RATES REASONABLE.

JOB PAINTING A SPECIALTY

The preacher was apparently about fifty years of age, large, muscular and well proportioned. On entering the pulpit he took off his coat and hung it on a nail behird him, then opened his collar and wrist-bands and wiped the perspiration from his face, neck and hands. He was clad in striped cotton homespun and his shirt was of the same material. He had traveled several miles that morring, and seemed almost overcome by the heat. But the brethern sung a couple of hymns while he was cooling off, and when he rose he looked comfortable and good natured.

He had preached there once or twice before, but to most of the audience he was a stranger. Hence he thought it necessary to announce himslf, which he did as "Old Club-Ax Davis, from Scriven county, a Half-Hard and Half-Soft Shell Bap-

"I have given myself that name," he said, "because I believe the Lord elected me, from eternity, to go ahead in the backwoods and grub out a path and blaze the way for oth:r men to follow. After the thickest of it is cut away, a good, warm Metho dist brother will make things a little smoother and a good deal noisier. After all the underbrush is cleaned out, and the owls and wolves are skeered back, and the rattlesnakes is killed off, a Presbyterian brother, in black broadcloth and white cravat, will come along and cry for decency and order. And they'll both do good in their sphere. I don't despise a larnt man, even when he doesn't dress and think as I do. You couldn't pay me enough to wear broadcloth, summer nor winter, and you coldn't pay a Presbyterian brother enough to go without it in dog-

"God didn't make us all alike, my bretheren, but every man has his own sphere. When God has a place to fill he makes a man and puts him in it. When he wanted General Jackson, he made him and sets him to fightin' Injuns and English; when he wanted George Whitfield, he made him for to blow the Gospel trumpet as no other man has ever blowed it; and when he wanted Old Club-Ax Davis, he made him, and set him to grubbin' in the backwoods.

"But my shell isn't so hard but I can see pints in everybody; and as for the Presbyterian, they are a long way ahead of us Baptist and Methodist in some things. They raise their children better than any other people on the face of the earth. Only a few days ago a Methodist class-leader said to me: "Brother Club-Ax, I was born a Methodist, and by the grace of God I hope to die a Methodist; but, thank God, I've got a Presbyterian wife to raise my children.' And I believe, my brethren, if the Lord should open the way for me to marry again, I'd try my best to find a Presbyterian woman, and run my chances of breakin' her into the saving doctrines of feet washin' and immersion afterwards."

Just at this moment he was interrupted by two spotted hounds that had been continually running up and down the pulpit stairs. One of them jumped up on his seat and began to gnaw his coat tail, in which was something he had brought along for lunch. He turned slowly around and took him by the ears and tail and threw him out of the window behind him as easily as if he had been a young kitten. The other took warning and got out as rapidly as possible, though not without howling as if he had been half killed. He then turned to the audience and said, smilingly: "St. Paul exhorted the brethren to 'Beware of dogs.' wonder what he would do if he were in my place this morning. It appears as if I am 'compassed about with dogs,' as David said he was."

He had scarcely commenced preaching again before there was a terrible squealing and kicking among the horses and mules that were tied to trees close by. He put his head out of the window, and said, "No harm done, my brethren. Just a creature with a side-saddle on has broke losse. Will some brother head the animal for no sister can walk home

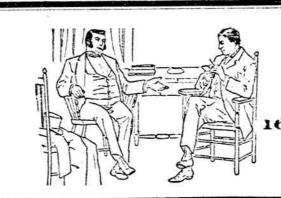

THE LEXINGTON DISPATCH.

A Representative Newspaper. Covers Lexington and the Borders of the Surrounding Counties Like a Blanket.

VOL. XXIX.

LEXINGTON, S. C., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12, 1899.

NO. 22

GLOBE DRY GOODS COMPANY,

Solicits a Share of Your Valued Patronage. Polite and Prompt Attention.

October 13-tf

this hot day?"

Quiet being restored, he again

"Well, my brethren, I will now try to say what I allowed to say about the Presbyterians.

"As I said before, they raise their children a heap better than we do. They behave better in church, and keep Sabbath better, and read the Bible and learn the Catechism better than ours do. I declare, my brethren, their children are larnt that Westminister Catechism by the time they can begin to talk plain.

