Barbecue at Amick's.

The 'cue at Amick's ferry on Fri day was largely attended from both sides of the river. Candidates, S. L. Smith, J. H. Counts, S. P Shum-Morgan made their bow, and spoke at more or less length. Several other candidates were on the ground but did not mount the platform.

The speakers were introduced by Prof. Lindler in a very pleasant way, and the speeches were well received, interspersed with questions and satisfactory answers.

The day was oppressively hot, but the dinner was fine and aside from the heat was a very enjoyable day.

Notice Candidates.

Candidates are requested to file their pledges with Hon. C. M. Efird, Chairman of the County Democratic Executive Committee, as required by the rules governing the primary election, as early as possible, so that there will be no delay in printing the tickets. The name of no candidate will be put on the ticket until the pledge is filed, and it may be, by waiting until the last moment, the names of some will be omitted, as votes for no candidate who does not comply with the requirments of the committee will be tabulated.

The Irmo Railroad Meeting.

There were about 60 voters present at the railroad meeting at Irmo last Saturday. Mr. Carrol Bookman was elected chairman and explained the object of the meeting. J. W. Dreher was elected Secretary. Hon. C. M. Efird addressed the meeting and explained the questions of law and Mr. M. D. Harman the railroad tax levy and amount claimed due on coupons.

It was decided to resist payment and the following committee appointed to confer with committees from the other townships. H, A. Lorick, Rev. N. S. Younginer, John R. Shuler, G. F. Litzsey and

John A. Dreher. These committees will meet for

The Priceville Barbecue.

If there are two things which the average Lexingtonian loves above others, those two things are a good barbecue dinner and a political meeting, and both of these treats were abundantly provided by the management of the barbecue at Priceville on Saturday, where a large crowd assembled in the beautiful grove in front of Franklin Keisler's store. Long before the hour for the speaking to begin the woods swarmed with candidates anxious to tell the "dear people" how much they loved them and how faithfully they would be served by their elevation to office. At 10 o'clock Mr. Pierce G. Taylor took the chair and announced that speaking was in order. He first introduced E. T. Rauch, candidate for Clerk of the Court. He said he felt qualified to fill the office and hoped he would get it. J. E. B. McCartha spoke next, saying that he wanted to collect the taxes and, if elected, would do his best to please the tax payers. Col. D. T. Barr then spoke, making reference to what he would try to do if elected to the House of Representatives. Maj. Koon closed with a speech of some length, giving a synopsis of several new bills that he thought ought to become laws for the good of the farmer, mechanic and laboring people, which seemed to take well with the audience.

The 'cue was "excelsior," and but for the heat the day was a very enjoyable one. The event of the day was the singing of Maj. Koon's song, which was published in the Dispatch on the 25th of March, "The farmer is the man that feeds them all," by J. H. Koon, Reuben Price, Killian Price and a few others. The audience was delighted with the words and music.

An Uns olicited Testimonial

From the Democrat, Atlanta, Texas

"Being constantly asked by many of my friends if Dr. William's Pink Pills for Pale People were doing me pert, J. H. Koon, J. W. Dreher, D. any good, I offer this unsolicited J. Griffith, Wm. J. It was misery to me to rise up in bed and my mind was clouded, in fact I was a physical wreck and I felt that my life was drawing to a close, and I must confess it was without regret on my part as my sufferings were almost unbearable.

> "Since I commenced to take Dr. Williams Pink Pills, at the solicitation of my wife, I have taken four boxes, and I feel like a new man. My appetite is good and I now retain what I eat, my limbs and joints are free of pain and I have gained ten pounds in weight. My life fee's renewed and while not yet entirely well, I feel so much better that I unhesitatingly assert that I believe Pink Pills for Pale People a good medicine for what they are recommended. Knowing that no medicine will save life under all circumstances or in all cases, yet I do honestly believe that they have prolonged mine, or at least, where all was dark and gloomy and full of suffering it has
