

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder ABSOLUTELY PURE

The Lexington Dispatch WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1895.

Index to New Advertisements. Sheriff's Sales. Clerk's Sale. Governor's Proclamation. Mrs. H. C. Wyse—Notice to Trespassers. E. Sharpe—Notice to Trespassers. Plymouth Rock—$3 Pains.

What is Home Without a piano, or organ? If you desire either, write to M. A. Malone, Columbia, for special prices and terms.

A Spanish Jack, 13 hands high, for sale or will trade for a good mule, apply to G. B. BUCKLEY, Hilton, S. C.

$195 Up Will buy beautiful upright pianos from M. A. Malone, Columbia, S. C. Write him for particulars.

Court. Court is dragging its weary length along. No progress in the disposition of cases on the docket, that is, which will amount to anything.

The only case tried since last Wednesday was that of J. H. Lorick vs. Southbound R. R. Co. The verdict was in favor of the plaintiff for $235. The jury in the case of Lizzie B. Geiger vs. Southbound R. R. Co. was empaneled on Saturday last. They are still hearing this case, which possibly will be given to them this afternoon.

Fire Works. The joyous time for the small boy as well as the larger can now be satisfied at the Bazaar, with Fire Crackers from the smallest to the largest size and Fire Works of all kinds.

Masonic. Lexington Lodge, No. 152, will meet in extra communication next Saturday at 11 a. m. Installation of the newly elected officers and the de-vouring of an elegantly prepared luncheon, will be the program.

Burglars. My store was entered by burglars last night, December 17th, and goods taken to the amount of about $40 or more, viz: Ready made clothing, shoes, pocket knives, pistols, razors, under shirts, shirt collars, &c. Liberal reward will be paid for the arrest of the party or parties. F. W. OSWALT.

A Life Saved. Jamestown, Tenn., October 15, 1891. My daughter tried physicians and nearly all remedies for Female irregularities, but received no relief or benefit whatever. We had nearly despaired of her recovery when we were induced by our postmaster, Mr. A. A. Gooding, to try Gerstle's Female Panacea, and after using four bottles she was entirely cured, for which I feel it my duty to let it be known to the world and suffering humanity, for I believe she owes her life to the Panacea.

A. J. MACE, Sheriff of Egbert County, Tenn. For further information call at Julian E. Kauffman's drug store and get free, a pamphlet entitled, "Advice to Women and Other Useful Information." 6.

To the Public. My Holiday Box has arrived. If you want to make a nice Xmas present call and examine my line of Toilet Articles, Fine Perfumery and Drug-gists Fancy Goods. "Cosmetic" Toilet Articles are better than silver. If you want initials engraved, call in time. I do not mention prices here. To compare the goods with the price will satisfy anyone. J. E. KAUFFMAN, Druggist, Lexington, S. C.

Suffered Another Loss by Fire. Mr. S. J. Clark of Chapin, who a short while ago had the misfortune of having his barn, stables, four head of stock, all of his rough food and other property destroyed by fire, has met with a like misfortune in the destruction of his gin house, mill and machinery by fire. The fire is supposed to have originated from a hot box. The loss is heavy and complete, falling entirely upon Mr. Clark as there was no insurance on this property. The Columbia, Newberry and Laurens Railroad depot, which was burned, but was also consumed, and we are informed that its contents were saved. $35 Up Will buy an organ from M. A. Malone, Columbia, S. C.

A CARD.

I take this opportunity of expressing my regrets at having disappointed several parties at Lexington, Friday morning, Dec. 13th. Some very urgent business required my presence in Columbia Friday morning. I hoped to return on my bicycle by 10 or 11 o'clock, but was unavoidably detained. If those who could not wait or found it inconvenient to return Saturday, will write me if only a postal card, about a week before hand what day will suit them best. I think I can arrange to attend to their work during our next appointment, Jan. 14 to 18th, 1896.

Those who are well acquainted with the members of our firm know that we make every sacrifice in order to the convenience of our patients and we hope when those who were disappointed understand that the dis-appointment was not caused by any neglect or carelessness on our part, that they will pardon us.