"It ain't three weeks since I was out a cattle huntin'-for two of my yearlings had strayed off-and I stopped in at old Brother Harkey's, on Mud Creek, and took dinner. He's deacon in the Presbyterian church over thar. Well, as true as I stand here, my brethren, Sister Harkey had had her little gal a-standin' right before her, with toes just even with the crack o' the floor and her hands was a-hanging down by her side and her mouth turned up like a chicken when it drinks, and she was a puttin' this question to her out o' that Catechism, 'What are the benefits which in this life do either accompany or flow from justification, adoption or sanctifica-

"Now the question itself was enough to break the child down. But when she had to begin and that question all over (for that's the way it was in the back) and then hitch the answer to it, and which all put together made this: 'The benefits which in this life do either accompany or flow from justification. adoption and sanctification, are peace of conscience, joy in the Holy Ghost, increase in grace and perseverence to the end, I thought the child was the greatest wonder I'd ever seen in all my life. She tuk it right in, toowithout balkin' or missin' the first word. And she spoke so sweet and she looked so like a little angel that before I know'd it the tears was runnin' down my cheeks as big as buckshot. I've seen the day when I could have mauled and split a thousan' rails quicker and easier than I could larn that thing and said it off

"Now, my brethern, that child didn't understand or know the meaning of one word o' that. It put me up to all I know to take it in myself. But just let that Presbyterian youngun grow up, and every word of the Catechism will come to her, and her character will stiffen up under her, and she'll have the backbone of the matter in her life.

"Now, I can't put things into my children that way. Nothin' don't stay, somehow. It's like drivin' a nail into a rotten log."

This last remark I never forgot. For thirty years afterwards, as I would stand at the blackboard trying to fix rules and principles in the mind of a dull pupil, this remark would come back to me with its peculiar pertinency.

"I tell you, my brethren," he continued, "if our children had a little more catechism and the Presbyterian a little less, it would be better

"Then we don't pray in our families like they do. I know their prayers are mighty long, and they pray all creaton; but, after all, it's the right way. It's better than prayin' too little. "Now, my father and mother was good Baptists, and raised their children to be honest and industrious; but I never heard one of them pray in my life, and I was most a grown man before I ever prayed a prayer myself, and it was on this wise:

"There was to be a big meetin' over in Elbert county, and I knowed a pretty gal over thar that I wanted o go to see. So I borrowed a little Jersey wagin, which was a stylish thing in them days, and went over to the house and stayed all night, and engaged her to ride to meetin' with me next day, which was Sabbath.

"We went and had a glorious time-and I may as well say night here that she was afterwards my wife-but comin' home I met with a powerful accident, that I've never got over to this day. As I was comin' down a steep hill, some part of gearin' gave way and let me and the wagin on my cretur's heels; and bein' young and skeery, and not much used to wheels, she wriggled and kicked and tore from one side of the road to the other, till I was pitch head foremost as much as ten foot, into the deep gully, and it was a miricle of mercy that my neck was not broken on the spot.

"Expectin' to be killed every minute, I thought I ought to ask the Lord for mercy; but, as I had never prayed in my life, I couldn't think of the first thing to say, but the blessin' my father used to ask before eatin' when we had company, and which this: 'Lord, make us thankful for what we're about to receive.'

"Now, my brethren, do you s'pose any Presbyterian raised boy was ever put to such a strait as that for a prayer? No. He would have prayed for himself and gone off after the Jews and heathens, whilst I was a huntin' up and a gettin' off that blessin'."

Meeting of Joint Conference.

The Joint Conference will meet D. V. April 28 30, at Mt. Tabor church. Brookland, S. C. The following is the program of subjects, sermons and speakers:

Friday 11 a. m -Opening sermon; followed by formal opening of Conference by the President.

These subjects are to be discussed 1. How to enjoy our religion-Delegates from Mt. Vernon church and

2. Baptism, what is, when administered, what benefits derived?-Delegates from Mt. Tabor, Luther Chapel Revs. E. L. Lybrand and R. E. Livingstone.

3. Essay, Historical Lutheranism -Rev. C P. Boozer.

4. The position of the Word in the Lutheran Church-Dr. J. W. Eargle, Revs. P. H. E. Derrick, S. P. Shumpert, J. D. Shealy, W. H. Roof and A. W. Lindler.

