The County Fair is in full blast. Our town is full of "fair" visitors.

There is not now a vacant store house in town.

We are having genuine Columbia "fair" weather.

Tomorrow will be the big day at the County Fair.

Baker's bread, cakes and crackers will be found at the Bazaar.

See advertisement of the First National Bank of Batesburg.

Mrs. Alice Sawyer is teaching a flourishing school at Midway.

Mr. David M. Cartha of Black Creek, is in town taking in the Fair.

Mr. Frank R. W. is in town taking in the Fair and mixing business with pleasure.

Tomorrow the old veterans will have their re-union on the Fair Grounds.

Love runs so fast that the only way to catch it is to start around the other way.

Mr. John J. Taylor is building a handsome residence at Irmo for Mr. John W. Hook.

See the alligator, sea turtle and other natural curiosities at the County and State Fairs.

Preparations are being made to rebuild the Oak Grove Baptist church in Black Creek.

There is a lovely display of chrysanthemum blooms in many flower gardens about town.

It is always a mystery to a thin woman why a fat woman never seems to mind it more.

The rains of yesterday and today have considerably reduced the attendance upon the County Fair.

Secretary Harman, of the Lexington County Fair Association, has our thanks for a complimentary.

There is something wrong with any man over twenty who has never had a woman propose to him.

The wife of Mr. John M. Stuart, died at her home in Columbia last Saturday after a long spell of typhoid fever.

Many of the wells about town are dry, some of which have never been known to fail in supplying water before.

We are indebted to Mrs. Paul P. Clark for a lot of nice sweet potatoes and her kindly remembrance is duly appreciated.

When you want the best family and plantation groceries for the least money call on T. B. Aughtry & Co., Columbia, S. C.

The happiest people in the world are the ones who haven't got any time to go around thinking how miserable they are.

Subscribers indebted to the Dispatch are requested to call and settle when in town, or send by neighbors coming.

Wanted at Once—2,575 dirty ragged dollar bills and we trust that delinquent subscribers will supply this long felt want.

Leesville Notes. To the Editor of the Dispatch: Too hot for October.

The building and property boom is the best just now that it has been in Leesville for years.

The college boys have arrayed themselves in bran new cadet gray uniforms, brass buttons and cadet stripes.

Early last Wednesday morning, (17th) Mrs. H. P. Bouknight breathed her last and her soul returned to the God she loved to serve.

The remains were entered in the Lutheran cemetery, and will be taken to the home of the bride's father, Mr. S. M. Sighler, on Sunday, October 21st.

The sale of the famous Lee or Fort land, on November 6, will be a historic day for Leesville.
