Easter Services.

Easter Sunday dawned clear and bright. It was a typical Easter day and all nature seemed to rejoice that winter had passed and that the warm and gentle breath of spring made the flowers to open and the birds to warble their sweet songs of praise and adoration to the god of nature.

The day upon which Christ performed his greatest miracle, that of raising himself from the dead, was celebrated by the Lutherans of this place with beautiful and impressive ceremonies. The church was tastefully decorated with flowers and evergreens and the columns were twined with ivy emblematic of that perpetual life upon which humanity will enter when they shall have passed the portals of physical death into the glories and unsurpassed beauties of that land of never withering flowers.

Six candidates were received into the church as follows: Messrs. Sam J. Leaphart, S. H. Harman, C. H. Drafts, Sam Bickley, Julian Meetz and Miss Jodie Caughman.

Rev. J. G. Graichen, pastor of St. Stephen's church preached a beautiful sermon, appropriate to the occasion from the text found in the Acts of the Apostles in the 24 chapter, 16 verse, his theme being "Easter Hope." Our limited space will not permit us to follow the eloquent divine in his dissertation of the theme, suffice it to say that it was delivered in his usual earnestness and eloquence. The church was filled with a large and attentive congregation, who were deeply impressed with the sermon. The collection amounted to between $50 and $80. The Lord's supper was administered to about one hundred communicants.

Easter services were also held in the Baptist church by the pastor, Rev. J. J. Myers, who preached a fine sermon to a large congregation.

There were Easter services held in the colored churches of the town.

Eastern Star.

The degree of the Eastern Star was conferred upon sixteen applicants at Masonic Hall, last Saturday afternoon by Mr. M. H. Witt. Those who received the degrees were: Misses Maggie and Eva Derrick, Virginia and Ioline Harman, Lelia and Della Wright, Carrie Harman, Emma Wingard, Henrietta Hegman, Mrs. J. J. Taylor, Mrs. J. E. Rawl, Mrs. Lizzie Bozzer, Mrs. Scottie Harman, Mrs. T. L. Harman, Mrs. W. A. Corley and daughter.

These ladies express themselves as being delighted with the secrets revealed to them and they have a new idea of the importance, the grandeur and the beauty of Masonry and the principles which it teaches. Much of the mystery surrounding the order from which erroneous conceptions have been formed by the uninitiated have been cleared away and in the clear light of knowledge they see the noble objects and the benefits to humanity fostered and taught by the order. They have entered into the work with great enthusiasm and like others of their sex have gone forth in the by-ways and hedges, as it were, of this suffering world, and like the fairest among ten thousands and the one altogether lovely, are extending the hand of charity and assistance to their brethren and sisters and to the world. They have experienced that Masonry is not what those who, through ignorance, suppose it is, but that it is an order doing a noble work in promoting the progress of Christian civilization, elevating society, relieving the sufferings of the afflicted and lighting the burdens of the oppressed.

There were twenty-four brethren present who assisted in the conferring of the Eastern Star.

Mrs. Joanna Erhardt, of Columbia, is visiting relatives and friends in this place. Mrs. Erhardt was born and reared in this place, being the daughter of the late Reuben Harman, and has numerous relatives and friends residing here, who welcome her in the place where her girlhood days were spent.

The lever of the world is industry and the power which moves that lever is money and the lack of which is greatly felt at this office, so we must still remind our subscribers that it takes money to run a printing office and the want of it forces us to request them to pay up their dues.

Major Sanders Swygert, an aged and well known citizen of this county, died at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Jim Lorick, in the Fork, last Friday, at the advanced age of 89 years. He had been suffering some time with La Grippe, which developed into a fatal typhoid and culminated in his death. At one time he was considered the wealthiest man in that section, but in later years he met with business reverses. He was buried at his old home last Saturday.

Anniversary Celebration.

Dixie Lodge, I. O. O. F., No. 52, will celebrate the anniversary of the organization of the Order in this State with appropriate and interesting public exercises in the court house on Thursday evening, April 26th.

Col. J. L. M. Irby has been invited to make a public address on that occasion and the committee having the arrangements for this celebration in hand are confident that he will accept the invitation and be present with his Lexington brethren and public that evening.

Some of the young ladies and men of the town are now practicing some appropriate music to be used on that occasion and a rich musical treat is in store for those who attend, as Lexington contains some voices of rare sweetness and richness. The public generally is most cordially invited to attend this celebration.

Fighting in the Philippines.

Manila, April 17.—Twelve hundred Tagalogs attacked Cava's battalion's headquarters at Cagayan on the 7th. The Americans fought twenty minutes and drove the Tagalogs to the mountains. Fifty were killed. Thirty wounded were taken prisoners. The Americans had fifteen casualties. The enemy's force was a hundred and fifty riflemen and the remainder were bolomen, archers and mounted spearmen. They swooped down, a howling mass at daylight, surprising the sentinels and killing three.