5. Address on Christian Education -Hon. C. M. Efird and President George B. Cromer.

Sunday morning, Address on missions-Hon. H. A. Meetze and Rev.

Friday, 11 a. m., Rev. Jacob Wike or Rev. J. A. Cromer.

Friday, 8 p. m., Rev. O. B. Shearouse or W. H. Roof. Saturday, 11 a. m., Rev. H. J.

Mathias or Rev. R. E. Livingstone. Saturday, 8 p. m., Rev. P. H. E Derrick or Rev. Jacob Austin. Sunday, 11 a. m , Rev. A. R. Beck or Rev. C. P. Boozer.

The addresses on Christian Education are set for Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The sermon on Sunday will be on the subject "The Office of

S. C. Ballentine, Secretary. White Rock, S. C., March 28, 1893.

"They tell me Grimley, that your daughter sings with great expression." "Greatest expression you ever saw. Her own mother can't recognize her face when she's singing at her best."

of all Blood Diseases and Cures the Worst Cases.

S. S. GOES

Promptly Reaches the Seat In every test made S. S. S. easily demonstrates its superiority over other ments or troubles so obstinate and difficult to cure. Very few remedies claim to cure such real, deep-seated blood diseases as S. S. S. cures, and none can offer such incontrovertible evidence of merit. S S. S. is not merely a tonic-it foundation of the very worst cases, and routs the poison from the system. It does not, like other remedies, dry up the poison and hide it from view temporarily, only to break forth again more violently than ever; S. S. S. forces out every

S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD

-is the only remedy that is guaranteed purely vegetable, and contains no mercury, potash, arsenic, or any other mineral or chemical. It never fails to cure Cancer, Eczema, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Contagious Blood Poison, Valuable books mailed free by Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Ga.

trace of taint, and rids the system of it forever.

Mrs. T. W. Lee, Montgomery, Ala., writes: "Some years ago I was inoculated with poison by a nurse who infected my babe with blood taint. I was covered with sores and ulcers from head to foot, and in my great extremity I prayed to die. Several prominent physicians treated me, but all to no purpose. The mercury and potash which they gave me seemed to add fuel to the awful flame which was devouring me. I was advised by friends who had seen wonderful cures made by it, to try Swift's Specific. I improved from the start, as the medicine seemed to go direct to the cause of the trouble and force the poison out. Twenty bottles cured me completely." Swift's Specific-Tetter, Boils, Carbuncles, Sores, etc.

It goes down to the very seat of all blood diseases, and gets at the Swansea's News.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

On Sunday, April 2d, the two Sunday schools here united in having a children's day. The celebration was conducted at the Baptist church and was an enjoyable day. The pro- losing this important freight item. gram was well carried out and the children acted their parts well. It folks except an address of Hon. W. short talk to the audience.

On Sunday night the Rev. F. J. McFarlanc, of the Methodist fraternity, preached in the Baptist church. He and Rev. T. F. Rivers filled the pulpit together very gracefully. The minister gave us an earnest and able appeal for the duties of a higher life.

here closed. The term having ended after a very prosperous session. by the patrons and trustees for this session. Miss Gertrude is an edufriends and on Monday took the train for her home on the Congaree.

Mrs. Lottie Koon is spending some time in Swansea with her niece, Mrs.

Clara Johnson, from the Orangeburg Co-educational Institute, spent last week with her family. Clara is looking well and expresses herself very much pleased with the school.

The doctors all say that it is fearfully healthy now around Swansea and look hopeful for the future to change, but don't talk it out loud. David Roof, the younger brother of C. S. Roof, has moved to Swansea and has gone into business here. David and family have cast their lot with us and we extend a cordial welcome to all such citizens who will come and sojourn with us for we feel fully satisfied that we can do them

Yesterday Socrates M. Sightler, the newly elected M gis rate of Gaston, was in Swansea. I did not get to shake the hand of that worthy patriot and citizen, but can rejoice with the people of his jurisdiction that a good man and one honest and sincere has been elected to hold the office long and well held by W. A. Goodwin, his predecessor.

Some parties here have gone into the Irish potato culture and several acres have been planted for shipping off this summer. It is a new industry here as a money crop.

The Florida Central and Peninsular railroad has interested itself in ascertaining who are the responsible melon dealers of the Northern markets in order to encourage the rais-blood remedies. It matters not how obstinate the case, nor what other treat-ment or remedies have failed, S. S. S.

always promptly reaches and cures any disease where the blood is in any way involved.

