

Nervous

People often wonder why their nerves are so weak; why they get tired so easily; why they start at every slight sound...

Dyspepsia

The explanation is simple. It is found in that impure blood which is continually feeding the nerves upon, refuse instead of the elements of strength and vigor...

that 20,000,000 bottles of a medicine could not be sold unless it was good, honest, and did what was claimed for it.

Here are the facts about Dr. CLARK JOHNSON'S INDIAN BLOOD SYRUP

In 30 years 20,000,000 bottles have been sold to cure Blood Diseases, and it must be a CURE. All the sickness in this world is caused by bad blood; Weakness, Loss of appetite, Dyspepsia, Headaches, Constipation, Liver and Kidney troubles, Scrofula, Pimples, etc.

Attack the foundation of disease, cleanse the blood, bring it back to the splendid work intended to be done by it. There may be other ways, but the best is by using the tried and true remedy

Dr. Clark Johnson's INDIAN BLOOD SYRUP 50c. per bottle; all druggists.

To the Editor of the Dispatch.

It is exceedingly dry and warm. Rain is badly needed, still the open cotton can get along better without it.

But with that exception rain would benefit all else.

Business is still somewhat dull, but cotton is coming in now and will soon put a new face on things.

We regret to chronicle the death of Thomas Quattlebaum last Friday night. He was verily a father in Israel, a truly good man, perhaps without a fault or an enemy.

He died after a lingering illness of several weeks. After his funeral by Rev. John Lake, he was laid to rest in the family burying ground Saturday p. m.

A deplorable accident occurred at the Mitchell stockade Friday p. m. One of the guards, an exemplary young man, Andrew Corder, accidentally let his rifle slip while standing on a stump and it was discharged, the whole load of buckshot striking him in the abdomen. He fell and the convicts went to his assistance and started to the house with him, but he died in five minutes after the accident. He was buried at Bethlehem church, Saturday p. m. Funeral services by Rev. Evans Hall.

The protracted meeting at the Baptist church has been in progress for a week and still continues. Rev. Mr. Carr is doing a noble work and the fruits of his faithful ministry is the accession of many souls to the Kingdom.

Echoes from Sandy Run.

Sandy Run has been quite lively this summer having had a great many young lady visitors, hence a good many picnics, parties, etc.

Rev. Mr. Boulware has just closed a very good meeting at Beulah; the sermons were very interesting. He was assisted by Rev. Quick, who, by his earnest work and pleasant manners, has won a warm place in the hearts of the Sandy Run people.

The crops are very much damaged by the drought and recent rains, consequently most of the farmers are wearing long faces.

The handsome face of Mr. H. C. Rucker is seen among his many friends again. Welcome back, Hiedi!

Miss Corrie Fishburne, a very fascinating young lady from Columbia, has been visiting friends in this vicinity, returned home yesterday leaving some of the young men looking quite woe be gone.

Miss Hattie Kaigler, one of our fairest and most charming young ladies, has been enjoying a visit to her friends at Norths, but is again at home much to the delight of her many friends. I think one of our young men was quite unhappy while she was away.

Misses Isolette Raines and Dora Casson, two pretty and sweet young ladies, are visiting at the hospitable home of Mrs. J. A. Kaigler. These young ladies are receiving a great many social attentions, and we are glad to see their smiling faces once again.

We have had two fires recently—Mr. Beckham's still and Ebenezer church's—both thought to be the work of an incendiary.

What candidate from Leesville is running for two offices? It must be some-Bodie.

What two young men in the neighborhood like to sit on the back steps and the bannisters with their best girls? Guess who!

With best wishes for the Dispatch, Luna.