Thanking the people of Lexington for their liberal patronage, and wishing them a merry Christmas and a happy New Year. I beg leave to remain, very respectfully, J. WILLIAM BOOZER.

Miss Adams' Entertainment.

Miss M. Jean Adams, teacher of Elocution in the Leesville College, gave an exhibition of her elocutionary talent at Palmetto Institute last Wednesday evening, before a small but attentive and appreciative audience. The program selected for the evening's entertainment was varied, interesting, instructive and amusing.

Miss Adams came to us with the highest recommendations of possessing elocutionary talents of a rare high order and she ably sustained them. Her personification of the characters which she assumed was wonderfully realistic; the rapid transition of manner from gave to gay was pleasing and amusing; her voice and gestures were under complete control and expressed the very idea sought to be conveyed by the emphatical words; her apostrophizing was cute and made her audience enter into the fullness and spirit of the thoughts of others. That on "Sam's Letter" was particularly fine and charming. No act was overdone save that, perhaps, of the too frequent use of the handkerchief in the "Burlesque Sermon."

We very much regret that more people were not present to hear Miss Adams, as they certainly missed a treat of rare literary merit. We hope that she will consent to repeat her entertainment at an early date and thus give our people another opportunity of hearing her.

Mrs. Elizabeth Roof Gone. Mrs. Elizabeth Roof, the venerable mother of Capt. S. M. Roof, peacefully ended her earthly pilgrimage and entered into that rest which remaineth to the people of God, on Friday, December 13th, 1895, at the advanced age of 92 years 11 months and 1 day.

Her husband, John Roof, preceded her to the spirit land thirty-four years ago. She was the mother of twelve children—six sons and three daughters survive her—sixty five grand children, fifty-three great grand children and two great great grand children.

Mrs. Roof was an estimable Christian lady, of a trait of character which endeared her to the affections of all with whom she came in contact. Beautifully she lived in the hope of a blessed immortality beyond the grave; her life was a lamp to the feet of others to light up the way to the foot of the Cross; her Godly precept and example impressed themselves upon the lives and character of those whose moral training were entrusted to her instruction by an all wise Providence, and by them transmitted to their children and from generation to generation until a race of God loving and successful business men and woman has been reared to bless the community in which they reside. Her death was a glorious triumph of the truthfulness of the doctrine she so meekly yet so beautifully adorned, and as the winged angel of immortal life bore her sainted spirit to her eternal home in that mansion not made with hands those who stood around her earthly tabernacle witnessed the triumphant departure of a noble mother in Israel.

Horse for Sale. A good farm or draft horse, 8 years old, for sale, apply to L. V. MACK, Lexington, S. C.

To close out and retire from business, a lot of English rabbits will be sold at 25 cents a piece. Enquire at the Bazaar.

PENCIL AND SCISSORS.

Wayside Notes Gathered Here and There by a Dispatch Man. The question of freeing Congaree Bridge bobs up serenely again. Reader, are you in arrears at this office? If so call and settle or send the amount due. Mr. Isaiah Taylor lost his infant child last Thursday from croup. Mr. D. E. Farr has been assisting Mr. Spann in the Clerks office for the past week.

There will be a Christmas service and Sunday school picnic at Providence church on Christmas day. All are invited to come and bring baskets. The composition on "School Companion," on the first page, should have been signed "Eb."

The Palmetto Institute will close for the Holiday, Tuesday December 24th, and reopen Monday, January 6th.

Everybody loves nice, fresh, candy, and at the Bazaar is the place to find it, from the purest plain candies to the best crystallized fruits. Come and see the display for Christmas.

We are glad to learn that the Baptist congregation have retained the Rev. Mr. Myers as its pastor for another year.

Hon. W. H. F. Rast, member of the House of Representatives from this county and leading merchant at Swansea, was in town Monday.

When you come to town don't forget to call and settle your subscription due the Dispatch.