Everyone who has had experience with blood diseases knows that there are no ailing of that crop on this line of road. The unprincipled dealers have so swindled the melon growers that the planting of them except on agreement with responsible parties to buy them at an agreed price at depot before leaving, had been very much abandoned, and the railroads are

Those fellows that have turned the world upside down have come was entirely confined to the young hither also, and have siezed two stills on Sandy Run and one near H. F. Rast, from the Methodist Sun- | Swansea. One of the two on Sandy day school, who by invitation gave a Run was a "homemade concern" and had wooden sides and a copper bottom. Several indictments have been gotten out by the officers before Magistrate Jescoat and several parties were arraigned here on Wednesday, the 5th inst. They were represented by W. H. Sharpe, Esq, who strove hard to have the matter ended here for want of sufficient evidence. Judge On Friday last the public school | Jefcoat decided to release one and held David Moorer and Joel Harsey, known here also as "The Prophet was under the management of Miss Joel, over on bond to meet at Casar's Gertrude Geiger, who was employed | bar. No illicit whiskies so far have been found and "they say" the Constables are gone to Orangeburg, but educated lady and an accomplished whether their work is done here is teacher and the pupils entrusted to not known. The chief speaker her care have been the constancy of among the Constables said that hithher earnest attention, and she leaves erto be had considered himself a many friends here and kind recol- hustler on a big lie, but that he had lections have been implanted in the been so mortified at his failure here hearts of the children. She spent to keep up with certain parties that Saturday and Sunday amongst her voluntarily he had given up his belt and that henceforth another brow would wear the laurels, another victor would take the prize and get from Beelzebub that welcome plaudit, well done, faithful servant and pupil, into into the kingdom of the Prince

Lexington, the equal of any and inferior of none, still jack frost was here vesterday and made a raid and was successful in his seizure too. We have no place to hide from his searching eye and relentless fury and as the negroes say, "he levelled on de crop" and we will have to look further and make other arrangements for a fruitage this summer. Cold continues late and planting delayed. Small grain fields are looking green and promising, and we trust that hope deferred will soon not sicken but make the hearts of our countrymen glad and cheerful.

Yesterday I saw a young man sitting on a crosstie pile humming. "the swallows homeward fly," in a very thoughtful meditative way which indicated an upheaval within that was hard to control. The day previous he was trying to talk and only could in broken and disconnected monosyllables, and all his efforts proved that he was but master of the situation. Oh! how Spectator could look on him and recall the time when he was in "just such a box" exactly. I wanted to tell that "weary boy," and tell that girl just what old Adam told Eve, "that what I want fair creature is thyself" and all will be peace. Then I thought of what Mark Twain said when he had traveled all over the world and that when he had gotten to Adam's grave he felt very sad to think that there lies a man who unintentionally had caused him (Mark Twain) so much trouble. I then could see how Mark Twin and the young man could blame Adam and the girl for much that they are not responsible for and only needs the asking for help and relief. I can't see how a man, when he wants to make a woman happy, gets so chocky, non expressive and so intensely monosyllabical and yet, the more, they say, he is in earnest, the more serious are these troubles. I tried to explain this young man's condition by saying to myself, Oh! well, he is en awkward, backward country cracker, but that don't tell the story

There was an elequent Bishop the Methodist Church who was so unfortunate as to lose his first wife and who afterwards came, in course of his rounds, with "a smashing widow." The experience of the rest of mankind was his sad heritage. Babylandish confession sat on his tengue and forbid an intelligent exchange of sentiment. In vain he tried, again the veto came till it became painful and wearisome to the hopes and desires of the anxious, waiting listener, who earnestly sought opportunities to come to his relief

Makes the food more delicious and wholesome lover the sceptre of reconciliation. Sitting one day at dinner with some friends, she offered to pull with him the pully bone of a chicken and to draw for luck and a wish. He having gotten the long end of the bone, the amiable widow then said: "Well, Bishop," placing her bone on the table, what is your wish, sin?" Placing his piece rear to hers, he replied: "My wish, madame, is that your bones lay by my bones; will you accept?" "I will, sir," was the modest and coveted reply. The agony was all over and like Zackarias his tongue years a happy life and one of great service to the Methodist fraternity.

was released from its shackles and he could speak forth once more.

