Wanted. 25 bushels good Red Seed Rye. W. P. Roof.

Court of Common Pleas

After a session of three weeks the September term of Court adjourned last Friday. The dockets were relieved of much of their burden as a great many cases were disposed of. They not being of general public interest and on account of unusual pressure on our columns by advertisers this week, prevents us from naming them.

No Cure—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter nauseating tonics. Price, 50c

Lexington County Alliance No. 721.

The next regular meeting of Lexington County Alliance will be held with Pine Ridge Alliance, Oct 14th, 1898. A full delegation is desired, as business of importance will come before the Alliance.

D. F. Eford, Pres. Jas. B. Addy, Secy.

The Sore La Grippe Cure.

There is no use suffering from this dreadful malady, if you will only get the right remedy. You are having pain all through your body, your liver is out of order, have no appetite, no life or ambition, have a bad cold, in fact are completely used up. Electric Bitters is the only remedy that will give you prompt and sure relief. They act directly on your Liver, Stomach and Kidneys, tone up the whole system and make you feel like a new being. They are guaranteed to cure or price refunded. For sale at J. E. Kaufmann's drug Store, only 50 cents per bottle.

Home and Farm.

By special arrangements we offer the Home and Farm, the leading farm and home paper, published in Louisville, Ky., and the Dispatch for $1.25. Those of our subscribers who desire to subscribe for the Home and Farm, can do so by sending 25c in silver or stamps to this office.

Valuable to Women.

Especially valuable to women is Brown's Iron Bitters. Backache, vanishes, headache disappears, strength takes the place of weakness, and the glow of health readily comes to the pallid cheek when this wonderful remedy is taken. For sickly children or overworked men it has no equal. No home should be without this famous remedy. Brown's Iron Bitters is sold by all dealers.

Fair Work Mapped Out.

The Executive Committee of the Lexington County Fair Association met this day at the Secretary's office on the grounds of the Association. There were thirteen members present. Various matters pertaining to the welfare of the Association were discussed, after which the committee desired to make the following additions and alterations to the premium list, viz: Under Fourth Class add heavy draft, same premium as for light draft. Change premiums for mules, Nomers 414, 415 and 416 from one dollar, and 50 cents to two and one dollar respectively for first and second premiums. The President was instructed to arrange with the railroads for reduced rates for all those wishing to visit the fair by rail.

In the way of attractions and amusements during the fair, arrangements were made with Dr. Boyd of Kentucky to furnish a first class minstrel show, which will be given on the grounds of the Association.

In order that there might not be any misunderstanding, the Secretary was instructed to say that there will be no charge for entry of exhibits at the fair; also, while it is necessary to make entry before the 26th, the articles for exhibition need not necessarily be delivered until the morning of the 26th, (Wednesday). Entries can be made by mail as well as in person.

Music will be furnished every day of the fair, and the committee on entertainment have arranged for bicycle races, which will take place one day during the exhibition. Other amusements will be furnished, which will be mentioned in the program which will be published later. Hacks and carriages will meet visitors at the depot and convey them to the fair grounds at reasonable rates.

The subscribers to the stock of the Association are earnestly urged to pay for the same immediately.

PENCIL AND SCISSORS.

Wayide Notes Gathered Here and There by a Dispatch Man.

Cooler. Money is scarce. Read Clerk's sales. Pay your subscription. Come to the county fair. Patronize the Kammer Hotel. Business is dull and news scarce. Send an exhibit to the county fair. Baker's bread, cakes and crackers, at the Passar. Wanted—Copy of the Dispatch of August 10, 1898, at this office. Mrs. Malinda See is visiting her children in Richland.

A large amount of hay has been cured this year. The State suggests that a history of the dispensary be published. Love, like ice, is awfully slippery and soon thaws.

Charleston will have its Gala Week beginning October 24th. We are crowded with advertisements. Autumnal tints have not appeared in the forests yet.

Beauty is like a cooking stove—no good when the fuel gives out. The new fair building is rapidly nearing completion. A local weather prophet says we will surely have frost on the 14th.

Every schooler that goes over the bar might be termed a naval auxiliary. Leading a woman to the altar is usually a man's last act of leadership. Farmers are busy gathering their crops. Prepare your flower pits for the storage of plants and bulbs during the winter months.

The County Board of Commissioners will meet on October 17. See notice elsewhere. Mrs. A. K. LaMotte is in town stopping with her sister, Mrs. E. B. Roof.

No one has been able to explain why bald headed men have their hair cut oftener than other men. If you want fine family groceries and chewing tobacco, go to S. N. Hendrix, Columbia.

A woman's idea of a hopeless fool is a man who praises some other woman. Whenever you wish the best plain and fancy candies, always go to the Bazaar. Persons interested in the Estate of the late W. B. Seay will see an important notice in this issue.

The man who wears a wig always puts a false construction upon his own thoughts. We are glad to learn that Editor Hare of Our News Letter is recovering from a spell of fever.

By reference to an advertisement elsewhere it will be seen that bicycle races have been provided as an attraction at the County Fair.

There is a good opening for a live, progressive merchant who appreciates the value of printer's ink and is not afraid to use it liberally. Miss Ethel, the brilliant and accomplished young daughter of Prof. E. J. Dreher, of this place, has entered Winthrop.

Few men in this country are better or more favorable known to the drug and medicine trade than Mr. E. J. Schall, buyer in the proprietary medicine department of the Meyers Bros' Drug Co., St. Louis. He says: "My boy came home from school with his hand badly lacerated and bleeding, and suffering great pain. I dressed the wound and applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm, freely; all pain ceased, and in a remarkably short time, healed without leaving a scar. For wounds, sprains, swellings and rheumatism, I know of no medicine or prescription equal to it. I consider it a household necessity." Sold by J. E. Kaufmann.

