MASONIC. A REGULAR COMMUNICATION of Lexington Lodge, No. 152, A. F. M., will be held on Saturday, March 10, 1900, at 7 o'clock p. m.

Wanted. Lands cleared and timbered. Tracts of ten or more acres. Give full description and lowest price.

A Woman's Letter. Coolidge, Ky., Aug 1st, 1898. I have been suffering from female troubles and was unable to get relief, I was persuaded to try Benedicta, and after one month's treatment I can say I am fully restored.

Cotton Planters. Who are interested in high prices for cotton next fall can hear of something to their advantage by sending a postal card at once to The Adams Cotton Company, Charleston, S. C.

Town Election. The municipal election for town officers held yesterday, passed off quietly and resulted in the following ticket: Intendant—T. P. Meetez.

A QUICK CURE FOR COUGHS and COLDS Pyny Pectoral. The Canadian Remedy for all Throat and Lung Affections.

March Salesday. Only two pieces of property were sold at public outcry last Monday. The Clerk of the Court sold the John Stone land, consisting of one hundred and nine acres, to N. Y. Derrick for $200.

Fine Seeds. The prettiest display of seeds we have seen in a long time, or ever saw, is that of Dr. Harris, at Batesburg. The big central window is full of seeds—it looks like enough to plant Lexington county—and more over they are like he always keeps, as fine as money will buy and fresh.

PENCIL AND SCISSORS. Wayside Notes Gathered Here and There by a Dispatch Man. Cloudy. Raw and damp. Lenten season. Full moon Friday. Court has adjourned. Fruit trees are blooming. The farmers are beginning operations.

The prospects for a large fruit crop is very bright. A great deal of the small grain will have to be resown. Dixie Lodge, No. 52, will hold its regular meeting tonight.

Remember us with your dollar when you come to town. We are looking forward to an abundant blackberry crop. Some of our merchants have a display of lovely spring goods.

Mrs. Ella Daily, who has been quite sick, is gradually improving. Fresh and reliable garden seed just received at the Bazaar.

Judge Benet worshipped with the Lutheran congregation last Sunday morning. If you want furniture of any kind don't forget to call on Cook & Co., Columbia.

The early gardener's heart rejoices with gladness over the warm and genial rays of a spring's sun. Camp Steadman, U. C. V., No. 668, will meet at this place on March 28th. See the call elsewhere.

An entire new stock of dry goods and notions, just received at J. D. Taylor's. Call and see them. March came between the roar of a lion and the bleat of a lamb, and since we have had wind and calm.

Desiccated coconut, ready for pies, custards and cakes, also lot of fine coconuts, at the Bazaar. The game law goes into effect on March 15, after which time it will be unlawful to kill game birds.

W. M. and M. L. Slice has a notice in this issue to debtors and creditors of the estate of J. W. Slice, deceased. Planters' NUBIAN TEA cures Dyspepsia, Constipation and Indigestion. Regulates the Liver. Price, 25 cents.

Mrs. Paul P. Clark has our thanks for a lot of fine sweet potatoes. They were large and sweet and very palatable. Miss Emma Wolfe, of Sandy Run, has been on a pleasant visit to her friend, Miss Lizzie Nunamaker, at Swansea.

Mr. Julius Smith has accepted the position of telegraph operator at Swansea of the Florida Central and Peninsular Railroad. Mr. and Mrs. Tyre Etheredge, of Leesville, celebrated their golden wedding on February 28th, they having been married 50 years.

Prayer meeting at the Methodist church tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock and preaching at the same place next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Ledgers, journals, records, counter books, memorandum books, school books, pads, pencils, ink of all colors, manila, &c., for sale at the Bazaar.

PISONS CURE FOR GOUTS WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS. Best Gout Cure. Pains Good. Use in time. Sold by druggists. CONSUMPTION.

Nature will soon put on her spring dress and will make her appearance in beautiful vernal robes like a lovely bride costumed for the marriage feast. Persons owning lands adjacent to public roads are warned not to obstruct them by ploughing, throwing brush into them, or in any other manner whatever.

