notch, the Hub offers to pay the railroad fare of every purchaser of a certain amount of goods.

For the latest novelties in trimmed and untrimmed hats at low prices, ladies cloaks and capes of the latest styles, the largest stock of hosiery and underwear for ladies and children, big drives in handkerchiefs and ribbons, fine millinery, etc., go to N. W. Trump, and he will please you both as to quality and price.

The store of Philip Epstein, Trustee, is crowded from top to bottom with clothing, gent's furnishings neck wear, headgear, and everything usually found in a first class clothing establishment, which he is offering at his own figures. Mr. Epstein says that he permits no one to undersell him and the only favor he asks is the privilege of showing goods and naming prices, before you purchase elsewhere and the price and quality will do the rest.

The delves of Sir Isaac Walton and Nimrod delight in fine and effective fishing tackle, and first class guns and ammunition. F. W.