A dispatch has been received at the war department from Gen. Brooks, at Ponce, saying that no deaths occurred on October 1st and 2d.

In nearly every section of the county fever has prevailed to an alarming extent. So far there has not been a single case of fever in Lexington that we have heard of.

To complete the work on the race track at the fair grounds requires one more day's work. All friends of the Association are earnestly requested to meet at the fair grounds next Saturday to complete the work.

"I can't see how any family live without Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says J. R. Adams, a well known druggist, of Geneva, Ala., in a letter inquiring the price of a dozen bottles, that he might not only have it for use in his own family, but supply it to his neighbors. The reason some people get along without it, is because they do not know its value, and what a vast amount of suffering it will save. Wherever it becomes known and used it is recognized as a necessity, for it is the only remedy that can always be depended upon for bowel complaints, both for children and adults. For sale by J. E. Kaufmann.

Don't Neglect Your Liver. Liver troubles quickly result in serious complications, and the man who neglects his liver has little regard for health. A bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters taken now and then will keep the liver in perfect order. If the disease has developed, Brown's Iron Bitters will cure it permanently. Strength and vitality will always follow its use. Brown's Iron Bitters is sold by all dealers.

"PUBLIC OCCURRENCES" THAT ARE MAKING HISTORY

An important department in THE SATURDAY EVENING POST, a weekly magazine founded by Benjamin Franklin in 1728.

It will give the story of important current events the world over in a condensed form. It will explain and interpret; it will throw light on many puzzling questions, on the meaning and relations of events that come to the general reader. The newspapers do not usually tell the beginnings of national and international troubles—there are usually "missing links" in their story. These lapses the Post will fill out.

"SPIRITED REMARKS" A strong editorial page. There are not many of them in the country—clever, vigorous, striking editorials from an individual point of view. The best writers have been secured to write regularly for the Post editorial page, which will be made one of its strongest features.

SHORT STORIES AND SKETCHES Nearly one-half of each issue of the Post will be given to fiction. The stories will be selected wholly for their interest, variety and literary value, and not because of the name or fame of the author. Every story will be fully illustrated by the Post's artists.

The Saturday Evening Post as it is To-day

A good magazine is a good newspaper in a dress suit. It should have all the brightness, interest, enterprise and variety of the newspaper, with the dignity, refinement and poise of the magazine. The Saturday Evening Post, the oldest periodical in America, is a high-grade illustrated weekly magazine, equal in tone and character to the best of the monthlies.

IT WILL BE MAILED TO ANY ADDRESS ON TRIAL, FROM NOW TO JANUARY 1, 1899, ON RECEIPT OF ONLY TEN CENTS (THE REGULAR SUBSCRIPTION PRICE IS $2.50 PER YEAR)

THE CURTIS PUBLISHING COMPANY, PHILADELPHIA

The Place to Stop. Since the death of my husband I have assumed entire management of the Kammer Hotel, and I desire to inform the travelling public and visitors to the county fair that I am prepared to entertain guests with first class accommodations. Polite attention and the best service guaranteed. The table is supplied with the best the markets afford and the rooms are clean, large and well ventilated. My hack meets every train. The patronage of the public is respectfully solicited and will be gratefully appreciated. Mrs. J. P. Meetze.

The Love of Dress. What woman is it in this broad land of ours who does not wish to dress well and look well? Search anywhere and not one can be found who is not pleased when she receives at home or appears on the streets with the knowledge that she is becomingly attired in a stylish and fashionable gown and other paraphanelia which goes to make up a lady's who's toilet. This love of dress and finery seems to be second nature with the fair sex and instead of seeking to smother the taste for such things, they on the other hand cultivate and cherish it with a devotion surpassed only by their love for children.

Everything pertaining to dress is read by them with the greatest interest and the columns of the press are almost hourly consulted by them to see what merchant offers the prettiest and most stylish line of fancy weaves and the most beautiful patterns in dress goods at the greatest bargains.

Mimnaugh, Columbia's great merchant prince, recognizing this falling in the character of woman has made unusual efforts to fill his fashionable department stores with just the loveliest and most beautiful stocks of goods ever seen in the capital city of our State for the fall trade. Among the stock is just such articles as will appeal to the vanity and good judgment of bargain hunters. A brilliant line of beautiful goods has been collected and are now temptingly arrayed. In the millinery line it is said that he has the grandest display of fine bonnets and hats ever seen in Columbia. His carpet, rug and matting department is a wonder to behold and to go through it makes one feel as if he was in a fairyland. He is offering some unprecedented values in this department and those desiring to purchase articles in this line can save money by doing so at this house. His fall stock of men and boy's clothing, furnishings and hats is large and complete. If you want to look handsome in a well fitted suit at a small outlay of capital the correct thing is to be outfitted there. In shoes Mimnaugh has the best and cheapest and a large stock from which to make a selection. In his wholesale department he carries a complete stock of dry goods, notions, shoes and clothing, and country merchants will find it to their interest to consult him before buying their fall stock. Remember that Mimnaugh leads with one of the largest, the prettiest and the cheapest stock of goods in Columbia.

The taxable property in Charleston has increased $500,000 during the past twelve months. Yet the uncompromising Anties of that city once proclaimed that the Reform administration would ruin the State.

The Editor and the devil have gone fishing this week. Whether the Editor will catch the devil, or the devil will catch the Editor, this writer sayeth not, but he awaits the momentous issue with bated breath.