The County Board of Registration reorganized last Monday by re-electing the old officers, as follows: W. H. Meetez, Chairman and James B. Aidy, Secretary. Northern onion sets make larger and finer onions than any other. Call or send to the Bazaar and get the yellow or white, and you will be pleased with the results. Lutheran services will be held in the Episcopal chapel next Sunday morning commencing at 11 o'clock. Rev. J. G. Graichen officiating. The public is cordially invited to attend this service. Mr. Wm. W. Hawes has notified the board of trustees of the school at Swansea that he will close the school on account of some unpleasantness between himself and some of the patrons. Our News-Letter says that the new train which has been recently put on the Southern Railway for the accommodation of its patrons, has taken the nickname of "Dr. Crosson."

The Supreme Court has reversed the decision of the lower court in the case of Lookout Mountain M-d Co. vs. W. A. Hare & Co., Chief Justice Melver rendered the opinion. This case went up from this county. The Governor offers a reward of $50 for the apprehension, delivery to the Sheriff of this county and the conviction of the unknown party who burglarized the dwelling of Mr. Westmoreland, a short time ago. Dr. O. J. Harris, Batesburg's prominent and progressive pharmacist, was in town the greater part of last week and paid us a pleasant call. He was in attendance upon court as a witness in an important railroad case.

Planters' CUBAN OIL cures Cuts, Burns, Bruises, Rheumatism and Sores. Price, 25 cents. Sold by Julian E. Kaufmann.

The chain gang has moved to the neighborhood of Lewis' mill, Black Creek, on the Lewiedale and Wagener new cut road. The gang is doing some very nice work and is making permanent and long needed repairs. Mr. J. D. Farr, ex Superintendent of Education, dropped in to shake hands with us last week. We are always glad to meet John. He is a genial companion and is an excellent young man and made us a good official.

Dr. J. Willie Wessinger, a rising young physician of this county, who has a lucrative and growing practice in the Ballentine section, was in town Thursday and called to see us. He is a distinguished graduate of the Charleston Medical College.

Attention is called to the advertisement of J. C. Moore's Great Bargain House in Columbia. He carries a tremendous stock of dry goods and notions. Customers can get all they need at this establishment at remarkably low figures and it will pay them to make their purchases there. Read the advertisement on first page.

All along the Southern Railway the people are expressing their appreciation of the successful efforts of Dr. Crosson in having a morning and evening train to and from Columbia put on. It is a great convenience and the people are thankful. The American Soldier in the Philippines a notable article—at once an appreciation and a vivid, stirring picture of our boys in the field, has been written for the Saturday Evening Post and will appear exclusively in the March 17th number of that weekly.

Planters' CUBAN RELIEF cures Colds, Neuralgia and Toothache in five minutes. Sour Stomach and Summer Complaints. Price, 25 Cents. Sold by Julian E. Kaufmann.

Mr. W. Q. Jackson speaks in the highest terms of the work done by the chain gang in his section recently, especially on the road from Cedar creek to the Orangeburg line. It is first class and gives satisfaction to persons whose business calls them to drive over it.

Like the strains of sweet music which has a soothing and exhilarating effect, the Alliance Store in Columbia, makes the glad some announcement of a sweeping reduction in shoes, clothing, hats and parts, which will make the heart of the bargain hunters sing with gladness and rush there to spend their hard earned dollars.

Mr. D. E. Ballentine left Monday on a trip extending through Alabama, Mississippi and the far West. He has gone on a prospecting tour and when he returns, unless we are greatly mistaken, he will certainly learn that there is no place to be compared to South Carolina and to Lexington county in everything that contributes to the comfort, happiness and prosperity of man.

Landreth's seeds have been the standard for more than a century for reliability, freshness and purity. They are esteemed for their satisfactory results by everybody in Lexington. All varieties, in packages or bulk, to suit purchasers. For these seeds, call on S. N. Hendrix, Columbia.

