MASONIC.

A REGULAR COMMUNICATION of Lexington Lodge, No. 152, A. F. M., will be held on Saturday, March 25th, 1899, at 8 o'clock p. m. Members will please be prompt in attendance. By order of the W. M. G. M. HARMAN, Secretary.

Mr. Tabor Church, Brookland.

On the first Sunday in March, a "Ladies Aid Society" was organized in this church and the following officers were elected: Mrs. Julia Shealy, president; Miss Minnie McGrady, vice president; Miss May Shull, secretary; Miss Maggie Lybrand, asst. secretary; Miss Blanche Seay, treasurer. This organization is to be permanent, and is meant to aid all matters pertaining to the upbuilding of this church, spiritually, and materially. These ladies are good workers; and the church re-joices in anticipation of the good results from the working of this society.

Cavies or Guinea Pigs.

Guinea pigs are an interesting little pet for the children; are easy to keep, thrive and do well. They are perfectly harmless and quite profitable; they will rid any building from rats, that they might be put in. Per pair $1.00. Address Rice B. Harman.

PENCIL AND SCISSORS.

Way-side Notes: Gath-red Here and There by a Dispatch Man. See Clerk's sale. Too wet to plow. It is now Mayor Sawyer. Blind tigers had better lay low. All the plums have not been killed. We are having cold weather for March. As Easter approaches the price of eggs will advance. Mr. W. P. Roof left for New York yesterday on business. Lexington is on the upward march on the road of progress. As far as possible, the dispensary law will be given a fair trial. Guano is being rapidly moved from the railroad to the farms. The Sheriff advertises a piece of valuable real estate in this issue. Supervisor Koon has an important notice to gate owners in this issue. Bakersville post office in Sandy Run township has been discontinued. Don't forget the prayer meeting in the Methodist church tomorrow evening. Mrs. S. J. Derrick, of Newberry, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Kate Hendrix. The farmers are as busy as bees in a tar bucket when the weather will permit. Harris Lithia Ginger Ale. Lithia Sarsaparilla, Lithia Cren. Cals. are excellent nerve tonic. All of these drinks are delicious and healthful, made from the famous Harris Lithia water, neatly put up in bottles. For sale at the Bazaar. Try them. Mr. M. D. Harman has received from Mr. B. I. Hazard, Jr., of Georgetown, a request for samples of White Silicia Sand. Any one having this sand on their land may learn something to their advantage by conferring with Mr. Harman. Mr. Henry Hutto, of Platt Springs, was examined by Drs. Leaphart and Wingard yesterday and pronounced of unsound mind. Mr. Hutto is about 75 years of age and has been in feeble health for sometime and it is supposed that his old age and ill health caused his mind to give way. If you want fine vegetables, buy your seeds at the Bazaar. Guaranteed fresh and reliable. We have sent a large list of subscribers to the Home and Farm, of Louisville, Ky. This is by far the best agricultural journal published in any section of the United States. We are still giving old and new subscribers the benefit of the low price which we have been enabled to obtain, which is 25 cents per annum. The following applicants for teachers' certificate at the last quarterly examination passed successful examinations and were awarded certificates: First Grade—W. O. Kaminer, L. W. Mathias, W. H. Stucky, Jr. Second Grade—Israel Earle, colored. The Old Veterans should not forget that there will be an important meeting of their camp next Monday the 20th, at which delegates will be elected to attend the re-union which meets at Charleston in May. A full attendance of the members is very much desired. The County Pension Board completed the work of revising the pension roll yesterday. The roll has been made out and will be immediately submitted to the State Board for approval. The roll contains the names of 142 applicants for a pension. Dr. W. T. Brooker, one of our most prominent physicians, has been quite ill for the past several weeks. We are glad to learn, however, that he is greatly improved and is on the road to health. Drs. Langford, Laird and Hilderbrand gave him faithful and skillful attention. Auditor G. A. Derrick has the penalty book ready to turn over to County Treasurer J. S. Derrick, who will at once issue tax executions against delinquents and place them in the hands of Sheriff T. H. Caughman for service. Then there will be weeping, wailing and gnashing of teeth. Rev. R. C. McRoy, pastor in charge of the Methodist church at Edgefield, was in town last week visiting friends and shaking hands with acquaintances. Mr. McRoy faithfully and acceptably served the Methodists at this place several years ago and among whom he has numerous warm personal friends.