They were married and lived many

April 6th, 1899. "A word to the wise is sufficient' and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft repeated experience of trustworthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W. M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve year's; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. For sale by J. E. Kaufmann.

A Gospel Yacht.

The Gospel yacht, now being built at Jeffersonville, Ind, will shortly make a trip to the Cuban coast. will have on board a devoted band of my life, but it weren't any use preachers and missionaries, in fact, Ebery time I thought he was mos mission workers, and the sole object | and down come delicks harder'n ever of their voyage is to make converts. The yacht is the largest ever built | prayed a month, and, Mars Jack, for the purpose. It is 160 feet long, with an auditorium, or chapel, be- sot against long pra'rs fo' de rest uv tween decks capable of seating 700 | my life.' persons. The decks will seat about 1,000 more, and will be used for religious services whenever practicable. The boat is to be launched on the Ohio River, and will reach the ocean by way of the Ohio and Mississippi waters. Missionary work will be carried on along the way, and advantage taken of every opportunity to preach. Several of the workers speak Spanish. The yacht will sail under the auspices of the Gospel Yacht Association, which is international, and has about 900 members. The crew will be supported by the members of the association, many of whom are prominent clergymen, and by voluntary offerings from the people with whom they work.

Where Is It?

"A remarkable condition of affairs in the South and West." says the Philadelphia North American, "is reported by United States Treasurer Roberts, who says that almost piteous demands are being made upon him from those quarters for silver and paper money to take the place of gold, which has become a glut on the market. There is so much gold in circulation that the farmers have become tired of it and want a substitute more easily handled, and prewhen great learned men meet a like ferably paper money." The News and Courier says this is very interesting news, and is llkewise some what surprising. Would the North American kindly specify in what part | Herald. For sale by J. E. Kaufof the South the condition described obtains? If gold is a glut anywhere in this region, or any farmers especcially have bad a surfeit of it, the fact has wholly escaped the attention of local observers.

W. F. Rawl, New Brookland, S. C, writes: Have used Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine many years, and consider it the best liver medicine made. I regard it a miracle and to extend to her confounded | compared with Zeilin's Regulator.

A Good Reason

Why An Old Colored Preacher Didn't Like Long Prayers.

"It happened," said Col. Jack Chinn, at Chamberlain's, "that there were two colored preachers inhabiting cells in the penitentiary at Frankfort at the same time. If I remember aright both were sentenced for polygamy, but Old Sam was a Methodist parson, while Old Jake was of the Baptist faith. It seems that Sam had done something great ly to offend the warden, and the punishment decided on was an old fashioned lashing. Some weeks after the affair came off the Rev. Sam, whom I had known from boyhood, was telling me about it.

"'I didn't min' de whippiu' so much, Mars Jack, of it hadn't been for de way Old Jake acted. You see de warden he said to me, "Sam, I'segwine to whip you, an' I low de whippin' will do you a whole heap uv good. I'm gwine to let Old Jake fect order. Dr. M. A. Simmons pray fer you, and de blows will con tinue to fall on your black hide while Jake's paa'r is a goin' on. When he comes to a final stop, den de punishment will likewise end."

"'Land sakes, Mars Jack, I know ed it was up wid me den, for date ignorant old nigger neber did know when it was time to git up off'n his knees. De fac dat a po' human bein' was in distress wasn't gwine ter mel a bit or difference wid him. Well. sir, it was jes like I spected it'd be. Dey brought me out an' Ole Jake, de ole villun, started in, and as fast as he prayed the warden come down on me wid a whip dat cut like knife. I never did want ter hear pra'r come to an end so bad in al the entire crew will be ministers or through Ole Jake took a fresh hold Shorely it seemed to me like h wants to tell you right now dat I am

Personal.

Columbia Daily Record, April 6.

Dr. Sam C. Harman has returned from Nashville, where he graduated from the University of Tennessee with the degree of M. D. He is a son of Mr. Fred Harman and read medicine under Dr. F. D. Kendall before going to a medical college. He has not yet decided where he will Joe S. Huffman, whose skull was recently fractured, is rapidly recov ering. He is being attended by Dr F. D. Kendall.