GOOD FOR EVERYBODY

and everyone needs it at all times of the year. Malaria is always about, and the only preventive and relief is to keep the Liver active. You must keep the Liver active, and the best helper is the Old Friend, SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR, the RED Z. Mr. C. H. Hiram, of Lancaster, Ohio, says: "SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR broke a case of Malarial Fever of three years' standing for me, and less than one bottle did the business. I shall use it when in need, and recommend it." Be sure that you get it. Always look for the RED Z on the package. And don't forget the word REGULATOR. It is SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR, and there is only one, and every one who takes it is sure to be benefited. THE BENEFIT IS ALL IN THE REMEDY. Take it also for Biliousness and Sick Headache; both are caused by a sluggish Liver.

J. H. ZELIN & Co., Philadelphia.

The Plutonian which has heretofore prevailed on our streets, has been cleared away by the cheerful rays of the lighted street lamps.

Fruits, candies of all kinds, cakes and crackers will be found continually through the season, at the Bazaar.

Six of the men implicated in the Broxton Bridge horror have surrendered themselves to the Sheriff of Colleton county, and have retained able counsel.

People are suffering from an annoying epidemic in the nature of a cough. While painful and very disagreeable, the disease is not considered dangerous. Remedies at the Bazaar.

Old type metal, as good if not better and cheaper than Babbit metal suitable for mill men, for sale at the Dispatch office.

Farmers you need not take your cotton to any other market, bring it to Lexington, where Mr. W. P. Roof guarantees highest price. He can use and wants every bale raised in the county.

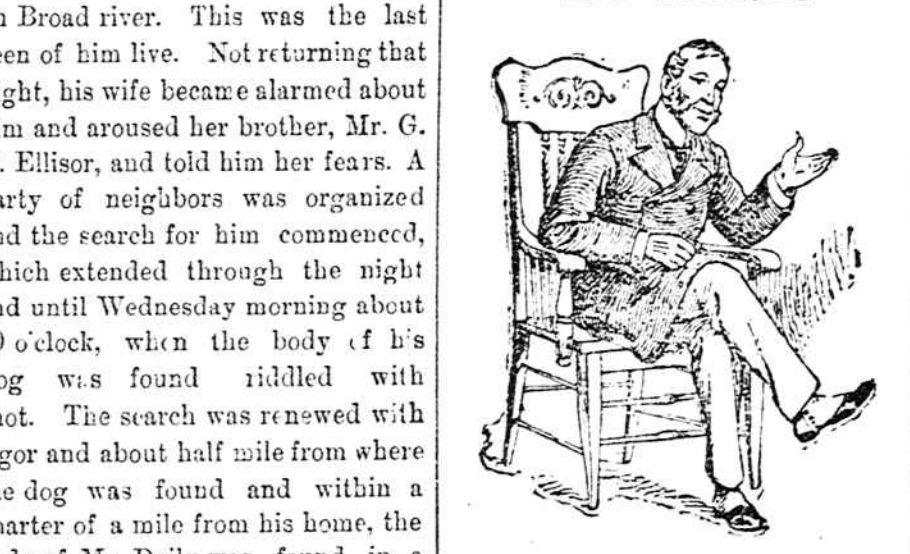

Don't forget, teachers, the meeting of the Teachers' Association next Saturday. The meeting will be in Palmetto Institute building and will begin promptly at half past 10 o'clock. Every friend of education whether a teacher or not is invited.

Fine Northern apples, bananas, cabbage and onions just received, at the Bazaar.

The ladies of the Methodist congregation are renovating the parsonage, previous to occupancy by Rev. Mr. DuBoise, the newly appointed pastor, who is expected to arrive in time to fill his appointment at this place next Sunday morning.

Dr. D. L. BOOZER & SONS, DENTAL SURGEONS, 1515 MAIN STREET, COLUMBIA, S. C.

OLD TIME PRICES NO MORE.

This is an era of progressiveness. Everybody must hustle to keep abreast of the times. Old time prices is a thing of the past; realizing this stubborn fact, I have determined to break the record and sell out my mammoth stock of HOUSEHOLD GOODS at living prices. Come and get my prices and you will open your eyes with astonishment and wonder.

Here are some prices. Realizing that a thing of beauty is a joy forever, and that a BEAUTIFUL PICTURE will throw rays of sunshine into the gloomy homes, I have selected the grandest assortment ever brought to this city. Come and see my grand display. A fine representation of the "Grand Musee du Art."
