ALWAYS KEEP ON HAND Pain-Killer There is no kind of pain or ache, internal or external, that Pain-Killer will not relieve. LOOK OUT FOR IMITATIONS AND SUBSTITUTES. THE GENUINE BOTTLE BEARS THE NAME. PERRY DAVIS & SON.

The Gold Pen Awarded.

It will be remembered that sometime ago Prof. S. S. Lindler offered a prize of a gold pen to the scholar attending the public school who made the greatest improvement in vertical handwriting. Unfortunately the schools failed to take an interest in the matter and the competition was confined alone to his own school, which, under the original proposition, was barred. The specimens of handwriting were submitted to Mr. Burgess Smith, of Atlanta, Ga., an expert of wide renown, who awarded the prize to Miss Lola Shealy.

Commencement Exercises.

The closing exercises of the Lexington Classical Institute will begin next Wednesday by the Primary Department. The exercises will consist of songs, drills, tableaux, readings and pantomimes. On Thursday evening the Intermediate Department will give an exhibition consisting of marches, drills, readings and dialogues. Friday evening the graduating class will have their exercises. The following are the members of the class, together with their subjects: Miss Mary Janet Henry. Essay—Twentieth Century Woman. Miss Ioleone Harman. Recitation—My Lady's Leap. Mr. Willie Helm Caughman—The Boers.

The other exercises of the evening will consist in presentation of diplomas, May festival drill and the literary address by President F. C. Woodward, of the South Carolina College. On Sunday, June 10, at 11 a. m., the Baccalaureate sermon will be preached by the Rev. John O. Willon, Editor of the Southern Christian Advocate. The public is cordially invited to attend these commencement exercises in the court house, which will begin at 8 o'clock on each evening. The teachers and pupils of the several departments have been diligently practicing for this occasion and they should be encouraged, which no doubt they will be, with large audiences.

PENCIL AND SCISSORS.

Wayside Notes Gathered Here and There by a Dispatch Man. Monday is salesday. Subscribe for the Dispatch. The barbecue season has opened. J. H. Frick was in town yesterday on business. I. O. Hayes is announced as a candidate for Coroner. Mr. R. I. N. Hicks has been superintending the street brigade. A number of communications have been crowded out this issue. Do not fail to read the advertisement of Teethina in this paper. We are in the swim—old field plums and blackberries are ripening. Supervisor George H. Koon is announced in this issue for reelection. Fresh and reliable garden seed for sale at the Bazaar. The Sheriff will sell on next Monday a piece of property levied upon for taxes. O. B.