Surgeon Griffith, of the Second South Carolina Regiment, was over from Augusta this week to visit his mother, who is sick. Surgeon Griffith is a son of D. J. Griffith, the superintendent of the penitentiary, and is a young physician who will make his mark. He is very popular in the regiment.

Rheumatism Curad.

My wife has used Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism with great relief, and I can recommend it as a splendid liniment for rheumatism and other household use for which we have found it valuable.-W. J. Cuyler, Red Creek, N. Y.

Mr. Cayler is one of the most prominent men in this vicinity .-- W. G. Phippin, Editor Red Creek

There is a bill before the M. s:achusetts legislature to make it compulsory to use wide instead of narrow tires on vehicles. The states man who drafted the bill has become tired of seeing the state spend money to fix up the roads and then have them cut up by these narrow

But few women are deep thinkers, but they are all close observers.

ADVERTISING RATES.

Advertisements will be inserted at the rate of 75 cents per square of one inch ace for first insertion, and 50 cents per

Liberal contracts made with those wish-

Notices in the local column 5 cents per Obituaries charged for at the rate of one cent a word, when they exceed 100 words. Marriage notices inserted free.

G. M. HARMAN, Editor and Publisher.

Occasionally we meet a man whose mind is so weak that it can't even vo:der.

A competent judge of music says some vocalists ought to get life sen-A Jersey City man boasts that he has the addresses of 20,000 redhaired women. Some men are silent because of their wisdom and some because of their ignorance. Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine Clears the Complexion, gives Buoyancy to the Mind, cures Headache, Regulates stomach, Bowels and Liver. In Berlin sheet music is sold by weight. In this country the autocrat of the bass drum supplies it by the pound. Little Clarence-"Papa, what is the difference between firmless and obstinacy?" Papa-"Merely a matter of sex, my son.

Teacher-"Wat happens when a man's temperature goes down as far as it can go?" Smart Scholar-"He has cold feet, ma'am."

When you ask for Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine, see that you get it and not some worthless imita-An Ohio girl recently took the gold cure for love. She broke her engagement with a poor young man and married a wealthy old one. Philadelphia is afflicted with an

January 1, there have been 3,286 cases and 359 deaths from the dis-Visitor-To what do you ascribe your extreme age? Octogenarian-epidemic of typhoid fever. Since

Wal, I never stole a hoss, shot a neighbor's dog or called a man a liar. Malaria cannot find a lodgment in the system while the Liver is in per-

Liver Medicine is the best Regula-"If you don't have me," he exclaimed with unwonted passion, "I'll go to the dogs." "Not," she coldly returned, "If the dogs see you first." None of God's appointments will seem grievous to us if we remember that the will of God never differs from the love of God. If we fear to rest on the one, we may fearlessly and fully accept the other. I was reading an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the Worcester Enterprise recently, which leads me to write this. I can truthfully say I never used any remedy equal to it for colic and diarrhoes. I have never had to use more than one or two doses to cure the worst case with myself or children .- W. A. Stroud, Popomoke City, Md. For sale by J. E. Kaufmann.

The United States volunteers in Manila hrve been supplied with Krag Jorgensen rifles.

Southern Pines, one of the smallest townships in North Carolina, shipped 4,000,000 pounds of fruit to northern markets in 1898. It was all raised by northern invalids living there for their health.

A Torpid Liver causes Depression of Spirits, Indigestion, Constipation, Headache. Use Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine to stimulate that

An incipent negro rebellion in Manila has been promptly suppressed by the Americans.

Whenever we try to give happiness to somebody else, we can't help keeping some of it for ourselves.

of disease is so diffi-cult to shake off. I Wany people wel advanced in years find themselves in the toils atarrh. Mr. and Mrs. Collum, of G' ngs, Tex., found help in Collum's letter follows: Pe-ru-na. Pe-ru-na Medicine Co., Columbus, O.

to it. Yet no class

DEAR S s:-"I think your Pe-ru-na is the best edicine I ever tried for catarrh. I we tried all the catarrh medicines at I could hear of and none of them did ny good until I tried yours. I and my w have both used the Peru-na and Man-a-lin, and we are about well. I am 70 years old and my wife is 66. When we commenced to take your medicines we were not able to see after our work, but now she can tend to her work and I see after my farm. You can use this publicly if you want to."-A. P. Collum, Giddings, Tex.