Penitentiary Affairs. Capt. Griffith Announces His Staff for the Coming Two Years. Columbia State Lith. Capt. D. J. Griffith returned from the State farm yesterday. He was quite tired last night and did not care to talk of his prospects, but said that he proposed to institute an entirely new system of bookkeeping. He will not take charge until Friday, probably, as he wants the institution transferred in a business like way. He announced his appointments for the principal places under his administration. Mr. W. D. Black of Ellerton, Barnwell county, is to be captain of the guard. Mr. Black is a member of the House from that county and has been associated in business with Capt. Griffith before. Dr. L. K. Sturkie, of Gleaton, Orangeburg county, is to be the penitentiary physician. Dr. Sturkie has for several years been a member of the House of Representatives. Rev. J. C. Abney, of this city, will be appointed chaplain. Mr. Abney was one of the chaplains of the constitutional convention and is now chaplain of the House of Representatives. A happy selection is that of W. W. Adams as sergeant of the guard. Mr. Adams has held this position for a score of years and has many friends in Columbia who will be glad of his good fortune. The other positions will be filled later. Mr. John Taylor has already been appointed bookkeeper. Meeting of the Fair Committee. The Executive Committee of the Lexington County Fair Association met at this place last Monday to make arrangements for the next fair. The dates for the fair were fixed for 25th, 26th and 27th of October. The premiums in the field crop department were increased at least 50 per cent. and those in the Swine department 100 per cent. Many attractions will be added which will insure the success of the fair and add to the pleasure and entertainment of visitors. The entrance fee for single horses was fixed at 10 cents, one horse vehicles 15 cents and two horse vehicles 25 cents. On the 27th the Confederate Veterans will hold a grand re-union on the grounds, to whom no entrance fee will be charged that day. It will be known as "Veteran Day." They are to arrange their own program and acceptably served the Methodists at this place several years ago and among whom he has numerous warm personal friends.

On the 27th the Confederate Veterans will hold a grand re-union on the grounds, to whom no entrance fee will be charged that day. It will be known as "Veteran Day." They are to arrange their own program and acceptably served the Methodists at this place several years ago and among whom he has numerous warm personal friends.

Penitentiary Affairs. Capt. Griffith Announces His Staff for the Coming Two Years. Columbia State Lith. Capt. D. J. Griffith returned from the State farm yesterday. He was quite tired last night and did not care to talk of his prospects, but said that he proposed to institute an entirely new system of bookkeeping. He will not take charge until Friday, probably, as he wants the institution transferred in a business like way. He announced his appointments for the principal places under his administration. Mr. W. D. Black of Ellerton, Barnwell county, is to be captain of the guard. Mr. Black is a member of the House from that county and has been associated in business with Capt. Griffith before. Dr. L. K. Sturkie, of Gleaton, Orangeburg county, is to be the penitentiary physician. Dr. Sturkie has for several years been a member of the House of Representatives. Rev. J. C. Abney, of this city, will be appointed chaplain. Mr. Abney was one of the chaplains of the constitutional convention and is now chaplain of the House of Representatives. A happy selection is that of W. W. Adams as sergeant of the guard. Mr. Adams has held this position for a score of years and has many friends in Columbia who will be glad of his good fortune. The other positions will be filled later. Mr. John Taylor has already been appointed bookkeeper. Meeting of the Fair Committee. The Executive Committee of the Lexington County Fair Association met at this place last Monday to make arrangements for the next fair. The dates for the fair were fixed for 25th, 26th and 27th of October. The premiums in the field crop department were increased at least 50 per cent. and those in the Swine department 100 per cent.