We are informed by Elwin F. H. Strother, Esq., attorney for Mr. Isaac Edwards in his suit against the Southern Railway for operating a competing line, that Mr. J. William Mitchell is not a party to the suit. We make this correction in justice to the parties concerned. It pays in the long run to use the best quality in family and plantation supplies. For the best bay, grain, bacon, flour, sugar, coffee, tea, canned goods, smoking and chewing tobacco, go to Platt, Hook & Shull's Columbia. They have a large and well selected stock and their motto being "the best goods for the least money," you can get your wants supplied with first class goods at the most reasonable prices.

H. P. Bouknight dropped in to see us while in town attending court. He is a large planter and he caught the rise in the price of cotton at its flood with a large supply of the fleecy staple. He is one of Leesville's most respected citizens.

Bucksfoot, N. C., May 16, 1898. Gentlemen:—Four years ago I was helpless with a misery in my back. I could not return myself in bed. I was treated by my physician, but he did me no good. I took one bottle of Dr. Baker's Female Regulator and it cured me. I think there is no medicine on earth like it. Mrs. Emma E. Myers. For sale at the Bazaar.

Sore Throat. Sore throat and constant coughing indicate an affection of the bronchial tubes which may develop into pleurisy or inflammation of the lungs. Do not wait; but use Dr. John W. Bull's Cough Syrup at once and be cured. Dr. Bull's COUGH SYRUP Cures Hoarseness and Sore Throat. Doses are small and pleasant to take. Doctors recommend it. Price 25 cts. At all druggists. Come to see us when in town.

Court. As stated in our last issue the case of the State vs. C. S. Mathews was given to the jury in the afternoon on Wednesday. The verdict was rendered next morning at 10 o'clock at the call of the court, being "not guilty, F. A. Warren, foreman."

On Thursday morning the civil court was opened for work, and the juries organized with F. H. Hendrix of Leesville, as Foreman of Jury No. 1, and Alfred J. Fox of Lexington, as Foreman of Jury No. 2. The first case tried was John Hartley and others vs. J. C. Glover, in which the verdict was directed by the court. On Friday was tried the case of R. A. Barr against the Southern Railway Company for damages, in which the verdict was in favor of the R. R. Co.

The next case was Nancy Easter and J. P. Easter against The Southern Railway Company, for damages from a fall from a passenger train at our depot, some time last May. This case was called on Friday and the verdict was rendered on Tuesday morning for $1,500 for Mrs. Easter.

The next case was Martha E. Bickley vs. Acquilla Derrick, in which the jury returned a verdict of $130.20 for plaintiff. Mr. Graham represented the plaintiff and Mr. Wiggard the defendant.

Some few equity cases were heard, after which the court at 6 p. m. yesterday adjourned sine die. Republican Rally. In pursuance to a call issued by Mr. B. I. Hayes, county chairman of the Republican party of Lexington county, some of the faithful few of the Black and Tan persuasion, met in the C. M. E. church last Saturday for the purpose of sending delegates to the State and Congressional conventions. After a great deal of wrangling and wasting much burning eloquence upon the desert air, the house could center upon no delegates and there was consequently no election. Not to be outdone and to present a bold front to the untried Democracy, the matter was left in the hands of the chairman, who subsequently made the following appointments:

Delegates to the State Convention—B. I. Hayes and W. A. Smith. Congressional Convention—B. I. Hayes, John Lowry, Ed. Lowry, W. A. Smith. Death of Dr. T. S. Fox. This community was shocked on the receipt of the news that Dr. T. S. Fox, of Batesburg, had died suddenly from heart disease at his home last Monday. Dr. Fox had been complaining for several days, but no one suspected that dark wings of the angel of death was overshadowing his form, that the lamp of life was so soon to be extinguished and that the noble spirit was already preparing to take its everlasting flight to the spirit land from whose bourne no traveller returns. He was a prominent physician, a gallant soldier in the civil war and a noble hearted Christian man of large charity and touched with a feeling for human suffering and misery. He was 65 years of age and his remains now rest in the Batesburg cemetery. His brother, Mr. J. J. Fox and family of this place went to Batesburg to attend the burial services.

Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly for March, 1900. Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly for March is fortunate in its leading feature, which is an elaborate and finely illustrated account of "The British Army, at Home and in South Africa," by Major General Nelson A. Miles, commanding the United States Army. General Miles reviews and analyzes the imperial British military organization in all its branches, and with particular reference to the obstinates war now engaging all its energies in South Africa.

There are many other interesting and fascinating features of this number which makes it a very welcome visitor to the homes of our people. Bucksfoot, N. C., May 16, 1898. Gentlemen:—Four years ago I was helpless with a misery in my back. I could not return myself in bed. I was treated by my physician, but he did me no good. I took one bottle of Dr. Baker's Female Regulator and it cured me. I think there is no medicine on earth like it. Mrs. Emma E. Myers. For sale at the Bazaar.

Home and Farm. By special arrangements we offer the Home and Farm, the leading farm and home paper published in Louisville, Ky., and the Dispatch for $1.25. Those of our subscribers who desire to subscribe for the Home and Farm, can do so by sending 25c in silver or stamps to this office.

Cavies or Guinea Pigs. Guinea pigs are an interesting little pet for the children; are easy to keep, thrive and do well. They are perfectly harmless and quite profitable; they will rid any building from rats, that they might be put in. Per pair, grown $1.00; young 50c. Address Rice B. Harman.

Now is the time to plant your gardens and the freshest and most reliable seed is a prerequisite to successful truck gardening. The place to get the best and cheapest seed is from Lorick & Lowrance, the only wholesale seedsmen in this part of the State. Read their advertisement which is to be found in another column and go there or write them for catalogue and prices, and you will be satisfied with the result of your crop.

Money Awaiting Claimants. To the Managers and Clerks of the special State election held October 3, 1899: Your pay for services in this election is now in my hands ready for disbursement. Samuel B. George, Clerk of Board. March 7, 1900.

A Sad Death. Mrs. J. G. Gaignard, who with her daughter, Miss Bruce, were injured on March 1, while on their way from Columbia to their home in Brookland by the horse, which she was driving running away and throwing the ladies out, died from the effects of the injuries received last Thursday evening, after suffering excruciating pains. This was a sad ending of a noble life and one which threw the neighborhood in which she resided in the deepest gloom for none knew her but to love her and she was a benediction and a blessing to those around her and in the community in which she resided. The funeral services were conducted at her late home in Brookland and the interment was at the Trinity cemetery in Columbia, of which church she was a devoted and consistent member. Our deepest sorrow goes out to the stricken family in their sore bereavement.

is very much like the blossoming of a flower. Its beauty and perfection depends entirely upon the care bestowed upon its parent. Expectant mothers should have the tenderest care. They should be spared all worry and anxiety. They should eat plenty of good nourishing food and take gentle exercises. This will go a long way toward preserving their health and their beauty as well as that of the little one to come. But to be absolutely sure of a short and painless labor they should use THE BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO. ATLANTA, GA. Write for our free book, "Before Baby is Born."

How A Parsonage Was Painted! To the Editor of the Dispatch: Last spring Rev. S. C. Ballentine, pastor of Bathel charge, assisted by a few laymen, distributed a number of nickles among the children of the different Sunday schools of the charge with the understanding that the proceeds be applied to raising a fund to paint the Lutheran parsonage at White Rock, S. C. To the surprise of all the sum thus raised was nearly sufficient to buy all the material. Mr. C. G. Miller, a professional painter of Columbia, S. C., kindly offered his services to superintend the painting, free of charge. Work was started about ten days ago and now we have as nice a parsonage as can be found in the country anywhere. In appreciation of this kindness of Mr. Miller, the joint council of the charge, at a regular meeting held March 31, 1900, unanimously passed the following resolutions: 1st. That the hearty thanks of this body is hereby extended to Mr. C. G. Miller for his kindness in superintending the painting free of charge. 2d. That a copy of these resolutions be presented to Mr. C. G. Miller, and also to the county papers for publication. W. J. Ballentine, Secretary Joint Council.
